GOVERNMENT FINANCE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION

Distinguished Budget Presentation Award

PRESENTED TO

District of Columbia Government

District of Columbia

For the Fiscal Year Beginning

October 1, 2016

Executive Director

The Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA) presented a Distinguished Budget Presentation Award to District of Columbia Government, District of Columbia, for its annual budget for the fiscal year beginning October 1, 2016. In order to receive this award, a governmental unit must publish a budget document that meets program criteria as a policy document, as an operations guide, as a financial plan, and as a communications device. This award is the seventeenth in the history of the District of Columbia.

This award is valid for a period of one year only. We believe our current budget continues to conform to program requirements, and we are submitting it to GFOA to determine its eligibility for another award.

Transmittal Letters

MURIEL BOWSER
MAYOR

July 19, 2017

The Honorable Donald J. Trump
President of the United States
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

I am pleased to submit to you the District of Columbia Fiscal Year 2018 Budget and Financial Plan, "DC Values in Action: A Roadmap to Inclusive Prsoperity." This proposal is the District of Columbia's twenty-second consecutive balanced budget. The budget before you reflects the ideas and priorities of District residents to ensure that they have a roadmap to inclusive prosperity.

From again investing $100 million in the Housing Production Trust Fund to allocating over $1 billion in full-scale school modernizations, this budget continues to move the District of Columbia forward. This budget also maintains critical investments to build a safer, stronger DC and to ensure our residents have access to job training programs that keep them on pathways to the middle class. Below, I have highlighted a few of the key investments proposed in the FY 2018 Budget and Financial Plan.

High-Quality Education
Rising enrollment in our traditional public and public charter schools, and increasing student achievement, demonstrate that school reform in the District is working. The FY 2018 budget makes the largest investment in public education in the history of the District of Columbia:

- Committing an additional $121 million to increase the per student rate and meet the needs of a growing student body;
- Increasing charter school facilities by 2.2% to $3,193/student for non-residential charter programs and $8,580/student for residential charter schools;
- Improving technology to help parents navigate and engage in public education;

- Increasing University of the District of Columbia (UDC) and the Community College of the District of Columbia funds for the staff and programs by $7.2 million;
- $19.5 million of enhancements in the Office of the State Superintendent of Education budget for early childcare. Three sites in District-owned buildings will be leased to private childcare providers helping us expand the available slots for kids. 300 DC residents will gain certification as educators for infants and toddlers over the next three years. This will enable them to enter the childcare profession immediately and begin on a pathway to advanced credentials - and it will help ensure staffing is available to support the expanded number of childcare seats; and
- Investing $1.3 billion for school modernization over 6 years to ensure that schools in line for modernization under established, defined criteria are budgeted for necessary improvements.

Safer, Stronger DC

The District is committed to ensuring that those in all neighborhoods feel— and are—safe, providing an environment in which residents and businesses can thrive. To that end, the FY 2018 budget includes the following investments:

- $8.9 million in enhancements focused on recruiting and retaining MPD officers, as well as ensuring that as many officers as can be are returned to patrol-related duties. This will be accomplished through: a new public relations campaign; expansion of the police cadet program; expanded housing assistance and student loan forgiveness for officers; and further civilianization of administrative positions;
- $2.3 million for the creation of a Returning Citizens Portal to be managed by the Department of Corrections. This will be a physical office offering services from various agencies to help returning citizens successfully transition back into the community. Vital post-release services include: housing, employment, education, health care, job training and placement, and substance use/mental health;
- $1 million for the establishment of a nurse triage collaborative pilot program between Fire and Emergency Medical Services (FEMS) and the Office of Unified Communications (OUC) with a goal to improve access to medical services for callers into 911 by offering nurses who can speak to non-emergency callers and help them make an appointment at a same-day clinic;
- $20 million for essential upgrades to 311/911 hardware and software, including major upgrades to our secondary facility on McMillan Drive NW;
- $39.7 million for the purchase of new MPD fleet vehicles; and
- $83.7 million for the purchase of new FEMS fleet vehicles, and $45 million for the construction of a new fleet maintenance facility.

Affordable Housing

My Administration is committed to producing, preserving and protecting affordable housing in the District of Columbia. This is demonstrated in this budget through the commitment of another $100 million contribution to the Housing Production Trust Fund. This investment will continue our shared goal to support grants and loans, thus yielding more affordable housing for DC families.

Additionally, this budget provides funds for affordable housing in these projects:

- $16 million for the redevelopment of Walter Reed;
- $103 million for the redevelopment of St. Elizabeths; and
- $85 million for the New Communities Initiative.

Pathways to the Middle Class

Maintaining a strong, diverse, and resilient District of Columbia requires that every resident has a fair shot, and a pathway to the middle class. We accomplish this by supporting our most vulnerable families and residents; providing job training that leads to real employment opportunities; and by nurturing our small businesses to ensure their growth and success. Some ways the FY 2018 Budget provides Pathways to the Middle Class are:

- Continuing the District's investment in our youth through the Mayor Marion Barry Summer Youth Employment Program by budgeting almost $20 million;
- Serving as a regional leader by again fully funding the District's share of the WMATA budget, adding a new express bus line on 14th Street NW in Wards 1 and 4, and expanding capacity of existing bus service in Wards 7 and 8;
- Ensuring that the Department of Small and Local Business Development's Certified Business Enterprise system continues to help our local businesses grow and obtain government contracts, and work on government funded projects by fully funding the program with $0.2 million;
- Funding $16.8 million towards the Washington D.C. Infrastructure Academy at Saint Elizabeths East Campus. This new facility will focus on occupational skills training and work-based learning initiatives related to the infrastructure industry, including utility, energy efficiency, transportation, and logistics sectors. At the Academy, industry partners, training providers such as UDC, labor unions and trade associations, will offer a diverse skills training allowing District residents the tools to begin and sustain careers in the infrastructure industry; and
- Advancing DDOT's Vision Zero goals through $2.8 million for (20) new Traffic Control Operators along with (26) new School Crossing Guards.

Health and Human Services

Investing in the health and well-being of District residents remains a priority of my Administration. Ensuring residents are able to provide for their families, and connecting these families with valuable care and supportive programs when they need it most, ensures they have a fair shot at success in the future. The FY 2018 budget includes:

- Funding the next phase of the Homeward DC plan with $15.2 million;
- Funding $10.2 million for a new Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) policy that will help the District's neediest families;

- Supplementing the Department of Health's budget with $0.9 million to reduce the number of active opioid users in the District, reduce overdoses and overdose fatalities, and improve health and economic outcomes for District residents with a history of substance use;
- Funding the Alternatives to Court Experience (ACE) and Parent and Adolescent Support Services (PASS) programs with $3.3 million; and
- Providing $1 million for the Joyful Foods initiative.

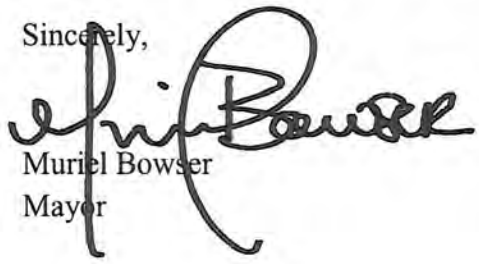
Government Operations

Building a government that works for the residents of the District Columbia streamlines processes and improves efficiency. The FY 2018 budget supports these improvements by:

- Ensuring that the District's share of WMATA's operating and capital subsidies is fully funded;
- Right-sizing the District's snow budget with a $3.8 million budget increase; and
- Expanding the Department of Public Works' grounds maintenance and leaf collection efforts by $1.5 million.

In a city as prosperous as ours, we can and should make all of these critical investments to ensure that residents in all 8 wards can benefit from our inclusive prosperity.

Sincerely,



Muriel Bowser
Mayor

Re: Transmittal of D.C. Act for Congressional Review

Dear Mr. Speaker:

D.C. Act 22-99, Fiscal Year 2018 Local Budget Act of 2017, is transmitted in accordance with section 602(c)(1) of the District of Columbia Self-Government and Governmental Reorganization Act, P.L. 93-198, as amended. The committee report for the act is also enclosed. The authority for this transmittal rests with the Local Budget Autonomy Amendment Act of 2012 (D.C. Law 19-321), upheld in Council of the District of Columbia, et al. v. Jeffrey S. DeWitt (Case No. 2014 CA 2371 B, DC Superior Court; March 18, 2016).

Our enactment maintains critical investments that make our communities safer and stronger and the District an attractive location for residents, businesses, and visitors. Our record of sound financial management is strong and reflects in the continued revenue growth supporting the attached budget. In many respects our financial health is unparalled among jurisdictions across the United States.

To begin the count of the 30-day review by Congress, please acknowledge your receipt of these documents on the copy attached.

Sincerely,

Phil Mendelson

How to Read the FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan

How to Read the FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan

The District of Columbia's FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan is a communication tool that presents and explains policy priorities, agency operations, including programmatic/ organizational structures, and performance measures in the context of the Financial Plan, which shows the District's sources of revenue and planned expenditures. The Budget and Financial Plan includes forecasts of economic and financial conditions, current and planned long-term debt financing, policy decisions, and other important financial information for the District's government, all of which are essential elements for accurate financial reporting and sound management of public resources.

This chapter, How to Read the Budget and Financial Plan, is a guide for understanding the sections of this budget volume that define the budget priorities for the District. These sections are consistent with the National Advisory Council on State and Local Budgeting's recommended budget practices, which call for a presentation of information to provide readers with a guide to government programs and organizational structure. Additionally, these sections are consistent with the standards of the Government Finance Officers Association for the Distinguished Budget Presentation Award.

The FY 2018 Budget and Financial Plan is presented in six volumes summarized as follows:

Executive Summary (Volume 1) – provides a high-level summary of the budget and financial information, including sections describing new initiatives within the District's proposed budget, the transmittal letters from the Mayor and the Chairman of the Council of the District of Columbia, the District's five-year financial plan, detailed information on the District's projected revenues and expenditures, and summary information about the Capital Improvements Plan. In addition, this volume includes information about the District's budgetary and financial management policies, a glossary of budget terms, budget summary tables by agency and fund type, and the Budget Act legislation that serves as the basis for the District's federal appropriations act.

Agency Budget Chapters (Volumes 2, 3, and 4) – describe, by appropriation title, the operating budgets for each of the District's agencies. Appropriation titles categorize the general areas of services provided by the District on behalf of its citizens and are listed in the table of contents. Examples are Economic Development and Regulation, Public Safety and Justice, and Human Support Services.

Capital Improvements Plan (Including Highway Trust Fund) (Volume 5) – describes the District's proposed six-year Capital Improvements Plan for all of the District's agencies. The Highway Trust Fund describes the District's proposed FY 2018 to FY 2023 planned transportation projects including federal highway grants.

Operating Appendices (Volume 6) – includes detailed supporting tables displaying the proposed expenditures and full-time equivalents in the operating budgets that are described in Volumes 2, 3, and 4. Please note: This volume is available exclusively on the Government of the District of Columbia website at http://cfo.dc.gov/.

Detailed information on the chapter contents of each volume include:

Volume 1: Executive Summary

Includes the following sections:

Introduction: FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan

This chapter is a narrative and graphic summary of the proposed budget and financial plan. It describes the overall proposed budget, including the sources and uses of public funds, and compares the prior year's approved budget to the current one. The chapter also explains the budget development process and budget formulation calendar for FY 2018.

Financial Plan

The Financial Plan summarizes planned revenues and expenditures from FY 2016 through FY 2021. This chapter includes financing sources, uses, and the assumptions used to derive the District's short-term and long-term economic outlook.

Revenue

This chapter shows current revenue projections for each revenue type as certified by the Office of the Chief Financial Officer. It also details the District's revenue sources, provides an overview of the District's and regional economy and economic trends, and describes the revenue outlook for FY 2018 through FY 2021.

Operating Expenditures

This chapter describes the District's recent Local funds expenditures. It includes analysis of expenditures between FY 2013 and FY 2016, both by agency and by expense category, e.g., personnel, supplies, and fixed costs.

Capital Improvements Plan (CIP)

This chapter describes the overall CIP, including the sources and uses of Capital funds.

Appendices

The last section of the Executive Summary includes explanations of items specific to the District's budget:

- The D.C. Comprehensive Financial Management Policy provides a framework for fiscal decision-making by the District to ensure that financial resources are available to meet the present and future needs of District citizens;
- The Basis of Budgeting and Accounting section describes the basis of budgeting and accounting, enabling the readers to understand the presentation methods of the District's finances;

- The Fund Structure and relationship to the Budget Structure section relates the District's fund structure to its budget presentation;
- The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) Development section describes how the CSFL was developed for the Local funds budget;
- The Agency Performance Plans section describes how the Office of the City Administrator evaluates government agencies, services, and operations; contains details on major plan revisions or changes in the assessment process; and directs readers to the agency plans, including performance measures, on the District's website;
- The Summary Tables detail the District's proposed operating budget by agency and fund type for both budgeted dollars and positions;
- The Glossary of Budget Terms section describes unique budgeting, accounting, and District terms that may not be known by the general reader;
- The Local Budget Act is the legislation that the District uses to enact the District's budget via local law, and is transmitted to Congress in accordance with procedures for all District legislation; and
- The Federal Portion Budget Request Act is the legislation that conveys the District's request for federal payments, to be enacted into law by the United States Congress and the President through the federal appropriations process.

Volumes 2, 3, and 4: Agency Budget Chapters - Part I, II, and III

These volumes include agency chapters that describe available resources, their uses, and the achieved and anticipated outcomes as a result of these expenditures. Chapters in these volumes are grouped by appropriation title and each chapter contains the following sections, as applicable:

Header Information:
- Agency name and budget code;
- Website address and telephone; and
- FY 2018 proposed operating budget table.

Introduction:
- Agency Mission; and
- Summary of Services.

Financial and Program Information:
- Proposed Funding and Full-Time Equivalents by Source table;
- Proposed Expenditure by Comptroller Source Group table;
- Division/Program descriptions;
- Proposed Expenditure by Division/Program table;
- FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes; and
- FY 2017 Approved Budget to FY 2018 Proposed Budget reconciliation table.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes section within each agency chapter provides a comprehensive explanation of the FY 2017 Approved Budget to FY 2018 Proposed Budget, by Revenue Type table that appears in nearly every chapter. Please see the Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) Development appendix in this volume for more information about the CSFL methodology, which is only applied to agencies with Local funds. This section includes major changes within the agency budget by program, fund, and full-time equivalents, from the initial request through the policy decisions made by the Mayor. The FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes section uses the following terms to describe budgetary or programmatic changes:

Actions with an impact on services:

- Enhance: More funding to improve the quality or quantity of an existing service (e.g., Funding to support the new DMV service center in Georgetown).
- Create: New funding for new programs that previously didn't exist (e.g., Establish Permanent Supportive Housing program to transition vulnerable individuals from homeless to stable housing).
- Reduce: Reduction, but not elimination of an existing service (e.g. Close a service center and provide services at other locations; Realign staffing in the Fleet Management division).
- Eliminate: Total elimination of an existing service, with no anticipation of the service being provided by another entity (e.g. Eliminate unfunded vacant FTEs for staffing realignment).

Actions with no service impact:

- Increase: Additional funds necessary to continue service at current levels (e.g., Fund recurring operating cost of Automated Traffic Enforcement).
- Decrease: Reduction in cost without a service impact (e.g., Align energy budget with revised DGS estimate).
- Transfer-In: Shift of an existing program, operation, or personnel from another District agency (e.g., Transfer the Central Cell Block Security activity from MPD to DOC).
- Transfer-Out: Shift of an existing program, operation, or personnel to another District agency (e.g., Transfer APRA division from DOH to establish DBH).
- Shift: Shift an existing program or operation from one Fund type to another (e.g., Shift from Special Purpose Revenue to Local funds to support telecommunications for the D.C. Lottery).
- Technical Adjustment: An increase or decrease to the budget that is required because of a legislative mandate or to correct an error or omission.
- No Change: The agency has no changes in funding and/or budget structures from the FY 2017 approved budget to the FY 2018 proposed budget.

An example of an agency narrative is at the end of this chapter to help the reader navigate the Agency Budget Chapter volume. The example shows an agency with a performance plan. Call-out boxes highlight the features discussed above.

Agency Performance Plans

The Office of the City Administrator (OCA) is building a robust performance management program across the District. This process includes making several updates to the format and submission process for annual agency performance plans.

Under the new process, agencies had the opportunity to update major components of their performance plan for FY 2018 including: objectives, key performance indicators and workload measures. Ultimately, the revised performance plans will be able to communicate more effectively the important work each agency plans to do over the coming year and how each agency will work to improve its performance. First drafts of the high level components of each agency's performance plan (objectives, key performance indicators, and operations) are published with the budget volumes and other budget materials at www.cfo.dc.gov.

Volume 5: Capital Improvements Plan (Including Highway Trust Fund)

This volume covers the District's FY 2018 - FY 2023 Capital Improvements Plan (CIP) and the Highway Trust Fund. The capital volume includes:

- An Introduction chapter that describes the overall CIP, including the sources and uses of capital funds, the District's policies and procedures for its capital budget and debt, and the FY 2018 planning process;
- Project Description Forms that comprise the major portion of the capital volume. The project description forms provide details on capital projects funded by general obligation bonds, Pay-As-You-Go (Paygo) capital, federal grants, and the Local Street Maintenance Fund. Each page shows one project's planned allotments for FY 2018 through FY 2023, including a description, its annual operating impact, milestone data, and its location; and
- Appendices that provide supporting tables and a glossary about the District's capital budget, including:
  - The FY 2018 Appropriated Budget Authority Request table that summarizes proposed new projects and changes (increase or decrease) for ongoing projects by agency, project, and funding source;
  - The FY 2018 - FY 2023 Planned Expenditures from New Allotments table that summarizes the new allotments planned for FY 2018 - FY 2023 expenditures by agency and project;
  - The FY 2018 - FY 2023 Planned Funding table that summarizes the FY 2018 and six-year funding sources for all new allotments by agency, project, and funding source;
  - The Capital Budget Authority and Allotment Balances table that summarizes the lifetime budget authority and allotment, life-to-date expenditures, total commitments, and balance of budget authority and allotment for all ongoing capital projects by agency, project, and the amount of the authority request;
  - The Capital Project Cost Estimate Variances table displays changes of 5 percent or greater to project costs compared to the FY 2017 approved budget;
  - FY 2017 year-to-date budget actions; and
  - Rescissions, Redirections, and Reprogrammings that occurred between June 15, 2016 (the cut-off date for last year's budget book) and September 30, 2016 (the end of FY 2016).

Highway Trust Fund

This appendix covers the District's FY 2018 through FY 2023 proposed Highway Trust Fund expenditures, including:

- An Introduction chapter, which describes the Highway Trust Fund program, including the sources and uses of the funds, the District's policies and procedures for the trust fund, and the FY 2018 planning process;
- The Project Description Forms, which show planned allotments, for FY 2018 through FY 2023 and descriptions for Highway Trust Fund master projects;
- Appendices that provide supporting tables for the District's Highway Trust Fund program; and
- An overview of the District of Columbia's Water and Sewer Authority's FY 2017 - FY 2026 Capital Improvements Plan.

Volume 6: Operating Appendices

This volume provides supporting tables to each agency's proposed operating budget. The tables generally include FY 2016 actual expenditures, the FY 2017 approved budget, the FY 2018 proposed budget, and the change from FY 2017 to FY 2018 (unless noted).

The following tables are provided:

Schedule 30-PBB - dollars summarized by program, activity, and governmental fund (governmental fund breakout is for FY 2017 only and includes general fund detail);

Schedule 40-PBB - dollars summarized by program, comptroller source group, and governmental fund;

Schedule 40G-PBB - dollars summarized by program, comptroller source group, and appropriated fund within the General Fund;

Schedule 41 - dollars and FTEs summarized by comptroller source group and governmental fund;

Schedule 41G - dollars and FTEs summarized by comptroller source group and appropriated fund within the General Fund; and

Schedule 80 - dollars and FTEs summarized by appropriated fund, with specific revenue source (for the FY 2018 Proposed Budget only).

The FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes section provides a comprehensive explanation of Table 5; it includes major internal changes within the budget including CSFL changes, changes to the initial adjusted budget, and policy initiatives.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department's (FEMS) proposed FY 2018 gross budget i $254,177,502, which represents a less than 1.0 percent decrease from its FY 2017 approved gross budge of $254,287,508. The budget is comprised of $249,288,047 in Local funds, $3,053,770 in Federal Gran funds, and $1,835,684 in Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost o operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from th FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agenc to continue its current programs and operations into adjustments to the FY 2017 Local fu budget are des Please see the CSFL Development section within Volu regarding the methodology used and components that co

FEMS' FY 2018 CSFL budget is $234,906,923, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budge

CSFL assumptions are presented separately within the budget. For more detail on the CSFL, please see the appendix in this volume.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for FEMS included adjustment entries that are not described in detail o table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $202,254 in personal services to account for Fring Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $326,881 in nonpersona services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for FEMS includes a reduction of $15,285,864 to account for the removal of one-time funding appropriated in FY 2017 as follows: $12,000,000 for a third-party Emergency Medical Services provider contract for ambulance services; $1,952,712 to purchase Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), which includes 1,285 sets of gear; $1,009,152 to address core deficiencies such as assistance with the dispatching of units and the transporting of patients, support for preventive maintenance costs for a training pilot program for UDC, and the purchase of automated external defibrillators (AEDs) for schools; and $324,000 to improve WI-FI in fire stations and for signal boosters in locations where signals are weak. Additionally, an increase of $227,796 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor reflects estimates for Fleet services.

Agency Budget Submission

For FY 2018, the Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department (FEMS) has implemented a performance-based budgeting strategy to better reflect the agency's programmatic activities. As part of this initiative, FEMS changed 6 program names as follows: "Fire Prevention and Education" changed to "Chief of Fire and Emergency Medical Services"; "Field Operations" changed to "Operations Bureau"; "Employee Preparedness" changed to "Emergency Medical Services Operations Bureau"; "Operations Support" changed to "Emergency Medical Services Medical Director"; "Policy and Planning" changed to "Support Services Bureau"; and "State Safety [illegible]es Bureau." Additionally, the agency realigned its personne[illegible]l operational needs.

This section describes the changes made to an agency during the overall budget formulation process by fund and by program (or division).

Increase: In Local funds, FEMS' proposed bu[illegible] nonpersonal services, which includes an increase of $2,[illegible]decreases of $1,608,342 in Other Services and Charges and $207,591 in Equipment costs. An increase of $45,938 in Fixed Costs supports projected increases in the telecommunications estimates across multiple programs. Additionally, the proposed budget reflects an increase of 2.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) positions to support the agency's personnel needs.

In Federal Grant funds, the proposed budget reflects a net increase of $31,626 in the Operations Bureau program, which is funded by the Staffing for Adequate Fire and Emergency Response (SAFER) grant. The increase supports projected salary and Fringe Benefits costs.

Special Purpose Revenue (SPR) funds increased by $983,000, to support the Affordable Emergency Transportation and Pre-Hospital Medical Services Amendment Act of 2017, Bill 22-183; and $324,684 to support 1.0 additional FTE, Fringe Benefits, and Overtime pay in the Operations Bureau.

Decrease: In Local funds, to align budget with the agency's spending priorities and goals across multiple programs, a proposed reduction of $185,071 was made to the contractual services costs related to a contract for information technology services. Additionally, a net decrease of $4,870,908 was made to support adjustments made to Fringe Benefits and Overtime across multiple programs.

In SPR funds, the proposed budget decreased by $497,000 in nonpersonal services for adjustments made to supplies, Other Services and Charges, and Equipment across multiple programs as a result of decline in revenue estimates and to offset the increase in personal services.

In Intra-District funds, the proposed budget reflects a decrease of $400,000 in Contractual Services in the Emergency Medical Services Operations Bureau. The contract supports Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) instruction for the Department of Employment Services' employees and clients.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: In Local funds, the Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department (FEMS) proposes increases of: $11,017,000 (one-time funding) to support the contract with American Medical Response (AMR) for its third-party ambulance initiative to improve unit availability, reduce FEMS response times, improve the condition of the fleet, and allow providers more training hours; $4,915,439 to hire an additional 48.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTEs) dual-role firefighters to achieve the maximum staffing level, which will consequently enable the agency to avoid covering positions that are vacant due to leave and

Agency Performance Plan

Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Embrace a supportive work environment focused on creating a safe, competent, and professional workforce team.
2. Ensure that our facilities, vehicles, equipment, a…porting service delivery requirements.

The Agency Performance Plans describes specific agency Strategic Objectives, Activities and key performance indicators.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

Introduction: FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan

The District of Columbia government is unique and extremely complex. As one entity, the District government provides services typically delivered elsewhere by states, counties, cities, and special taxing districts.

The challenge for the District is to navigate this jurisdictional complexity while facing increasing service needs. Totaling $13.9 billion, the gross budget in the FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan is $512 million, or 3.8 percent, more than the FY 2017 Approved Budget of $13.4 billion, including Enterprise Fund agencies but excluding intra-District funding. The gross budget excluding Enterprise Fund agencies is $12.1 billion. Figure 1-1 shows the major source of gross funds for FY 2018. Figure 1-2 does the same for Local funds revenue.

The proposed budget funds services as diverse as street cleaning, affordable multi-family housing development, voter registration, business inspection, fire-fighting, police patrol, running a lottery, managing a vast multimodal transit system, providing health services and improving access to them, educating children and adults, promoting economic development, encouraging people to move into the District, and protecting at-risk youth and adults.

The District's proposed budget is similar to any other budget in that it identifies resources (revenues) and uses (expenditures) to accomplish the specific purposes developed by citywide strategic planning and departmental business planning. In addition to these basic elements, the proposed budget includes a financial forecast for policy priorities and detailed cost information for agency programs and activities.

District of Columbia Fiscal Year 2018 Budget Policy and Priorities Focus

The Fiscal Year 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan marks the District of Columbia's 22nd consecutive balanced budget – one that makes investments in affordable housing, homeless services, public education, and infrastructure and preserves the District's 12 percent debt cap. Investments in these priority areas will help ensure the District remains a great place to live, work, and play.

Continuing Strategic Path to End Homelessness and Strengthen the Social Safety Net

The Interagency Council on Homelessness (ICH) Homeward DC five-year strategic plan provides supports across the homeless services continuum of care to get individuals and families off the street and connected to appropriate resources. The District is unified in its goal of making homelessness rare, brief, and nonrecurring. To that end, the FY 2018 proposed budget fully funds the Homeless Shelter Replacement Act of 2016, the legislative vehicle for replacing the dilapidated DC General Family Shelter with seven smaller facilities to be located across the District. The proposed budget includes an increase of $8.7 million to fund Permanent Supportive Housing for individuals and families, $5.4 million for Targeted Affordable Housing for individuals and families, and $802,000 for rapid re-housing for families. The FY 2018 proposed budget also invests $3.9 million in the ICH Youth Plan and $500,000 in rapid housing for young adults aging out of foster care.

The Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program provides cash assistance, work readiness skill building, job search supports, and child care to extremely low-income households with children. It serves as a lifeline for District families that are struggling to make ends meet. The FY 2018 proposed budget increases funding for this program by $10.3 million to create a new, two-generational policy that both protects child well-being and offers the tools, resources, and encouragement needed for parents to secure and maintain employment.

Continued Investment in Public Education and Youth

Public education remains a top priority for the District in FY 2018. The proposed budget supports additional educational investments, which are reflected in $109 million of increased funding for the District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) and the District of Columbia Public Charter Schools (DCPCS) to cover projected increases in student enrollment and a 3-percent base adjustment to the Uniform Per Student Funding Formula. It will also continue investments to address at-risk students by ensuring that at-risk dollars follow the students who need them. The proposed budget also includes a critical recurring investment of $5.7 million in the University of the District of Columbia to address school staff and programming needs, as well as a $1.5 million outlay to provide matching funds for University fundraising efforts.

In order to advance the early childhood and education services the District currently provides, the proposed budget includes a new $11 million enhancement to the Office of the State Superintendent of Education for a new pool of child care grants. These grants will help increase the number of private providers and slots citywide as well as improve existing quality of services. The budget also includes $4.5 million to increase the child care subsidy for low income families.

The proposed budget continues funding for the Community Schools program and fully funds the Books from Birth program, which will provide a book per month to every District child from birth until his or her fifth birthday. Further, the proposed budget increases funding by $0.2 million to allow D.C. Public Libraries to open one neighborhood library in each ward on five holidays, provides $0.3 million to the Department of Parks and Recreation for FitDC, and adds $0.3 million to the Office of the State Superintendent of Education to establish a My Child Care DC portal.

Additional Investments in Affordable Housing

The FY 2018 proposed budget continues to make significant investments in affordable housing. This is reflected in $99 million of funding for the Housing Production Trust Fund. This appropriation will increase the number of grants and loans that will be used to preserve and build housing in the District. This commitment is also reflected in the $5 million that was added to the Local Rent Supplement program, which includes $2.6 million for tenant-based vouchers and $2.4 million for project and sponsor-based vouchers.

Investment in Infrastructure

The Capital Improvements Plan (CIP) makes the following investments in the District's infrastructure:

Public Schools Modernization and University Facilities. The District is currently undertaking a comprehensive schools modernization initiative that began in 2008. So far, over $3.3 billion has been invested. This CIP commits an additional investment of $1.3 billion over the next six years for modernization of elementary, middle, and high school facilities. In addition, the University of the District of Columbia is making campus improvements that will enhance the collegiate experience for its students, faculty, staff, and guests. The CIP provides $50.5 million for University improvements.

Metrorail, Metrobus, and Integrated Premium Transit System. The continued growth and vitality of the city and region greatly relies on a safe, efficient, and reliable Metro system to transport residents and visitors alike.

The CIP includes $623 million for safety improvements, improving the effectiveness of the current rail and bus networks, increasing system capacity, and rebuilding the Metro system. The CIP also provides $229 million for the Circulator and streetcars, funding the H Street – Benning Metro Station streetcar segment, and replacement of the H Street Bridge.

South Capitol Street. The CIP includes $516.8 million for replacement of the Frederick Douglass Bridge and improvements to the South Capitol Street corridor. South Capitol Street will be transformed into an urban boulevard that will support economic development on both sides of the Anacostia River.

21st Century Public Libraries. Continuing efforts to fully modernize the Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Central Library, the CIP includes $140 million that will be used to renovate and reconfigure this historic landmark, resulting in a world-class facility offering residents and visitors a vibrant center of activity for reading, learning, and community discussion. In addition, libraries in District neighborhoods will receive $74 million to renovate and modernize existing facilities, update I.T. systems including public access computers, and construct new state-of-the-art facilities.

East End Center. The District places a high priority on providing public health services to all District residents. Since taking control of the operations of the Not-for-Profit Hospital Corporation, commonly referred to as United Medical Center (UMC), in 2010, the District has invested greatly in the District's only acute care hospital on the city's East End. The CIP includes $300 million to replace the UMC with a new hospital on the grounds of the Saint Elizabeths campus.

Transitional Housing. The CIP provides $50 million for the Department of Human Services to acquire property and construct facilities that will provide temporary shelter for families experiencing homelessness.

Details on Key Budget Areas:

The proposed budget also includes a number of changes to align the budget with the District's priorities, improve services and accountability, and meet agency strategic business goals. They include the following:

- D.C. Office on Aging – Increased funding by more than $5 million from FY 2017 to FY 2018, which reflects an investment in transportation services for all six wellness centers, additional senior programming at recreation centers including fitness and art classes, and $3 million in local funding for Safe at Home, which provides preventative adaptations so seniors can live safely in their homes.
- DHS' Youth Diversion Programs [Alternatives to the Court Experience Diversion Program (ACE) and the Parent and Adolescent Support Services Program (PASS)] – ACE helps youth avoid formal arrest and potential prosecution for misdemeanor crimes by diverting them to various services such as community-based intervention, family therapy, and anger management. PASS operates as a voluntary prevention/intervention program and offers case management or in-home counseling services to youth and their families. The FY 2018 proposed budget provides enhancements of $5 million for ACE and $1.2 million for PASS.
- Department of Behavioral Health – The FY 2018 proposed budget includes $2.9 million to fund a reimbursement rate increase for Mental Health Rehabilitation Services (MHRS) and Adult Substance Abuse Rehabilitative Services (ASARS) providers. The District has not increased the MHRS reimbursement rate since 2013, while the last ASARS reimbursement rate increase occurred in 2016.
- D.C. Housing Authority – The Housing Authority Subsidy in the FY 2018 proposed budget provides additional support for short-term housing needs for low-income families and individuals. The Local Rent Supplemental Program (LRSP) budget was increased by $11 million to provide additional LRSP tenant-based vouchers to provide housing assistance to homeless families and individuals in accordance with the Homeward DC strategic plan.
- Department of Housing and Community Development – In accordance with the Housing Preservation

Strikeforce Report, $10 million has been included in DHCD's budget to fund new housing preservation initiatives. This initiative will seed a fund that will leverage private capital to support $40 million of investment that will advance the District's affordable housing goals.

- Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs – In the FY 2018 proposed budget, the agency received $1.2 million to conduct additional abatement activities to improve and properly secure vacant and blighted properties throughout the District. Additionally, the agency received $300,000 to hire three new housing inspectors to further ensure housing renovations and construction are properly permitted and in compliance with DC code. Lastly, the agency has received $1.0 million to improve its business processes and application development – primarily in housing inspections and permitting.
- Department of Small and Local Business Development – The proposed capital budget includes $900,000 to fully fund the second phase development of a new enterprise system that will replace the current Certified Business Enterprise online system. The new enterprise system is slated to reduce certification times, improve business processes and compliance by eliminating data and maintenance effort redundancies, and connect to "Clean Hands" and other platforms.
- Metropolitan Police Department – The proposed budget includes $11.7 million to support MPD recruitment, retention, and civilianization efforts. This includes $1.8 million to double the number of Police Cadets from 35 to 70 per year, $1.2 million for six months of housing support for new recruits, $2.6 million to civilianize 25 positions within MPD, $2.9 million to the Department of Forensic Sciences to complete the Crime Scene Sciences civilianization effort that is returning MPD officers to other activities, $1.5 million to MPD officers for student loan forgiveness, $1 million to offer a 100 percent increase for MPD officers in the down payment assistance grant available through the Employer Assisted Housing Program, and $750,000 to launch a public relations recruiting campaign.
- Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department – The proposed budget includes $11.0 million to FEMS to continue the third-party ambulance initiative, $4.9 million to FEMS to hire 48 dual-role firefighter/EMTs, and $1.0 million to FEMS for a new Nurse Triage initiative.
- Department of Corrections – The proposed budget includes $5.0 million to hire 78 correctional officers and $2.3 million to launch a Returning Citizens Portal, which will provide people released from the jail a physical location with immediate one-stop access to signing up for critical city services, including employment, housing, health, and mental health support.
- DC Public Schools – For FY 2018, in the District's Uniform Per Student Funding Formula (UPSFF), which forms the basis for funding the public school system, the foundation level per student will be increased to $9,972, an increase of 3.0 percent. Appropriations for the UPSFF are funded with 100 percent Local dollars. Please refer to the agency budget chapters for the District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) and the District of Columbia Public Charter Schools (DCPCS) to review the current allocation for the UPSFF. DCPS student enrollment is projected to increase to 50,243 students.
- DC Public Charter Schools – The District of Columbia Public Charter Schools (DCPCS) operates as the central agency, independent of the District's school system, which disburses the UPSFF from District of Columbia Local funds to charter schools, each of which operates as an autonomous school district. Both the Residential and Non-Residential Facilities Allotments will increase in FY 2018: Residential to $8,580 per student and Non-Residential to $3,193 per student. DCPCS student enrollment is projected to increase to 44,361 students.
- Department of Public Works (DPW) – The FY 2018 proposed budget includes an increase of $3.8 million to right-size the District's snow budget, $848,060 for expanded grounds maintenance work, and $693,880 for expanded leaf collection work.
- District Department of Transportation (DDOT) – The FY 2018 proposed Local funds budget includes $2.9 million for increased street safety by hiring an additional 20 Traffic Control Officers (TCOs) and 26 School Crossing Guards (SCGs) in support of the "Vision Zero" program's goal to eliminate traffic-related deaths by 2024. DDOT's FY 2018 proposed budget also includes $1,988,663 to implement an adult learners' transportation subsidy, which will pay for the cost of providing free rides on public transportation to and from class for adult learners.

- Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA) – In FY 2018, the District continues to pay about 37.5 percent of the regional costs for this bus and rail transportation system. WMATA's proposed budget includes funding to support the annual subsidy payment (a portion of which is paid by each jurisdiction), the DC Circulator bus, reduced fares at select stations, and the Kids-Ride-Free initiative. The District's annual operating subsidy payment grows by $63 million in FY 2018, to a total of $430 million. This includes $2 million to fund a new 59 limited express bus on 14th Street NW and expansion of the W4 bus service in Wards 7 and 8. The capital budget provides WMATA with an additional subsidy of $127 million in FY 2018.

Where the Money Comes From

Money for providing District services comes from a variety of sources. The District's General Fund revenue consists of Local tax and nontax revenue, Dedicated Taxes, and Special Purpose Revenue funds. Federal Grants, Federal Medicaid, and Federal Payments constitute the District's federal resources. Private resources and Enterprise and Other funds make up the balance of the District's gross funds (Figure 1-1).

Local tax revenue accounts for most of the money supporting services and includes such common sources as income, property, and sales taxes (Figure 1-2). Detailed revenue information, including FY 2018 to FY 2021 revenue estimates, projection assumptions, and the estimated revenue impact of proposed policy changes are provided in the Revenue chapter of this budget volume.

How the Money is Allocated

To facilitate policy decisions concerning expenditures and to provide summary information for reporting expenditures, the District's budget is developed, presented, and executed along several dimensions. These include fund types, appropriation titles, agencies, programs, and expense categories. As with revenues, expenditures can be grouped by the source of funds. The total of these funds is referred to as "gross funds." Totaling $13.9 billion, the expenditure budget (including Enterprise and Other funds but excluding Intra-District funds) in the FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan is $512 million, or 3.8 percent, more than the FY 2017 approved budget of $13.4 billion, as shown in Table 1-1.

For purposes of appropriating the District's proposed budget, agency budgets are grouped by appropriation title or function, such as public safety and justice or public education. Within the appropriation titles are the agencies that operate the programs, activities, and services provided to District citizens and businesses. For example, the Public Works appropriation title includes the Department of Public Works, the District Department of Transportation, and the Department of Motor Vehicles. Table 1-1 shows the FY 2018 proposed gross funds expenditure budget by appropriation title and the change from FY 2017. Figure 1-3 shows the percentage distribution of FY 2018 gross funds expenditure budget by appropriation title. The largest appropriation titles, Public Education System and Human Support Services, represent 52.1 percent of the District's proposed budget – meaning more than one-half of every dollar generated is directed to these two areas.

As shown in Table 1-2a, the proposed Local funds budget by appropriation title (excluding Dedicated Taxes and Enterprise and Other funds) for FY 2018 is $7.6 billion, which is $338 million, or 4.6 percent, more than the FY 2017 approved budget of $7.3 billion. As shown in Table 1-2b, the proposed Dedicated Tax budget by appropriation title for FY 2018 is $351 million, which is $45.5 million, or 14.9 percent, more than the FY 2017 approved budget of $306 million. The FY 2018 proposed Local funds budget includes approximately 100 agencies receiving Local funds in seven appropriation titles.

To provide context as to the types of expenses for a particular program, information is presented by expense category. These same categories are used by all District agencies, and all agency chapters detail specific agency costs by expense category. Tables 1-3a and 1-3b break out the proposed FY 2018 Local funds and Dedicated Tax budgets, respectively, by expense category.

A large expense category is personal services, totaling $2.7 billion and representing 35.7 percent of the FY 2018 proposed Local funds budget, excluding Dedicated Taxes. This funding will support 29,099 Local full-time equivalent (FTE) positions, an increase of 875 FTEs, or 3.1 percent, over FY 2017 (see Table 1-4). Including all fringe benefits, but excluding extra compensation such as overtime and shift differential, the average Local FTE for FY 2018 will cost $89,233. The District's FY 2018 gross funds proposed budget, including Intra-District funds, supports 36,175 FTEs, an increase of 976 FTEs, or 2.8 percent, over FY 2017. Major gross funds FTE changes by agency and appropriation title are detailed in Table 1-5.

Organization of the FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan

The FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan is composed of the following volumes:

- Volume 1 – Executive Summary;
- Volumes 2, 3, and 4 – Agency Budget Chapters – provides summary information of each District agency's proposed budget;
- Volume 5 – FY 2018 – FY 2023 Capital Improvements Plan (Including Highway Trust Fund); and
- Volume 6 – Operating Appendices – provides detailed information about operating funds by agency (available on-line only).

Additional details about the organization of the District's FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan may be found in the How to Read the Budget and Financial Plan chapter.

The FY 2018 Budget Calendar

The FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan is the culmination of a year-long process. Some of the critical steps in the budget formulation process and their general schedule are described in Table 1-6.

The District's Budget Process: A Brief Overview

The District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (Public Law 93-198; D.C. Official Code § 1-201.01 et seq.), as amended by the Local Budget Autonomy Amendment Act of 2012, effective July 25, 2013 (D.C. Law 19-321; codified in scattered sections of chapter 2 of Title I of the D.C. Official Code), prescribes the procedure for the approval of the annual budget for the District of Columbia government. Under Section 424(d)(5)(A) (D.C. Official Code § 1-204.24d(5)(A)), the Chief Financial Officer prepares and submits to the Mayor and the Council annual estimates of all revenues of the District of Columbia (without regard to the source of such revenues), including proposed revenues. These revenue estimates are binding on the Mayor and the Council for purposes of the annual budget to be submitted to Congress, except that the Mayor and the Council may base the budget on estimates of revenues that are lower than those prepared by the Chief Financial Officer. Under Section 442(a) (D.C. Official Code § 1-204.42(a)), the Mayor prepares and submits a proposed annual budget to the Council. In preparing the annual budget, the Mayor may use a budget prepared by the Chief Financial Officer for this purpose under section 424(d)(2) (D.C. Official Code § 1-204.24d(2)). The Mayor may also prepare and submit supplemental or deficiency budget recommendations to the Council from time to time, pursuant to Section 442(c) (D.C. Official Code § 1-204.24(c)). A statement of justifications must be included.

Under Section 603(c) (D.C. Official Code § 1-206.03(c)), the Mayor is required to submit a balanced budget and identify any tax increases that shall be required to balance the budget. The Council is required to adopt such tax increases to the extent the budget is approved. The annual budget submitted shall include, among other items, a multi-year plan for all agencies of the District government (as required under Section 443 (D.C. Official Code § 1-204.43)) and multi-year capital improvements plan for all agencies of the District government (as required under Section 444 (D.C. Official Code § 1-204.44)).

The Council must hold a public hearing on the budget submission and adopt a budget by two separate acts pursuant to the time period required by Section 446 (D.C. Official Code § 1-204.46) The acts are entitled the Local Budget Act and the Federal Portion Budget Request Act. The Local Budget Act requires two readings before the Council and the Federal Portion Budget Request Act requires only one reading.

Unlike other acts submitted to the Mayor for signature, the Mayor may exercise a line-item veto under Section 404(f) (D.C. Official Code § 1-204.04(f)). If an item or provision is disapproved, the Mayor must attach to the act a statement of the item or provision that is disapproved and, within the 10-day period for approval or disapproval, return a copy of the act and statement with her objections to the Council.

The Council has 30 calendar days to reenact a disapproved item or provision by a two-thirds vote of the members of the Council present and voting. If an item or provision is reenacted, the Chairman submits it to Congress. If a disapproved item or provision is not returned to the Council in a timely manner, the Mayor shall be deemed to have approved the item or provision, and the Chairman will submit it to Congress.

The Local Budget Act is submitted to Congress for a 30-day period of review, like all other permanent legislation submitted under Home Rule Act Section 602 (c) (D.C. Official Code § 1-206.02(c)). This act shall take effect upon the expiration of the 30-day period (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, and any day on which neither House is in session because of an adjournment sine die, a recess of more than 3 days, or an adjournment of more than 3 days) beginning on the day such act is transmitted by the Chairman to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate, unless during such 30-day period, there has been enacted into law a joint resolution disapproving such act. In any case in which any such joint resolution disapproving such an act has, within such 30-day period, passed both Houses of Congress and has been transmitted to the President, such resolution, upon becoming law, subsequent to the expiration of such 30-day period, shall be deemed to have repealed such act, as of the date such resolution becomes law.

The Federal Portion Budget Request Act is submitted by the Mayor to the President for transmission to Congress. Unlike the Local Budget Act, the Federal Portion Budget Request Act does not become effective after a period of congressional review; it never becomes District of Columbia local law. Ultimately, Congress appropriates all federal funds for the District by an act. This act may, but it not required to, include some or all provisions of the Federal Portion Budget Request Act as transmitted by the District.

The Mayor may prepare a proposed supplemental or deficiency budget plan under Home Rule Act Section 442(c) (D.C. Official Code § 1-204.42(c)), which authorizes the Mayor to submit budget recommendations that are, in his or her judgment, necessary on account of a law passed after budget transmission or otherwise justified as in the public interest. The process for submitting a supplemental budget is also included in Home Rule Act Section 446 (D.C. Official Code § 1-204.46), and mirrors the statutory requirements of submitting the annual Local Budget Act. This includes requirements for a public hearing, submission to Congress, and Congressional review.

The District of Columbia may obligate and expend an increase in the amount of funds authorized under Adjustments to Appropriations (D.C. Official Code § 47-369.01 et seq.) only where the Chief Financial Officer certifies (1) the increase in revenue; and (2) that the use of the amounts is not anticipated to have a negative impact on the long-term financial, fiscal, or economic health of the District. These funds may be increased (1) by an aggregate amount of not more than 25 percent, in the case of amounts proposed to be allocated as "Other-Type Funds" in the annual Budget Request Act submitted to Congress; and (2) by an aggregate amount of not more than 6 percent, in the case of any other amounts proposed to be allocated in the Budget Request Act. The amounts shall be obligated and expended in accordance with laws enacted by the Council in support of each such obligation and expenditure, consistent with the requirements of this subchapter. The amounts may not be used to fund any agencies of the District government operating under court-ordered receivership. The amounts may not be obligated or expended unless the Mayor has notified the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate not fewer than 30 days in advance of the obligation or expenditure.

How and When the FY 2018 Operating Budget was Prepared

Budget Guidance
July 2016 – September 2016

The FY 2018 budget process began with the development of the Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) budget. The CSFL is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs and estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The CSFL served as the starting point for all District agencies' Local funds Maximum Allowable Request Ceiling (MARC).

Agency Budget Request Development
October 2016 – November 2016

Taking into consideration the Office of the City Administrator's (OCA) citywide strategic plan, and following the budget guidance from the OCA's Office of Budget and Finance (OBF) and the Office of Budget and Planning (OBP), agencies began formulating their FY 2018 budget requests. Agencies submitted their FY 2018 proposed budget to OBP by:

Tier 1 – Submission Date, November 4, 2016
Tier 2 – Submission Date, November 17, 2016
Tier 3 – Submission Date, November 29, 2016

Budget Analysis
October 2016 – December 2016

OBP reviewed agency budgets during the various development stages for adherence to established guidelines, identified opportunities for efficiencies, and incorporated revised economic data into the formulation process.

Budget Presentation
January 2017 – March 2017

OBP collaborated with OBF to conduct a thorough and sound analysis of the budget as it was developed and revised during the Budget Review Team meetings where policy priorities were determined, and the Mayor's FY 2018 proposed budget was finalized for submission to the Council on April 4, 2017.

Local Budget Act, Federal Portion Budget Request Act, and Budget Support Act
April 2017 – July 2017

During this period, the Council reviews, amends, and approves the Fiscal Year 2018 budget and corresponding financial plan. The Council conducts numerous budget oversight hearings during which they question Executive Branch witnesses and receive testimony from the public.

The Council approves three pieces of legislation, each requiring two separate votes to be held. The Fiscal Year 2018 Local Budget Act of 2017 approves all funding the District receives – except for Federal Payments that are unique to the District. The Fiscal Year 2018 Federal Portion Budget Request Act of 2017 requests the approval of the Federal Payments, previously submitted in the President's budget. The Fiscal Year 2018 Budget Support Act of 2017 reflects conforming changes to Local law required to implement the budget.

Financial Plan

The Financial Plan projects the District's results of operations for three fiscal years beyond the proposed FY 2018 operating budgets of the General Fund (comprised of Local funds, Dedicated Taxes, and Special Purpose Revenue funds) and the Federal and Private Resources funds (comprised of Federal Grants, Federal Payments, Federal Medicaid Payments, and Private Grants and Donations). The actual results for the prior fiscal year and the approved and revised budgets for the current fiscal year are also included as context for FY 2018 through FY 2021 of the financial plan.

The District uses the multi-year financial plan as a working tool throughout the fiscal year to monitor the impact of legislative proposals, programmatic initiatives, and economic changes on the District's near-term fiscal outlook. This financial plan focuses on the FY 2018 Proposed Budget and its impact on FY 2019 through FY 2021. It has four sections:

- Revenues and other Resources;
- Expenditures;
- Composition of Cash Reserves; and
- Composition of Fund Balance.

The numbering scheme noted below refers to the line numbers on Tables 2-1, 2-2, 2-3, and 2-4. The amounts in the FY 2016 Actual column are as published in the District's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) for FY 2016.

Revenues

2. Taxes. This category includes property, sales, income, and other taxes, which are projected by the Office of Revenue Analysis. See the Revenue chapter for details.

3. Dedicated Taxes. This includes tax revenues that are dedicated by law to a particular agency for a particular purpose. The dedicated portion of tax revenues is transferred out of the Local fund and is not available for general budgeting. See the Revenue chapter for details. In Table 2-3, these dedicated taxes are shown as follows:

3a. Deed Recordation and Deed Transfer Taxes transfer to HPTF for debt service. The Housing Production Trust Fund (HPTF) Second Amendment Act of 2002 requires that 15 percent of the District's Deed Recordation and Transfer Tax Revenue be transferred to the HPTF annually. The HPTF provides funds for the acquisition, construction, and rehabilitation of affordable multifamily housing projects. These revenues are recorded directly in the Special Revenue fund outside of the General Fund. The Deed Recordation and Transfer Tax Revenue reflected in this line funds only debt service on Revenue Bonds for New Communities projects, which is paid through the General Fund from the 15 percent portion of the Deed Taxes.

3b. Healthcare Provider Tax transfer to Nursing Facility Quality of Care Fund. The Healthcare Provider Tax is an assessment per licensed bed that is paid by each nursing facility in the District. Revenues from the assessments are dedicated to the Nursing Facility Quality of Care Fund. The legislation was passed in 2004.

3c. General Sales Taxes and Insurance Premiums transfer to Healthy D.C. Fund. The "Fiscal Year 2007 Budget Support Act of 2006", Section 15b, established the Healthy D.C. and Healthcare Expansion Fund. All health maintenance organizations pay taxes equal to 2 percent of their policy and membership fees and net premium receipts with certain exclusions. Any revenues arising from contracts for services under the District's Medicaid program, D.C. Health Care Alliance program, or Healthy D.C. program shall be deposited into the Healthy D.C. Fund. Of all other revenues generated, 75 percent shall be deposited in the Healthy D.C. Fund and 25 percent shall be deposited in the General Fund. Also deposited into the Healthy D.C. Fund is the 6 percent sales tax on purchases of medical marijuana. The Fund is used to finance health care and medical services for qualifying individuals in the District of Columbia. This fund is administered by the Department of Health Care Finance.

3d. ICF-IDD Assessment transfer to Stevie Sellows Fund. Each institution providing care to the developmentally disabled in the District of Columbia pays an assessment of 5.5 percent of gross revenue in quarterly installments. These assessments are transferred to the Stevie Sellows Quality Improvement Fund. The fund was established to fund quality of care improvements in a qualified ICF-IDD (Intermediate Care Facility for Persons with Intellectual or Developmental Disabilities).

3e. Inpatient Hospital Bed Tax and Medicaid Hospital Outpatient Tax transfer to Hospital Fund and Hospital Provider Fee Fund. The Medicaid Hospital Inpatient Rate Supplemental Act of 2015 authorized the District to tax hospitals' net inpatient revenue for one year beginning October 1, 2015. The FY 2017 Budget Support Act of FY 2016 extended the tax for an additional year at a rate of .57 percent. This revenue is transferred to the Hospital Fund. The Medicaid Hospital Outpatient Supplemental Payment Act of 2015 authorized the District to tax hospitals' outpatient gross patient revenue for one year beginning October 1, 2015. The FY 2017 Budget Support Act of FY 2016 extended the tax for an additional year at a rate of .14 percent. This revenue is transferred to the Hospital Provider Fee Fund. Both taxes initially sunset at the end of FY 2017; the FY 2018 Budget Support Act of 2017 extended both taxes for an additional year and now will sunset September 30, 2018. Associated revenue is in line 14, Revenue Proposals, in FY 2018.

3f. General Sales Taxes transfer to Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA) – Parking Taxes. Beginning in FY 2012, all parking sales tax revenue is used to help meet the District's funding responsibility for WMATA.

3g. General Sales Taxes transfer to Convention Center. This fund records the transfer of certain sales tax revenues from the District's General Fund to the Washington Convention and Sports Authority, Walter E. Washington Convention Center.

3h. Motor Fuel Tax transfer to Highway Trust Fund. This fund records the transfer of motor fuel tax revenues from the District's General Fund to the Highway Trust Fund.

3i. General Sales Taxes transfer to Alcohol Beverage Regulation Administration (ABRA). Effective in FY 2012, the sales tax rate on alcoholic beverages for off-premise consumption was increased to 10 percent. Since FY 2014, the transfer to ABRA to fund the Reimbursable Detail Subsidy Program has been fixed at $1.170 million annually.

3j. General Sales Taxes transfer to Healthy Schools Fund. Effective in FY 2012, soft drinks (non-alcoholic beverages not containing milk, or milk substitutes, non-carbonated fruit or vegetable juice, coffee, cocoa or tea) are no longer exempt from sales tax. An estimated $4.266 million raised annually from taxing soft drinks goes to the Healthy Schools Fund. The FY 2018 Budget Support Act of 2017 increases the sales taxes to be transferred to the Healthy Schools Fund in FY 2018 from $4.266 million to $4.666 million; the increase is included in line 14, Revenue Proposals.

4. General Purpose Non-Tax Revenues. This line includes revenue from licenses and permits, fines, charges for services, and other revenue sources that are not dedicated to particular purposes. See the Revenue chapter for details.

5. Special Purpose (O-Type) Revenues. Special purpose non-tax revenues, or O-Type or Other revenues, are funds generated from fees, fines, assessments, or reimbursements that are designated for use by the District agency that collects the revenues to cover the cost of performing the function. The designation of the revenue for the use of the collecting agency is what distinguishes this revenue from the general-purpose non-tax revenues.

6. Transfer from Lottery. This line reflects the portion of Office of Lottery and Charitable Games revenue that is transferred to the District's General Fund.

7. Subtotal, General Fund Revenues. This line reflects the sum of lines 1 through 6.

8. Bond Proceeds for Issuance Costs. This is the portion of the bond proceeds that will be used to cover the cost of issuing General Obligation (or Income Tax Revenue) bonds. The related expenditure is on line 25.

9. Fund Balance Use. This reflects the reservation of fund balance in prior years that is budgeted for use in future years.

9a. Certified Resources not used. In Table 2-4, this line shows the total amount of certified resources not used by agencies in their particular funds and returned to their relevant fund balances.

10. Fund Balance Use from FY 2017. This reflects the reservation of fund balance in FY 2017 that is budgeted for use in future years.

11. Revenue Transfers from FY 2017.

11a. FEMA Reimbursement – Revenue Transfer from FY 2017. This line represents amounts due from the Federal Emergency Management Administration (FEMA) in reimbursement for expenditures related to storm Jonas. The amount was received in FY 2017 as Federal Revenue and transferred to the Local Fund.

11b. WMATA – Revenue Transfer from FY 2017. This line represents funds from Bank of America settlement received in FY 2017 designated for the Special Purpose Revenue WMATA Operations support fund and transferred to the Local Fund.

12. Central Services Cost Allocation from Federal Funds. This line reflects the movement of Indirect Cost Recovery (IDCR) funds from Federal Grant funds, designated by the grantor, into Local funds, to cover administrative costs.

13. Transfer from Enterprise and Other Funds. In Table 2-1, this line shows transfer of funds from Enterprise and other Special Revenue Funds as itemized below and in Tables 2-2 and 2-4.

13a. Transfer from TIF/PILOT/Other. In Tables 2-2 and 2-4, the amounts include transfers into the General Fund from the Tax Increment Financing (TIF), the Payment in Lieu of Taxes (PILOT), and other outside (Enterprise) funds.

13b. Transfer from Capital Fund Paygo. In Tables 2-2 and 2-4, the amounts shown are transferred into the General Fund from the Capital Improvements Fund. No bond proceeds can be transferred; only capital funds that were originally Pay-as-you-go (Paygo) capital funds can be transferred.

14. Revenue Proposals. This line reflects proposed revenue changes that are detailed in the Revenue chapter of this volume.

15. Total Resources. This line shows the sum of the individual revenue and fund balance items presented in lines 7 through 14 above.

16. Line intentionally left blank.

Lines 18-23. These lines reflect agency expenditures by appropriation title.

24. Financing and Other - Selected Agencies. This line includes items in this appropriation title that are not specifically shown in lines 25 through 31.

25. Bond Issuance Costs. This line reflects the cost of issuing General Obligation (or Income Tax Revenue) bonds. The related funding source is on line 8.

26. Debt Service. This line includes Repayment of Debt and other debt service agencies.

27. Subtotal, Operating Expenditures. This line shows the sum of lines 18 through 26.

28. Paygo Capital. Tables 2-2 and 2-4 reflect transfers of operating revenue to the capital budget through pay-as-you-go (Paygo) financing.

29. Transfer to Trust Fund for Post-Employment Benefits. Tables 2-1 and 2-2 reflect a transfer to reduce the District's accumulated liability for health insurance costs for retirees. This liability is recognized in the CAFR in accordance with the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) ruling on the treatment of such costs.

30. Repay Contingency Reserve Fund. This line in Tables 2-1 and 2-2 reflects the amount planned to replenish the Contingency Reserve Fund.

31. Transfer to Enterprise and Other Funds. This shows the transfer of General Funds to Enterprise and Other Funds as reflected in the following lines.

31a. Transfer to Highway Trust Fund. This line in Table 2-3 reflects transfers of dedicated motor fuel tax revenues and in Table 2-4 reflects transfers of a portion of Rights-of-Way revenues to the Highway Trust Fund.

31b. Transfer to Convention Center. Tables 2-2, 2-3 and 2-4 reflect transfers of funds to the Washington Convention and Sports Authority Enterprise Fund.

32. Operating Impact of Capital Improvements Plan (CIP). This line in Tables 2-1 and 2-2 reflects the estimated cost of operating and maintaining newly completed capital projects. See Volume 5, FY 2018–FY 2023 Capital Improvements Plan, for details.

33. Total Expenditures and Transfers. This is the sum of lines 27 to 32.

34. Operating Margin Before Reservations. This line is the difference between lines 15 and 33 showing the surplus or deficit after subtracting total expenditures and transfers from total resources.

35. Reserve for Subsequent Years' Expenditures. This amount in FY 2017 reflects the total amount reserved for subsequent years.

36. Operating Margin After Reservations. This is the difference between lines 34 and 35.

37. Line intentionally left blank.

38. Beginning General Fund Balance. Shows the accumulated fund balance at the beginning of the fiscal year, which is identical to the end-of-year fund balance for the previous fiscal year.

39. Operating Margin Before Reservations. This is the same as line 34.

40. Projected GAAP Adjustments (Net). GAAP adjustments are year-end adjustments necessary to properly report the ending fund balance on an accounting basis by converting budgeted activity to resources earned and used.

41. Fund Balance Use. The amount of fund balance from prior years used in the current year is subtracted when calculating the current year-end fund balance. The amount is the total of lines 9 and 10.

42. Ending General Fund Balance. This line shows the sum of the beginning fund balance, the operating margin before reservations, and GAAP and other adjustments (lines 38 through 41).

43. Line intentionally left blank.

Composition of Cash Reserves

45. Emergency Cash Reserve Balance (2 percent). The District was required to establish an Emergency Reserve by the end of FY 2004, equal to 4 percent of the District's Local expenditures. The requirement was satisfied in FY 2002. In FY 2005, the requirement was changed to 2 percent, and the base for the calculation was also changed.

46. Contingency Cash Reserve Balance (4 percent). The District was required to establish a Contingency Reserve by the end of FY 2007, equal to 3 percent of the District's Local expenditures. The requirement was satisfied in FY 2002. In FY 2005, the requirement was changed to 4 percent, and the base for the calculation was also changed.

47. Cash Flow Reserve (8.33 percent). The cash flow reserve may be used by the District's CFO as needed to manage the District's cash flow. When a portion of the reserve is used to meet cash flow needs, this reserve must be replenished in the same fiscal year the amounts were used. At full funding, the Cash Flow Reserve must equal 8.33 percent of the General Fund operating budget for each fiscal year. This Account was established by section 47-392.02(j-1) of the District of Columbia Official Code. The Fiscal Year 2011 Budget Request Act of 2010 authorizes 50 percent of the undesignated end-of-year fund balance to be deposited in this account. Of the four reserves, the Cash Flow Reserve is the only one that does not reach its full targeted level during the financial plan period.

48. Fiscal Stabilization Reserve (2.34 percent). The Fiscal Stabilization Reserve may be used by the Mayor for the same purposes for which the Contingency Reserve was established. The Fiscal Year 2011 Budget Request Act of 2010 authorizes 50 percent of the undesignated end-of-year fund balance to be deposited in this account. The Fiscal Year 2017 Budget Support Act of 2016 authorized the Chief Financial Officer to use the Fiscal Stabilization Reserve for cash flow management purposes, provided, that any amounts used must be replenished in the same fiscal year. At full funding, the Fiscal Stabilization Reserve must equal 2.34 percent of the District's General Fund operating expenditures for each fiscal year. This Account was established by section 47-392.02(j-1) of the District of Columbia Official Code.

49. Total Cash Reserves. This is the sum of lines 45 - 48.

The following table details fund balance use, as shown in line 9 of the Local funds component of the financial plan (table 2-2). The source is the General Fund fund balance, as reported in the FY 2016 Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR). Some are displayed as specific lines in CAFR table N60a (note 11), while others are within broader categories displayed in that table.

Federal and Private Resources Fund

- Federal Grants are grants the District receives from federal agencies, including block grants, formula grants, certain entitlements, and competitive grants.

- Federal Payments are direct appropriations from the Congress to the District, usually to a particular District agency for a particular purpose.

- Federal Medicaid Payments are the federal share of the District's Medicaid costs. Generally, the federal government pays 70 percent of the cost of Medicaid while the District pays 30 percent, although the proportions differ in certain circumstances.

- Private Grants and donations are grants or donations the District receives from non-federal sources.

Table 2-5 displays a summary financial plan for the Federal and Private Resources Fund. The line items are as follows:

F2. Federal Grants. Federal grant awards received by District agencies.

F3. Federal Payments. Funding contributed by the federal government for specific projects. These funds are restricted in use by the federal government.

F4. Private Grants and Donations. Revenues received from private grants and donations.

F5. Subtotal, Federal and Private Resources. This line is the sum of lines F2 through F4.

F6. Fund Balance Use. In Table 2-5, this line shows $2.9 million of fund balance use in FY 2016 as certified in the District's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR), Exhibit 2-d.

F7. Transfer to General Fund. This line represents funds used to pay for indirect costs, as shown on line 12 in Tables 2-1 and 2-2.

F8. Total Federal and Private Resources. This is the sum of lines F5 through F7.

F9. Line intentionally left blank.

F11-F17. Expenditures by Appropriation Title. These items reflect agency expenditures by appropriation title.

F18. Debt Service. This line includes expenditures related to Repayment of Debt.

F19. Total Federal and Private Expenditures. This is the sum of lines F11 through F18.

F20. Operating Margin. This is the difference between Total Federal and Private Resources (line F8) and Total Federal and Private Expenditures (line F19).

General Fund

A fund is a fiscal and accounting entity with a self-balancing set of accounts that the District uses to keep track of specific sources of funding and spending for a particular purpose. An appropriated fund is a collection of appropriated revenues and expenditures set up by congressional authority. The General Fund is the principal operating fund of the District, which is used to account for all financial resources except those required to be accounted for in another fund. The General Fund consists of three appropriated funds: Local, Dedicated Taxes, and Special Purpose Revenue (O-type or other) funds.

The Local fund is funded by tax and non-tax revenues that are not earmarked for a particular purpose and are allocated to fund District programs during the annual budget process. The Dedicated Tax fund is funded by tax revenues dedicated by law to a particular agency for a particular purpose. The Special Purpose Revenue fund is used to account for proceeds for specific non-tax revenue sources (other than expendable trusts, special assessments, or major capital projects) that are legally restricted to expenditures for specified purposes.

An intra-District fund is an accounting mechanism set up to track payments for services provided by one District agency to another District agency, similar to an internal service fund. Intra-District budgets represent agreements between two agencies whereby one agency purchases services from the other. The buying agency spends its own budget (Local, Special Purpose Revenue, Federal, or Private). The selling agency receives this expenditure as intra-District revenue, establishes intra-District budget authority, and spends against that authority to provide the service. Intra-District revenues and expenditures are not included in District-wide totals or in the financial plan because to do so would create a double-count.

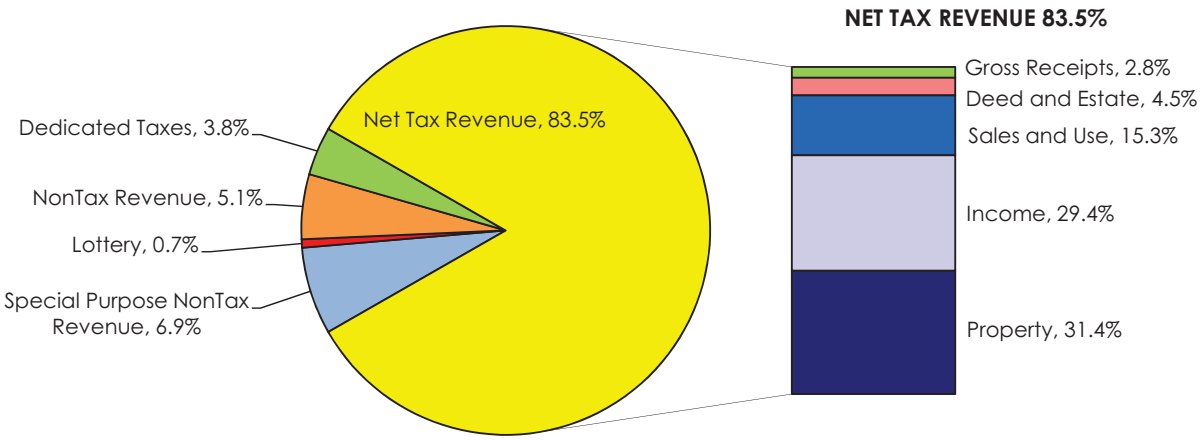
TOTAL GENERAL FUND REVENUE - FISCAL YEAR 2018



This chapter presents the revenue outlook for the District of Columbia's General Fund for FY 2017 to FY 2021. The chapter is divided into four broad sections:

- Economic Outlook: Underlying condition of the District's economy with analysis of key variables that drive the revenue estimate.
- Baseline Revenues: Local, dedicated and special purpose revenues before proposals that affect revenues.
- Policy Proposals: Summary of all proposals that have not been incorporated in the baseline revenues.
- Detailed Tables: Additional tables showing dedicated taxes, non-tax revenue, special purpose revenue and current tax rates.

Revenue is derived from both tax and non-tax sources. Non-tax sources consist of fees, fines, assessments, and reimbursements, while tax sources are levies on broad measures of citizens' ability to pay (e.g., income, consumption, wealth). Some tax revenues are dedicated to special uses and are not available for general budgeting; these are called dedicated taxes. Similarly, some non-tax sources are dedicated to the agency that collects the revenues and are known as special purpose revenues.

SUMMARY

The FY 2017 baseline estimate of $7.36 billion in total Local fund revenue, which excludes dedicated taxes and special purpose revenue, is $61.3 million (0.8%) higher than FY 2016 revenue. (See Table 3-1.) The $7.44 billion estimate for FY 2018 is an increase of $82.3 million (1.1%) from FY 2017.

Including dedicated and special purpose revenues and policy initiatives, total FY 2017 general fund revenue in the financial plan is $8.26 billion, $111.8 million more than in FY 2016 and $8.37 billion in FY 2018, $114.7 million more than FY 2017.

Various policy initiatives increase general fund revenue in FY 2018 by $39.5 million. The policy initiatives are summarized in Table 3-12 and are discussed in the context of the specific revenue item for each proposal.

THE ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

A variety of sources provide the basis of this estimate including: cash collection reports; federal data on District population, employment, and income; discussions with revenue, business, and real property advisory groups about the D.C. economy and revenue trends; and forecasts of the U.S. and regional economies prepared by private sector firms. Based on this information, the economic outlook over the period of the financial plan is similar to that of the past two years: continued increase in population, moderate economic growth, and improvement in labor market indicators. There is, however, great uncertainty at this time surrounding federal fiscal and other policies, and measures to restrain federal spending are expected to be in effect over the period of the financial plan. Accordingly, the outlook reflects caution, particularly as it relates to growth in population and in federal employment. Key economic indicators will be monitored for deviations from this forecast that might negatively impact the financial plan.

Population

Population growth has been a major factor in increasing the District's income and sales tax bases, and is also a major driving force behind rising home values. In the last five years (2011 to 2016) the District's population has grown by 60,693 (9.8%), an increase that averaged 1,000 net new residents per month. Population growth was, however, slower in 2016 than the average of the last five years due to slower net in-migration. From 2015 to 2016 the increase was 10,793, 40 percent of which was from natural increase (births minus deaths). For FY 2017 and FY 2018, the financial plan assumes that population will grow an average of 8,200 per year.

Federal Spending

Approximately 25 percent of employed D.C. residents work for the federal government. Federal civilian employment accounts for about 26 percent of all jobs located in the District of Columbia and 32 percent of the wages and salaries that are generated in the city. Federal contracting also accounts for additional jobs and income. Because the federal government is such a dominant presence in the District's economy, trends in federal spending have a major impact on the District of Columbia's economy and revenues.

Federal budget and fiscal policies resulted in federal spending increases for FY 2016 and FY 2017. According to the Congressional Budget Office, however, federal domestic discretionary outlays in FY 2018 are expected to be less than they were in FY 2017. The Financial Plan assumes that federal employment in the District of Columbia will decline by modest amounts each year starting in FY 2018.

National Economy

The national economy continues at a pace of moderate growth with low inflation. Real GDP grew at an annual rate of 1.9 percent for the quarter ending December 2016, and 1.6 percent for the full year. Employment is increasing, and the unemployment rate continues to fall slowly. The outlook is for continued moderate growth in the national economy for the next several years. For example, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System expects inflation-adjusted GDP to grow about 2 percent per year through 2019, and has indicated its intention to raise short term interest rates if the economy continues to expand as anticipated.

- The U.S. economy added 2.2 million jobs (1.6%) from December 2015 to December 2016.
- The U.S. unemployment rate (seasonally adjusted) was 4.7 percent in December 2016, down from 5.0 percent a year earlier.
- U.S. Personal Income for the 12-months ending December 2016 was 3.6 percent above a year ago.
- The S&P 500 stock market index average for January 2017 was 6.2 percent above the level of three months earlier, and 18.6 percent above a year earlier.
- Employment in the Washington metropolitan area has remained high during the past year. In the three-month period ending December, wage and salary jobs in the region grew by 68,800 (2.1%) compared to a year earlier. The District of Columbia accounted for about 23 percent of the increase in area employment.

- The D.C. metropolitan area unemployment rate was 3.4 percent in December (not seasonally adjusted), down from 3.7 percent a year earlier.
- In January 2017, the consensus forecast of fifty economists contributing to the Blue Chip Economic Indicators was that national real GDP growth would rise to 2.3 percent for both FY 2017 and FY 2018, up from the 1.6 percent rate of FY 2016. Nominal growth is expected to be 4.2 percent in FY 2017 and 4.5 percent in FY 2018, up from 2.9 percent in FY 2016.

The District of Columbia Economy

Recent trends in the D.C. economy include continued moderate growth in jobs and income, more population and housing units, slowing in home sales and home prices, and more tourists.

- In the three months ending December 2016, there were 15,767 (2.0%) more wage and salary jobs located in the District than a year earlier. Federal government jobs in December were up by 4,367 (2.2%) from a year earlier, and private sector jobs increased by 10,200 (1.9%).
- District resident employment in the three months ending December 2016 increased by 10,599 (2.9%) compared to a year earlier.
- The December unemployment rate was 5.8 percent (seasonally adjusted), a decrease from 6.6 percent a year ago.
- Wages earned in the District of Columbia grew 5.3 percent in the September 2016 quarter, compared to the prior year. D.C. Personal Income was 4.5 percent higher.
- Single family home sales for the three-month period ending December 2016 were down 1.7 percent from a year ago, with a 0.2 percent increase in the average selling price. Condominium sales were down 3.6 percent, and the average selling price was 0.5 percent less. The value of all home sale settled contracts for the three-month period ending December 2016 was 2.4 percent less than a year ago. For the past 12 months, however, the value of all sales was up by 5.9 percent.
- For the 12-month period ending December, 4,668 housing permits were issued, down 5.8 percent from a year ago; the 3-month total, 1,047 was 30.6 percent less than in the same period of 2015.
- According to CoStar, leased commercial office space in December 2016 was up 0.4 percent from a year ago, while the vacancy rate fell slightly over the past year from 11.2 percent in the December quarter of 2015 to 11.0 percent in the December quarter of 2016. Average rents were 3.9 percent higher in the December quarter than a year earlier.
- Hotel room-days sold for the three months ending December 2016 were 7.1 percent above the prior year, and hotel room revenues were up 12.5 percent.

Economic Forecast for D.C.

The economic forecasting services IHS Global Insight and Moody's Analytics both assume that growth in District employment will be slower in FY 2017 and the years following than it was in both FY 2015 and FY 2016. They also agree that the federal sector will play a smaller role in the economy, professional and business services will be the largest source of job growth, and the annual increase in population will slow down.

Advisory Groups

In February we sought advice from three advisory groups that meet at least once a year to provide insights into current developments and expectations for the next several years. The Business Advisory Group discussed leading business sectors in the District and the connections between D.C.'s economy and the larger regional and national economies. The Real Estate Advisory Group discussed both commercial and residential real estate markets. The Revenue Advisory Group discussed economic trends, federal fiscal policy, and revenue trends with representatives from the Congressional Budget Office, officials from surrounding states and local jurisdictions, and others familiar with national trends and revenue estimation issues.

Highlights from the discussions include:

- The District of Columbia faces considerable risk due to uncertainties about federal fiscal and other policy changes. The risks are not just possible decreases in federal employment and spending, but include changes in immigration policies that would affect businesses and universities and health care policies that could affect the substantial health services sector in the District.
- Uncertainty about policies and continuing political controversies could result in perceptions that the District of Columbia is no longer an attractive place to live and invest which could have lasting adverse impacts on the District's economy.
- Although population is growing in the District of Columbia, it is not clear that it will grow fast enough to occupy all of the housing that is currently under construction or planned.
- A challenge for the District of Columbia is to attract and retain professional and similar higher-wage employment, where success depends not on federal government spending but on competing successfully in regional, national, and even global markets. As yet progress has been slow in diversifying the economies of the District of Columbia and the region.
- Overall demand for office space will remain fairly weak by historical standards due to federal lease cutbacks, limited growth in office-using jobs, and tenants seeking fewer square feet per employee. Rising interest rates could begin to adversely affect values.
- Although the District of Columbia has slipped in terms of global rankings, premier real estate in the District of Columbia remains attractive to foreign investors.
- Restoring reliable Metrorail service is essential to the economies of the District of Columbia and the region.

Economic Assumptions for the Revenue Estimate

As noted earlier, the economic assumptions for the FY 2018 Budget and Financial Plan (See Table 3-2.) take into consideration expectations of moderate growth in the national economy, continued federal spending constraints, employment and income gains over the past year, forecasts from IHS Global Insight and Moody's Analytics, and comments from the Advisory Groups. Highlights include:

- D.C.'s Gross Domestic Product. Growth rates in D.C. Gross Domestic Product (GDP-DC), a measure of economic activity in D.C., in FY 2017 and FY 2018, respectively, are projected to be 4.0 percent and 4.4 percent. Real GDP-DC, adjusted for inflation, is expected to grow 1.5 percent in FY 2017 and 1.8 percent in FY 2018.
- D.C.'s Personal Income. The growth rate in Personal Income, which is mostly wages, salaries, and benefits, but which also includes investment income and transfer payments, is expected to be 5.0 percent in FY 2017, and 5.0 percent again in FY 2018. Increases in the number of persons and households residing in D.C. contribute to the District's higher Personal Income levels.
- Jobs located in D.C. The number of jobs in the District in FY 2017 is expected to show a net increase of 7,800 (1.0%) and 4,600 (0.6%) in FY 2018.
- R*esident employment. In FY 2017, the D.C. labor force is expected to increase by 5,400 (1.4%) and rise by 4,100 (1.0%) in FY 2018. Resident employment is expected to rise by 6,200 (1.7%) in FY 2017. For FY 2018, it is forecast to rise by 4,200 (1.1%) as the unemployment rate falls to 6.0 percent in that year.
- Home sales and prices. The number of housing sales (the combined total of single family and condominium units) is projected to rise by 1.0 percent in FY 2017, with prices increasing by 2.5 percent. Sales then increase by 1.0 percent in FY 2018, with a 5.0 percent rise in average prices.
- Inflation. The Financial Plan assumes that the D.C. Consumer Price Index will rise 2.4 percent in FY 2017 and 2.2 percent in FY 2018. The rate in FY 2016 was 0.8 percent.
- Households and population. The Financial Plan assumes estimated households in FY 2017 of 303,600 up 3,500 (1.1%) from FY 2016, and 306,400 in FY 2018 (an increase of 2,800 or 0.9%). Population rises by 9,000 in FY 2017 to 688,800; in FY 2018 it reaches 696,200.

Looking further ahead to FY 2019 through FY 2021, the expectation for the Budget and Financial Plan is that this will be a period of continued moderate economic growth, both nationally and in the District of Columbia, with the District's economy continuing to be affected by restraints in federal expenditures. Growth in nominal GDP-DC is expected to average about 4.0 percent per year during the FY 2019 through FY 2021 period, and Personal Income will increase at about 4.7 percent per year; and close to 4,200 additional jobs will be added each year. Inflation is expected to rise to 2.8 percent per year by FY 2021, and interest rates also rise (to a 3.4 percent rate for 10-year Treasury securities in FY 2021). The stock market is expected to grow at a steady, moderate pace (a gain of about 16 percent over the 3-year period). In the years 2019 through 2021, 8,786 new housing starts are anticipated, and an additional 7,300 households are expected. During this period, the number of housing sales is expected to remain steady, while average prices rise each year at a rate comparable to the rate of growth in Personal Income.

Risks

Developments outside of the local economy pose risks to the forecast. These include the possibility of slower national economic growth (18 percent of the economists participating in the January Blue Chip Forecast expect a recession to start in 2017), volatility in the stock market, increases in interest rates, and financial market problems as the Federal Reserve phases in interest rate increases. Possible disruptions arising from uncertainties around the world and potential national security events are other sources of risks to the forecast.

Continued population growth of the magnitude included in this forecast assumes that in-migration continues to be a significant contributor to that growth. This expectation will not be met if the District becomes less able to attract new residents and retain existing ones.

As noted, federal government fiscal policy uncertainty remains a primary concern. A federal budget has not yet been adopted for all of Fiscal Year 2017, and sequestration constraints on federal spending will return in FY 2018 unless Congress takes action to change them. In addition, there is currently a freeze on federal hiring and upcoming decisions on budget and debt ceiling resolutions only add to current economic uncertainty.

Personal Income (September 2016); Metropolitan Regional Information System (MRIS) D.C. home sales data (December 2016), accessed in part through the Greater Capital Area Association of Realtors (GCAAR); CoStar information on commercial office buildings and residential property in D.C. (December 2016); and Delta Associates information on commercial office buildings and apartments in D.C. (December 2016).

GENERAL FUND REVENUE

The General fund, used to finance government operations, is composed of three funds: Local, Dedicated, and Special Purpose. Table 3-3 reports estimated Local fund revenue by major revenue source for the period FY 2017 to FY 2021, along with actual FY 2016 revenues. Tables 3-13 and 3-14, at the end of this chapter, provide information on year-to-year percentage and absolute changes for the major revenue sources.

The Local fund includes both tax revenue and non-tax revenue. The following section highlights the components and discusses the transfers from the Local fund to Dedicated funds. Special Purpose funds are discussed at the end.

Real Property Tax
In FY 2016, $2.357 billion was collected before dedicated distributions; a 7.4 percent increase from FY 2015. The increase in collections was driven by a significant growth in both commercial property (Class 2) and residential property (Class 1). Commercial property tax collections increased by 6.2 percent and residential property tax collections increased by 10.0 percent in FY 2016 compared to FY 2015. Commercial property collections have an out-sized impact on total real property tax collections because the residential tax rate is $0.85 per $100 of assessment value while the major commercial tax rate of $1.85 per $100 of assessment value is more than double the residential rate. The total assessment value of all commercial properties in the District is about the same as the total assessment value of all residential properties. Consequently, Class 1 tax collections account for approximately 32 percent of total real property tax collections and Class 2 collections account for approximately 67 percent of total real property tax collections in FY 2016.

Residential Property. D.C.'s residential market continued to show price appreciation in FY 2016, with average home prices increasing by 3.5 percent compared to FY 2015. The pace of appreciation is expected to increase throughout the forecast period, with home prices rising by about 4.3 percent on average from FY 2016 to FY 2021. Residential property (Class 1) tax collections are expected grow by 5.0 percent on average throughout the forecast period. This growth is driven by an expected increase in revenues from multi-family property averaging 5.3 percent annually.

Commercial Property. Class 2 property taxes are projected to increase by 5.7 percent in FY 2017, which is a reflection of the record sales in commercial property markets in FY 2015. This growth is not expected to remain through the forecast period. Uncertainty in capital markets and expected increases in interest rates are reflected by a more moderate predicted growth in Class 2 tax revenues from FY 2018 to FY 2021 averaging 3.3 percent annually.

Taking these factors into consideration, overall real property tax collections are expected to grow by 3.9 percent on average from FY 2016 to FY 2021.

General Obligation Bonds. In addition to providing revenue for government services, real property taxes support the District's general obligation bonds used for capital investment. For FY 2017, the percentage of real property tax collections dedicated to the repayment of principal and interest on the District's General Obligation Bonds is 15.5 percent.

Transfer to Tax Increment Financing (TIF) Fund. In FY 2017, a net amount of $40.0 million of real property tax collections will be dedicated to the repayment of Tax Increment Financing and Payment in Lieu of Taxes (PILOT) bonds. This amount will be $41.1 million in FY 2018 and increase to an estimated $57.7 million in FY 2021, due to continuing development progress at previously authorized TIF projects, expected increased assessments for existing TIF properties, and TIF transfers that may be required for potential new debt issuances.

Personal Property Tax

In FY 2016, gross total personal property tax collections totaled $59.1 million. Based on national and regional economic indicators, which suggest a gradual increase in the level of business activity and a subsequent increase in the total level of new business investment, gross collections are expected to grow by 2.9 percent on average annually throughout the forecast period reaching $68.2 million in FY 2021.

Public Space Rental

In FY 2016 revenue from public space rentals amounted to $40.4 million. FY 2017 revenue is projected to fall to $38.2 million before increasing on average by 3.2 percent annually over the FY 2017 to FY 2021 period.

General Sales and Use Taxes

In FY 2016, revenue from gross sales and use taxes was $1.34 billion, compared to FY 2015 gross sales and use tax revenue of $1.32 billion, an increase of 2.1 percent. The revenue in FY 2015 included a one-time revenue source of $73.6 million from settlement proceeds following a court decision regarding sales taxes collected by online travel companies. Because of a larger base as a result of the court decision, and because of new e-commerce tax revenue, we estimate growth in gross sales tax of 5 percent in FY 2017. We estimate a more moderate growth rate of 3.3 percent in FY 2018.

Growth rates in FY 2019 to FY 2021 are estimated to be between 3.5 percent and 3.6 percent. We anticipate taxes from e-commerce sales helping to balance the continued decline in taxes from sales at brick and mortar businesses. We also anticipate continued strength in the hospitality sector.

Total transfers from sales and use tax revenue are estimated to be $260.9 million in FY 2017. In FY 2018, the sum of transfers from sales and use taxes is estimated to be $268.1 million, 18.4 percent of gross sales tax revenue. The sum of transfers is projected to be $291.6 million or 18 percent of gross sales tax revenue in FY 2021.

Transfer to Convention Center Fund. The formula financing the Convention Center Fund includes only taxes directly linked to the hospitality sector. The hotel tax rate is 14.5 percent. Of this tax, 4.45 percent is dedicated to the Convention Center Fund and 10.05 percent goes to the District's General Fund. The 10 percent sales tax rate applied mainly to restaurants and bars is also the tax rate applied to rental cars, prepaid telephone cards, tickets for events and merchandise sold at both the Baseball Stadium and the Verizon Center. Except for sales at the Baseball Stadium and the Verizon Center, the 10 percent rate includes 9 percent for the General Fund and one percent dedicated to the Convention Center Fund. There is also a 10 percent sales tax rate on alcoholic beverages not sold for immediate consumption. Revenue from this category at 10 percent does not go to the Convention Center Fund.

Transfer to Tax Increment Financing. The District utilizes an economic development tool called Tax Increment Financing (TIF) to assist in financing economic development projects. TIF allows the incremental future revenue stream from a development project to be pledged to pay back bonds issued to help finance the development. In March 2008, in order to service a loan to renovate the Verizon Center at Gallery Place, merchandise and tickets for events at the Verizon Center became subject to a tax of 10 percent (compared to the prior rate of 5.75 percent). The revenue collected from the increased rate at that time (10 percent less 5.75 percent or 4.25 percent) goes to a separate fund and is used to make principal and interest payments on the loan.

In FY 2016, there were eight projects included in the TIF program: Gallery Place, The Mandarin Oriental Hotel, Verizon Center, City Market at O Street, Fort Lincoln Retail, Special Retail and Great Streets, Convention Center Hotel, and the Waterfront Park Maintenance Fund. The TIF program, which previously included the SW Waterfront/The Wharf project, has been re-categorized to the PILOT program. In order to provide additional security to selected TIF projects, the District created the Downtown TIF Area. Incremental revenue from the Downtown TIF Area is only used in the event project increment is not sufficient to cover debt service. Only those revenues required to address projected TIF project shortfalls are included in the TIF budget.

Transfer to Ballpark Fund. Stadium related sales tax streams are dedicated to the Ballpark Fund to pay the debt service on the baseball stadium revenue bonds. These revenue streams include taxes on tickets sold, taxes on parking at the stadium, taxes on merchandise sold at the stadium and taxes on food and beverages sold in the stadium.

Transfer to Healthy D.C. Effective in FY 2012, any revenues from the sales tax on medical marijuana are transferred to the Healthy D.C. and Health Care Expansion Fund. The transfer amount is estimated to be $854,000 in FY 2018.

Transfer to WMATA. Beginning in FY 2012 all parking sales tax revenue is used to help meet the District's funding responsibility for the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA). Effective FY 2012, the sales tax rate on parking was raised from 12 percent to 18 percent. We estimate revenue from sales tax on parking to be $76.5 million in FY 2018.

Transfer to Healthy Schools. Effective in FY 2012, soft-drinks (non-alcoholic beverages not containing milk, or milk substitutes, non-carbonated fruit or vegetable juice, coffee, cocoa or tea) are no longer exempt from sales tax. $4.266 million raised annually from taxing soft drinks goes to the Healthy Schools Fund.

Transfer to ABRA. Effective in FY 2012, the sales tax rate on alcoholic beverages for off-premise consumption was increased to 10 percent. Initially, $460,000 of the revenue raised annually was dedicated to fund the Reimbursable Detail Subsidy Program in the Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration (ABRA). Effective in FY 2014, the transfer to ABRA was increased to $1.170 million annually.

Selective Sales and Use Taxes

In addition to the multi-rate general sales and use tax, the District imposes excise taxes on alcoholic beverages, cigarettes, motor vehicles, and motor fuel.

Alcoholic Beverage

In FY 2016, revenue from the alcoholic beverage tax was $6.5 million, a 3.6 percent increase over revenue in FY 2015. This was higher than the 0.2 percent growth in FY 2015, but lower than the 6 percent growth in FY 2014. We estimate growth of 3.4 percent in FY 2018 bringing alcoholic beverage tax revenue to $6.9 million. The growth rate is projected to be between 3.5 and 3.6 percent during FY 2019 and FY 2021.

Cigarette

Revenue in FY 2016 was $30.5 million, a 3.3 percent decrease from FY 2015. Cigarette tax collections are expected to decrease by 2.0 percent in FY 2017 to $29.8 million. Collections decrease 2.1 percent to $29.2 million in FY 2018. The growth rate for FY 2019 through FY 2021 is estimated to be a negative 2.1 percent annually, reflecting a continued decrease in tobacco consumption.

Motor Vehicle

Motor vehicle excise tax revenue totaled $46.0 million in FY 2016, which is a negative 1.3 percent growth rate over FY 2015. Revenue is projected to grow at a rate of 1.2 percent to $47.1 million in FY 2018, and by 1.2 percent to $47.6 million in FY 2019. The growth rate is projected to be approximately the same in the out years giving projected revenue of $48.2 million and $48.7 million respectively, in FY 2020 and FY 2021.

Motor Fuel

Collections for the motor vehicle fuel tax in FY 2016 were $25.3 million. In spite of increases in the local population, continuing increases in fuel efficiencies are expected to result in fuel tax revenues declining about 0.8 percent a year – from a projected FY 2017 level of $25.1 million to $24.4 million in FY 2021.

Transfer to Highway Trust Fund. Motor fuel excise tax revenues are dedicated to the Highway Trust Fund (HTF). The HTF uses both local-source and federal matching funds to construct, repair and manage eligible District roads and bridges. Approximately 400 of the 1,020 miles (39 percent) of streets and highways and 229 bridges in the District are eligible.

Individual Income Tax

In FY 2016, individual income tax revenue was $1,907.9 million, an increase of 2.1 percent from FY 2015. This lower growth rate (compared to the growth rate in FY 2015) was driven by a double digit decline (11 percent) in the revenue from the volatile non-withholding component of the individual income tax related to capital gains and the stock market. The other component of income tax revenue, withholding, is closely associated with the wages and salaries of D.C. residents and accounts for two thirds of all income tax revenue. Withholding grew by a slower rate of 4.8 percent (as compared to 5.5 percent in FY 2015).

The weak performance of the non-withholding component, relative to the previous year, was influenced by the decline in payments and the double digit growth in refunds.

The stock market experienced growth but it was at a rate lower than the previous year. Whereas it is expected that the stock market will not deteriorate significantly from its current levels as reflected in the forecast for the Standard and Poor's 500 index, a decrease is forecasted for FY 2017 given the volatility of the financial markets.

On the other hand, continued implementation of enacted tax policies, including one which increased the standard deduction to $5,650, $7,800 and $10,275 respectively for single, head of household, and married filers, will impact the growth of withholding in FY 2017, resulting in overall individual income taxes to grow at a lower rate than the previous year. These are discussed in further detail below. For the out years from FY 2018 to FY 2021, growth in revenue resumes at an average rate of 3.8 percent reflective of anticipated growth in the withholding component (an average rate of 4.3 percent), as well as the cautious and uncertain expectation of the stock market's performance leading to a positive but low growth performance (less than 1 percent) in the non-withholding component.

Following the February 2017 revenue forecast, all of the remaining tax policies were triggered pursuant to those recommendations of the Tax Revision Commission enacted by subsequent legislation. These are the tax reforms that will increase personal exemptions from $1,775 to conform to the federal level and those that will increase standard deduction for filers whereby the amount for single, head of household and married filers will increase to $6,100, $8,950 and $12,200 respectively. These will impact individual income tax revenues starting in FY 2018 when implemented. Individual income tax revenue reported in Table 3-8 for the FY 2018 to FY 2021 period reflect these triggered changes to the personal exemption and standard deductions.

Business Franchise

Corporate franchise income tax revenue grew by 25.7 percent and unincorporated franchise income tax grew by 21.2 percent in FY 2016 compared to FY 2015. In spite of legislation that will reduce the tax rate on business income from 9.0 percent to 8.25 percent in FY 2018, because of the strong stock market in FY 2017 and other business economic indicators, we estimate that the decrease in revenue will be 4.2 percent in FY 2018 and grow by one percent in FY 2019.

Individual Income Tax Policy Proposals:

- Bank Attachment Compliance Initiative
- Legislative Retirement Match

Gross Receipts

Taxes in this category include: a tax on the gross receipts of public utilities and toll telecommunications companies operating in the District (the rate is 10 percent for residential use and 11 percent for nonresidential use where 1.0 percent of the 11 percent is dedicated to financing the baseball stadium), a tax of 2.0 percent on the gross receipts of insurance companies, various health care related taxes that are dedicated to specific purposes, and a fee on companies for baseball stadium funding.

Public Utility Tax

This tax is directly related to energy use, so tax revenue collections are closely linked to weather extremes and fuel cost. (See tax rates in Table 3-18 at the end of the chapter.) Gross revenue from the Public Utility Tax (before the transfer to the Ballpark Fund) is estimated to be $136.2 million in FY 2017 and $136.9 million in FY 2018. It is expected to grow at an average rate of 0.5 percent for FY 2019 through FY 2021.

Transfer to Ballpark Fund. There is a surcharge on nonresidential rates that finances the baseball stadium. In FY 2016, $8.1 million was collected and transferred. In FY 2017 and FY 2018, $8.2 million and $8.3 million, respectively, are expected to be transferred to the Ballpark Fund.

Toll Telecommunication Tax

The gross revenue from the Toll Telecommunications Tax (before the 1 percent transfer of the gross receipts of non-residential customers for baseball stadium funding) is estimated to be approximately $52.7 million in FY 2017 and $54.2 million in FY 2018. It is forecast to have an average growth of 3.4 percent for the period FY 2019 to FY 2021.

Transfer to Ballpark Fund. There is a surcharge on nonresidential rates that finances the baseball stadium. In FY 2016, $2.3 million was collected and transferred. The transfer is expected to increase in FY 2017 to $2.4 million followed by another $2.4 million in FY 2018. In FY 2019 the transfer is estimated to be approximately $2.5 million, $2.6 million in FY 2020 and in FY 2021 it is expected to be around $2.7 million.

Insurance Premiums Tax

In FY 2016, revenue collected from the Insurance Premiums Tax, before the transfer to the Healthy D.C. and Health Care Expansion Fund was $104.9 million; net revenue (after the transfer) was $60.3 million. Revenue (after transfer to the Healthy D.C. Fund) from Insurance Premiums Tax collections is estimated to be $50.5 million in FY 2017 and $50.9 million in FY 2018. This would be followed by an estimated increase to $51.8 million in FY 2019 followed by estimated revenue of $52.8 million in FY 2020 and $53.7 million in FY 2021.

Transfer to Healthy D.C. Fund. Of the insurance premiums taxes generated by policies with health maintenance organizations (HMO), 75 percent is distributed to the Healthy D.C. Fund for the purpose of providing affordable health insurance to eligible individuals.

Healthcare Provider Tax (Transferred to Nursing Facility Quality of Care Fund)

The Healthcare Provider Tax is an assessment per licensed bed that is paid by each nursing facility in the District. Revenues from the assessments are dedicated to the Nursing Facility Quality of Care Fund, which is used to fund quality of care initiatives. In FY 2016 the revenue from the Healthcare Provider Tax was $17.0 million. Revenue for FY 2017 is estimated to be $14.8 million. It is projected to grow slightly in FY 2018 through FY 2021 from $14.9 million to $15.8 million.

Ballpark Fee (Transferred to Ballpark Fund)

The Ballpark Fee is a gross receipts fee that is a multi-tiered fee levied on businesses within the District with over $5 million in gross receipts. The fees are due in a single payment on June 15th annually. Revenue from the Ballpark Fee was $32.8 million in FY 2016. Revenue is estimated to increase to $33.9 million in FY 2017 and is expected to remain unchanged to FY 2021.

The Inpatient Hospital Bed Tax (Transferred to Hospital Fund)

The Medicaid Hospital Inpatient Rate Supplement Act of 2015 authorized the District to tax hospitals' net inpatient revenue for one year beginning October 1, 2015 at a rate of 0.52 percent. The tax sunset after FY 2016. However, the FY 2017 Budget Support Act of FY 2016 extended the tax for an additional year. The FY 2017 rate is 0.57 percent. The tax is now scheduled to sunset after FY 2017.

Medicaid Hospital Outpatient Tax (Transferred to Hospital Provider Fee Fund)

The Medicaid Hospital Outpatient Supplemental Payment Act of 2015 authorized the District to tax hospitals' outpatient gross patient revenue for one year beginning October 1, 2015 at a rate of 0.16 percent. The tax sunset after FY 2016. However, the FY 2017 Budget Support Act of FY 2016 extended the tax for an additional year. The FY 2017 rate is 0.142 percent. The tax is now scheduled to sunset after FY 2017.

ICF-IDD Assessment (Transferred to Stevie Sellows Fund)

Each institution providing care to the developmentally disabled in the District of Columbia pays an assessment of 5.5 percent of gross revenue in quarterly installments. These assessments are transferred to the Stevie Sellows Quality Improvement Fund. The fund was established to fund quality of care improvements in a qualified ICF-IDD (Intermediate Care Facility for Persons with Intellectual or Developmental Disabilities). The assessment generated $4.9 million in FY 2016. For FY 2017 through FY 2021 revenue is expected to increase slightly in each year, starting at $5.5 million and growing to $5.7 million.

Gross Receipts Taxes Policy Proposals:

- Tax Medicaid Hospital Outpatient Revenue and Transfer All Revenue to the Hospital Provider Fee Fund
- Tax Medicaid Hospital Inpatient Revenue and Transfer All Revenue to the Hospital Fund

Estate Tax

The District's estate tax is decoupled from the federal tax. Unlike the federal government, which exempts estates valued at less than $5.45 million (FY 2016), estates in the District valued at more than $1 million are subject to tax in FY 2016. This threshold is raised to $2 million in FY 2017. As a result, the estate tax revenue is predicted to decline from $54.0 million in FY 2016 to $34.6 million in FY 2017. In FY 2018, the Tax Reform Commission's recommendation to increase the $2 million threshold to conform to the federal level will be implemented. This will reduce estate tax revenues in FY 2018 to $22.3 million.

Deed and Economic Interest Taxes

In FY 2016, deed recordation and transfer taxes, including economic interest, totaled $444.1 million, which is a decline from the record high of $480.6 million in FY 2015. The exceptional result in FY 2015 was driven in large part by an unprecedented volume of sales of trophy commercial properties valued more than $200 million. The revenues from these sources will continue to decline to an expected $407.3 million in FY 2017. Thereafter the revenues are expected to return to a long-term growth of about 2.2 percent, with $413.6 million collected in FY 2018, reaching $444.4 million in FY 2021.

Transfer to Housing Production Trust Fund (HPTF). The "Housing Production Trust Fund Second Amendment Act of 2002" requires that 15 percent of the District's deed recordation and transfer tax revenue be transferred to the Housing Production Trust Fund annually. The total transferred amount is $58.0 million in FY 2017 growing to $64.1 million in 2021.

Other Tax Revenue Policy Proposals:

- First Time Homebuyer Recordation Tax Benefit
- Hill East Community Garden Real Property Tax Relief

Non-Tax Revenue and Lottery

Local non-tax revenue consists of Licenses and Permits, Fines and Forfeitures, Charges for Services, and Miscellaneous categories, which include payments in lieu of taxes (PILOTS), revenues from long-outstanding traffic fines collected through the Central Collection Unit (CCU), proceeds from unclaimed properties, and other revenue sources.

Note: Table 3-15 (presented later in this chapter) provides a detailed listing of non-tax revenue by source.

Total non-tax revenue for FY 2016 was up 22.2 percent from FY 2015 (revised up to $509.0 million from $416.6 million, a difference of $95.7 million). This increase is mainly due to higher than anticipated revenue collections from traffic fines and a one-time reversal of anticipated Medicaid related liability.

Total non-tax revenue for FY 2017 is projected to decrease by 12.8 percent from FY 2016 (revised down to $443.8 million in FY 2017 from $509.0 million in FY 2016) mainly due to reduced year-to-date cash collections in licenses and permits and fines. Spending initiatives aimed at increasing awareness of unclaimed properties are also expected to result in reduced unclaimed property revenue for FY 2017.

Revenue from licenses and permits, and charges for services is slightly revised down from the FY 2016 level, by 1.7 percent and 7.8 percent respectively, due to mainly slower year-to-date cash collection of permit fees and collections from building leases (rentals). Miscellaneous revenue is projected to be down by 31.9 percent. This is due to the impact of one time revenue that inflated FY 2016 Miscellaneous revenue numbers.

This revenue category is also impacted by various year-end accounting entries and adjustments in the form of prior year cost recoveries which are very volatile.

Transfers from the District's Office of Lottery and Charitable Games (OLCG) are expected to be $54 million in FY 2017 increasing to $54.5 million (up by 0.9%) in FY 2018.

Presently, there are more than 150 general-purpose, non-tax revenue sources that provide operating support to District government agencies and programs. These revenue sources are listed in Table 3-15. A September 2015 D.C. Office of Revenue Analysis report (District of Columbia Non-Tax Revenue Report) provides detailed background information and relevant data about these general-purpose, non-tax revenues. The report is available under "Studies" in the "Reports" section of the Office of the Chief Financial Officer web site:

http://cfo.dc.gov/sites/default/files/dc/sites/ocfo/publication/attachments/Non-Tax%20Revenue%20Report%20_September%202015.pdf .

Non-Tax Revenue Policy Proposals:

- Historic Only Permit Fee Amendment
- DCRA Infraction Fine Increase
- Public Use of Public Buildings

Special Purpose Non-Tax Revenue

Special purpose non-tax revenues, often times referred to as O-Type or Other revenues, are funds generated from fees, fines, assessments, or reimbursements that are dedicated to the District agency that collects the revenues to cover the cost of performing the function. The "dedication" of the revenue to the collecting agency is what distinguishes this revenue from the general-purpose non-tax revenues. The legislation that creates the fee, fine or assessment must stipulate its purpose-designation and must also state whether any unspent funds are to retain designation at the conclusion of the fiscal year or revert to general-purpose funds. Unspent revenue in certain funds cannot revert to general purpose funds. Dedicated revenues limit the use of the District's General Fund revenue by earmarking a portion of the revenue for special purposes. Prior to FY 2002 dedicated non-tax revenues were not considered local revenues and as such were reported differently in the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) and reported with the District's federal and private grants in the Financial Plan.

In FY 2018 the District is anticipating approximately $575.4 million in revenue and use of fund balance of $84.4 million for a total of $659.8 million to cover the cost of performing the functions associated with these resources. The use of fund balance is a one-time revenue source and as such is not projected for FY 2019 – FY 2021. Table 3-17 (at the end of this chapter) shows the current law or baseline dedicated non-tax revenue by agency and fund. Proposed policy initiatives that would change the D.C. Official Code or the D.C. Municipal Regulations may, if enacted, provide additional revenue to specific Special Purpose Revenue funds in addition to the current law projected revenues shown in this table. Table 3-12 shows proposed policy initiatives affecting Special Purpose Revenue funds and their estimated revenue impact.

Special Purpose Fund Non-Tax Revenue Policy Proposals:

- Affordable Emergency Transportation and Pre-Hospital Medical Services Amendment
- Product Stewardship Program Amendment
- Rental Unit Fee Amendment
- Energy Assistance Trust Fund Amendment
- Charitable Solicitation Relief

POLICY PROPOSALS

Following are changes that are included in the FY 2018 Budget Support Act of 2017 (BSA) along with other changes that affect revenue since the most recent revenue estimate. Full information on all of the proposals included in the BSA can be found in the OCFO fiscal impact statement.

PROPERTY TAX CHANGES:

Subject to Appropriations Amendment Act of 2017 (BSA Subtitle VII-A)
The proposed budget and financial plan funds the Continuing Care Retirement Community Exemption Act of 2016. The Act exempts nonprofit continuing care retirement facilities from real property taxation, including portions of the facilities used as senior independent living. The subtitle also funds the Food, Environmental, and Economic Development in the District of Columbia Amendment Act of 2016 which, as amended by Subtitle VII-G, modified the eligible zones for the supermarket tax incentive by adding one additional census tract.

The subtitle forgives unpaid real property taxes, interest, penalties and fees on vacant land owned by the Archdiocese of Washington at 1600 Morris St SE.

International Spy Museum Tax Abatement Act of 2017 (BSA Subtitle VII-E)
The proposed tax abatement partially abates, through FY 2021, real property taxes due from the International Spy Museum on property in the L'Enfant Plaza neighborhood where it will open its new location. In addition the subtitle fully abates those real property taxes thereafter.

Homestead Exemption Compliance Initiative
This Office of Tax and Revenue (OTR) initiative would identify properties that are receiving the homestead exemption in error. Through a contract with a national vendor, properties receiving similar principal residence preference in other localities across the country would be identified.

St. Elizabeths East Campus Redevelopment Fund (BSA Subtitle II-E)
This subtitle establishes the St. Elizabeths East Campus Redevelopment Fund as a dedicated fund to support maintenance, operation, and construction activities on the St. Elizabeths East Campus Redevelopment Site. The subtitle dedicates possessory interest and sales tax revenues from the proposed Entertainment Sports Arena at the St. Elizabeths East Campus to the Fund. Revenues directed to the Fund will be capped at $855,000 annually during the financial plan period. The subtitle also abates any possessory interest taxes due from Arena users in excess of $855,000 annually during the financial plan period.

Women's National Democratic Club Real Property Tax Exemption Act of 2017 (BSA Subtitle VII-Y)
The subtitle exempts real property at 1526 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W. from real property taxes, so long as it is owned by the Women's National Democratic Club.

Public Space Rental Forgiveness Act of 2017 (BSA Subtitle VII-L)
This subtitle forgives, and allows a refund of, public space rental fees levied against public space located at 801 13th Street, N.W. (Lot 812, Square 287) beginning July 1, 2016 and extending through June 30, 2017.

GENERAL SALES/USE TAX CHANGES:

St. Elizabeths East Campus Redevelopment Fund (BSA Subtitle II-E)
This subtitle establishes the St. Elizabeths East Campus Redevelopment Fund as a dedicated fund to support maintenance, operation, and construction activities on the St. Elizabeths East Campus Redevelopment Site. The subtitle dedicates possessory interest and sales tax revenues from the proposed Entertainment Sports Arena at the St. Elizabeths East Campus to the Fund. Revenues directed to the Fund will be capped at $855,000 annually during the financial plan period.

Digital Products/Services Compliance Initiative
The Office of Tax and Revenue intends to issue clarifying notice of taxes required to be remitted by companies providing digital products.

Healthy Schools Amendment Act (BSA Subtitle (BSA Subtitle VI-L)
This subtitle increases the sales taxes to be transferred to the Healthy Schools Fund in fiscal year 2018 from $4,266,000 to $4,666,000.

INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX CHANGES:

Bank Attachment Compliance Initiative
OTR has identified financial institutions within the District servicing delinquent taxpayers and can use this information to collect past due amounts.

Legislative Branch Employee Retirement Benefits Match Amendment Act (BSA Subtitle I-L)
The subtitle gives employees of the D.C. Council, D.C. Auditor, and Office of Advisory Neighborhood Commissions who are enrolled in the 457 deferred compensation plan, a one-to-one match, of up to 3 percent of their salary, for their contributions to the plan. The revenue impact reflects expected increased use of pre-tax income for retirement savings.

DEED AND RECORDATION TAX CHANGES:

First-Time Homebuyer Recordation Tax Benefit Amendment Act (BSA Subtitle VII-J) and Subject to Appropriations Amendment Act of 2017 (BSA Subtitle VII-A)
The Budget Support Act amends the First-Time Homebuyer Tax Benefit Amendment Act of 2016 and repeals its subject to appropriations clause. The amended law provides a reduced recordation tax rate of 0.725 percent to eligible first-time homebuyers with income of no more than 180 percent of the area median income, provided that the purchase price of the eligible home does not exceed $625,000.

Hill East Community Garden Real Property Tax Relief Amendment Act (BSA Subtitle VII-O)
The subtitle preserves the tax exemption of property in Square 1100 Lot 109 after transfer from the Capitol Hill Community Garden Land Trust (CHCG) to the Hill East Community Garden (HECH), and exempts the transaction from deed transfer and recordation taxes.

NON-TAX REVENUE CHANGES:

Historic Only Permit Fee Reduction Amendment Act of 2017 (BSA Subtitle II-A)
This subtitle reduces building permit fees to $33 for certain work done on properties located in historic districts.

DCRA Infraction Fine Increase Amendment Act (BSA Subtitle II-W)
The subtitle doubles the fines for certain infractions issued by the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs (DCRA) including those for: willful violations of housing regulations, failure to secure or repair an unsafe structure, attempting to repair after authorization period has expired, allowing a nuisance on land that affects public health comfort or safety, failure to maintain an office or agent in the District, working without a permit, exceeding scope of a permit, failure to remove hazardous materials, failure to comply with terms of a stop work order, removal of a posted stop work order, and failure to comply with a posted "unsafe to use" notice. The bill also increases all DCRA fines in accordance with the Consumer Price Index every two years beginning on January 1, 2018.

Public Use of Public Buildings (BSA Subtitle I-X)
This subtitle expands the range of fees that can be waived or reduced for civic and citizen organizations and Advisory Neighborhood Commissions use of public space or public buildings.

DEDICATED TAX REVENUE CHANGES:

St. Elizabeths East Campus Redevelopment (BSA Subtitle II-E)
This subtitle establishes the St. Elizabeths East Campus Redevelopment Fund as a dedicated fund to support maintenance, operation, and construction activities on the St. Elizabeths East Campus Redevelopment Site. The subtitle dedicates possessory interest and sales tax revenues from the proposed Entertainment Sports Arena at the St. Elizabeths East Campus to the Fund. Revenues directed to the Fund will be capped at $855,000 annually during the financial plan period.

Medicaid Hospital Outpatient Supplemental Payment Act (BSA Subtitle V-F)
This subtitle authorizes the District to continue to charge a fee on each hospital's outpatient gross patient revenue in fiscal year 2018. All revenues collected from fees will be deposited into a non-lapsing Hospital Provider Fee Fund (Fund). The Fund must be used to make Medicaid outpatient hospital access payments and refunds. The subtitle specifies that the Fund can be used to pay for administrative expenses incurred by the Department of Health Care Finance and limits the amount that can be used for this purposes to $150,000. The subtitle expires on September 30, 2018.

Medicaid Hospital Inpatient Rate Supplement Act (BSA Subtitle V-G)
This subtitle authorizes the District to continue to charge a fee on each hospital's impatient net patient revenue in fiscal year 2018. All revenues collected from fees will be deposited into a non-lapsing Hospital Fund (Fund). The Fund must be used to fund District Medicaid inpatient fee-for-service. The subtitle expires on September 30, 2018.

Hospitality Tax Dedication Amendment Act of 2017 (BSA Subtitle VII-T)
The subtitle adds a new dedicated tax of 0.3 percent on gross receipts from hospitality charges, including hotel rooms, and inns, and dedicates it to the Washington Convention and Sports Authority (WCSA) for transferring to Destination DC to market the District of Columbia as a destination. This increases the accommodation tax to 10.35 and the overall tax on hotels to 14.8 percent.

Healthy Schools Amendment Act (BSA Subtitle (BSA Subtitle VI-L)
This subtitle increases the sales taxes to be transferred to the Healthy Schools Fund in fiscal year 2018 from $4,266,000 to $4,666,000.

SPECIAL PURPOSE FUND NON-TAX REVENUE CHANGES:

Affordable Emergency Transportation and Pre-Hospital Medical Services Amendment Act of 2017 (BSA Subtitle III-C)

This subtitle requires a health insurer, hospital, medical service corporation, or health maintenance organization to reimburse the District for the cost of emergency ambulance and pre-hospital medical services at the rates established by the District. The subtitle also establishes the Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department EMS Reform Fund to enhance the delivery of emergency medical services in the District. The Fund will receive any new revenues generated from this subtitle.

Product Stewardship Program Amendment Act of 2017 (BSA Subtitle VI-A)

The District Department of Energy and Environment (DOEE) implements two product stewardship programs: the electronics recycling program and the paint recycling program. The subtitle establishes the Product Stewardship Fund, a non-lapsing, special purpose revenue fund into which DOEE will deposit registration and shortfall fees associated with the electronic recycling and permit fees associated with the paint stewardship program.

Rental Unit Fee Amendment Act (BSA Subtitle II-V)

The subtitle increases from $21.50 to $25 the annual registration fee housing providers must pay for each unit . The additional revenue will go into the Rental Unit Fee Fund, which will be administered by the Office of the Tenant Advocate and support the office's activities. The fund will be non-lapsing.

Energy Assistance Trust Fund Amendment Act of 2017 (BSA Subtitle VI-K)

The subtitle increases the fee assessed on sales of electricity and gas for the Energy Assistance Trust Fund that is used to fund the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program.

Subject to Appropriations Amendment Act of 2017 (BSA Subtitle VII-A)

This subtitle funds the Charitable Solicitations Relief Amendment Act of 2016, allowing DCRA to waive the $412 biannual registration fee for individuals soliciting donations if donations are less than $25,000 per calendar year. The subtitle reduces revenue in the DCRA Basic Business License Fund.

Remark: 1) Actual revenue for agencies with corresponding revenue object titles starting or containing "Other Revenue" may include other one-time minor revenues such as a refund of an overpayment.

2) Numbers are rounded to the nearest whole dollar. Total sum of each revenue category may slightly differ from the sum of the individual revenue items due to the exclusion of negative revenues or adjustments.

Table 3-16: Dedicated Tax Fund Revenue

Table 3-16, which follows, reports the certified revenues and fund balance use for the District's Dedicated Tax funds. The revenues reported in this table are those Office of Revenue Analysis (ORA) projections based on current law. They do not include any policy proposals affecting revenues or fund balances included in this FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan. Any such policy changes are reported earlier in this chapter in Table 3-12 (Policy Proposals Impacting General Fund Revenues).

The first column in Table 3-16 reports each fund's available fund balance at the end of FY 2016. Certain funds, by legislation, can retain and carry over to succeeding fiscal years revenue received during the fiscal year that exceeds the fund's expenditures. This retained fund balance is an available resource for those funds in future fiscal years. In the case of other funds, the legislation that created the fund did not specify that the fund could retain its revenue. Therefore, at the end of the fiscal year, that excess revenue is transferred to the Local fund. The amounts shown in the "FY 2016 End of Year Fund Balance" column were calculated by the Office of Financial Operations and Systems (OFOS) during the preparation of the District's Fiscal Year 2016 Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR).

The next three columns show, for FY 2017, projected revenue under current law and fund balance use by fund. The "Certified Resources" column is the total of the "Certified Revenues" and the "Certified Fund Balance Use Columns."

The next three columns of the table report, for FY 2018, projected revenue under current law, projected fund balance use by fund, and total certified resources.

The final three columns report the amount of projected revenue under current law for FY 2019, FY 2020, and FY 2021. Fund balance use is not projected over this three-year period due to the uncertainty of the amount of available fund balances that far into the future.

For each fund, the table reports the tax revenue source(s) from which the dedication is made.

The Dedicated Tax funds in Table 3-16 are divided into two sections. Those Dedicated Tax funds that are part of General Fund revenue are reported in the first section of the table. These funds are categorized in the District's accounting system within Appropriated Fund 0110 (Dedicated Taxes). The second section of the table includes three Dedicated Tax funds that are categorized within Appropriated Fund 0610 (Enterprise and Other Funds – Dedicated Tax).

A December 2015 D.C. Office of Revenue Analysis report (District of Columbia Dedicated Taxes Report) describes in some detail the Dedicated Tax funds listed in Table 3-16. It is available under "Studies" in the "Reports" section of the Office of the Chief Financial Officer web site:

Table 3-17: Special Purpose (O-type) Revenue Funds

Table 3-17, which follows, reports the certified revenues and fund balance use for the District's Special Purpose (O-type) Revenue funds. The revenues reported in this table are District agency projections based on current law. They do not include any policy proposals affecting revenues or fund balances included in this FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan. Any such policy changes are reported earlier in this chapter in Table 3-12 (Policy Proposals Impacting General Fund Revenues).

The first column in Table 3-17 reports each fund's available fund balance at the end of FY 2016. Certain funds, by legislation, can retain and carry over to succeeding fiscal years revenue received during the fiscal year that exceeds the fund's expenditures. This retained fund balance is an available resource for those funds in future fiscal years. In the case of other funds, the legislation that created the fund did not specify that the fund could retain its revenue. Therefore, at the end of the fiscal year, that excess revenue is transferred to the Local fund. The amounts shown in the "FY 2016 End of Year Fund Balance" column were calculated by the Office of Financial Operations and Systems (OFOS) during the preparation of the District's Fiscal Year 2016 Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR).

The next three columns show, for FY 2017, projected revenue under current law and fund balance use by fund. The "Certified Resources" column is the total of the "Certified Revenues" and the "Certified Fund Balance Use Columns." The total certified resources column does not account for any legislated revenue transfers from the fund.

The next three columns of the table report, for FY 2018, projected revenue under current law, projected fund balance use by fund, and total certified resources.

The final three columns report the amount of projected revenue under current law for FY 2019, FY 2020, and FY 2021. Fund balance use is not projected over this three-year period due to the uncertainty of the amount of available fund balances that far into the future.

A February 2015 D.C. Office of Revenue Analysis report (District of Columbia Special Purpose Revenue Funds Report) describes in some detail the Special Purpose Revenue funds listed in Table 3-17. It is available under "Studies" in the "Reports" section of the Office of the Chief Financial Officer web site:

The fee is in effect for the fiscal year beginning October 1, 2016. D.C. Code Citation: Title 44, Chapter 6C	0.142% of the hospital's outpatient gross patient revenue. Note: All revenue from this fee is dedicated to the Hospital Provider Fee Fund.	$0 Amount is net of $6,406 Hospital Provider Fee Fund transfer.

Based on the February 2017 revenue forecast, sufficient recurring revenues are available to implement all of the remaining tax policy changes recommended by the District of Columbia Tax Revision Commission. These changes become effective in January 2018.

1. Individual Income Tax: The personal exemption will be increased from $1,775 to $3,700 to conform to the federal level. The standard deduction will be increased from $5,650 to $6,100 for Single, from $7,800 to $8,950 for Head of Household, and from $10,275 to $12,200 for Married taxpayers. The low income credit will also be repealed.
2. Corporate and Unincorporated Business Franchise Taxes: The corporate and unincorporated business franchise tax rate will be reduced from 9.0% to 8.25%.
3. Estate Tax: The estate tax threshold will be increased from $2 million to conform to the federal level.

Source of General Fund Revenue Amounts: Government of the District of Columbia Comprehensive Annual Financial Report, Year Ended September 30, 2016

Operating Expenditures

In FY 2016, the District's Local funds expenditures, excluding Dedicated Taxes, increased by $452.6 million, or 6.7 percent, over FY 2015. Since FY 2013, expenditures have increased by an average of 5.9 percent annually as depicted in Figure 4-1 and referenced in Table 4A-1. Table 4A-1 of the Appendix displays Local funds expenditures by fiscal year for selected agencies and each appropriation title.

Dedicated Tax funds were segregated as separate funds beginning in FY 2007; their expenditures are shown by agency and appropriation title in Table 4A-2 of the Appendix. They totaled $304.4 million in FY 2016.

The $452.6 million Local funds increase in FY 2016 was partly due to spending increases of $90.2 million in the Housing Production Trust Fund subsidy, $89.9 million in the Public Safety and Justice Settlement and Judgments, $31.5 million in the Department of General Services, $42.2 million in the Office of Contracting and Procurement, $35.4 million in the Department of Human Services, and a net of $81.2 million in the Public Education System agencies.

On a general operating funds basis, including non-Local funds as well as Local, total expenditures increased by an average of 5.6 percent annually from FY 2013 to FY 2016 (Table 4A-3 in the Appendix).

This chapter examines operating expenditures for the District and reflects expenditure trends. Specifically, the chapter:

- Examines the growth in expenditures from FY 2013 to FY 2016 by area of spending (agency and function); and
- Examines the growth by such categories as personal services, contractual services, and subsidies and transfers.

This chapter focuses primarily on the District's Local funds actual expenditures. It does not discuss capital expenditures, which are described in the Capital Appendices volume. Furthermore, it does not include agencies whose operations are captured in other funds, such as proprietary funds and component units of the District.

Figure 4-2 shows the growth trends of Local funds expenditures by appropriation title from FY 2013 through FY 2016. Tables 4A-1, 4A-2, and 4A-3 in the Appendix to this chapter provide additional detail on Local, Dedicated Tax, and General Operating funds expenditures in the largest District agencies from FY 2013 through FY 2016. The following sections describe major elements of growth during this time period, by appropriation title.

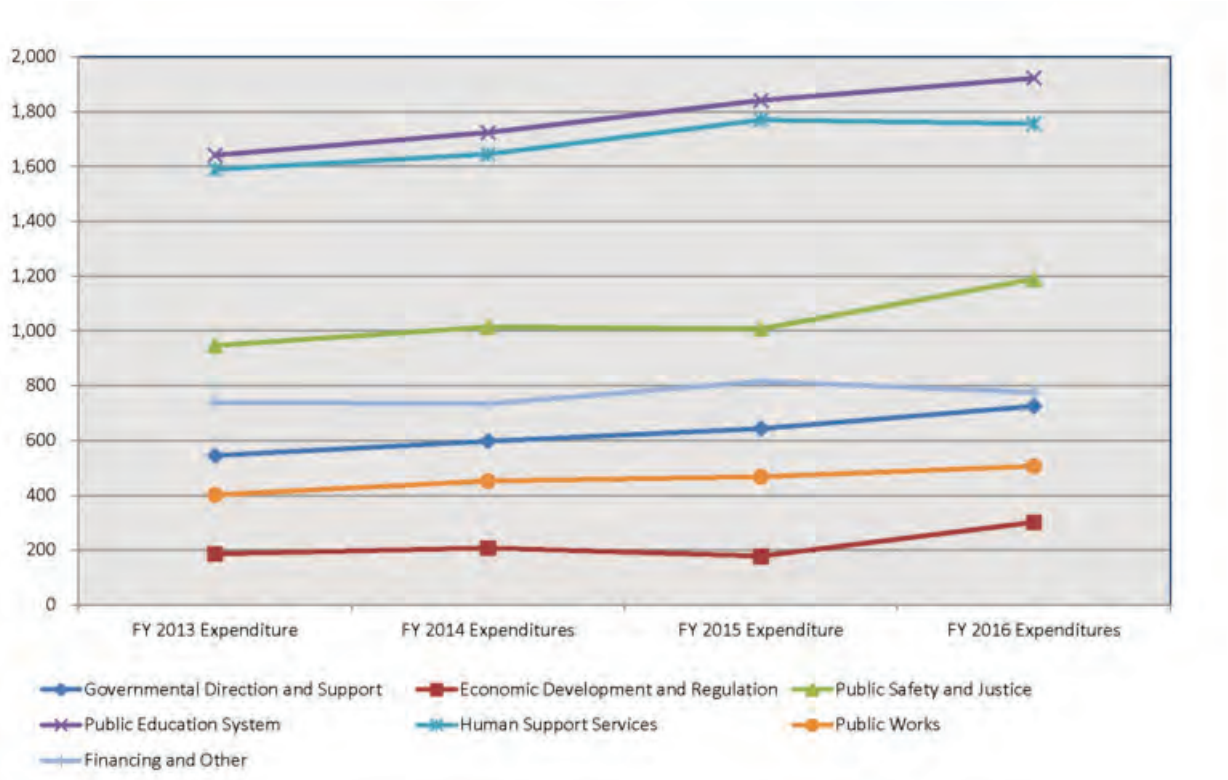
Local Funds Actual Expenditures (Excluding Dedicated Taxes) by Appropriation Title, by Fiscal Year

Does Not Include Enterprise and Other Funds

(Dollars in millions)



Human Support Services

The FY 2016 Local funds expenditures of $1,755.2 million in this appropriation title reflect a decrease of $14.1 million, or 0.8 percent, from the FY 2015 expenditures of $1,769.3 million. Local funds expenditures in the Human Support Services area increased by 3.4 percent (annual average) from FY 2013 to FY 2016.

- Department of Behavioral Health (DBH) – The agency will go through a major restructure in FY 2018. Many of the activities previously offered in the Behavioral Health Services and Supports, Addiction Prevention and Recovery Administration, and Behavioral Health Financing Fee for Service divisions have been renamed and will be offered in the newly created Accountability, System Transformation, and Community Services divisions.

  DBH, among other initiatives, will dedicate resources to combat underage drinking and synthetic drug use in the District. "There's A Reason" is a campaign that targets parents and caregivers to help address underage drinking. Drinking at an early age not only increases a child's risk for cancer and other deadly diseases, but also can lead to adult alcoholism, poor performances in school, and increase the likelihood of drug use.

  Synthetic drugs became a real concern during the summer of 2015. Synthetic drugs are chemical blends that mirror the effects of other well-known drugs like marijuana, ecstasy, and cocaine. These drugs are extremely harmful and unsafe for people to consume or ingest. K2 is a synthetic drug that was created to mimic the "high" associated with marijuana. A series of violent crimes and hospitalizations were associated with K2, and the District has been working very hard to minimize the use and distribution of K2. Each ward has a Prevention Center that provides services that support youth in staying alcohol and drug free.
- Department of Health Care Finance (DHCF) – The Fiscal Year 2017 Budget Support Act of 2016 contains language with regards to two taxes placed on hospitals that operate within the District that will sunset on September 30, 2017. Fund balances in these two funds will not revert to Local funds but will remain until expended.

  The Medicaid Hospital Outpatient Supplement Payment Act places a tax on District hospitals outpatient gross patient revenue. The money from the tax goes into the Hospital Provider Fee Fund, which DHCF uses to give supplemental Medicaid payments to hospitals for outpatient services. The Medicaid Hospital Inpatient Rate Supplement Act of 2016 places a tax on hospital's inpatient gross patient revenue. The money from this tax goes into the Hospital Fund, which DHCF uses to fund Medicaid inpatient hospital services for fee-for-service and managed care operations.

Public Education System

Local funds expenditures in the Public Education appropriation title increased by 5.4 percent (annual average) from FY 2013 to FY 2016. The District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) and the District of Columbia Public Charter Schools (DCPCS) are budgeted through the Uniform Per Student Funding Formula (UPSFF) (see District of Columbia Official Code §38-29). This formula provides a foundation funding level for each student and weighting factors for such characteristics as grade levels and special education categories. It also accounts for periodic inflation adjustments and for changes in enrollment. Local funds expenditures by DCPS were higher than any other District agency in FY 2016, when DCPS expenditures surpassed DCHF. DCHF expenditures exceed DCPS expenditures from FY 2013 until FY 2015. DCPS also employs more than one-fifth of all District employees. DCPS and DCPCS have been showing significant annual growth in enrollment and expenditures, and the trend continued during FY 2016.

Table 4-1 shows enrollment and Local funds expenditure trends for DCPS and DCPCS. Enrollment in the two systems combined has consistently increased in the last 4 fiscal years.

- District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) – Expenditures in FY 2016 at DCPS increased by 2.9 percent over FY 2015. Enrollment increased by 1.9 percent from FY 2015 to FY 2016, and the foundation level for the UPSFF increased to $9,492 in FY 2016.
- District of Columbia Public Charter Schools (DCPCS) – Expenditures in FY 2016 for DCPCS in Local funds increased by 11.8 percent over FY 2015. Enrollment increased by 3.2 percent from FY 2015 to FY 2016.
- Office of the State Superintendent of Education (OSSE) – As a result of the Public Education Reform Amendment Act of 2007, a number of functions from the Department of Human Services, the University of the District of Columbia, and DCPS moved to OSSE, and the agency has become the state administering agency for most of the District's grant funds for public education. Local funds expenditures showed a decrease of $11.2 million, or 8.1 percent, in FY 2016 from FY 2015.
- University of the District of Columbia (UDC) – The District's subsidy to the University decreased by 2.1 percent from $73.5 million in FY 2015 to $71.9 million in FY 2016.

Public Safety and Justice

Local funds expenditures in the public safety area increased by 7.9 percent (annual average) from FY 2013 to FY 2016. The two largest agencies in this appropriation title are the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) and the Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department (FEMS), accounting for 61.9 percent of the expenditures of the appropriation title.

- Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) and Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department (FEMS) – Expenditures at MPD increased from FY 2013 to FY 2016 by an average of 2.5 percent annually. Expenditures for FEMS increased by 6.4 percent (annual average) from FY 2013 to FY 2016.
- Department of Corrections – This is the third largest agency in the Public Safety appropriation title based on annual expenditures. There was a Local funds average annual increase of 3.5 percent over the FY 2013 – FY 2016 period.
- Police Officers' and Fire Fighters' Retirement System – This is the fourth largest agency in the Public Safety appropriation title based on annual expenditures. Under the 1997 Revitalization Act, the Federal government assumed the District's pre-June 1997 unfunded pension liability. In subsequent years, as salaries have increased, adjustments were legislated for pension benefits, and the sizes of the FEMS and MPD workforce have increased. The pension contribution has fluctuated in recent years and has increased by an annual average of 12.1 percent between FY 2013 and FY 2016.

Financing and Other

Agencies in the Financing and Other appropriation title include various debt service functions as well as the District's reserve funds.

- Repayment of Interest on Short-Term Borrowing – The District issues short-term Tax Revenue Anticipation Notes (TRANs) in order to finance its seasonal cash flow needs. The total amount of TRANs outstanding at any time during a fiscal year may not exceed 20 percent of the total anticipated revenue of the District for such fiscal year, and such notes must mature within the fiscal year in which they are issued. In FY 2016, the District issued $250 million of TRANs for this purpose.
- Repayment of Loans and Interest – The District may issue long-term debt in the form of General Obligation Bonds or Income Tax Secured Revenue Bonds to finance capital projects and to refund indebtedness of the District. Such bond issuances are not permitted during any fiscal year if total debt service on tax-supported debt exceeds 12 percent of total District general fund expenditures in any year during the 6-year capital plan period. The Capital Improvements Plan included bond issuance authority to finance specific capital projects totaling $1.219 billion in Fiscal Year 2016. The District had approximately $3.8 billion of General Obligation Bonds and approximately $4.2 billion of Income Tax Secured Revenue Bonds outstanding as of September 30, 2016.
- Equipment Lease Operating – The Master Equipment Lease/Purchase Program provides tax-exempt financing for projects with short-term to intermediate-term useful lives. Rolling stock such as police, emergency, and public works vehicles, as well as information technology equipment, are acquired on a short-term lease/purchase basis. The District has financed approximately $537 million of its capital equipment needs through the program and has approximately $61 million in principal outstanding as of September 30, 2016. This financing mechanism is being replaced, and the District will begin to issue short-term bonds for the acquisition of these types of assets in FY 2017.
- Repayment of Revenue Bonds – The Council may authorize the issuance of revenue bonds, notes, or other obligations (including refunding bonds, notes, or other obligations) to borrow funds to finance governmental projects by creating a security interest in any District revenues. Such bonds, notes, or other obligations, if issued, are to be secured by a pledge of the revenues realized from the property, facilities, developments, and improvements financed by the issuance of such bonds, notes, or other obligations or by the mortgage of real property or the creation of security interest in available revenues, assets, or other property. In FY 2007, FY 2010, and FY 2013, the District issued bonds for its New Communities Initiative, with such bonds secured by a portion of revenues dedicated to the Housing Production Trust Fund. The District had approximately $113 million of these bonds outstanding as September 30, 2016.

- Pay-As-You-Go (Paygo) Capital Fund – Paygo capital financing is a transfer of funds from the General Fund to the Capital Improvements Fund to pay for capital project expenditures. Although Paygo is essentially cash financing, capital activities funded with Paygo dollars must be capital-eligible as defined by the Home Rule Act and OCFO policy. Significant amounts of Paygo capital funding is planned for the current 6-year capital plan period.

Other Appropriation Titles

Expenditures in other appropriation titles are:

- Governmental Direction and Support

  This appropriation title funds agencies that manage overall government operations, including the Department of General Services, the Office of the Mayor, the Council of the District of Columbia, the Office of the City Administrator, the Office of the Chief Technology Officer, the Office of the Attorney General, and the Office of the Chief Financial Officer. Local funds expenditures in this appropriation title have shown an average increase in growth at 10.0 percent annually from FY 2013 to FY 2016.

- Economic Development and Regulation

  This is the smallest of the appropriation titles. The Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs, the Housing Authority Subsidy, the Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development, the Department of Employment Services, the Housing Production Trust Fund Subsidy, and the Department of Housing and Community Development accounted for 86.0 percent of the expenditures in this title in FY 2016. Local funds expenditures increased from FY 2013 to FY 2016 at an average rate of 17.5 percent annually.

- Public Works

  The Public Works appropriation title is dominated, in Local funds expenditures, by three agencies: the Department of Public Works (DPW), the District Department of Transportation (DDOT), and the subsidy to the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA). DPW increased by 6.9 percent, on average, annually from FY 2013 to FY 2016 for Local funds, while DDOT also increased by 9.6 percent for Local funds. Local funds expenditures in this appropriation title have shown an average increase in growth at 8.0 percent annually from FY 2013 to FY 2016.

Summary of Local Funds Expenditure Growth by Agency and Function

All of the appropriation titles experienced increases in total average annual expenditures since FY 2013. Expenditures in Financing and Other increased for FY 2015 over FY 2014, although decreasing in FY 2016 for an average annual increase of 1.6 percent, while Governmental Direction and Support, Public Education System, and Public Works had annual increases since FY 2013. Overall, the District as a whole had an average annual increase of 5.9 percent for Local Funds expenditures from FY 2013 to FY 2016.

Public Education is the largest appropriation title, comprising 26.8 percent of total Local funds expenditures. Human Support Services is the second largest appropriation title with a 24.5 percent share of total Local funds expenditures.

Actual DCPS enrollment has been growing annually and increased again in FY 2016. The enrollment in Public Charter Schools has shown a steady increase at an average annual rate of 3.9 percent since FY 2013. The enrollment in Public Charter Schools accounts for 44.5 percent of total enrollment in the combined District schools system in FY 2016. From FY 2013 to FY 2016, the combined District schools system enrollment shows an increase of 2.9 percent annually.

Federal Payment Expenditures

A federal payment is a direct payment made to the District by the federal government. The authorization for each payment is found in Division A, Title 1, of the District's annual Appropriations Act. Federal payments to the District are subject to federal Government Accountability Office (GAO) guidelines and government-wide rescissions. During FY 2016, the federal government appropriated a total of $95.9 million in federal payments to the District that could be spent by the agencies. Table 4A-5 of the Appendix details the federal payments made to the District from FY 2013 through FY 2016, by agency. These funds have various availability periods and, in some cases, will be spent over subsequent years. Federal payments are detailed within each agency's budget chapter.

In addition, in FY 2016 the District spent $14.3 million from the federal payment for Emergency Planning and Security Costs. This payment was previously reimbursable, subject to the approval of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). In FY 2009, this became a direct federal payment. The details of the FY 2016 expenses are found in the agency budget chapter for the Emergency Planning and Security Fund, which is located within the Financing and Other section of Volume 4, Agency Budget Chapters.

Federal Grants Expenditures

Unlike federal payments, which come directly from the U.S. Treasury as authorized by the annual Appropriations Act, federal grants are awarded by federal agencies.

Table 4A-6 of the Appendix shows federal grant expenditures from FY 2013 through FY 2016 by agency. Overall, their annual growth rate was 4.7 percent. The Department of Health Care Finance received the majority of the funds, consisting primarily of funding for Medicaid.

Expenditure Growth by Object Class, FY 2013 to FY 2016

This section examines expenditures by object class – that is, by the type of services paid for, such as personal services, supplies, or fixed costs for rent or utilities – from FY 2013 through FY 2016. Since FY 2013, the rate of growth for Local funds expenditures for nonpersonal services (NPS), such as contractual services, equipment and equipment rental, subsidies and transfers, and debt service, has risen along with personal services (PS), which include regular salaries and wages and other additional costs (Figure 4-3). Tables 4A-7 and 4A-8 in the appendix to this chapter provide details.

Personal Services

From FY 2013 to FY 2016, total Local funds PS costs including salaries, extra pay (the category including overtime), differential pay (for night or weekend work, for example), and fringe benefits (primarily health insurance costs) increased at an average annual rate of 6.6 percent.

Table 4-2 shows overtime expenses from FY 2013 through FY 2016 by agency. The Metropolitan Police Department, Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department, Department of Public Works, Department of General Services, Department of Corrections, DC Public Schools, District Department of Transportation, Department of Behavioral Health, Department of Youth Rehabilitation Services, and Special Education Transportation comprise 89.2 percent of the total FY 2016 overtime expenditures.

Nonpersonal Services

As shown in Table 4A-7 of the Appendix, the average annual growth rate from FY 2013 to FY 2016 for Local funds NPS expenditures, excluding retirement, is 5.8 percent. Since FY 2015, Nonpersonal Services expenditures have increased by 7.7 percent.

Notes:

1) This table shows appropriations made to the District that could be expended by District agencies. Unless specified below, the table does not show payments made to WASA or pass-through payments where the District passes the payment to the designated recipients

2) The FY 2013 approved budget was affected by sequestration.

3) The FY 2014 $23,800 for Emergency Planning and Security Costs includes $8.9 million for the Presidential Inauguration. The $8.9 million was a reimbursement for a prior year inaugural Local fund cost for which associated revenues were recorded in Local funds. This was later reversed in the system of record.

4) The FY 2014 and FY 2015 Federal Payments for DCPS and OSSE/Public Charter Schools were later transferred to Federal Grants.

FY 2018 – FY 2023 Capital Improvements Plan

Introduction

The District's proposed capital budget for FY 2018 – FY 2023 calls for financing $1.266 billion of capital expenditures in FY 2018. The FY 2018 budget highlights are:

- $447 million for the District Department of Transportation, to include $119 million for improvements to the South Capitol Street corridor and replacement of the Frederick Douglass Bridge, $32 million for local streets rehabilitation, $12 million for expansion of the Streetcar line, and $15 million for alley maintenance and rehabilitation;
- $289 million for District of Columbia Public Schools, to include $107 million for renovation of elementary schools, $50 million for renovation of middle schools, $75 million for renovation of high schools, and $14 million for swing space needed during construction;
- $127 million for the Washington Metropolitan Transit Authority (WMATA), to include $76 million for the inter-jurisdictional Capital Funding Agreement and $50 million for the Passenger Rail Investment and Improvement Act (PRIIA) Funding Agreement;
- $82 million for the District of Columbia Public Library, to include $60 million for the Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial central library;
- $72 million for the Department of Parks and Recreation;
- $60 million for the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development, to include $30 million for New Communities; and
- $32 million for the Department of Health Care Finance, to include $22 million to upgrade IT systems and $10 million for improvements at United Medical Center.

The proposed capital budget calls for financing of general capital expenditures in FY 2018 from the following sources:

- $948 million of General Obligation (G.O.) or Income Tax (I.T.) revenue bonds, including $98 million in GARVEE bonds, $105 million in short-term bonds, and $14 million in taxable bonds;
- $173 million of federal grants from Highway Trust Fund revenue;
- $68 million of pay-as-you-go (Paygo) capital financing, which is a transfer of funds from the General Fund to the General Capital Improvements Fund for the purchase of capital-eligible assets;
- $47 million of Local Transportation Fund special purpose (Rights-of-Way occupancy fees) revenue;
- $28 million of Local Highway Trust Fund revenue (motor fuel taxes) for the local match to support federal highway grants; and
- $1 million from the sale of assets (land at McMillan and Walter Reed).

This overview chapter summarizes:

- The District's proposed FY 2018 – FY 2023 capital budget and planned expenditures;
- Major capital efforts; and
- Fund balance of the District's capital fund.

The Highway Trust Fund and related projects are presented in Appendix H and the D.C. Water and Sewer Authority's capital program is presented in Appendix I of Volume 5, the FY 2018 Capital Improvements Plan.

The Proposed FY 2018 – FY 2023 Capital Budget and Planned Expenditures

The District budgets for capital projects using a six-year Capital Improvements Plan (CIP), which is updated annually.

The CIP consists of:

- The appropriated budget authority request for the upcoming CIP six-year period, and
- An expenditure plan with projected funding over the next 6 years.

Each year's CIP includes many of the projects from the previous year's CIP, but some projects are proposed to receive different levels of funding than in the previous year's budget plan. New projects are added each year as well.

The CIP is used as the basis for formulating the District's annual capital budget. The Council and the Congress adopt the budget as part of the District's overall six-year CIP. Inclusion of a project in a congressionally adopted capital budget and approval of requisite financing give the District the authority to spend funds for each project. The remaining five years of the program show the official plan for making improvements to District-owned facilities in future years.

Following approval of the capital budget, bond acts and bond resolutions are adopted to authorize financing for the majority of projects identified in the capital budget. The District has issued Income Tax (I.T.) revenue bonds and General Obligation (G.O.) bonds (both tax-exempt and taxable) to finance some or all of its capital projects. Where this chapter refers to G.O. bond financing for capital projects, the District might ultimately use I.T. bond financing depending on market conditions. Capital projects in the CIP are also financed with short-term bonds, GARVEE bonds, and pay-as-you-go (Paygo) financing. Taxable bonds may be issued by the District where that funding is appropriate for certain projects.

The District uses two terms in describing budgets for capital projects:

- Budget authority is given to a project at its outset in the amount of its planned lifetime budget; later it can be increased or decreased during the course of implementing the project. The District's appropriation request consists of changes to budget authority for all projects in the CIP.
- Allotments are planned expenditure amounts on an annual basis. A multi-year project receives full budget authority in its first year but only receives an allotment in the amount that is projected to be spent in that first year. In later years, additional allotments are given annually. If a year's allotment would increase the total allotments above the current lifetime budget amount, an increase in budget authority is required to cover the difference.

Agencies may obligate funds up to the limit of (lifetime) budget authority for a project but cannot spend more than the total of allotments the project has received to date (see Appendix D of Volume 5). The FY 2018 to FY 2023 CIP proposes a net increase in budget authority of $1,591 million during the next six fiscal years (an increase of $2,792 million of new budget authority offset by $1,201 million of rescissions).

Planned capital expenditures from local sources in FY 2018 total $1,092 million to be funded primarily by bonds, Paygo, and the local transportation fund special purpose revenue. To finance these expenditures, the District plans to borrow $746 million in new G.O./I.T. bonds (including $14 million in taxable bonds), borrow $105 million in short-term bonds, use $98 million from the sale of GARVEE bonds, fund $68 million using Paygo, use $47 million in local transportation fund special purpose revenue, use $1 million from the sale of assets, and use $28 million for the local match to the federal grants from the Federal Highway Administration. Proposed funding sources are shown in Figure 5-1 and proposed borrowing is shown in Table 5-7.

In recent years, the District has increased its capital expenditures to reinvest in its aging infrastructure. The District is limited by funding constraints as well as multiple competing demands on capital and is not able to fund all identified capital needs. As a result of these demands, the District has taken action to meet its priorities while also maintaining a fiscally sound CIP. This plan has been accomplished by prioritizing capital projects and rescinding budget authority from projects deemed less important, and by reallocating budget to existing and new high priority projects to meet the most pressing infrastructure needs.

Figure 5-2 illustrates FY 2018 capital budget allotments by major agency. Funding for the District Department of Transportation constitutes the largest share of the planned expenditures. Large shares of funding also go toward the District of Columbia Public Schools, WMATA, and the District of Columbia Public Library. In addition, unspent capital budget allotments from prior years will be available to be spent in FY 2018.

Table 5-2 summarizes planned expenditure amounts for FY 2018 and budget authority requests for FY 2018 – FY 2023. It includes local funds (G.O./I.T, taxable and short-term bonds, Paygo, and local transportation funds) and federal grants.

The capital fund pro forma, Table 5-3, summarizes sources and uses in the District's CIP. The Project Description Forms that constitute the detail of the capital budget document (Volume 5, the FY 2018 Capital Improvements Plan) include projects receiving new allotments in FY 2018 through FY 2023, as included in the pro forma, totaling $1.266 billion in FY 2018.

FY 2018 Operating Budget Impact

In general, each $13.5 million in borrowing has approximately a $1 million impact on the operating budget for annual debt service. The capital budget's primary impact on the operating budget is the debt service cost, paid from local revenue in the operating budget, associated with issuing long-term bonds to finance the CIP. Debt service is funded in the FY 2018 operating budget and financial plan.

A secondary impact on the operating budget is the cost of operating and maintaining newly completed capital projects. For example, the replacement of a building's roof, windows, and mechanical systems may decrease the cost of utilities, which would effectively lower the owner agency's operating costs. Conversely, the construction of a new recreation center is likely to increase the owner agency's operating costs for staffing the facility and operating programs there. Similarly, completed information technology projects will likely entail additional operating costs such as upgrades, license renewals, or training of staff to operate new systems as required.

Table 5-5 reflects the summary of the projected impacts, by agency, and by fiscal year for the 6-year CIP period. Individual project pages in the "Project Description Forms" section of Volume 5, the FY 2018 Capital Improvements Plan, show more details of the operating impact resulting from placing a particular newly completed project into service.

Capital-Funded Positions

Agencies may receive approval to charge certain personnel expenses to capital projects. However, in order to qualify and receive approval, the primary duties and responsibilities of a position charged to capital funds must be directly related to a specific capital project. Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) positions that generally qualify are (a) architects; (b) engineers; (c) cost estimators; (d) project managers; (e) system developers; (f) construction managers; and (g) inspectors.

Table 5-6 reflects capital-funded FTE data for each agency for FY 2016 through FY 2018. Additional details on the FY 2018 FTEs, including the specific number of FTEs approved by project, can be found on the project pages in the "Project Description Forms" section of Volume 5, the FY 2018 Capital Improvements Plan. They are also summarized on the appropriate agency pages, for those agencies that have approved FTEs.

Details on the District's Sources of Funds for Capital Expenditures

The District's proposed FY 2018 – FY 2023 capital budget includes a number of funding sources. The District uses the following sources to fund capital budget authority across a large number of agencies that have capital programs:

- G.O. or I.T bonds, including taxable, and short-term bonds;
- Paygo capital funding;
- Sale of assets;
- Federal Grants; and
- Private Grants.

In addition to the above sources, the District's Department of Transportation (DDOT) uses the following sources to fund its capital projects:

- Federal Highway Administration grants, for Highway Trust Fund projects;
- Grant Anticipation Revenue Vehicle (GARVEE) bonds, which are repaid from future Federal funding;
- Dedicated motor fuel tax revenues and a portion of the Rights-of-Way Occupancy Fees for Highway Trust Fund projects (these provide the local match for the Federal Highway Administration grants); and
- Local Transportation Fund (a portion of the Rights-of-Way Occupancy Fees).

Projects funded by these sources are detailed in the project description pages for DDOT and in Appendix H of Volume 5.

Major Capital Efforts

The FY 2018 – FY 2023 Capital Improvements Plan (CIP) provides for major investments in the following areas:

- Transportation Infrastructure;
- Education;
- Public Health and Wellness;
- Economic Development;
- Fiscal Stability; and
- Public Safety.

Transportation Infrastructure

Metrorail and Metrobus. The continued growth and vitality of the city and region greatly relies on a safe, efficient, and reliable Metro system to transport residents and visitors alike. The CIP includes $623 million for safety improvements, improving the effectiveness of the current rail and bus networks, increasing system capacity, and rebuilding the Metro system.

Streetcar, Circulator, and H Street Bridge. An extended streetcar line and an expanded Circulator system will add capacity to the District's transportation network, provide links to activity centers that complement Metrorail service, and offer a potentially cleaner and more sustainable transportation alternative. The CIP provides $228.5 million for Circulator and streetcars, including funding for the H Street line extension to Benning Road Metro station. The H Street Bridge is an important link in the line that provides for rider transfers to Amtrak's Union Station and the Metrorail system, and it must be replaced. The CIP provides $196.3 million to support the cost of replacing the bridge. Availability of varied modes of transportation is critically important in the District. To further this effort, the CIP includes $12.0 million for Bikeshare expansion.

South Capitol Street. The CIP includes $516.8 million for replacement of the Frederick Douglass Bridge over the Anacostia River and improvements to the South Capitol Street Corridor. South Capitol Street will be transformed from an expressway to an urban boulevard and gateway to the Monumental Core of the city that will support economic development on both sides of the Anacostia River.

Streetscapes, Trails, and Green Space. The concept of park-like landscaping in the District's public right-of-ways dates back to surveyor Pierre L'Enfant, who outlined how to landscape his exceptionally wide avenues. The District's investment in streetscapes, trails, and green space will beautify the city, improve quality of life, and complement investments in transit by providing safe and convenient bicycle and pedestrian access throughout the city. The 6-year capital budget plans for $178.0 million of investment in streetscapes, trails, trees, green space, urban forestry, and streetlights.

Local Streets and Alleys. The 6-year capital budget also plans for $347.0 million of investment in the District's local roadways, alleys, curbs, and sidewalks across the eight wards to ensure they are safe, reliable, and functional.

Education

Public Schools Modernization. The District is currently undertaking a comprehensive schools modernization initiative that began in 2008. So far, over $3.35 billion has been invested. This CIP commits to an additional investment of $1.3 billion over the next six years for modernization of elementary, middle, and high school facilities. The budget includes funding for three modernized middle schools and two modernized high schools.

21st Century Public Libraries. Continuing efforts to fully modernize the Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Library, the CIP includes $139.8 million that will be used to renovate and reconfigure this historic landmark. The result will be a world-class central library offering residents and visitors a vibrant center of activity for reading, learning, and community discussion. Libraries in District neighborhoods will receive an additional $61.8 million to renovate and modernize Southeast Library and Capitol View Library and construct new state-of-the-art facilities, including a new Lamond Riggs and Southwest Library.

University Facilities. The University of the District of Columbia is making campus improvements that will enhance the collegiate experience for its students, faculty, staff, and guests. The CIP provides $50.5 million for University improvements.

Public Health and Wellness

Replacement of D.C. General Shelter. The CIP includes $50.1 million for the Department of Human Services to continue acquisition of property and construct small-scale emergency and temporary housing for families.

Access to Health and Human Support Services. The CIP includes $27.7 million to complete development of a new, state-of-the-art information technology application designed to assist persons seeking assistance with health and other human support services.

Parks and Recreation Facilities. Public parks and recreation facilities enhance the quality of life and wellness of District residents. The District is committed to providing all residents of the District, and especially the District's youth, with access to quality recreation centers, athletic fields, swimming pools, tennis courts, play areas, and parks. This 6-year capital budget plans for $294.8 million for investments in parks and recreation facilities across the city.

East End Medical Center. The District places a high priority on providing public health services to all District residents. Since taking control of the operations of the Not-for-Profit Hospital Corporation, commonly referred to as United Medical Center ("UMC"), in 2010, the District has invested hundreds of millions of dollars in the District's only acute care hospital on the city's East End. The CIP includes $300.0 million to replace the UMC with a new hospital on the grounds of the Saint Elizabeths campus.

Anacostia River Clean-Up. The Anacostia River, once a pristine river, is now degraded mainly because of its highly urbanized location. The river and adjacent former Kenilworth landfill are the focus of large-scale restoration efforts by the District of Columbia. The District's goal is to restore the Anacostia to a fishable and swimmable river by the year 2032. The $72.0 million of capital budget for hazardous material remediation on the Anacostia River and its shoreline will fund continued efforts to achieve this goal.

Economic Development

New Communities. The CIP provides $85.0 million of budget that will be used to replace severely distressed housing and decrease concentrations of poverty by redeveloping public housing properties into mixed-use, mixed-income communities for current and future residents.

Saint Elizabeths East Campus Infrastructure. The 183-acre lot will be transformed into a marketplace of ideas, innovation, and communication. The CIP provides $103.0 million to design and build public infrastructure. The CIP also includes $16.8 million to construct the Saint Elizabeths Infrastructure Academy, which will serve as a hub for workforce development and on-the-job-training in activities related to the infrastructure industry, including the utility, energy efficiency, transportation and logistics sectors.

McMillan Redevelopment. The 25-acre former McMillan Reservoir Sand Filtration Plant site will be redeveloped into a mixed-use project that will include historic preservation, open space, residential, retail, office, and hotel uses. The goal is to create an architecturally distinct, vibrant, mixed-use development that provides housing, employment, retail, cultural, and recreational opportunities for District residents. The project will include affordable and workforce housing, and 35 percent of the local contracting opportunities must go to Certified Business Enterprises. The CIP provides $10.0 million for site infrastructure over the 6-year CIP.

Walter Reed and Hill East. These two critical redevelopment projects are funded in the CIP to continue investments in site infrastructure totaling $34.2 million.

Fiscal Stability

Financial System Modernization. The Office of the Chief Financial Officer is in the process of modernizing its tax system to add the functionality found in modern systems, support real-time financial management, provide greater integration with other District IT systems, and increase tax compliance and collections. The CIP includes $100.7 million for the modernization of the general ledger and budget systems and $12.9 million for the continued modernization of the integrated tax system.

Public Safety

Emergency Vehicles. Older emergency vehicles must be replaced on a regular basis to ensure that responders have reliable equipment. The CIP provides $83.7 million for purchase of pumpers, ladder trucks, heavy rescue trucks, ambulances, and large support vehicles. An additional $39.7 million is provided for replacement of police cruisers and specialty/support vehicles.

Power Line Undergrounding. The CIP includes $27.4 million to move key overhead power lines to underground lines in the District to improve safety and reliability of the District's electrical system. Placing select power feeders underground will result in a reduction in the frequency and the duration of power outages experienced in affected service areas.

Fund Balance of the Capital Fund

From FY 2008 through FY 2015, the District's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) showed a deficit for two years in the General Capital Improvements Fund (the "capital fund") (see Table 5-8). The shortfall at the end of FY 2012 and again in FY 2014 meant that capital expenditures had exceeded financing sources by that amount on a cumulative basis. The timing and amounts of borrowing for those two years resulted in the temporary negative fund balance. The District's General Fund had advanced funds to the capital fund to cover the expenditures.

The FY 2016 CAFR reports a General Capital Improvements Fund deficit of $229 million. This represents a decrease of $265 million from the FY 2015 positive ending fund balance of $36 million. This decrease is due primarily to the difference in timing of revenues/borrowing and expenditures in the fund. The balance as of the end of FY 2016 is representative of the activity in the fund as of that date. The District borrowed $451 million in December of 2016, thereby erasing the deficit, and plans an additional borrowing of $400 million for fall of 2017 to cover ongoing capital expenditures.

The District must keep a close watch on the underlying status of the capital fund. In past years, the District borrowed amounts above new capital budget allotments to help repay the General Fund for advances it made to the capital fund. The long-term solution to the capital fund shortfall includes development of, and monitoring against, agency spending plans for their capital projects that manage each year's overall expenditures against that year's revenues. Future plans also include the use of a Commercial Paper program (a form of short-term borrowing not to exceed 270 days) to help ensure cash flow needs are balanced with the timing of borrowing.

D.C. Comprehensive Financial Management Policy

District of Columbia
Comprehensive Financial Management Policy

Introduction

In accordance with requirements set forth in the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (Pub. L. No. 93-198; 87 Stat. 774; D.C. Official Code §§1-201.01 et seq.) (Home Rule Act), this Comprehensive Financial Management Policy provides a framework for fiscal decision-making for the Office of the Chief Financial Officer ("OCFO") and the Government of the District of Columbia ("District government" or "District"). The intent of this document is to establish policies that ensure the availability of financial resources to meet the present and future needs of the citizens of the District of Columbia. This document establishes the District government's policies in the following areas:

- Debt Management
- Financial Asset Management
- Capital Asset Management
- Reserve Management
- Fiscal Management
- Economic Development

These financial management policies were established by the OCFO subject to continuing review and comment by the Mayor of the District of Columbia (Mayor) and the Council of the District of Columbia. The OCFO will consider amendments to this document on a continuing basis using the established review and approval process.

Debt Management Policy

Responsibility and Authorization

The District government will maintain, at all times, debt management policies that are fiscally prudent, consistent with District and federal laws, and reflect the District's unique municipal status and limitations. Collectively, Title IV, Part E of the Home Rule Act and the Income Tax Secured Bond Authorization Act authorize the District to issue bonds, to provide for the payment of undertaking capital projects, and notes, to pay general governmental expenses in anticipation of the collection or receipt of revenues.

Credit Ratings

The District will do everything in its power to attain and maintain the highest possible credit ratings for its outstanding bonds, including producing balanced budgets and financial statements with "clean" audit opinions annually, implementing and maintaining sound financial and debt management policies and practices, and maintaining regular communications with the major rating agencies.

Long-Term Debt Capacity

The District will stay within its statutorily mandated debt limits: (a) total debt service on long-term tax supported debt in any fiscal year cannot exceed 17 percent of General Fund revenue, and (b) total debt service on long-term tax supported debt in any fiscal year, or the five succeeding fiscal years as reflected in the financial plan and capital improvements plan, cannot exceed 12 percent of General Fund expenditures. Also, the District will maintain other debt ratios and practices that are prudent in light of industry standards, rating agencies' benchmarks and the District's long-term financial health. The District will seek to balance the need for improvements to its capital infrastructure with the need to maintain reasonable debt ratios and debt service expense levels.

Timing and Amount of Long-Term Borrowing

When the District engages in long-term borrowing for its capital projects, it shall do so in amounts that are planned and reasonably expected to be spent within two years after the date of such borrowing. Such borrowing amounts will be determined in the context of an ongoing effort to balance the need for continuing development and refurbishment of the District's infrastructure with the need to prudently manage the District's debt obligations.

Method of Bond Sale

Prior to coming to market, the District shall monitor and evaluate market conditions to determine which method of sale, competitive or negotiated, is optimal. A final determination will be made by the Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), supported by a recommendation of the Treasurer, to proceed with the sale method that is likely to yield a more favorable result for the District.

Composition of Debt Portfolio

The District shall issue general obligation bonds, income tax secured bonds, or tax-supported revenue bonds, depending on a determination by the CFO regarding the type of bond issuance that is most favorable for the District. The District shall issue tax-exempt bonds, except under circumstances in which the nature of the project(s) being financed (or some portion thereof) require the issuance of taxable bonds, or circumstances in which taxable bonds are deemed to provide a more favorable result (for example, the issuance of Build America Bonds pursuant to the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act). The District shall issue fixed-rate or variable-rate debt; however, not more than 20 percent of outstanding debt may be variable-rate bonds. This policy allows the District to take advantage of the generally lower interest rates associated with variable-rate debt without overexposure to higher levels of risk associated with such debt. In addition, with every issuance of debt, the District shall evaluate whether or not it is financially beneficial to issue the debt with bond insurance or some other form of credit enhancement, and shall structure the issuance accordingly. The District will regularly examine its financing structures and the financial marketplace to determine what form of debt is most beneficial to issue (e.g. income tax secured revenue bonds, general obligation bonds, other revenue bonds, or master lease/purchase financing) to fund certain governmental projects.

Timely Debt Service Payments

The District shall escrow funds received from its Special Real Property Tax levy in amounts sufficient to ensure timely payment of all principal and interest due on its outstanding general obligation bonds, and shall set aside income tax revenues in amounts sufficient to ensure timely payment of all principal and interest due on its outstanding income tax secured revenue bonds, as required by the relevant debt statutes, bond indentures, and covenants.

Compliance with Arbitrage Regulations

The District shall contract with a reputable firm to perform annual analyses of the District's investment and expenditure of bond proceeds in order to ensure compliance with federal arbitrage regulations.

Refunding of Outstanding Debt

The District will regularly monitor its outstanding debt for optimal opportunities and timing to refund (refinance) such debt at lower interest rates to produce debt service savings to the District, to remove or change outdated or unwanted bond covenants, or for other reasons that may benefit the District.

Selection of Financial Consultants and Service Providers

To assist with issuing bonds in the most efficient and effective manner, and to ensure compliance with all applicable legal requirements, the District shall select Bond Counsel, Disclosure Counsel, and Financial Advisors, and generally does so on a competitive basis through a Request for Proposals (RFP) process. However, this process does not preclude the District from engaging Bond Counsel, Disclosure Counsel, or Financial Advisors without the competitive process where a unique or emergency situation warrants such engagement as permitted by law. The District will document such situations in writing.

Equipment Financing Program

The District maintains a program to finance (on a tax-exempt basis) the acquisition of agency capital equipment with estimated useful lives of five to ten years. This program is part of the District's policy of matching the useful life of capital assets to the duration of the debt that finances them, identifying low-cost financing, and managing agency operating costs associated with equipment lease financing. The District is not currently purchasing new assets through the program but is obligated to pay outstanding debt until it is retired. New financings could resume if the CFO determines it is in the best interest of the District.

Independent Agency/Instrumentality Debt Issuance

The CFO shall determine whether or not it is advisable for certain independent agencies/instrumentalities of the District that have segregated revenue streams to pursue issuing bonds supported by such revenue streams. If the CFO determines that such a transaction is advisable, the CFO shall, through the Mayor, submit a written request to the District Council for enactment of the necessary authorizing legislation. The CFO must approve the ultimate structure of any such transaction, and must approve the transaction itself. In the event of such a financing, the independent agency/instrumentality shall provide pertinent information and documents to the CFO related to such financing (including the project or program financed) on an ongoing basis and upon request.

Short-Term Borrowing

The District's policy is to issue short-term debt in the form of Tax Revenue Anticipation Notes (TRANs) to finance any intra-year seasonal cash flow needs if necessary. TRANs must be repaid by the end of the fiscal year in which they are issued. A long-term policy goal is for the District to obtain and maintain sufficient operating cash balances in order to minimize or eliminate the need for short-term borrowing.

The District may utilize additional short-term financing vehicles including Bond Anticipation Notes, Commercial Paper, and others to meet interim capital funding needs. Bond Anticipation Notes and Commercial Paper may be rolled or redeemed with the issuance of long-term debt.

Financial Asset Management Policy

Authorization and Responsibility

The CFO, established by the District of Columbia Financial Responsibility and Management Assistance Act of 1995, approved April 17, 1995 (Pub.L. No. 104-8, §302(a), 109 Stat 142, D.C. Official Code §1-204.24a), is responsible for maintaining custody of all public funds belonging to or under the control of the District government and depositing all amounts paid in such depositories pursuant to Section 424 of the Home Rule Act and under such terms and conditions as may be designated by the District Council. Except where prescribed by law, the CFO has delegated this responsibility to the Treasurer of the District of Columbia (Treasurer).

The Treasurer, on behalf of the CFO, maintains custody of all public funds belonging to or under the control of the District government or its agencies and deposits all funds in depositories pursuant to D.C. Official Code §1-204.24d(11). The Treasurer is responsible for the administration and supervision of the Office of Finance and Treasury (OFT), which includes the responsibility for the collection and deposit of all receipts. The Treasurer shall also specify operational procedures and standards to be used for all depository intake facilities.

Deposit of Cash Receipts Policy

All District government agencies and instrumentalities, including component units, boards, commissions and other public entities, are subject to D.C. Official Code §47-351 et seq. and shall deposit all cash, checks and other negotiable instruments received within 48 hours after collection or receipt of such monies. Items deposited pursuant to D.C. Official Code §47-351 et seq. shall be properly posted in the District's accounting system of record within 48 hours or two business days after the event. If cash needs to be collected by an agency, OFT cashiers must either collect the actual cash or have oversight of the collection process.

Background: The timely deposit of monies received provides several benefits. The most important benefit is effective and efficient control of these funds, which reduces the risk of loss due to errors, carelessness or theft. In addition, the timely deposit of funds helps to maximize cash flow for interest earnings; lowers borrowing needs, and lessens the risk of returned checks due to non-sufficient funds or account closure. It also provides a responsive service to the payers who would otherwise be uncertain whether their checks were received.

Disbursement of Public Funds Policy

All disbursements from District depository accounts shall be made by check, electronic transfer or pay cards. All District agencies shall comply with the OCFO's Financial Management and Control Orders No. 08-008, No. 07-004A*, and No. 98-16, which establish guidelines of authority and certification, indicate required documentation, and require expediency in the processing of payment vouchers. All District agencies and employees shall comply with the OCFO's Financial Management and Control Order No. 12-24, which governs the establishment, control and maintenance of bank accounts, checks and signature authority to prevent fraud, abuse or other irregularities. Likewise, all District agencies shall also comply with the provisions in the District's Quick Payment Act, which ensures the timely payment of public funds to vendors, suppliers, and contractors.

Background: OFT recognizes the financial risks associated with the issuance of checks. The prevalence of check fraud demands that the District take measures to safeguard the District's funds, including the use of a single state check design. Checks issued by the District government use a controlled paper stock with numerous security features and a background design that makes all District government checks easily recognizable as official, legal payment instruments of the District government. In addition, the District uses banking services and policies that prevent fraud by requiring that the District's banking institutions only honor checks that the District has previously identified as being validly issued. To further reduce costs and risks, the District has and will continue to reduce its use of checks as a predominant means of disbursement.

Collateralization Policy

It is the policy of OFT to ensure that at all times the District's funds held at financial institutions are fully federally insured or, at a minimum, collateralized at 102 percent in compliance with the Financial Institution Deposit and Investment Amendment Act of 1997, effective March 18, 1998 (D.C. Law 12-56, D.C. Official Code §47-351 et seq.) (the "Deposit Act"). The responsibility for monitoring financial institutions' compliance with the District's collateral requirements on a daily basis is delegated to the Banking Services Unit in OFT.

Banking Services Policy

It is the policy of the District government to procure banking services and establish bank accounts pursuant to competitive award practices consistent with the Deposit Act and the OCFO's standard contracting processes. OFT shall routinely monitor bank performance using predetermined performance standards and assess penalties for failure to perform. Bank accounts shall only be opened by OFT. District agencies cannot open bank accounts independently, and other District entities may open bank accounts only if explicitly permitted by legislation.

Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) Payment Policy

OFT, in conjunction with the Department of Human Services, shall administer the District's Electronic Benefit Transfer ("EBT") Program in compliance with the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, approved August 6, 1996 (Pub. L. No. 104-193; 110 Stat. 2105) ("Welfare Reform Act") and provide necessary training to eligible District of Columbia residents who participate in the EBT Program.

Background: The Welfare Reform Act mandated that all states and the District of Columbia establish an electronic delivery system for the distribution of food stamp benefits provided through the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program ("SNAP") by October 2002. As a result, the District's EBT system was implemented in 1998. The system electronically delivers both SNAP and cash assistance through Temporary Assistance for Needy Families ("TANF") benefits to District recipients. EBT is a special application of electronic funds transfer ("EFT") technology, which allows both TANF and SNAP benefits to be loaded directly to a pay card, eliminating the former costly and cumbersome processes surrounding paper food stamps and check writing. Also, it provides access to mainstream payment methods for District citizens, provides food retailers with point-of-sale methods of accepting SNAP payments, enhances methods used to account for SNAP benefits, and facilitates more efficient payments to individual merchants with funds from the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Internal Control Policy Related to Financial Assets

The District government shall maintain sound internal control policies and practices to ensure: (a) compliance with applicable laws, guidelines, regulations, and professional standards; and (b) adequate safeguarding of assets under the control of agencies, component units, boards and commissions. Therefore, agencies must adhere to the following policies and prescribed practices:

- Agencies are required to obtain prior approval by OFT to open a bank account. Written requests must be submitted to the Treasurer or Associate Treasurer of OFT, and requests must be accompanied by supporting documentation (e.g. legislation or a copy of an executed contract);
- Employees who handle cash, checks, credit cards, pay cards or any other negotiable instruments should be bonded as a condition of employment and must not record the related transactions in the general ledger nor maintain accounting records;
- Cash shall not be accepted or received directly by any District agencies except OFT. Exceptions to this policy must be approved in advance and oversight provided by OFT;
- Check payments received shall be restrictively endorsed payable to the D. C. Treasurer, not to an agency or a District employee;
- Cash receipts shall be reconciled daily and discrepancies shall be investigated promptly by the designated authorized personnel;
- Access to cash shall be restricted to OFT cashiers and secured when not in use; and
- Any site that secures cash, checks, pay cards or other negotiable financial instruments shall maintain them securely in a vault under dual control for access or removal. Dual control requires two people to cooperate in maintaining and confirming assets, with the work of one employee being verified or approved by a second employee. Both are equally accountable for the protection of the assets.

Investment Priorities

The District will invest cash not needed for immediate disbursement in a manner consistent with applicable District law and policy, and in doing so will: (a) provide for the safekeeping of principal amounts invested, (b) maintain adequate liquidity to fund the District's operations and other funding needs, and (c) maximize earnings on invested funds, in that order of priority. The maximization of earnings will be accomplished by analyzing up-to-date cash flow projections documenting the amounts and timing of the District's operating cash needs over the course of a given fiscal year, as well as the general investment environment and the respective earnings (interest) rates available to the District from the various permissible investment instruments. Based on these factors, the appropriate investment decision will be made.

Investment of Operating Cash Balances

Each business day, using same-day data from banks (check/ACH/wire clearings), OFT will determine if the District has excess cash on hand for that particular day and factor in a cushion for unexpected disbursements. Any excess cash will be invested in one or more of the permissible investment instruments in accordance with the policy described in the "Investment Priorities" section above.

Investment of Additional Bank Account Balances

The District government will strive to ensure that no cash balances sit idle without being invested. The majority of the District's operating bank accounts are structured such that all funds not utilized in collection or disbursement accounts at the end of a given day will be consolidated to the pooled cash account and invested or will be used to generate credit to offset bank fees.

Investment of Bond Escrow and Note Escrow Funds

The District government will invest bond escrow and note escrow balances (funds set aside for the payment of principal and/or interest on outstanding District bonds or notes) in accordance with the same general policy guidelines described in the "Investment Priorities" section above, except that the maximum duration of such investments (the liquidity aspect referenced above) will be determined by the principal and/or interest payment due dates on the bonds or notes as opposed to operating cash flow projections as well as any other requirements contained in the respective bond or note documents.

Investment of Bond and Note Proceeds

Proceeds from the sale of District bonds and notes shall be invested in allowable investments in accordance with applicable federal and District laws, stipulations in the respective bond or note documents as to how such funds are to be invested, federal arbitrage regulations regarding the investment of bond and note proceeds (both of which may be more restrictive than District law), and pre-determined payout schedules (or estimates) for such proceeds (based on the purpose and manner of use of such Funds).

Investment of Debt Service Reserve Funds

Debt service reserve funds established either from the proceeds from the sale of District bonds and notes or other sources shall be invested in allowable investments in accordance with applicable federal and District laws, stipulations in the respective bond or note documents as to how such funds are to be invested, federal arbitrage regulations regarding the investment of bond and note proceeds (both of which may be more restrictive than District law), and pre-determined payout schedules (or estimates) for such proceeds (based on the purpose and manner of use of such Funds) as well as any other requirements contained in the respective bond or note documents.

Investment of Bond and Note Related Accounts

Investment of Bond and Note related accounts shall be invested in allowable investments in accordance with applicable federal and District laws, stipulations in the respective bond or note documents as to how such funds are to be invested, federal arbitrage regulations regarding the investment of bond and note proceeds (both of which may be more restrictive than District law), and pre-determined payout schedules (or estimates) for such proceeds (based on the purpose and manner of use of such Funds), as well as any other requirements contained in the respective bond or note documents.

Investment of Statutory Reserve Funds

Investment of statutory reserve funds (see Reserve Management Policy section) of the District shall be invested in permitted investments in accordance with District law and policy.

Limits on Placement of Funds

In accordance with the Financial Institutions Deposit and Investment Act of 1997, effective March 18, 1998 (D.C. Law 12-56, D.C. Official Code §47-351.03(d)), the District will not deposit/invest more than 25 percent of its funds on hand with any one financial institution, and will not deposit/invest an amount with any one financial institution that amounts to more than 25 percent of the assets of such institution.

Capital Asset Management Policy

Policy for Defining Capital Assets

Capital assets are long-lived items that provide a benefit for a number of future periods. They are either classified as "capitalized assets," subject to the District's standard depreciation rules, or "controllable property," which are neither capitalized nor depreciated for financial reporting purposes. Proper accounting for capital assets requires the capitalization of appropriate expenditures for each of the following asset categories:

- Land – non-expendable, real property, for which title is held by the District;
- Land Improvements – including the cost of permanent attachments, other than buildings, which add value to land;
- Buildings – all real estate, excluding land and land improvements, used for shelter, dwelling, and other similar purpose;
- Leasehold improvements (real property) – permanent improvements or betterments that increase the useful lives of the leased property;
- Equipment/Furniture/Vehicles – tangible personal property that is: a) complete in itself; b) does not lose identity or become a component of the building where it resides; c) of a durable nature with an expected service life of three or more years;
- Intangible Assets – assets that lack physical substance, are nonfinancial in nature, and have an initial useful life extending beyond a single reporting period, including, for example, easements, water rights, patents, trademarks, and computer software;
- Construction-in-Progress (CIP) – includes the costs incurred when constructing long-lived assets (e.g., buildings and other improvements); CIP represents the costs associated with incomplete projects; and
- Infrastructure Assets – long-lived capital assets that normally can be preserved for a significantly greater number of years than most capital assets and that are normally stationary in nature. Examples of infrastructure assets include roads, sidewalks, bridges, tunnels, drainage systems, water and sewer systems, dams, street lighting systems and transit subway systems.

General Capital Asset Policy

Capital assets must be properly authorized, classified, valued and adequately safeguarded. Physical and accounting control policies and procedures established by the Office of Financial Operations and Systems (OFOS) must be followed by each agency. Each agency must implement the following policies:

- All capital assets that have been capitalized shall be included on the agency's capital asset listing;
- All capitalized or controllable assets shall be reported in the Fixed Assets Subsystem (FAS) of the System of Accounting and Reporting (SOAR) maintained by OFOS;
- Each agency shall designate an individual who will be responsible for accounting for capital assets and ensuring that all divisions within the agency comply with District requirements;
- All agencies shall adhere to the capitalization and controllable inventory policies and procedures established by OFOS;
- All acquisitions and disposals of capital assets shall be properly authorized by applicable laws and approved by the agency director or designee. In addition to the agency director, some acquisitions and disposals may require the approval of the appropriate regulating bodies; and
- All agencies shall maintain documentation related to the acquisition, use, and disposal of capital assets. Such documentation is to be retained throughout the life of each capital asset and for a specified period of time after disposal, consistent with the OCFO's and the District's records retention policies. Where bond proceeds are used to acquire or improve the property, all agencies shall work with the Mayor and the OCFO to ensure that the acquisition, use, transfer or disposition of the property is in compliance with the applicable laws.

Capitalization Policy

- All land, land improvements and building additions must be capitalized regardless of cost.
- Capital improvements shall be capitalized if the total project cost is $5,000 or more, and the improvements increase the utility of the asset or significantly extend its useful life by two years or more. Expenditures for improvements that do not increase the service utility of the asset or significantly extend its life should be classified as repairs and maintenance and not capitalized.
- Furniture, vehicles, and equipment shall be capitalized if the aggregate cost is $5,000 or more and the useful life of the asset is three years or greater. Costs pertaining to computers include amounts incurred for monitors, cables, battery packs or any additional accessories needed for the equipment to function. Capitalizable computer costs do not include printers because printing functions can be spooled to a central printer, which can be utilized by several computers.
- Computer software system costs shall be capitalized if the total cost including purchase, installation, and testing is $5,000 or more, and it provides a future economic benefit of three or more years. If the computer software system is developed in-house by District personnel or by a third-party contractor on behalf of the District, it should be considered internally generated. Software which is commercially available either by license or outright purchase and modified using more than minimal incremental; effort before being put into operation should also be considered internally generated. The activities of developing and installing internally generated software can be grouped in three stages:
  1. Preliminary Project Stage: Conceptual formation, evaluation of alternatives, determination of needed technology, and final selection of alternatives;
  2. Application Development Stage: Design of chosen path including configuration and interfaces, coding, and installation to hardware; and
  3. Post-Implementation/Operation Stage: Application training and software maintenance.
- Outlays associated with the preliminary project stage should be expensed as incurred. Outlays related to the application development stage should be capitalized. Outlays in the post-implementation stage should be expensed. Training that is directly related to installation and testing should be capitalized. The cost of training after the system has been placed in service should be expensed as incurred. Upgrades and enhancements should only be capitalized if such costs significantly increase the life or functionality of the system by two years or more.

- Computer hardware system costs shall be capitalized if the total cost including acquisition, installation, and testing is $5,000 or more, and it provides a future economic benefit of three or more years. The cost of each component of a computer hardware system should be initially recorded as controllable inventory in the FAS. When the hardware system is ready for its intended use, the inventoried costs should be grouped and capitalized as one unit of property in the FAS. Upgrades and enhancements should only be capitalized if such costs significantly increase the life or functionality of the system by two years or more.
- Betterments shall be capitalized if the cost is $5,000 or more and the addition made to the capital asset is expected to prolong its life or increase its efficiency over and above that resulting from repairs or maintenance. The cost of the betterment is added to the book value of the asset. Betterments do not include building improvements. Betterments that cost less than $5,000 should be classified as repairs and maintenance and not capitalized.
- Equipment with a unit cost of less than $5,000 shall be identified as controllable equipment of the agency and recorded in the FAS. The minimum unit cost level required to be identified as controllable equipment of the agency is $1,000, except certain items. Equipment below $1,000 may be tagged with a property identification number and recorded on a supplementary listing for stewardship and sensitivity reasons.

Controllable Property Policy

Controllable property is non-capitalized, tangible property that is considered valuable and/or sensitive with a high risk of theft with a value of less than $5,000 and/or with an expected life of less than three years. Similar to capitalized property, controllable property is subject to the requirements of this Comprehensive Financial Management Policy regarding security, stewardship, maintenance, and utilization. These assets shall be excluded from depreciation calculations and financial reports. They shall, however, appear on other management information reports and capital assets records. Persons provided with controllable property (e.g., cellular telephones, iPads, and laptop computers) for their direct official use shall be held responsible and liable for the asset(s) assigned to them. Such assets shall be returned to the agency whenever an individual's employment with the agency terminates.

Physical Inventory Policy

To ensure that personal property capital assets are properly safeguarded and accounted for, OFOS shall conduct a partial physical inventory of personal property capital assets on an annual basis. Utilizing this process shall result in the accounting for all District-owned assets (personal property) within a two-year period. Capital assets for each financial cluster will be inventoried every other year based on two cluster groupings. The inventory shall be conducted based upon the assets listed in the FAS as of a given date. Each agency shall be responsible for making sure that the proper personnel are available to guide the inventory contractor to the location of the assets. The physical inventory shall be properly managed and supervised by the individual who is responsible for the agency's property management function to ensure that the inventory process is effective and efficient. OFOS shall oversee reconciliations and adjustments to the detailed accounting records resulting from the physical inventory.

Acquisition Policy

Capital assets shall be initially recorded at historical cost, which is defined as the cash or cash equivalent cost of obtaining the asset and bringing it to the location and condition necessary for its intended use. Donated assets shall be recorded at acquisition value, defined as "the price that would be paid to acquire an asset with equivalent service potential in an orderly market transaction at the acquisition date." Construction-in-progress represents capitalization of labor, material, and overhead costs of a capital project. When the project is completed, costs in the construction-in-progress balance sheet account shall be reclassified to one or more of the property and equipment accounts.

Valuation Policy

The most acceptable method of valuation is original cost (historical). Such data can be determined by retrieving original invoices, purchase orders, check copies, contracts, minutes, or auditor's workpapers. However, if the original cost cannot be established, estimated historical cost data may be used.

Document Retention Policy

Documents related to the acquisition, use, and disposal of District-funded capital assets shall be retained throughout the life of the capital asset and for a minimum of three fiscal years following the disposal of the capital asset or as required by applicable laws and regulations. For federally funded assets, document retention should follow the OMB circular guidance.

Depreciation Policy

The FAS automatically calculates and posts depreciation for capital assets. Depreciation expense shall be calculated using the straight-line method based on the useful life of the capital assets.

Property Control Policy

Each agency director, working with the respective OCFO staff, shall establish custodial control policies. The agency shall identify the individual who will be responsible for managing capital assets and ensure that all divisions within the agency comply with the District's accounting, custodial, and inventory policies.

Disposal Policy

All disposals of capital assets shall be properly authorized by applicable laws and approved by the agency director or designee. In addition to the agency director, appropriate regulatory bodies shall approve some disposals. All proceeds from the sale of District government property shall be recorded as Miscellaneous Revenue. Where bond proceeds are used to acquire or improve the property, all agencies shall work with the Mayor and the OCFO to ensure that the disposition of the property is in compliance with the applicable laws.

Except for agencies with independent procurement authority, the Office of Contracting and Procurement (OCP) is the sole agency responsible for the disposition of all excess and surplus property, excluding vehicles that are disposed of by the Department of Public Works (DPW). After approval has been obtained from OCP and the capital assets have been properly disposed, the agency must immediately record the capital asset as disposed of on any internal listing and in the FAS within five working days from the date of disposal.

Reserve Management Policy

Emergency Reserve Fund Management

It is the policy of the District government to comply with section 450A of the Home Rule Act, D.C. Official Code §1-204.50a, for the establishment, deposit, maintenance, use and replenishment of the District of Columbia's Emergency Reserve Fund. Any modifications to these requirements shall be implemented when the law changes and reflected in the Policy.

The Emergency Reserve Fund may only be used for unanticipated and nonrecurring extraordinary needs of an emergency nature, including a natural disaster or calamity as defined by section 102 of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (Pub. L. 100-707, effective November 23, 1988) or unexpected obligation created by federal law. The Fund may not be used to fund any department, agency, or office of the District government administered by a receiver or other official appointed by a court, shortfalls in any projected reductions included in the budget proposed by the District government for the fiscal year, or settlements and judgments made by or against the District of Columbia government. Funds may only be allocated after an analysis has been prepared by the CFO and only after a projection by the CFO that the entire Contingency Reserve Fund (see next section) will be completely exhausted at the time of the allocation. Interest earned on the Emergency Reserve Fund shall remain in the account for permitted uses pursuant to D.C. Official Code §1-204.50a. For purposes of cash flow management, the CFO or his/her designee may borrow from the Emergency Reserve Fund as long as adherence to the terms of D.C. Official Code §1-204.50a is maintained.

The District shall budget and deposit sufficient funds in each fiscal year to maintain or replenish the Emergency Reserve Fund as required by D.C. Official Code §1-204.50a or move unassigned fund balance into the Fund as needed. Replenishment of an allocation may also be made within the same fiscal year through a reprogramming of budget authority or a Supplemental Appropriation.

The District government will invest Emergency Reserve Fund account balances in accordance with the same general policy guidelines described in the "Investment Priorities" section above.

Background: The District is required to maintain an Emergency Reserve Fund equaling a minimum of 2 percent of the qualified operating expenditures based on the applicable Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) pursuant to D.C. Official Code §1-204.50a.

Contingency Reserve Fund Management

It is the policy of the District of Columbia to comply with section 450A of the Home Rule Act, D.C. Official Code §1-204.50a, for the establishment, deposit, maintenance, use and replenishment of the District of Columbia's Contingency Reserve Fund. Any modifications to these requirements shall be implemented when the law changes and reflected in the Policy.

The Contingency Reserve Fund may be used only for nonrecurring or unforeseen needs that arise during a fiscal year, including expenses associated with unforeseen weather or other natural disasters, unexpected obligations created by federal law or new public safety or health needs or requirements that have been identified after the budget process has occurred, or opportunities to achieve cost savings. The Fund may also be used, if needed, to cover revenue shortfalls experienced by the District government for 3 consecutive months (based on a two-month rolling average) that are 5 percent or more below the budget forecast. The Contingency Reserve Fund may not be used to fund any shortfalls in any projected reductions that are included in the budget proposed by the District government for the fiscal year. Funds may only be allocated after an analysis has been prepared by the CFO and all other surplus funds available to the District have been completely exhausted. Interest earned on the Contingency Reserve Fund shall remain in the account for permitted uses pursuant to D.C. Official Code §1-204.50a. For purposes of cash flow management, the CFO or his/her designee may borrow from the Contingency Reserve Fund as long as adherence to the terms of D.C. Official Code §1-204.50a is maintained.

The District shall budget and deposit sufficient funds in each fiscal year to maintain or replenish the Contingency Reserve Fund as required by D.C. Official Code §1-204.50a or move unassigned fund balance into the Fund as needed. Replenishment of an allocation may also be made within the same fiscal year through a reprogramming of budget authority or a Supplemental Appropriation.

The District government will invest Contingency Reserve Fund account balances in accordance with the same general policy guidelines described in the "Investment Priorities" section above.

Background: The District is required to maintain a Contingency Reserve Fund equaling a minimum of 4 percent of the qualified operating expenditures based on the applicable CAFR pursuant to D.C. Official Code §1-204.50a.

Fiscal Stabilization Reserve and Cash Flow Reserve Funds

It is the policy of the District government to comply with current requirements for building and maintaining the District of Columbia's Fiscal Stabilization and Cash Flow Reserve Funds as defined by D.C. Official Code §47-392.02. Any modifications to these requirements shall be implemented when the law changes and shall be reflected in the Policy.

The District government will invest fiscal stabilization and cash flow reserve account balances in accordance with the same general policy guidelines described in the "Investment Priorities" section above.

Background: The Fiscal Stabilization Reserve Fund may be used by the Mayor for certain purposes for which the Contingency Reserve Fund may be used, as specified in section 450A(b)(4) of the Home Rule Act, D.C. Official Code §1-204.50a(b)(4), as certified by the CFO, with approval of the Council by act. The Fiscal Stabilization Reserve Fund may also be used for funding the appropriations advance to the District of Columbia Public Schools and the District of Columbia Public Charter Schools, as authorized by the annual budget and financial plan; provided, that any amounts used must be replenished immediately upon the approval of the District's annual budget for that year. The Fiscal Stabilization Reserve Fund may also be used by the Chief Financial Officer to cover cash flow needs; provided, that any amounts used must be replenished to the Fiscal Stabilization Reserve Fund in the same fiscal year. At full funding, this reserve must equal 2.34 percent of the District's General Fund operating expenditures for each fiscal year. The Cash Flow Reserve may be used by the CFO or his/her designee to cover cash flow needs. When amounts are used, the Cash Flow Reserve must be replenished in the same fiscal year of use. At full funding, this reserve must equal 8.33 percent of the General Fund operating budget for each fiscal year.

If either the Fiscal Stabilization Reserve or the Cash Flow Reserve is below full funding upon issuance of the CAFR, the CFO must commit 50 percent of the unassigned end-of-year fund balance to each reserve, or 100 percent of the end-of-year fund balance to the remaining reserve that has not reached full capacity, to fully fund the reserves to the extent allowed by the end-of-year fund balance. Moreover, if the amount required for the Contingency Reserve or Emergency Reserve is reduced, the amount required to be retained in the Fiscal Stabilization Reserve is to be increased by the same amount.

Fiscal Management Policy

Balanced Budget

Pursuant to the Home Rule Act, the District shall both create and operate under a balanced budget throughout the fiscal year. Proposed expenditures under the Mayor's budget proposal to the Council, the local portion adopted by Council, and the District's federal portion proposal to Congress, must be balanced within estimated revenues and other resources as certified by the CFO (see Home Rule Act § 424(d)(5)(A); D.C. Code § 1-204.24d(5)(A)). During the year, if revenue forecasts change (see "Revenues" below) such that an unbalanced budget would result, the budget must be adjusted, following approved procedures, to re-attain balance.

A balanced budget for the District is comprised of budgets for each agency, which sum to a total that is balanced within certified revenues. No agency may spend more than its budget (see "Anti-Deficiency Act" below). As each agency spends within its budget, the District's total spending cannot exceed its total budget, thus assuring the District's total spending does not exceed its revenues.

Revenues

The District shall strive to maintain a balanced and diversified revenue system to protect against adverse fluctuations in any one source of revenue, which may result from changes in local and/or national economic conditions.

Quarterly Revenue Adjustments: The OCFO shall make revised quarterly adjustments to the revenue estimated for the year in progress as required by law (D.C. Official Code §1-204.24d(5)(B)). These adjustments, as certified by the CFO, will be submitted to the Mayor and the District Council. They shall serve as the basis for determining whether revenues are in balance with anticipated expenditures. In addition, the CFO's certified revenue estimates shall be used as the basis for any request for supplemental appropriations submitted to the U.S. Congress that would increase the total amount of General Fund revenue appropriated to the District.

General Fund Balance

In FY 2011, the District implemented Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) Statement No. 54, Fund Balance Reporting and Governmental Fund Type Definitions. Consistent with the requirements of that Statement, the District's General Fund balance is comprised of five components: non-spendable, restricted, committed, assigned, and unassigned, which are described more fully below.

- Nonspendable – resources which cannot be spent because they are either: (a) not in spendable form; or (b) legally or contractually required to be maintained intact.
- Restricted – resources with use constraints which are either: (a) externally imposed by creditors (such as through debt covenants), grantors, contributors, or laws or regulations of other governments; or (b) imposed by law through constitutional provisions or enabling legislation.
- Committed – resources which can only be used for specific purposes pursuant to limitations imposed by formal action of the District government's highest level of decision-making authority (the Mayor and the District Council). Amounts in this category may be redeployed for other purposes with the appropriate due process. Committed amounts cannot be used for any other purpose unless the District government removes or changes the specified use by taking the same type of action it used to previously commit the amounts.
- Assigned – resources neither restricted nor committed, for which the District has a stated intended use as established by the Mayor, District Council, or a body or official to which the Mayor or District Council has delegated the authority to assign amounts for specific purposes. These are resources where the constraints/restrictions are less binding than that for committed resources.
- Unassigned – resources which cannot be classified in one of the other four categories. The General Fund is the only fund which may report a positive unassigned fund balance amount. In other governmental funds, if expenditures incurred for specific purposes exceed the amounts restricted, committed, or assigned to those purposes, negative unassigned fund balance may be reported.

Fund balance appropriated for the current fiscal year's operating budget shall be used only to the extent needed, if any, to balance the current fiscal year's actual revenues to actual expenditures. In a given year, actual revenues may exceed projected and appropriated revenues. When this occurs, the District shall first apply the excess revenues before it applies any appropriated fund balance. Under no circumstances shall the District apply more fund balance than has been duly appropriated.

Moreover, it is the policy of the District to use restricted resources first, followed by committed resources and then assigned resources, when expenses are incurred for purposes for which any of these resources are available.

The portion of the fund balance of the General Fund that is restricted or committed shall be maintained for its specific purpose, unless modified by subsequent legislation. The District strives to maintain within its restricted and/or committed fund balance components an amount up to the level that would result in sufficient working cash to reduce the need for short-term borrowing to finance operations of the subsequent year.

Background: The fund balance of the General Fund represents the difference between the Fund's assets plus deferred outflows and its liabilities plus deferred inflows of resources at the end of a fiscal year, or September 30th. The ending fund balance of a fiscal year is also the beginning fund balance of the ensuing fiscal year. Positive differences between revenues and expenditures, or surpluses, increase the fund balance. Negative differences, or deficits, decrease the fund balance.

An ever-growing fund balance that is inaccessible is not advantageous to the District because it restricts the District's ability to allocate resources among priorities. The amount of the fund balance is not indicative of funds that may be used for any purpose in the future. Rather, unassigned fund balance would represent an amount that may be used for District priorities after approval by both the District Council and the U.S. Congress.

Expenditure Reporting

The District shall make expenditures only in accordance with federal appropriations law and the District's budget approved by Congress and the District Council. Financial statements will accurately reflect these expenditures. The District's CAFR shall reflect expenditures in the relevant appropriation titles.

Accrual Accounting

The District shall prepare financial statements using both the modified accrual and the full accrual bases of accounting in accordance with GASB Statement No. 34, Basic Financial Statements – and Management's Discussion and Analysis – for State and Local Governments.

Background: The District implemented the requirements of GASB Statements Nos. 34 through 38 during FY 2002 as required by GASB. As a result of this implementation, in FY 2002 the District began issuing two full accrual financial statements (a Statement of Net Position and a Statement of Activities) and including a Management's Discussion and Analysis in its CAFR. Accrual accounting reports all of the revenues and costs of providing services each year. This approach includes not just current assets and liabilities (such as cash and accounts payable) but also capital assets and long-term liabilities (such as buildings and infrastructure, including bridges and roads, and general obligation debt). Accrual accounting helps the District meet the following important objectives of financial reporting.

- Assess the finances of the government in its entirety, including the year's operating results;
- Determine whether the government's overall financial position has improved or deteriorated;
- Evaluate whether the government's current-year revenues are sufficient to pay for current-year services;
- Assess the government's cost of providing services to its citizenry;
- Assess how the government finances its programs – through user fees and other program revenues versus general tax revenues;
- Understand the extent to which the government has invested in capital assets, including roads, bridges,
- and other infrastructure assets; and
- Make better comparisons between governments.

Tax Expenditure Budget

The CFO is required by law to prepare a biennial tax expenditure budget that estimates the revenue loss to the District government resulting from tax expenditures during the current fiscal year and the next three fiscal years.

Special Purpose Revenues

Special Purpose Revenues are program revenues that are generated from fees, fines, special assessments, charges for services, and reimbursements that are set aside for a specific purpose for the District agency that collects the revenues to cover the cost of performing the related function. Special Purpose Revenues are classified as General Fund revenues.

Program revenues are defined as revenues that derive directly from the program itself or from parties outside the reporting government's taxpayers or citizenry as a whole; they reduce the net cost of the function to be financed from the government's general revenues.

An agency may have more than one fund within the Special Purpose Revenue category. Revenues will be estimated for each agency's funds on a quarterly basis consistent with all general fund revenues.

It is the policy of the District government that all program revenues generated by any agency belong to the District as a whole, unless otherwise required by law. As a general rule, all revenues should be allocated through the budget and appropriations process. Dedicated funds limit the use of the District's general fund revenue by earmarking a portion of the revenue for special purposes.

In certain limited cases, Special Purpose Revenue fund accounts are necessary to support a particular program or activity. In such limited cases of need, the agency fund account must be created through the normal legislative process and adhere to requirements to be recommended by the CFO and adopted by the Mayor and District Council. Since program revenues are reported in a governmental fund, they should therefore be accounted for under the modified accrual basis of accounting in fund financial statements.

The District could commit or assign in fund balance unspent program revenues in accordance with the criteria established by generally accepted accounting principles and make available for use in subsequent years if permitted by the authorizing legislation that established the fund. The function of restricted or committed fund balance is simply to isolate the portion of fund balance that is restricted by external entities or enabling legislation, or committed through the actions of both the legislative and executive branches of the District. Assigned fund balance represents management's intended use of resources and generally should reflect actual plans approved by the District. District agencies must have budget authority to expend Special Purpose Revenues, as with other revenue sources. Budget authority is backed by certified revenue estimates, planned use of certified amounts set aside in the fund balance, or a combination of these two sources. Unassigned fund balance represents residual resources after the allocation of resources to all other classifications.

Expenditures are limited to the lesser of budget authority or available resources, which is the sum of realized revenues and available fund balance.

Special Purpose Revenue budgets may be modified in accordance with federal appropriations law. Reprogramming of budget authority from one agency fund to another is also permissible pursuant to reprograming statutes. The CFO shall have discretion to reduce budget authority for agency funds where revenue falls short of estimates.

Any existing Special Purpose Revenue fund accounts that are not supported by legislative authority may be converted to local revenue. In addition, when required to cover a revenue shortfall, such revenue may also be converted to local revenue.

Grants

The District depends on Federal and Private Grant Funds to support a wide range of services and programs for the citizens of the District. This section sets forth the District's policies related to resource development, grant administration and reporting, budget authority for grants, and fairness in awarding grants.

Resource Development: To better serve District residents, all District agencies shall pursue to the maximum extent possible federal and other funding opportunities that enhance their ability to carry out the Mayor's strategic plan and initiatives and address the needs of the residents of this city, without binding the District to unrealistic financial commitments.

Background: For the last decade, grants have comprised approximately one-fourth of the District's annual budget, and as such, have contributed significantly to the District's ability to meet the needs of its citizens. The District's policy is to continue and, to the extent possible, increase its use of funds from other sources to maximize delivery of services to residents.

Grant Administration and Reporting: The District of Columbia government, by accepting grant funds, and when designating subgrantees, agrees to administer and report on them in strict adherence to the grantors' programmatic and financial rules and regulations, the District's Grants Policies and Procedures Manual, and applicable federal and District laws.

Budget Authority for Grants: District agencies will spend grant funds for allowable costs only at such time as a grant award has been received, and to the extent they have budget authority to do so. Budget authority applies to a particular fiscal year. If a grant covers multiple fiscal years, the sum of the budget authority across those fiscal years should not exceed the grant award amount. Changes in budget authority will be made only in accordance with the District's policies and procedures regarding budget modifications (increases or decreases in overall budget authority for a grant) or reprogrammings (increases or decreases in particular line items within a grant that leaves the overall budget authority unchanged). Spending grant funds without budget authority is a violation of the Anti-Deficiency Act. Agency updates to the spending plans required by the Anti-Deficiency Act should reflect all changes to grant budget authority.

Background: Many of the grants that the District receives have performance year(s) different from the District's fiscal year. The timing differences between the grant year(s) and the District's fiscal year impact the budgeting for grants. Through the budget modification process, the CFO submits documentation to the District Council requesting the establishment of budget authority for new grant awards received during the fiscal year or grant budget authority not included in the congressionally approved budget for the fiscal year. This process is unique among the District's funding types and is mainly due to the nature of grants in comparison to the District's fiscal year requirements. All government officials work together to ensure that this administrative process is as efficient as possible. The efficiency of the process can play a critical role in grants management.

Fairness in Awarding Grants: It is the intent of the District to have a fair and open competitive process for the awarding of grant funds. To that end, the following procedures shall be followed:

- A Notice of Funds Availability (NOFA) shall be prepared and published in the D.C. Register.
- The agency administering the grant shall prepare the Request for Applications (RFA).
- For the purpose of awarding grants, District government agencies shall hold fair and open competitions that comply with the D.C. Grants Policies and Procedures Manual and the Notice of Final Rule making, Chapter 50: Subgrants to Private and Public Agencies.

The only exception to the above procedures occurs when an organization merits a targeted grant, and the awarding of this targeted grant becomes transparent and is justified through the budget formulation process.

After the NOFA has been published and the RFA released, the District government agency appoints a neutral and objective review panel. The panel is comprised of a minimum of three individuals with knowledge and expertise in the objectives of the grant and RFA, as well as in the standard administrative requirements mandated by the source of funds. The review panel scores the submitted applications and makes recommendations as to which applications should be funded. The head of the District agency administering the grant makes final decisions regarding awards and amounts. After this review and before the agency issues the award documents, the Agency Fiscal Officer at the awarding agency shall certify that the award funds are in place and available for distribution.

Background: The receipt of grant funds triggers many requirements including, but not limited to, spending and reporting requirements. Grant awards typically mandate the terms and conditions governing grants and incorporate the relevant regulations and statutes. Funds that are awarded to private and public agencies by District agencies, as subgrants, are bound by the appropriate U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular and Cost Principles as well as any policy guidelines issued by the grantor. Subgrants to other District agencies are generally awarded through the Memorandum of Understanding process. Grants to parties outside the District government generally are awarded through a grant agreement that specifies the performance obligations of the grantee. In the case of grant awards from general funds, grantees must comply with both the appropriate OMB Circular and Cost Principles and any other policy guidance included in the grant agreement. The CFO will meet the District's reporting requirements by publishing the quarterly Congressional Grant Budget and Activity report sent to Congress and the District Council, which provides grant-level information; and monthly financial status reports, which provide summaries at the agency level.

Donated Funds Monitoring Policy

Donated funds shall be authorized and monitored pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 1-329.01, Mayor's Order 2010-167, effective October 15, 2010, and the related donation agreement with the respective donor. All donated funds shall be used for the specific purpose expressed in the respective donation agreement, deposited into the appropriate account, and shall be available for the intended purpose of the donation until expended or unless the donor, for valid reasons, requests a refund. The Office of the City Administrator (OCA) or a designee and the respective District agency or entity that receives the donation shall be responsible for monitoring the expenditure of the donated funds, in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations.

Capital

Prior to recommending or approving new projects, the District must ensure that the budget for all capital expenditures, including any planned acquisitions and any necessary replacement of assets, does not exceed designated revenue streams and available debt service capacity. The annualized cost of any proposed changes is compared to the approved budget totals from the prior 6-year Capital Improvements Program (CIP) period for each fiscal year. New projects may be approved only insofar as the designated revenue streams are not exceeded and long-term financing cost of the CIP stays within available funding limits, which require that debt service costs not exceed a cap of 12 percent of the District's General Fund expenditures, as detailed in the Debt Management Policy.

Anti-Deficiency Act

District officials and employees must comply with: (a) the federal Anti-Deficiency Act, 31 U.S.C. §§1341, 1342, 1349 through 1351, 1511 through 1519 and D.C. Official Code §§ 1-206.03(e) and 47-105 (the "Federal ADA"); and (b) the District Anti-Deficiency Act, D.C. Official Code §§47-355.01 et seq. (the "D.C. ADA", and (a) and (b) together, as amended from time to time, the "Anti-Deficiency Acts"). Among other provisions, the D.C. ADA requires agency heads and agency fiscal officers to submit a spending plan and a position roster (Schedule A) at the beginning of each fiscal year to the CFO. Managers must submit, on a quarterly basis, projections of year-end spending to the agency head and agency fiscal officer, with summarized reports being forwarded to the District's CFO no more than 30 days after the end of each quarter. Employees are prohibited from:

- Making or authorizing an expenditure or obligation exceeding an amount available in an appropriation for an agency or fund;
- Obligating the District for the payment of money before an appropriation is made or before a certification of the availability of funds is made, unless authorized by law;
- Approving a disbursement without appropriate authorization;
- Allowing an expenditure or obligation to exceed apportioned amounts;
- Deferring recording a transaction incurred in the current fiscal year to a future fiscal year;
- Submitting a required plan or projection in an untimely manner;
- Knowingly reporting incorrectly on spending to date or on projected total annual spending;
- Failing to adhere to a spending plan through overspending that is greater than 5 percent of the agency's budget, or $1 million; or
- Making or authorizing an expenditure or obligation for one capital project from another capital project.

A review board was established, consistent with the Act and implementing regulations, to review potential violations referred to the board, determine culpability, and recommend penalties for violations. The CFO submits quarterly reports to the Mayor and the District Council on actual expenditures and obligations compared to planned levels. The CFO also is required to develop the quarterly apportionment of funds, by source of funds, for each agency based on the spending plans submitted by the agency heads and fiscal officers.

Background: District officials and employees are bound by the Anti-Deficiency Acts, which bar them from obligating funds except in accordance with appropriations. Further, the D.C. ADA establishes a greater level of control than does the Federal ADA, and it provides specific penalties for violations. Spending plans are one of the D.C. ADA's key requirements to ensure that appropriations are not exceeded.

Economic Development Policy

Real Property Tax Exemptions

The Office of Tax and Revenue (OTR) implements real property tax exemptions in accordance with applicable law. Except for property exempted by specific legislation or immune from taxation by the District, real property is taxable unless an administrative exemption with respect to such property has been granted. As a general matter, owners of property for which an exemption is sought must apply to OTR. The applicable requirements for exemption are generally set forth in D.C. Official Code § 47-1002 and the regulations promulgated thereunder. OTR reviews each application and determines whether the requirements for the applicable category of exemption, including those pertaining to ownership and use of the property, have been met. A property cannot qualify for exemption simply because its owner is exempt from federal income tax or other taxes. Once granted, the exemption remains in effect as long as the property continues to meet the applicable requirements and the owner files the required annual use reports. If ownership of the property changes, the categorical exemption terminates.

Analysis of Proposed Tax Exemptions and Abatements

Pursuant to the Exemptions and Abatements Information Requirement Act of 2011, effective September 14, 2011 (D.C. Law 19-21; D.C. Official Code § 47-4701 et seq.), new tax abatements and exemptions proposed under Title 47 or Title 42 (§42-1103) of the D.C. Official Code are subject to OCFO analysis prior to consideration by the District Council. The advisory analysis includes a determination of whether or not the abatement is needed to (a) meet the fiscal needs of the specific existing building, entity, or persons receiving the abatement; (b) cause a specific development project to go forward; or (c) achieve the policy goal of the abatement if the abatement broadly applies to a category of taxpayers. It also includes the estimated cost of the proposed tax abatement. Finally, the District's fiscal impact analysis procedures require that the District budget incorporate any reductions in revenue that result from newly authorized tax abatements, prior to such abatements taking effect.

Debt Financing Tools

The District may provide public-sector financing of economic development to qualified projects pursuant to District laws and subject to the District's laws on borrowing limitations (D.C. Official Code §47-334 et seq., the Cap Act). The OCFO works with the executive branch of the District government in the review, consideration, and approval of the financing of qualified projects.

The primary economic development debt financing instruments used are:

- Tax Increment Financing bonds or notes, in which incremental tax revenues from a project area are pledged to pay debt service on tax increment financing bonds or notes issued to finance a portion of a qualified project; and
- Payment In-Lieu-of-Taxes (PILOT) financing bonds and notes, in which the PILOT payments from a project area are pledged to pay debt service on PILOT bonds or notes issued to finance a portion of a qualified project. PILOT bonds or notes are used only for projects located on parcels that were previously exempt from the payment of real property taxes.

In addition, the District assists private entities, primarily nonprofit organizations and owners of rental apartment complexes, by issuing private activity revenue bonds on their behalf. The District's Revenue Bond Program is administered by the Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development, and housing development related bonds are issued by the District of Columbia Housing Finance Agency. The debt service on these bonds is payable solely from the revenue of the private entity and is not the District's obligation.

Appendix B:

Basis of Budgeting and Accounting

Basis of Budgeting and Accounting

The Government of the District of Columbia provides the following information regarding key tenets of its Basis of Budgeting and Accounting:

Background

Four basic differences between the basis of accounting and the basis of budgeting for state and local governments are:

(1) Basis Differences – these differences arise when the basis of accounting used to develop and approve the budget differs from the basis of accounting required by Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) for financial reporting. Two such differences are the use of the cash basis for budget purposes and the treatment of encumbrances as expenditures to develop the budget;

(2) Perspective Differences – these differences exist when the structure of financial information for budgetary purposes differs from the fund structure that is used to prepare the basic financial statements. For example, some governments may budget by program and not by fund type;

(3) Entity Differences – these differences arise when the appropriated budget either includes or excludes organizations and programs. For example, the general fund of a blended component unit reported as a major special revenue fund may not be included in the budget of the primary government and may not have a budget of its own; and

(4) Timing Differences – these differences include a significant variance between budgetary practices and GAAP regarding the authorized carry-forward of appropriated funds. Also, in GAAP, accounting revenues are recognized in governmental funds as soon as they are both "measurable" and "available," whereas revenue recognition under the budgetary basis of accounting may be deferred until amounts are actually received in cash.

When any of these differences exist, GAAP requires governments to present a reconciliation of budgetary comparison information to GAAP information in the notes to the Financial Statements/Required Supplementary Information, on the face of the budgetary statement, or as an attached schedule to the budgetary statement.

Accounting System

The District's accounting system is organized and operated on a fund basis. A fund is a group of self-balancing accounts combined into a separate accounting entity having its own assets, deferred outflows of resources, liabilities, deferred inflows of resources, equity, revenue and expenditures/expenses. Funds are established for the purpose of carrying on specific activities or attaining certain objectives in accordance with special regulations, restrictions, or limitations. The District follows GAAP when determining the types of funds to be established and is guided by the "minimum number of funds principle" and sound financial management practices when determining the number of funds to be set up within each fund type. Specialized accounting and reporting principles and practices apply to governmental funds. Proprietary and trust funds are accounted for in the same manner as business enterprises.

Internal Control

The District's management team is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal controls designed to ensure that the assets of the District are protected from loss, theft or misuse and to ensure that adequate accounting data are compiled to allow for the preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP. The internal control structure is designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that these objectives are met within three broad, overriding categories:

(a) efficiency and effectiveness of operations;
(b) reliability of financial reporting; and
(c) compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

The concept of reasonable assurance recognizes that:

(1) The cost of a control should not exceed the benefits likely to be derived; and
(2) The valuation of costs and benefits requires estimates and judgments by management.

Basis of Budgeting

The basis of budgeting refers to the conventions used for recognition of costs and revenue in budget development and in establishing and reporting appropriations, which provide the legal authority to spend or collect revenues. The District uses a modified accrual basis for budgeting governmental funds. Proprietary funds are budgeted using accrual concepts. All operating and capital expenditures and revenue are identified in the budgeting process because of the need for appropriation authority.

The budget is fully reconciled to the accounting system at the beginning of the fiscal year and in preparing the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) at the end of the fiscal year. A number of GAAP adjustments are made to reflect balance sheet requirements and their effect on the budget.

Budgetary Control

The District maintains budgetary controls designed to monitor compliance with expenditure limitations contained in the annual appropriated budget approved by the United States Congress. The level of budgetary control (that is, the level at which expenditures cannot legally exceed the appropriated amount) is established by function within the General Fund. The District also uses an encumbrance recording system as one technique for maintaining budgetary control. In addition, the District adopts a project-length financial plan for its capital projects. Generally, encumbered amounts lapse at year-end in the General Fund but not in the Capital Projects Fund, Special Revenue funds, or the fund for Federal Payments, depending on the appropriation language for each Federal Payment.

Basis of Accounting

The District's financial statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP. As such, the measurement focus and basis of accounting applied in the preparation of the District's financial statements are as follows:

- The District's government-wide financial statements focus on all of the District's economic resources and use the full accrual basis of accounting; and
- The District's fund financial statements focus primarily on the sources, uses, and balances of current financial resources and use the modified accrual basis of accounting.

Appendix C:

Fund Structure and Relationship to Budget Structure

Fund Structure and Relationship to Budget Structure

The District's budget is presented by agency, but each part of the budget is also part of a particular fund for accounting purposes. Most of the agencies in the operating budget are reported in two funds, and most of the agencies in the capital budget are reported in one fund, but there are some exceptions.

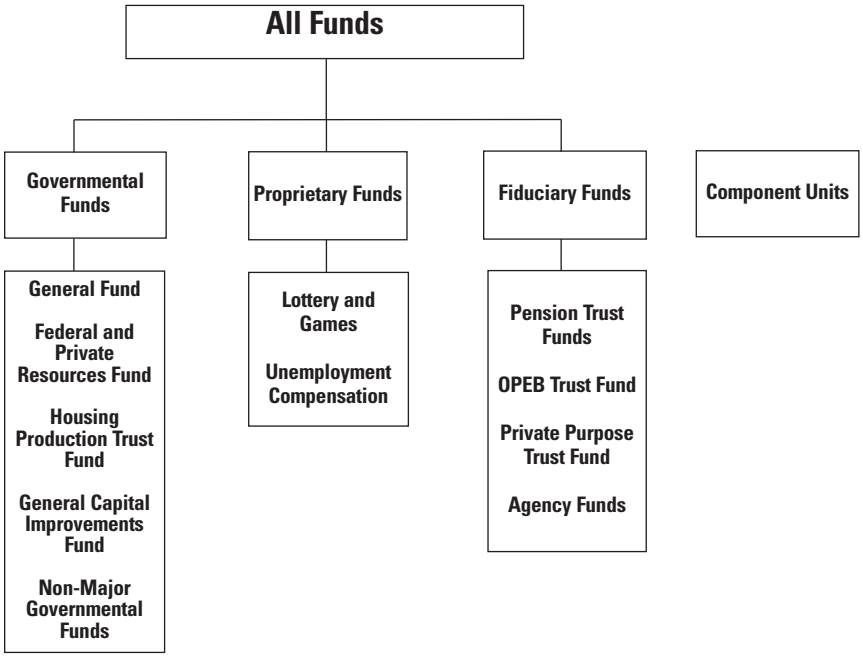
This section describes the District's fund structure as presented in its Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR). It then relates the District's budget presentation to its fund structure.

Fund Structure

A number of funds and reporting entities, both governmental and non-governmental, are included in the District's CAFR and are discussed below. The primary fund and reporting entity categories are:

- Governmental Funds;
- Proprietary Funds;
- Fiduciary Funds; and
- Component Units.

Fund Structure



Governmental Funds

Governmental Funds include four major and six non-major funds. The major governmental funds are:

- General Fund;
- Federal and Private Resources Fund;
- Housing Production Trust Fund; and
- General Capital Improvements Fund.

The non-major governmental funds are:

- Tobacco Settlement Financing Corporation Fund
- Tax Increment Financing Program Fund;
- Payment-in-Lieu-of-Taxes Special Revenue Fund;
- Baseball Special Revenue Fund;
- Debt Service Fund; and
- Highway Trust Fund.

General Fund

The General Fund records three sources of revenue: Local funds, Dedicated Taxes, and Special Purpose Revenues. These are known as appropriated funds.

- Local funds are the District's primary source of revenue. Nearly all of the District's tax receipts - the most significant of which are income taxes, sales taxes, and property taxes - are recorded as Local funds. In addition, certain non-tax revenues (those fines, fees, and miscellaneous revenues not dedicated for a particular agency's use) are part of Local funds. Finally, an annual transfer from the Lottery goes into Local funds.
- Dedicated Taxes are those taxes that, by law, are dedicated to a particular purpose. Examples include a specified portion of sales tax that is dedicated to the Washington Convention and Sports Authority and the full amount of the motor fuel tax, which is dedicated to the Highway Trust Fund. As detailed below, some dedicated taxes are not part of the General Fund.
- Special Purpose Revenues are non-tax revenues collected by District agencies that, by law, are dedicated to support the functions those agencies perform. Examples include certain fees and permit charges that the public pays for and whose proceeds are used by the agency to carry out operations in that same area. Some agencies retain unused revenues collected in a given fiscal year in the restricted or committed portions of the Fund Balance. They are allowed to spend those revenues, if they receive appropriation authority to do so, in a succeeding year.

Descriptions of General Fund revenues, as well as historical data and estimates for FY 2018 and the next three years, can be found in chapter 3 of this Executive Summary volume.

Federal and Private Resources Fund

The Federal and Private Resources Fund records five sources of revenue, each of which is an appropriated fund.

- Federal Grants are grants the District receives from federal agencies, including block grants, formula grants, certain entitlements, and competitive grants.
- Federal Payments are direct appropriations from the Congress to the District, usually to a particular District agency for a particular purpose.
- Federal Medicaid Payments are the federal share of the District's Medicaid costs. Generally, the federal government pays 70 percent of the cost of Medicaid while the District pays 30 percent, although the proportions differ in certain circumstances.
- Private Grants are grants the District receives from non-federal sources.
- Private Donations are donations to District agencies from private individuals or organizations.

Housing Production Trust Fund

The Housing Production Trust Fund (HPTF) provides financial assistance to a variety of affordable housing programs and opportunities across the District of Columbia, including initiatives to build affordable rental housing, preserve expiring federal-assisted housing, and help provide affordable homeownership opportunities for low-income families. It receives 15 percent of deed recordation and deed transfer tax receipts, as well as appropriations from Local funds that are transferred from the General Fund.

General Capital Improvements Fund

The General Capital Improvements Fund accounts for all District capital project activity other than activity in the Highway Trust Fund. It records revenues from multiple sources, primarily bond proceeds of different types, Pay-as-you-go (Paygo) transfers from the General Fund, and federal grants for capital projects, most of which are highway construction grants.

Non-Major Governmental Funds

Special Revenue Funds account for specific revenue that is legally restricted to expenditures for particular purposes. They are as follows:

- The Tobacco Settlement Financing Corporation Fund accounts for activities relating to the tobacco litigation settlement.
- The Tax Increment Financing (TIF) Program Fund accounts for activities relating to tax increment financing development initiatives. These initiatives involve borrowing to finance a project and using the incremental tax revenues generated by the project to repay the borrowed funds.
- The Payment-in-Lieu-of-Taxes (PILOT) Special Revenue Fund accounts for activities relating to development initiatives that are similar to TIF projects, except that repayment is made from PILOT revenues instead of tax revenues.
- The Baseball Special Revenue Fund accounts for the revenues that are legally restricted to expenditures for baseball project purposes, including taxes dedicated to this fund and rent paid by the Nationals to the District.

The Debt Service Fund accounts for the payment of principal and interest on ballpark revenue bonds. It receives a transfer from the Baseball Special Revenue Fund in the amount required to make debt service payments each year.

The Highway Trust Fund accounts for the District's local match to federal highway construction grants and is primarily funded by the District's motor fuel tax. The District typically finances about 20 percent of federal highway projects while federal grants finance about 80 percent, but this proportion can differ for every project.

Proprietary Funds

Proprietary Funds are District units that charge customers for the services provided, whether to outside customers or to other units of the District. The District has two Proprietary Funds:

- Office of Lottery and Charitable Games, which not only operates and is financed like a private business where net income is key to sound management, but also can finance the costs of its goods and services provided to the public on a continuing basis primarily through user charges. The Lottery accounts for revenue from lotteries and daily numbers games operated by the District and from licenses to conduct charitable games, and it transfers its profits to help finance the General Fund.
- Unemployment Compensation Fund, which accounts for funds used to pay benefits to unemployed former employees of the District, federal government, and private employers within the District. The fund is administered by the Department of Employment Services.

Fiduciary Funds

Fiduciary Funds account for assets held by the District in a trustee or agency capacity. These assets cannot be used to support the District's programs. The District's Fiduciary Funds are:

- The Pension Trust Funds, which account for resources accumulated and used for retirement annuity payments for police officers, firefighters, public school teachers, and their survivors. Resources are contributed by employees and by the District and federal governments at amounts determined by an annual actuarial study. The funds are administered by a 13-member Retirement Board. The administrative costs of the board are accounted for in the funds.
- The Other Post-Employment Benefits (OPEB) Trust Fund, which accounts for resources accumulated and used for post-employment health insurance and life insurance premiums for former District employees.
- The Private Purpose Trust Fund, which accounts for the District's sponsored college tuition savings plan.
- The agency funds, which account for refundable deposits required of various licenses, include monies held in escrow as an agent for individuals, private organizations or other governments.

Component Units

Component units are legally separate organizations for which the District is financially accountable because their governing bodies are appointed by the Mayor, with the consent of the Council, or other District officials. The District has five component units:

- Health Benefit Exchange Authority, which implements a health care exchange program in the District of Columbia in accordance with the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.
- Washington Convention and Sports Authority, which maintains and operates the Washington Convention Center for local public shows, civic events, and other activities; maintains and operates the National Guard Armory for nonmilitary events and the Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium; and promotes the District as a sporting event site.
- Not-for-Profit Hospital Corporation, commonly known as United Medical Center and United Medical Nursing Center, which provides inpatient, outpatient, psychiatric, and emergency care and manages a skilled nursing facility.
- Housing Finance Agency, which receives funds from public and private sources to alleviate the shortage of housing through greater supply and less expensive mortgage and construction loans.
- University of the District of Columbia (UDC), which accounts for resources received and used by the University of the District of Columbia. The unit contains four separate fund groups: Current Funds, Loan Fund, Endowment Fund, and Plant Funds. A budget is prepared for only the Current Funds.

The District established the District of Columbia Tobacco Settlement Financing Corporation (the "Tobacco Corporation") as a special purpose, independent instrumentality of the District government. The Tobacco Corporation is a blended component unit because it provides services exclusively to the District.

Budget Structure and Relationship to Fund Structure

For FY 2018, the District is publishing six budget volumes: this Executive Summary volume, four volumes covering the operating budget, and one volume covering the capital budget. The operating budget includes agencies whose revenues and expenditures are recorded in the General Fund and the Federal and Private Resources Fund. In addition, the operating budget includes certain agencies that operate outside these two funds. The capital budget includes agencies in the General Capital Improvements Fund and the Highway Trust Fund.

Operating Budget

The District's operating budget (volumes 2 through 4 and volume 6) includes all spending in the General Fund and the Federal and Private Resources Fund. All agencies described in volumes 2, 3, and 4 of the budget documents, except for those in the appropriation title “Enterprise and Other Funds” (part H of volume 4), are budgeted in, and make expenditures in, one of these two funds. These include the three General Fund revenue sources (Local, Dedicated Tax, and Special Purpose Revenue) and the five Federal and Private Resources revenue sources.

The "Enterprise and Other Funds” section of the budget includes agencies that operate through both governmental and non-governmental funds. These agencies have one of two appropriated fund revenue sources: “Enterprise and Other Funds” and “Enterprise and Other Funds – Dedicated Taxes.” These agencies relate to fund categories as follows:

Fund Category	Agency
Governmental Funds - Major	• Housing Production Trust Fund
Governmental Funds - Non-Major	• Tax Increment Financing (TIF) Program • Repayment of PILOT Financing • Ballpark Revenue Fund
Proprietary Funds	• Office of Lottery and Charitable Games • Unemployment Insurance Trust Fund
Fiduciary Funds	• D.C. Public Library Agency Trust Fund
Component Units	• Health Benefit Exchange Authority • Washington Convention and Sports Authority • Not-For-Profit Hospital Corporation • Housing Finance Agency • University of the District of Columbia
Other	• Water and Sewer Authority (DC Water) • Washington Aqueduct • District of Columbia Retirement Board

Note that the "Ballpark Revenue Fund" is the name of the agency that includes budget for expenditures made through both the Baseball Special Revenue Fund and the Debt Service Fund, both of which are non-major governmental funds. As such, this agency includes budget authority for the debt service portion of its expenditures twice: once to provide budget authority to transfer revenue from the Baseball Special Revenue Fund to the Debt Service Fund, and a second time to make the debt service expenditures from the Debt Service Fund.

Capital Budget

The capital budget volume (volume 5) includes all revenues and expenditures related to the General Capital Improvements Fund. All agency capital budget chapters show spending in this fund, except for a portion of the budget of the District Department of Transportation (DDOT). Some of DDOT's projects are financed by bond revenues or Paygo capital and are budgeted in the General Capital Improvements Fund. But its Highway Trust Fund projects are financed by a mix of federal grants and local match. As noted above, the federal grant portion of these projects is recorded in the General Capital Improvements Fund, while the local match is recorded in the Highway Trust Fund, a non-major governmental fund.

Transfers Between Funds

The District's budget includes a number of transfers between funds.

Dedicated taxes are sometimes dedicated to an agency within the General Fund, in which case they are simply a source of revenue and budget authority for the agency. But certain dedicated taxes are allocated to agencies outside the General Fund. Some of these are transfers through the General Fund, while others are not:

- Dedicated tax revenues flow through the General Fund to two agencies: the Washington Convention and Sports Authority and the Highway Trust Fund. The revenues are in the Dedicated Tax appropriated fund, in the General Fund, and the operating budget includes a General Fund transfer agency that records an "expenditure" of these funds as the transfer is made. The budget for the Washington Convention and Sports Authority is included in part H of volume 4, and the budget for the Highway Trust Fund is in volume 5.
- Four allocations of dedicated taxes are not transferred through the General Fund – the tax revenues go directly to the agencies and are never considered part of General Fund revenue. These are the allocations to the Tax Increment Financing Program, Repayment of PILOT Financing, the Ballpark Revenue Fund, and the Housing Production Trust Fund. The budgets for these four agencies are included in part H of volume 4.

In some cases, more dedicated tax revenue is allocated to these agencies than is needed. Specifically, revenues for the Ballpark Revenue Fund and for some projects in the Tax Increment Financing Program and in Repayment of PILOT Financing have accumulated faster than needed for the purposes of these agencies, which is to pay debt service on past borrowings. Depending on legislation and bond documents in each instance, the excess amounts may be available for transfer to the General Fund, and in recent years these transfers have added to General Fund resources.

Other transfers are budgeted each year. Each year, the District budgets a transfer of Local Funds to the University of the District of Columbia. In addition, the Lottery (a Proprietary Fund) transfers revenues to the General Fund each year; these revenues become part of Local Funds.

Pay-as-you-go (Paygo) capital refers to the use of current-year operating budget revenue for a capital project, to supplement the long-term financing that is typically used for capital projects. Similar to the Dedicated Tax transfers above, the operating budget includes a General Fund Paygo (transfer) agency that records an "expenditure" of these funds as the transfer is made from the General Fund to the General Capital Improvements Fund. Occasionally, funds previously transferred through Paygo to the General Capital Improvements Fund but not spent will be transferred back to the General Fund.

Indirect Cost Recovery refers to the District's ability to use a portion of federal grant revenues to fund central services that provide indirect support for grant-receiving agencies. Terms are set out in each grant agreement. These revenues are accumulated and transferred each year from the Federal and Private Resources Fund, where grant revenue is first recorded, to the General Fund, where the transfer helps support spending by General Fund agencies.

Bond Issuance Costs are the costs related to issuing General Obligation Bonds, Income Tax-Secured Revenue Bonds, and other long-term debt. These costs include (but are not limited to) expenses related to underwriting, credit enhancement, financial advisory, documentation, and credit ratings on the bonds. A portion of the bond proceeds is used to pay these costs. Once bond proceeds are received for the General Obligation Bonds, or the Income Tax Secured Revenue Bonds, almost all of the proceeds are recorded in the General Capital Improvements Fund. The portion used to pay for issuance costs, however, is recorded directly in the General Fund. The issuance costs for other long-term debt are recorded to the applicable budget and fund at the time the bonds are issued.

Intra-District Budgets

Note that each agency's operating budget total may also include an intra-District budget. Intra-District budget represent agreements between two agencies whereby one agency purchases services from the other. The buying agency makes an expenditure against its own budget authority (Local, Dedicated Tax, Special Purpose Revenue, Federal, or Private) by transferring resources to the selling agency. The selling agency receives this expenditure as intra-District revenue, establishes intra-District budget authority, and spends against that authority to provide the service. An agency's total "gross funds" budget includes its intra-District budget authority. Because such arrangements appear as expenditures twice, once in each agency, the intra-District totals are excluded from the District-wide calculations of the total "gross funds" budget. They also are excluded from the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report totals reported at the end of the year.

Appendix D:

Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) Development

Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) Development

Overview

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds only representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into FY 2018. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in the FY 2017 Approved Budget to FY 2018 Proposed Budget, by Revenue Type table (Table 5) of nearly every District agency budget chapter.

Methodology

The starting point in estimating the required level of programmatic funding for the upcoming fiscal year (FY 2018) was the approved budget of the current fiscal year (FY 2017). One-time expenditures in FY 2017 were removed from the calculation, since they were assumed not to continue into FY 2018. There were several components within the approved budget that were considered basic to most agencies and required the application of a standard methodology. In these instances, the same calculations were applied across all District agencies; however, some calculations were restricted only to a particular agency or a specific group of agencies and to applicable Comptroller Source Groups (CSGs), or expenditure types, such as Salaries, Fringe Benefits, Contracts, or Supplies. Finally, specific assumptions were applied to certain agencies, in some cases for known budget items that were likely to recur, and in other cases because characteristics were unique to the agency, such as debt service obligations.

General Assumptions Used to Develop the CSFL

The following are the general assumptions that were applied to nearly all District agencies in the FY 2018 CSFL:

1. Fringe Benefit Rate Adjustments (By Agency): The FY 2018 fringe benefit rate increase was calculated based on: 1) a four-year average of fringe data; 2) the percentage of health and other benefits to total fringe benefits; and 3) a projection of growth in benefits.

2. Consumer Price Index (CPI) Growth Factor: 2.5 Percent Year-over-Year (YoY) increase to Nonpersonal Services (NPS) costs (CSG 41): The 2.5 percent inflation factor is based on the seasonally adjusted CPI for the Metropolitan DC region, which is forecasted by the Office of Revenue Analysis. OBP used the CPI to adjust for inflation and other economic indices of cost variations.

Specific Assumptions Used to Develop the CSFL

The following are the specific assumptions that were applied only to certain CSGs within one particular agency or within specific groups of agencies.

1. Removal of One-Time Items: All FY 2017 one-time items were removed from the CSFL.

2. Recurring Budget Items: Where applicable, recurring budget items were identified to adjust CSGs 11 (Regular Pay - Continuing Full Time), 13 (Additional Gross Pay), 14 (Fringe Benefits – Current Personnel), 15 (Overtime Pay), 40 (Other Services and Charges), 41 (Contractual Services - Other), and 50 (Subsidies and Transfers). Recurring budget items for all other CSGs were not adjusted in the FY 2018 CSFL.

3. Fixed Cost Inflation Factor: The Fixed Costs (CSGs 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, and 35) for the FY 2018 CSFL were derived from cost estimates provided by the Department of General Services, telecommunication estimates provided by the Office of Finance and Resource Management, and fleet estimates provided by the Department of Public Works.

4. Medicaid Growth Factor: The growth rate of 2.3 percent was provided by the Department of Health Care Finance and used to calculate baseline funding for Medicaid in the FY 2018 CSFL.

5. Student Funding Formula Inflation Factor: The funding formula was increased by 2.0 percent to account for inflationary costs that are generally associated with educating students in the District of Columbia Public Schools and Public Charter Schools.

6. Debt Service Adjustments: Projected adjustments were provided by the Office of Finance and Treasury.

7. Operating Impact of Capital: Projected adjustments were provided by the respective agencies for completed capital projects that will have operating costs.

8. Other Adjustments: These adjustments were unique to a particular agency and did not meet the criteria of the other adjustment scenarios.

Appendix E:

Agency Performance Plans

Agency Performance Plans

Overview

In FY 2016, the Office of the City Administrator (OCA) developed a robust performance management program across the District. This includes several updates to the format and submission process for annual agency performance plans.

First drafts of the high-level components of each agency's performance plan (objectives, key performance indicators, workload measures and operations) are published with the Mayor's annual budget submission. The final performance plan, which also includes strategic initiatives, is posted online in October each year at www.oca.dc.gov.

The following provides a background of annual performance plans and their uses, a description of the major components of each plan and a summary of the performance management timeline.

Background:

Annual Performance Plans can help accomplish several purposes, these include:

- Provide clear direction on how an agency plans to make progress toward achieving its mission and aligning to the Mayor's goals and vision for the District;
- Help to align and prioritize resources;
- Be a tool to monitor progress toward completion of strategic initiatives and key projects; and
- Communicate to the Mayor, the Council of the District of Columbia, and the public on what the agency plans to do to improve its performance over the coming year.

I. Components

Below is a summary of each component in the Annual Performance Plan.

- Strategic Objectives. Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its Mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are citizens or other District agencies.
  - o In FY 2017, each agency was required to add an Excellence in Government Strategic Objective and several key performance indicators. These indicators are as follows:
    - Contracts/Procurement - Percent of Expendable Budget spent on Certified Business Enterprises
    - Contracts/Procurement - Contracts lapsed into retroactive status
    - Budget - Local funds unspent
    - Budget - Federal Funds returned
    - Customer Service - Meeting Service Level Agreements
    - Human Resources - Vacancy Rate
    - Human Resources - Employee District residency
    - Human Resources - Employee Onboard Time
    - Performance Management - Employee Performance Plan Completion

  OCA is working with agencies to collect this data, which will be available online starting in October 2017.

For agencies that do not track one of the measures above in one of the District's citywide databases, OCA will work with that agency to substitute a corresponding measure.

- Key Performance Indicators. Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"
- Operations. Operations include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. This is further divided into Daily Services, such as sanitation disposal, and long-term Key Projects that are high profile, one-time and span several years, such as the redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center. Many agencies will mostly have Daily Services, whereas some agencies that have substantial amounts of capital funds will have several Key Projects.
- Workload Measures. Workload Measures cover inputs and outputs of Operations such as the number of driver's licenses issued. Workload Measures include major components that provide crucial information about an agency's work and the work that is needed to make progress toward the Strategic Objective.

Available in the final draft to be published on the OCA website (www.oca.dc.gov) by October 2017:

- Strategic Initiatives. Strategic Initiatives are defined as changes and/or enhancements to Operations that will help make progress on the Strategic Objective. Strategic Initiatives are typically completed or implemented in one or two years. Strategic Initiatives may affect more than one Operational function. A Strategic Initiative can encompass several areas:
  - o How an agency will improve a Daily Service, for example, by streamlining the intake process for customers accessing an agency's service.
  - o How an agency will implement a new component to a current Daily Service, for example, by rolling out body-worn cameras for police officers on patrol.
  - o How an agency will implement the current phase and expected progress for long-term Key Projects, for example, by completing the initial design work for construction of a new District facility. Daily Services may not always have a corresponding Strategic Initiatives but Key Projects will always have an Initiative that describes the year's expectations.

II. How are Performance Plans used?

Annual Performance Plans will be used at several points during the year to help the Mayor, City Administrator, and Deputy Mayors prioritize resources, track progress, and make adjustments during the year as needed. The draft Annual Performance Plans will be used during budget meetings to understand how changes in funding are expected to affect performance.

After Annual Performance Plans are finalized, OCA and Deputy Mayors will meet with agencies once per quarter to assess how progress on the Performance Plan is being made. These meetings can help identify areas where progress is stalled and talk about what adjustments and assistance are needed to help move forward. In addition, they will also serve as a way to check in and see that the agency continues to remain focused on areas that are important to the Mayor throughout the year. For example, adjustments could need to be made for new laws, regulations or new potential focus areas that arise after the performance plan is published. These changes will be communicated in a transparent way where the public can see where and why a focus was changed.

Statistical Profile of the District of Columbia

Statistical Profile

The District of Columbia was created in 1791 by an act of the United States Congress and Presidential proclamation and has served as the capital of the United States of America since 1800. The District is also a growing city of more than 680,000 residents living in its neighborhoods and supporting a large regional economy. The District's budget covers functions typical of states, counties, municipalities, and special districts as it serves residents, others who work in the city, and visitors from around the country and around the world.

When first established, the District was 100 square miles, chosen to be between north and south in the new United States, from land ceded by Maryland and Virginia. In 1846, the District's Virginia portion was returned to that state, leaving 69 square miles within the current District borders.

Local Government

Federal legislation, the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, Public Law No. 93-198 (approved December 24, 1973), determines how the District governs itself and how it relates to Congress. While the District elects its own Mayor and legislative body, all District legislation is sent to Congress, which may disapprove it within a 30-working-day period. Unique among tax-paying Americans, District citizens do not have representation in the Senate and have a non-voting delegate, but not full representation, in the House of Representatives.

The District is governed locally by a Mayor and a 13-member legislative body, the Council of the District of Columbia. The Mayor is elected with a 4-year term. The Council includes eight members elected by ward, four members elected at-large, and a Chairman who is also elected at-large. In the even-numbered years with a Mayoral election, residents also vote for the Chairman, for their ward member in four of the eight wards, and for two of the at-large members. In the other even-numbered years, which are presidential election years, residents vote for their ward member in the other four wards and for the other two at-large members.

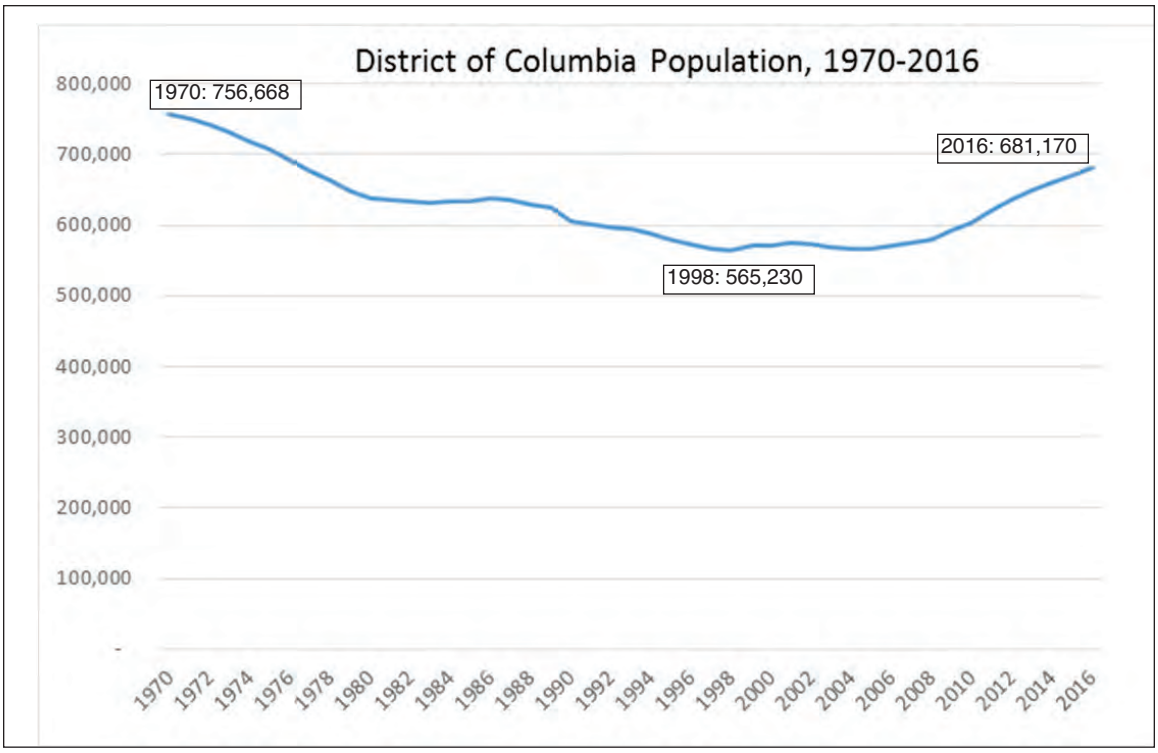
Ward lines are redrawn after each 10-year census to account for shifting population to keep the population as equal as possible across the eight wards.

Population

The District's population peaked in the 1940s at over 800,000 and declined during the ensuing decades. This decline turned around in the late 1990s, and net population growth since 2008 has averaged about 1,000 residents per month.

As of July 2016, according to Census Bureau estimates, the population was 47.7 percent Black, 44.6 percent White, 4.1 percent Asian-American, and 3.5 percent of other or multiple races. The population under age 18 was 17.6 percent and age 65 or older was 11.5 percent, both of which are below the national average, so the District has a higher-than-average proportion of its population between ages 18 and 64. Estimated for the 2011-2015 period, 54.6 percent of District residents age 25 or older had a bachelor's degree or higher, far above the national average of 29.8 percent.

The District's workday population, including commuters, is over one million.



Education

Primary and secondary education in the District is provided by the District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) and the District of Columbia Public Charter School (DCPCS) system. DCPS operates 116 schools serving about 49,000 students, while DCPCS includes 65 charter schools serving about 41,000 students. Enrollment has grown slightly in DCPS in recent years, while DCPCS has experienced continual growth since the first charter school opened in 1996.

The District served 12,173 students with disabilities in the 2014-2015 school year, according to the federally required October 6, 2014 Child Count. Of these 12,173 students, 11,170 were served in District public school programs (DCPS and DCPCS) and 1,003 were served in non-public schools at the District's expense.

The District also operates a public university, the University of the District of Columbia, which serves about 4,600 students in community college, 4-year undergraduate, and graduate and professional programs.

Public Facilities

Public facilities serving District residents, workers, and visitors include:

- 61 recreation centers;
- 11 indoor swimming pools and 18 outdoor swimming pools;
- 27 libraries;
- 33 fire stations; and
- 7 district police stations and 3 substation locations.

Tourism

The tourism industry is a major component of the District's economy. Each year, more than 20 million visitors come to Washington from all over the world. The Washington Metropolitan area is served by three major airports – Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport, Washington Dulles International Airport, and Baltimore-Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport. Hotel industry data show the increase in available rooms in the District with the opening of the Convention Center Hotel in 2015 and other hotels in 2016 and 2017.

Financial

The District raises 71 percent of revenues for its operating budget through local sources, both tax and non-tax. Another 28 percent comes through federal grant programs that all states receive, with Medicaid alone accounting for over one-half of all federal dollars. Only about 1 percent consists of federal payments, which are direct appropriations from Congress to the District and which are analogous to earmarks that other states and jurisdictions receive. At one point, the District did receive a blanket federal payment to help pay for its operating expenses, but those payments ended in 1999.

Property and income taxes make up about two-thirds of District tax revenues, with sales tax and other tax revenue making up the remainder.

Conclusion

The District of Columbia is a thriving city that is home to a growing population while simultaneously being a center of business and a world-class tourist destination. Enrollment in its school systems has been growing as well, and its adult population is highly educated. The District government performs functions typical of a city, a county, and a state, and it is supported by a diverse tax and revenue base that continues to grow. The District has balanced its budget and had a surplus each year since 1997, and its fiscal strength has been recognized in the improving ratings assigned to its debt by bond rating firms in recent years.

Appendix K:

Glossary of Budget Terms

Glossary of Budget Terms

Accrual Basis of Accounting – An accounting method that recognizes the financial effect of transactions, events, and interfund activities when they occur, regardless of the timing of related cash flows. Accordingly, revenues are recognized when they are earned and expenses when they are incurred, not when cash changes hands. Contrast this term to "modified accrual basis of accounting."

Activity – A component part of the District's program structure that is comprised of a set of services grouped around a common purpose or result.

Additional Gross Pay – Pay other than base compensation and premium pay. Examples include Holiday Pay, Longevity Pay, Shift Differential, and Terminal Leave.

Agency Financial Operations Program (AFO) – A program within an agency's performance plan under Performance-Based Budgeting. AFO is used to track the funding and FTE count for all Office of the Chief Financial Officer (OCFO) FTEs assigned to the agencies. Though many of these employees work on-site at agency locations, all financial positions within District agencies report to the Chief Financial Officer. Under AFO, these costs fall within one of three activities: (1) Budget Operations, (2) Accounting Operations, (3) ACFO. Six Associate Chief Financial Officers (ACFOs), each representing one of the major appropriation titles in the District's budget, manage agency financial operations. Agency fiscal officers report to their respective ACFO, who serves as the key contact between the Office of the Chief Financial Officer and the Office of Budget and Finance, in the Office of the City Administrator, in managing agency finances. For budgetary purposes, funding for these positions assigned to the agencies is included in the various agency budgets. This funding is not duplicated in the budget for the OCFO.

Agency Management Program (AMP) – A program within an agency's performance plan under Performance-Based Budgeting. AMP is used to track costs associated with common administrative expenses across the District. Under AMP, these costs fall within 15 activities: (1) Personnel, (2) Training and Employee Development, (3) Labor-Management Partnerships, (4) Contracting and Procurement, (5) Property Management, (6) Information Technology, (7) Financial Management, (8) Risk Management, (9) Legal Services, (10) Fleet Management, (11) Communications, (12) Customer Service, (13) Performance Management, (14) Language Access, and (15) Court-Ordered Supervision. Many agencies do not include all 15 of these activities.

Allocable Revenue – Revenue earned, collected, and used by the agency responsible for generating the revenue.

Allocation – The movement of budget from a central budget item, like a Reserve fund, to a specific budget location. In the case of the Highway Transportation Fund, the movement of capital budget from a master project to a capital project authorized within the master project group.

Amendment – A proposed change to a budget that is not yet finally approved, but has been formally submitted by the executive to the legislative branch.

Annualization – A budget increase to provide full-year budget authority for a budgetary item that was only partially funded in the prior-year budget.

Appropriated Revenue – Authority to collect revenue by an agency on behalf of the District Treasury; such revenue is used to support the operations of all agencies.

Appropriation – Authority to spend funds appropriated by Congress and financed by general District revenues.

Appropriation Group (or Appropriation Title) – The eight broad areas into which the District categorizes services to the citizens of Washington D.C. They include Governmental Direction and Support, Economic Development and Regulation, Public Safety and Justice, Public Education System, Human Support Services, Public Works, Financing and Other, and Enterprise and Other Funds.

Arbitrage – The ability to obtain tax-exempt bond proceeds and invest the funds in higher-yielding taxable securities, resulting in a profit. Generally, tax-exempt bond issues, which were issued on or after September 1, 1986, are subject to the arbitrage rebate requirements issued by the U.S. Department of the Treasury (Internal Revenue Service), requiring that any profit or "arbitrage" be "rebated" to the U.S. Government.

Attrition – Voluntary employment losses, such as retirements and resignations.

Bonds – Officially called debt securities, bonds provide ways for governments to raise large sums of money by borrowing. Bonds usually have a principal amount and a contract interest rate. For fixed-rate bonds, the principal can be paid at maturity while the interest is generally paid semi-annually as a percent of the principal. For example, a government could issue $10,000,000 in bonds with a 5-percent interest rate. If the bonds matured in five years, then the $10,000,000 principal amount would be repaid to the bondholder on the fifth anniversary of issuance. During that period, $500,000 would be paid in interest each year or $250,000 semiannually. Governments may also issue floating-rate bonds, where interest accrues at rates that are reset periodically (typically weekly or monthly). Interest payments may be due on a monthly basis, with principal due at maturity.

Bond Rating – A bond rating is an independent assessment of the creditworthiness of a bond issued by a state or municipality (including all short and long-term indebtedness) rated by these agencies. The three primary rating agencies are Standard & Poor's Ratings Services (S & P), Moody's Investors Service, Inc. (Moody's), and Fitch Ratings, Inc. (Fitch). Bond ratings measure the probability of the timely repayment of principal and interest of a bond. Generally, a higher credit rating would lead to a more favorable effect on the marketability of a bond and lower cost of borrowing for the borrower. The credit rating symbols

Bond Ratings

Rating	S & P	Moody's	Fitch
Best Quality; extremely strong capacity to pay principal and interest	AAA	Aaa	AAA
High Quality; very strong capacity to pay principal and interest	AA	Aa	AA
Upper Medium Quality; strong capacity to pay principal and interest	A	A	A
Medium Grade; adequate capacity to pay principal and interest	BBB	Baa	BBB
Somewhat Speculative	BB	Ba	BB
Low Grade, Speculative	B	B	B
Low Grade, Partial Recovery Possible	CCC	Caa	CCC
Low Grade, Default Recovery Possible	CC	Ca	CC
Recovery Unlikely	C	C	C

(long-term) for investment grade bonds range from the highest ratings of AAA, AA, and A to BBB-, the lowest investment grade ratings. Pluses are added to distinguish strength and minuses reflect weaknesses. Bonds rated below BBB- are referred to as speculative, low grade or junk bonds. The Bond Ratings table denotes the bond rating codes of the various rating agencies.

Budget – A plan of financial and operational intent embodying an estimate of proposed expenditures for a given period and proposed means of financing.

Budget Authority – Authority provided by law to enter into obligations that will result in expenditures. It may be classified by the period of availability (one-year, multiple-year, no-year), by the timing of congressional action (current or permanent), or by the manner of determining the amount available (definite or indefinite).

Budget Establishment – The period immediately preceding the beginning of the budget fiscal year during which final budgets are prepared and entered into the formal accounting records of the District.

Budget Formulation – The budget planning and development process from the initial budget call up to and including final approval by Congress.

Budget Modification – A change in any portion of the budget during the fiscal year.

Budget Reserve – Funds that are earmarked to protect the District against shortfalls in revenue and unforeseen expenditures.

Build America Bonds (BABs) – The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 provides federal subsidies for state and local governments to borrow at lower costs. Build America Bonds are taxable bonds issued by state and local governments to give them access to the conventional corporate debt markets where a portion of the debt service on these bonds are reimbursed from a direct federal payment subsidy. The Treasury Department directs subsidy payments to participating state or local governmental issuers in an amount equaling up to 35 percent of the interest payment on the Build America Bonds. The federal subsidy payment effectively lowers the net borrowing costs and increases the amount municipalities can borrow, compared to traditional tax-exempt or tax credit bonds.

CAFR – State and local governments issue an annual audited financial report referred to as the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report or CAFR. The CAFR is prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) for state and local governments as promulgated by the Government Accounting Standards Board (GASB) and is composed, at a minimum, of the following three parts: (1) an introductory section, (2) a financial section, and (3) a statistical section. Some of the principal users of the CAFR are credit or bond rating agencies (Fitch Ratings, Moody's Investors Service, Standard and Poor's Ratings Services), institutions that buy and sell bonds, and those charged with managing and governing the state or local government.

Capital Budget – The budget that provides for the acquisition of District-owned assets that help meet the long-term and infrastructure needs, as summarized in the Capital Improvements Program.

Capital Improvements Program (CIP) – A plan for initiating the development, improvement, or replacement of District-owned assets during a six-year period. As annually revised, this plan provides the basis for future-year capital budget requests.

Certificates of Participation (COPs) – Borrowing that is secured by the pledge of the issuing municipality to annually appropriate (each year that the COPs are outstanding) an amount sufficient to pay debt service on the bonds. In a typical lease-purchase arrangement, the District as lessee purchases property under contract from a lessor, usually a private corporation, another public entity, or a special purpose nonprofit corporation. The lessor receives a portion of each lease payment as tax-exempt interest. One common way of financing this is through COPs, where the lessor assigns the lease and lease payments to a trustee.

Chart of Accounts – A listing of general ledger accounts used to record financial transactions incurred by District agencies.

Charter School – A private non-profit entity that accepts and educates public school students under the terms of a charter granted by the District's chartering authority. Charter Schools receive the same public funding as D.C. Public Schools pursuant to the District's uniform per student funding formula; additionally, a facilities allowance is provided.

Collateral – Security pledged to a creditor to assure that the obligor of a municipal credit will meet its payment obligations. When the obligor has performed, the creditor must release the collateral.

Component Unit – Legally separate organizations which meet the following criteria: (a) the primary government appoints a voting majority of the organization's board; and (b) there is a financial benefit/burden relationship between the primary government and the organization, or the primary government is able to impose its will on the organization.

Comptroller Object – This represents the lowest level of the General Ledger Account structure for operating statement District-wide accounting purposes. It includes revenue, expenditure, transfer and statistical accounts.

Comptroller Source Group – This is used to group Comptroller Objects for reporting purposes. Also called Object Class.

Consolidated Plan – The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development requires a single or consolidated plan and submission for the following federal grant programs: Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), HOME Investments Partnerships Program, Emergency Shelter Grants (ESG), and the Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPWA) grant.

Contractual Services – A budgetary classification of nonpersonal services that includes funds for contractual services.

Controllable Property – Non-capitalized tangible property with a value that is less than $5,000 that is considered to be sensitive with a high risk of theft or loss; such property typically has an expected useful life of less than three years.

Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) – The CSFL is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies in the next budget year, without consideration of any new policy decisions.

Debt Cap – This is a measure of the District's long-term debt capacity, supported by District revenues. The District has statutorily mandated debt limits of (a) 17 percent (maximum annual debt service to total General Fund revenues) for general obligation bonds, and (b) 12 percent (annual debt service to total General Fund expenditures) for all tax-supported debt.

Debt Ratio – Debt ratios are a means of measuring the affordability or burden of a municipality's outstanding debt. Common measurements include debt per capita, debt as a percentage of general fund expenditures, and debt as a percentage of total income.

Debt Service – The payment of interest on outstanding bonds, the principal payment of maturing or redeemed bonds and any required contributions to a sinking fund for term bonds. Generally principal is paid annually. Interest on fixed-rate bonds is paid semi-annually and interest on floating-rate bonds is paid monthly.

Dedicated Taxes – Tax revenues that are dedicated by law to a particular agency for a particular purpose. Dedicated Tax revenue is part of General Fund revenue.

Encumbrance – An amount of funds committed for the payment of goods and services ordered but not yet received.

Enterprise Funds – Budget and accounting units created for particular purposes, such as self-sustaining operations for which a fee is charged to external users for goods and services, to separate the revenue and financial control of such operations from the District's General Fund.

Entitlement – A service or grant that, under District or federal law, must be provided to all qualified applicants.

Equipment and Equipment Rental – The name of the object class used to allocate funds for such needs.

Escrow Agreement for Refunding Bonds – The legal document outlining the terms and conditions under which proceeds of refunding bonds are used to pay the debt service of refunded bonds. The escrow (which should be irrevocable) stipulates which bond or bonds are to be refunded, whether the bonds will be redeemed at a call date or paid until maturity, and what the refunding bond proceeds are invested in. Usually refunding bonds are invested in U.S. government securities.

Expenditure – A payment for goods or services received.

FMAP (Federal Medicaid Assistance Percentage) – The percentage of Medicaid expenditures that is reimbursed by the federal government. For the District, this percentage is generally 70 percent for most Medicaid functions.

Federal Funds –

- Federal Grants: Funding provided by the federal government via a federal agency for a specific purpose with the conditions for the administration of the funding dictated by each grantor organization.
- Federal Payments: Funding specifically detailed in the Federal Funds portion of the District of Columbia Appropriations Act with the conditions for the administration of the funding found within the statute and federal appropriations law.
- Federal Medicaid Payments: Funding provided to pay for a portion of the health care costs of eligible individuals, with oversight performed by District and federal authorities.

Fixed Costs – Expenses that do not change in proportion to the activity of a business and are related to the everyday functioning of a business. In the District, fixed costs are categorized as electricity, heating fuel, janitorial services, natural gas, occupancy, telecommunication, postage, rent, security services, steam, water and sewer, and fleet fuel and services. While the expense item is fixed, the costs do have variability. Rate fluctuations and consumption levels play a large part in determining the amount of fixed costs.

Fringe Benefits – Part of overall employee compensation costs, including life and health insurance and retirement and Social Security contributions.

Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) – An employment indicator that translates the total number of hours worked in a year by all employees, including part-time workers, to an equivalent number of work years. For example, one FTE generally equals 2,080 hours and 0.75 FTE equals 1,560 hours.

Fund – A budgeting and accounting practice used to establish accounts separating revenues and their related obligations and expenditures for one purpose from revenues, obligations, and expenditures for other purposes.

Fund Accounting – Method of organizing and maintaining accounting activities on a fund basis. A fund is defined as a separate, distinct accounting entity that has its own assets, liabilities, equity, revenues, and expenditures/expenses. Funds are established for the purpose of carrying on specific activities or attaining certain objectives in accordance with special regulations, restrictions, or limitations.

Fund Balance – The difference between fund assets and deferred outflows of resources and fund liabilities and deferred inflows of resources. The fund balance is cumulative over the life of the fund.

Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) – Uniform minimum standard for accounting and financial reporting. GAAP includes the conventions, rules, and procedures that serve as the norm for the fair presentation of financial statements. The standard setting body which establishes GAAP for governmental entities is the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB).

GASB – Established in June 1984, the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) is the ultimate authoritative accounting and financial reporting standard-setting body for state and local governments. Although GASB standards do not have the force of law, governments are required to follow GASB standards in order to obtain clean opinions from their auditors, and failure to comply with GASB standards can adversely affect a state or local government's bond ratings and thus its attempts to issue bonds.

GFOA – The Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada is the premier association of public finance professionals. Since its inception in 1906, originally as the Municipal Finance Officers Association, the organization has played a major role in the development and promotion of GAAP for state and local government. The GFOA has sponsored the Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting Program since 1946. Under this program, governments that achieve the highest standards in financial reporting are awarded a prestigious Certificate of Achievement. The GFOA also sponsors the Distinguished Budget Presentation Award Program, which recognizes governments whose budgets are deemed exemplary as policy documents, financial guides, operational guides, and communication devices. The GFOA also publishes Governmental Accounting, Auditing, and Financial Reporting (GAAFR), also known as "the Blue Book".

GPRA – Government Performance and Results Act. Legislation that requires the establishment of a direct relationship between the use of federal funds and the delivery of services by federal agencies. Many federal grants require GPRA performance measures as part of the reporting process.

General Fund – The principal operating fund of the District, which is used to account for all financial resources except those required to be accounted for in another fund. General Fund revenues consist of Local, Dedicated Tax, and Special Purpose Revenues.

General Obligation (G.O.) Bonds – Bonds issued directly by state or local governments or their agencies to meet essential government functions, such as schools and highway construction. These bonds are backed by the issuer's pledge of its full faith, credit and taxing power to meet interest and principal payments.

Gift Funds – Financial donations to the District government, which may only be accepted on behalf of the District by the Mayor, and which may be earmarked for a specific purpose.

Grant – Contributions of assets (usually cash) by a government unit or private entity for specified purposes. The District government receives grants from the federal government (and occasionally from private entities) for a variety of purposes. District agencies also make grants to non-profit or other non-District government organizations. When the source of the District's grant to a non-District government organization is itself a grant, the District's grant is called a "subgrant."

Grant Anticipation Revenue Vehicle (GARVEE) Bonds – Bonds used by state or state infrastructure agencies under the guidelines of the National Highway System Designation Act to finance major highway projects receiving Federal funding. States must repay the bonds using federal funds expected to be received in the future; however, the federal government does not guarantee that the funds will be made available to repay the bonds.

Gross Budget – A total budget amount that includes resources from all funding sources.

Imprest Fund – A fund of a designated amount out of which payments for expenses of small amounts are made (sometimes referred to as petty cash).

Income Tax Revenue Secured Bond – Revenue bonds secured by and paid solely from the individual income tax and the business franchise tax revenue received by the District.

Indirect Costs – Administrative overhead costs incurred by the District in managing grant programs.

Industrial Revenue Bond – A bond issued by the District on behalf of a non-profit or other eligible entity to finance or refinance projects including housing, health facilities, transit, higher education, or other industrial or commercial development.

Inflation – An increase in general price of goods or services resulting in a decline in the purchasing power of currently available money.

Infrastructure – Long-lived assets that are stationary in nature and normally can be preserved for a significantly greater number of years than most capital assets. Examples of infrastructure include such assets as highways, bridges, drainage systems, and water and sewer systems.

Interest Accrual – The interest that has accumulated on a bond since the last interest payment up to, but not including, the settlement date.

Intra-District – An accounting mechanism used to track payments for services provided by one District agency to another District agency, similar to an internal service fund.

Key Result Measures – A set of result performance measures that are contained within each program.

Local Education Agency (LEA) – An education agency at the local level that exists primarily to operate schools or to contract for educational services. This term is used synonymously with the terms "school district, “school system," and "local basic administrative unit."

Local Revenue – Includes tax and non-tax revenue that is not earmarked for a particular purpose and is allocated to fund District programs during the annual budget process. Local revenue is part of General Fund revenue.

Mandate – Any responsibility, action, or procedure that is imposed by one government on another through constitutional, legislative, administrative, executive, or judicial action as a direct order, or that is required as a condition of aid.

MARC – Maximum Allowable Request Ceiling. The maximum Local fund budget that the agencies are allowed to request at the beginning of the budget formulation process.

Master Project – A designated capital project that receives the budget for a specific set of related projects, which then subsequently obtain budget(s) through an allocation process from the master project. Certain District capital projects are budgeted using this process.

Match – A locally provided cash or in-kind services contribution required to supplement or equal a grant or gift as a condition for receiving the funds.

Mission – The mission is a clear, concise statement of the purpose of the agency. The mission focuses on the broad, yet distinct, results the agency will achieve for its customers.

Modified Accrual Basis of Accounting – A basis of accounting that recognizes revenues in the period they become measurable and available, and expenditures in the period in which governments in general normally liquidate the associated liability rather than when that liability is first incurred (if earlier).

Municipal Bond – A bond issued by a state, a political subdivision, or a state agency or authority. In general, interest earned on municipal bonds is exempt from federal income taxes, as well as state and local taxes if the investor lives in the issuing state.

Nonpersonal Services (NPS) – A budget category that includes budget objects for reporting other than personnel-related expenditures. Nonpersonal services includes supplies, utilities, communications, rent, other services and charges, subsidies and transfers, equipment and equipment rental, and debt service.

Nonrecurring Expenditures – One-time expenditures for special items, such as a new fire truck or a computer system, that do not need to be budgeted for again in the year following their purchase.

Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) – A public notice that an agency will issue a Request for Applications (RFA), informing interested parties when and where an RFA may be obtained.

Object Category – The category of object classes for which the District budgets in the operating budget. There are two object categories: Personal Services (salaries, fringe benefits, additional pay, and overtime) and Nonpersonal Services (all object classes that are not personal services).

Object Class – A budgetary classification that breaks down the object categories of personal services and nonpersonal services into more specific types of expenditure, such as fringe benefits (Object Class 14) or supplies (Object Class 20). Also called Comptroller Source Group.

Objectives – Measurable activities of a program that are sought to achieve the overall mission.

Obligations – The amount of expenditures already made as well as the cost of commitments requiring future payments.

Operating Budget – The budget that encompasses the day-to-day District activities. The operating budget includes employee salaries, supplies, and other non-personnel items related to current activities. The operating budget also includes debt service and overhead costs related to daily operations.

Other Services and Charges – A budgetary classification of nonpersonal services that includes funds for printing, postage, tuition, travel, conference, and membership dues.

Overtime Pay – Pay for full-time employees whose work hours exceed their regular tour of duty, generally, for hours of work authorized in excess of 40 hours in a pay status in a workweek in accordance with provisions of section 7 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (FLSA), as amended (29 USC 207).

Personal Services (PS) – A budget category that includes budget objects for reporting personnel-related expenditures. Personal Services includes regular pay, other pay, additional gross pay, overtime, and fringe benefits.

Performance-Based Budgeting (PBB) – A budget system in which budget decisions are based on or informed by performance information that describes the cost or efficiency of producing an activity and the results achieved for customers.

Performance Measures – Measures that describe the information managers and other decision-makers need in order to make good business decisions. Different types of measures include demand/input, output, outcome, and efficiency.

Performance Plan – An agency-level plan that contains the agency's mission, summary of services, objectives, initiatives, and performance measures for a set period of time.

Phase – A budgeted task (e.g. design, project management, construction) necessary to achieve the completion of a capital project.

Private Revenue – Funding from private grants to fund the intended purpose of the grant.

Program – A component part of the District's program structure. Comprised of a set of activities that have a common purpose or result, programs are organized as a sub-unit of an agency for accounting, budgeting, planning, and performance measurement purposes.

Program Structure – The delineation of programs, activities, and services that constitute the work of an agency.

Project – a capital project is an investment in the infrastructure of the District that results in a new District-owned asset, increases the value of an existing District-owned asset, or increases the life of a District-owned asset by at least 2 years.

Proprietary Fund – Fund category that often emulates the private sector and focuses on the determination of operating income, changes in net position (or cost recovery), financial position, and cash flows. Expenditures are typically funded by user charges and fees. Governments may have two types of proprietary funds: enterprise funds and internal service funds.

Qualified Zone Academy Bond (QZAB) – A federal bond program established to help schools raise funds to renovate and repair buildings, invest in equipment and up-to-date technology, develop challenging curricula, and train quality teachers. QZABs reduce the burden of interest payments by giving financial institutions holding the bonds (or other debt mechanism) a tax credit in lieu of interest for construction in eligible low-income schools. Through a tax credit to the lending institution, the federal government covers all of the interest on these bonds, resulting in savings up to 50 percent of the cost of these renovation and improvement projects.

Real (Constant) Dollars – Refers to an adjusted value of currency used to compare dollar values from one period to another. Because of inflation, the purchasing power of the dollar changes over time, so in order to compare dollar values across time periods, they can be converted from nominal (current) dollar values to constant dollar values.

Reallocation – The modification of budget from one phase of a capital project to another. The total budget for the project remains the same.

Redirections – The permanent shift of funds or positions within an agency.

Regular Pay – Continuing – Salary and wages for all continuing full-time employees.

Regular Pay – Other – Salary and wages for part-time, part-year, or temporary employees.

Reorganization – A change in the budget and reporting structures within an agency.

Reprogramming – Any budget modification for purposes other than those originally planned, which results in an offsetting reallocation of budget authority from one budget category to another, or from one capital project to another.

Request for Applications (RFA) – The document that describes the requirements for subgrant applications.

Request for Proposals (RFP) – A solicitation document requesting from prospective contractors to submit a business proposal with a detailed description of the manner in which they plan to achieve the goals specified by the RFP, were they awarded a contract to do so. The plan usually includes the proposer's corporate and financial information, estimate of total cost, and required completion schedule.

Rescission – A legislative cancellation of budget authority previously approved by the Council and the Congress.

Revenue Bond – A special type of municipal bond distinguished by its guarantee of repayment solely from revenues generated by a specified revenue-generating entity or source associated with the purpose of the bonds, rather than from general tax revenue.

Revenue – The annual income or receipts of the District from taxes, charges, grants, and investments.

Revenue Category – General types of revenue, such as taxes.

Revenue Class – Specific revenues, such as real property taxes.

Review Panel – A team of qualified individuals responsible for reviewing, scoring, and recommending applicants for subgrant awards.

Revolving Fund – A fund that is replenished as amounts are used, either by additional appropriations or by income/revenue from the programs the fund finances. Therefore, the fund retains a balance at all times.

Service-Level Budgeting – The development of budgets at program level four in SOAR. This is one level below the current level of budgeting for most agencies, which is at the activity level.

Short-Term Bonds – As part of regular planned borrowing in the bond market, the District will issue a portion of its bonds with specific maturity rates tied to the expected useful life of the asset being acquired, normally equipment and information technology assets. The program assists the District in its asset/liability management by matching the useful life of the asset being financed with the amortization of the bond liability.

Special Purpose Revenue – Funds used to account for proceeds derived from specific revenue sources (other than expendable trusts, special assessments, or major capital projects) that are legally restricted to expenditures for specified purposes. Formerly called O-type or other revenue, Special Purpose Revenue is part of General Fund revenue.

Strategic Business Plan – A strategic business plan establishes and articulates the purpose, strategic goals, operational organization, and performance expectations for an agency.

Strategic Goal – In strategic business planning, refers to goal statements that describe in measurable terms the significant results that an agency must accomplish over the next 2 to 5 years to respond to critical trends, issues, and challenges.

Structural Balance – The degree to which revenues match expenditures over time.

Subgrant – The commitment of funds from a grant by a District government agency to a governmental or private organization to support specific services and operations. See D.C. Municipal Regulations, Title I, Chapter 50.

Subsidies and Transfers – The name of the object class used to allocate funds for a variety of public welfare and support costs and to transfer funds to other organizations, such as the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority, providing services to District residents.

Supplemental Budget – An increase in the District's budget during the course of the fiscal year, after the budget has first been approved. After approval by Council and signature by the Mayor, a Supplemental Budget must also go to Congress for review. Within certain limits, the District may implement a Supplemental Budget after a 30-day review by Congress, if Congress does not disapprove it.

Supplies and Materials – The names of the budgetary object class used to allocate funds for consumable materials.

System of Accounting and Reporting (SOAR) – The financial management system currently used by the District as its official accounting system of record.

Tax Abatement – A decrease in the amount of tax as legislated by the Council. Such reduction results from an agreement between one or more governments and an individual or entity in which (a) one or more governments promise to forgo tax revenues to which they are otherwise entitled and (b) the individual or entity promises to take specific action after the agreement has been entered into that contributes to economic development or otherwise benefits the governments or the citizens of those governments.

Tax Increment Financing – A method to pay for the costs of qualifying improvements necessary to create new development or redevelopment. The financing of the qualifying improvements is paid from increased property and/or sales taxes generated from the new development or redevelopment that would not occur "but for" such assistance.

Tobacco Securitization – Securitization is a financing method whereby a party sells bonds to investors backed by a future stream of payments. With tobacco securitization, the future stream of payments is the periodic payments tobacco companies will make as part of a settlement reached by the companies and various states in 1998. The District received funds up front from the proceeds of the bond sale. The investors receive principal and interest payments on their bonds from the tobacco companies' payments. Securitization shifts the risk that the tobacco companies will stop making settlement payments from the government to private investors or insurers.

Trust and Agency Funds – Fiduciary funds that are used to account for assets held by the District in a trustee capacity or as an agent for individuals, private organizations, and other governments.

Transfers – Reallocation of resources (funds or positions) among agencies or funds.

Unfunded Liabilities – Potential or actual debts for which no current funding is available.

Uniform Per Student Funding Formula (UPSFF) – Funding formula used by the District that determines the annual appropriation of Local funds for the operation of DC Public Schools and DC Public Charter Schools based on the number of students, the grade level, and other student characteristics.

WAE – The abbreviation for a "when-actually-employed" appointment. This is a temporary appointment under which the employee serves on an intermittent basis.

Weighted Student Formula (WSF) – Funding formula used by the DC Public School system to annually fund each school. The formula is based on enrollment, grade level, special education needs, free and reduced price lunch eligibility, and English as a Second Language characteristics.

Within-Grade (Step) Increase – A salary increase awarded to an employee based on longevity of service and acceptable performance.

AN ACT

D.C. ACT 22-99

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

JULY 10, 2017

To adopt the local portion of the budget of the District of Columbia government for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2018.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this act may be cited as the "Fiscal Year 2018 Local Budget Act of 2017".

Sec. 2. Adoption of the local portion of the Fiscal Year 2018 budget.

The following expenditure levels are approved and adopted as the local portion of the budget for the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2018.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA BUDGET FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 30, 2018

PART A--SUMMARY OF EXPENSES

The following amounts are appropriated for the District of Columbia government for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2018 ("Fiscal Year 2018"), out of the General Fund of the District of Columbia ("General Fund"), except as otherwise specifically provided; provided, that notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as provided in section 450A of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved November 22, 2000 (114 Stat. 2440; D.C. Official Code § 1-204.50a), and provisions of this act, the total amount appropriated in this act for operating expenses for the District of Columbia for Fiscal Year 2018 shall not exceed the lesser of the sum of the total revenues of the District of Columbia for such fiscal year or $13,896,758,000 (of which $7,984,013,000 shall be from local funds (including $351,231,000 from dedicated taxes), $1,015,271,000 shall be from Federal grant funds, $2,343,137,000 shall be from Medicaid payments, $662,920,000 shall be from other funds, $3,866,000 shall be from private funds, $80,900,000 shall be from funds requested to be appropriated by the Congress as Federal payments pursuant to the Fiscal Year 2018 Federal Portion Budget Request Act of 2017, and $1,806,652,000 shall be from enterprise and other funds); provided further, that of the local funds, such amounts as may be necessary may be derived from the General Fund balance; provided further, that of these funds the intra-District authority shall be $683,882,000; in addition, for capital construction projects, an increase of $2,791,855,000 of which $2,226,605,000 shall be from local funds, $1,000,000 shall be from Private Grant funds,

$218,017,000 shall be from local transportation funds, $47,931,000 shall be from the District of Columbia Highway Trust Fund, and $298,302,000 shall be from Federal grant funds, and a rescission of $1,201,205,000 of which $846,662,000 shall be from local funds, $100,000,000 shall be from Federal Payment funds, $165,501,000 shall be from local transportation funds, $26,501,000 shall be from the District of Columbia Highway Trust Fund and $62,541,000 shall be from Federal grant funds appropriated under this heading in prior fiscal years, for a net amount of $1,590,650,000, to remain available until expended; in addition, provided, that all funds provided by this act shall be available only for the specific projects and purposes intended; provided further, that amounts appropriated under this act may be increased by the amount transferred from funds appropriated in this act as Pay-As-You-Go Capital funds; provided further, that amounts provided under this heading are to be available, allocated, and expended at the rates and subject to the provisions set forth under the heading "Division of Expenses"; provided further, that this amount may be increased by proceeds of one-time transactions, which are expended for emergency or unanticipated operating or capital needs; provided further, that such increases shall be approved by enactment of local District law and shall comply with all reserve requirements contained in the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 777; D.C. Official Code § 1-201.01 et seq.); provided further, that this amount may be further increased by such sums as may be necessary for making refunds and for the payment of legal settlements or judgments that have been entered against the District of Columbia government and such sums may be paid from the applicable or available funds of the District of Columbia; provided further, that local funds are appropriated, without regard to fiscal year, in such amounts as may be necessary to pay vendor fees, including legal fees, that are obligated in this fiscal year, to be paid as a fixed percentage of District revenue recovered from third parties on behalf of the District under contracts that provide for payment of fees based upon and from such District revenue as may be recovered by the vendor; provided further, that, in addition, there are appropriated any amounts received, or to be received, without regard to fiscal year, from the Potomac Electric Power Company, or any of its related companies, successors, or assigns, for the purpose of paying or reimbursing the District Department of Transportation for the costs of designing, constructing, acquiring, and installing facilities, infrastructure, and equipment for use and ownership by the Potomac Electric Power Company, or any of its related companies, successors, or assigns, related to or associated with the undergrounding of electric distribution lines in the District of Columbia, and any interest earned on those funds, which amounts and interest shall not revert to the unrestricted fund balance of the General Fund of the District of Columbia at the end of a fiscal year, but shall be continually available until expended for the designated purposes; provided further, that this amount may be further increased by amounts deposited into the Attorney General Restitution Fund, which shall be continually available, without regard to fiscal year, until expended; provided further, that amounts appropriated pursuant to this act as operating funds may be transferred to enterprise and capital funds and such amounts, once transferred, shall retain appropriation authority consistent with the provisions of this act; provided further, that there may be reprogrammed or transferred for operating expenses any local funds transferred or reprogrammed in this or the 4 prior fiscal years from operating funds to capital funds, and such amounts, once transferred or reprogrammed, shall retain appropriation authority consistent with the provisions of this act, except, that there may not be reprogrammed for operating expenses any funds derived from bonds, notes, or other obligations issued for capital projects; provided further, that the local funds (including dedicated tax) and other funds appropriated by this act may be reprogrammed and transferred as provided in subchapter IV of Chapter 3 of Title 47 of the District of Columbia Official Code, or as otherwise provided by law, through November 15, 2018; provided further, that during Fiscal Year 2018 and any subsequent fiscal year, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the District of Columbia may expend funds as necessary to pay capital and operating obligations created by the District of Columbia and the National Parks Service in annual or multiyear agreements to improve, maintain, operate, or manage National Parks located in the District of Columbia, and such sums may be paid from the applicable or available funds of the District of Columbia, which, once allocated, shall retain appropriation authority consistent with the provisions of this act, without any limitation as to amount, duration, or fiscal year; provided further, that any unspent amount remaining in a nonlapsing fund described in Part B of this act at the end of Fiscal Year 2017 is to be continually available, allocated, appropriated, and expended for the purposes of such fund in Fiscal Year 2018 in addition to any amounts deposited in and appropriated to such fund in Fiscal Year 2018; provided further, that the Chief Financial Officer shall take such steps as are necessary to assure that the foregoing requirements are met, including the apportioning by the Chief Financial Officer of the appropriations and funds made available during Fiscal Year 2018.

FY 2018 Federal Portion Budget Request Act

ENROLLED ORIGINAL

AN ACT

D.C. ACT 22-98

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

JULY 10, 2017

To adopt, as a request to Congress for appropriation and authorization, the federal portion of the budget of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2018.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this act may be cited as the "Fiscal Year 2018 Federal Portion Budget Request Act of 2017".

Sec. 2. Adoption of the federal portion of the Fiscal Year 2018 budget.

There is adopted, as a request to Congress for appropriation and authorization, the following federal portion of the budget of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2018.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA FEDERAL FUNDS APPROPRIATION REQUEST

FEDERAL PAYMENT TO THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA COURTS

For salaries and expenses for the District of Columbia Courts, $265,400,000, to be allocated as follows: for the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, $14,000,000, of which not to exceed $2,500 is for official reception and representation expenses; for the Superior Court of the District of Columbia, $121,000,000, of which not to exceed $2,500 is for official reception and representation expenses; for the District of Columbia Court System, $71,500,000, of which not to exceed $2,500 is for official reception and representation expenses; and $58,900,000, to remain available until September 30, 2019, for capital improvements for District of Columbia courthouse facilities: Provided, That funds made available for capital improvements shall be expended consistent with the District of Columbia Courts master plan study and facilities condition assessment: Provided further, That notwithstanding any other provision of law, all amounts under this heading shall be apportioned quarterly by the Office of Management and Budget and obligated and expended in the same manner as funds appropriated for salaries and expenses of other Federal agencies: Provided further, That 30 days after providing written notice to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, the District of Columbia Courts may reallocate not more than $6,000,000 of the funds provided under this heading among the items and entities funded under this heading: Provided further, That the Joint Committee on Judicial Administration in the District of Columbia may, by regulation, establish a program substantially similar to the program set forth in subchapter II of chapter 35 of title 5, United States Code, for employees of the District of Columbia Courts.

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR DEFENDER SERVICES IN DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA COURTS

For payments authorized under section 11-2604 and section 11-2605, D.C. Official Code (relating to representation provided under the District of Columbia Criminal Justice Act), payments for counsel appointed in proceedings in the Family Court of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia under chapter 23 of title 16, D.C. Official Code, or pursuant to contractual agreements to provide guardian ad litem representation, training, technical assistance, and such other services as are necessary to improve the quality of guardian ad litem representation, payments for counsel appointed in adoption proceedings under chapter 3 of title 16, D.C. Official Code, and payments authorized under section 21-2060, D.C. Official Code (relating to services provided under the District of Columbia Guardianship, Protective Proceedings, and Durable Power of Attorney Act of 1986), $49,890,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That not more than $20,000,000 in unobligated funds provided in this account may be transferred to and merged with funds made available under the heading "Federal Payment to the District of Columbia Courts," to be available for the same period and purposes as funds made available under that heading for capital improvements to District of Columbia courthouse facilities: Provided further, That funds provided under this heading shall be administered by the Joint Committee on Judicial Administration in the District of Columbia: Provided further, That, notwithstanding any other provision of law, this appropriation shall be apportioned quarterly by the Office of Management and Budget and obligated and expended in the same manner as funds appropriated for expenses of other Federal agencies.

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR RESIDENT TUITION SUPPORT

For a Federal payment to the District of Columbia, to be deposited into a dedicated account, for a nationwide program to be administered by the Mayor, for District of Columbia resident tuition support, $30,000,000, to remain available until expended: Provided, That such funds, including any interest accrued thereon, may be used on behalf of eligible District of Columbia residents to pay an amount based upon the difference between in-State and out-of-State tuition at public institutions of higher education, or to pay up to $2,500 each year at eligible private institutions of higher education: Provided further, That the awarding of such funds may be prioritized on the basis of a resident's academic merit, the income and need of eligible students, and such other factors as may be authorized: Provided further, That the District of Columbia government shall maintain a dedicated account for the Resident Tuition Support Program that shall consist of the Federal funds appropriated to the Program in this Act and any subsequent appropriations, any unobligated balances from prior fiscal years, and any interest earned in this or any fiscal year: Provided further, That the account shall be under the control of the District of Columbia Chief Financial Officer, who shall use those funds solely for the purposes of carrying out the Resident Tuition Support Program: Provided further, That the Office of the Chief Financial Officer shall provide a quarterly financial report to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate for these funds showing, by object class, the expenditures made, and the purpose therefor.

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT

For a Federal payment for a school improvement program in the District of Columbia, $45,000,000, to remain available until expended, for payments authorized under the Scholarship for Opportunity and Results Act (division C of Public Law 112-10): Provided, That within funds provided for opportunity scholarships $3,200,000 shall be for the activities specified in sections 3007(b) through 3007(d) and 3009 of such Act.

FEDERAL PAYMENT TO THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA WATER AND SEWER AUTHORITY

For a Federal payment to the District of Columbia Water and Sewer Authority, $8,500,000, to remain available until expended, to continue implementation of the Combined Sewer Overflow Long-Term Control Plan: Provided, That the District of Columbia Water and Sewer Authority provide a 100 percent match for this payment.

FEDERAL PAYMENT TO THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE COORDINATING COUNCIL

For a Federal payment to the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council, $1,900,000, to remain available until expended, to support initiatives related to the coordination of Federal and local criminal justice resources in the District of Columbia.

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR JUDICIAL COMMISSIONS

For a Federal payment, to remain available until September 30, 2019, to the Commission on Judicial Disabilities and Tenure, $295,000, and to the Judicial Nomination Commission, $270,000.

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA NATIONAL GUARD

For a Federal payment to the District of Columbia National Guard, $435,000, to remain available until expended, for the Major General David F. Wherley, Jr. District of Columbia National Guard Retention and College Access Program.

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR TESTING AND TREATMENT OF HIV/AIDS

For a Federal payment to the District of Columbia for the testing of individuals for, and the treatment of individuals with, human immunodeficiency virus and acquired immunodeficiency syndrome in the District of Columbia, $5,000,000.

FEDERAL PAYMENT FOR EMERGENCY PLANNING AND SECURITY COSTS IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

For a Federal payment of necessary expenses, as determined by the Mayor of the District of Columbia in written consultation with the elected county or city officials of surrounding jurisdictions, $13,000,000, to remain available until expended, for the costs of providing public safety at events related to the presence of the National Capital in the District of Columbia, including support requested by the Director of the United States Secret Service in carrying out protective duties under the direction of the Secretary of Homeland Security, and for the costs of providing support to respond to immediate and specific terrorist threats or attacks in the District of Columbia or surrounding jurisdictions.

APPROPRIATION OF CERTAIN INTEREST EARNED

All interest earned on the funds that the District of Columbia received pursuant to the District of Columbia Appropriations Act, 2000, approved November 29, 1999 (113 Stat. 1501; Pub. L. No. 106-113), under the heading "Federal Payment for the Incentives for Adoption of Children" and for the establishment of a scholarship fund for District of Columbia children without parents due to the September 11, 2001 terrorist attack under this same heading, pursuant to the District of Columbia Appropriations Act, 2001, approved December 21, 2001 (115 Stat. 923; Pub. L. No. 107-96), shall be retained in the respective funds without reversion to the General Fund of the District of Columbia and shall be available to the District of Columbia for the purposes of such funds until expended.

DETERMINATION OF COMPENSATION

Section 424(b)(2)(E) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act (section 1–204.24b(b)(5), D.C. Official Code) is amended to read as follows: "(E) PAY.—The Chief Financial Officer shall be paid at a rate such that the total amount of compensation paid during any calendar year is not less than the total pay that is applicable during the year under section 5307 of title 5, United States Code, to an employee described in section 5307(d) of such title." The amendment made by this provision shall apply with respect to pay periods beginning on or after the date of the enactment of this Act.

Sec. 3. Contingency cash.

(a) No funds in excess of $500,000 shall be obligated or expended from the Contingency Cash Reserve Fund established by section 450A(b) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved November 22, 2000 (114 Stat. 2440; D.C. Official Code § 1-204.50a(b)), unless such expenditures have been approved by the Council by resolution.

(b) The Contingency Cash Reserve Transparency Amendment Act of 2008, enacted on January 29, 2008 (D.C. Act 17-278; 55 DCR 1530), is enacted into law.

Sec. 4. Notwithstanding any other law, the following sales shall be subject to the sales and use taxes of the District of Columbia:

(1) Sales at gift shops, souvenir shops, kiosks, convenience stores, food shops, cafeterias, restaurants, and similar establishments in federal buildings, including memorials and museums, in the District of Columbia that make sales to:

(A) The general public, if operated by the federal government, an agent of the federal government, or a contractor; and

(B) Other than the general public, if operated by an agent of the federal government or a contractor; and

(2) Sales of goods and services by a government-sponsored enterprise or corporation, institution, or organization established by federal statute or regulation ("federal enterprise or organization"), including the Smithsonian Institution, National Gallery of Art, National Building Museum, Federal National Mortgage Association, and Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, if the federal enterprise or organization is otherwise exempt from such taxation, to the extent such sales otherwise would be subject to the sales and use taxes of the District of Columbia if the federal enterprise or organization were organized as a nonprofit corporation established pursuant to Chapter 4 of Title 29 of the District of Columbia Official Code, and exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, approved August 16, 1954 (68A Stat. 163; 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3)).

Sec. 5. Federal portion of the budget.

The federal funds for which appropriation by Congress is requested by this act constitute the federal portion of the Fiscal Year 2018 annual budget for the District of Columbia government under section 446(a) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 801; D.C. Official Code § 1-204.46(a)).

Sec. 6. Fiscal impact statement.

The Council adopts the fiscal impact statement of the Chief Financial Officer as the fiscal impact statement required by section 4a of the General Legislative Procedures Act of 1975, approved October 16, 2006 (120 Stat. 2038; D.C. Official Code § 1-301.47a).

Sec. 7. Effective date.

This act shall take effect as provided in section 446 of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 801; D.C. Official Code § 1-204.46).

Distinguished Budget Presentation Award

PRESENTED TO

District of Columbia Government

District of Columbia

For the Fiscal Year Beginning

October 1, 2016

Executive Director

The Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA) presented a Distinguished Budget Presentation Award to District of Columbia Government, District of Columbia, for its annual budget for the fiscal year beginning October 1, 2016. In order to receive this award, a governmental unit must publish a budget document that meets program criteria as a policy document, as an operations guide, as a financial plan, and as a communications device. This award is the sixteenth in the history of the District of Columbia.

This award is valid for a period of one year only. We believe our current budget continues to conform to program requirements, and we are submitting it to GFOA to determine its eligibility for another award.

Transmittal Letters

MURIEL BOWSER
MAYOR

July 19, 2017

The Honorable Donald J. Trump
President of the United States
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

I am pleased to submit to you the District of Columbia Fiscal Year 2018 Budget and Financial Plan, "DC Values in Action: A Roadmap to Inclusive Prsoperity." This proposal is the District of Columbia's twenty-second consecutive balanced budget. The budget before you reflects the ideas and priorities of District residents to ensure that they have a roadmap to inclusive prosperity.

From again investing $100 million in the Housing Production Trust Fund to allocating over $1 billion in full-scale school modernizations, this budget continues to move the District of Columbia forward. This budget also maintains critical investments to build a safer, stronger DC and to ensure our residents have access to job training programs that keep them on pathways to the middle class. Below, I have highlighted a few of the key investments proposed in the FY 2018 Budget and Financial Plan.

High-Quality Education
Rising enrollment in our traditional public and public charter schools, and increasing student achievement, demonstrate that school reform in the District is working. The FY 2018 budget makes the largest investment in public education in the history of the District of Columbia:

- Committing an additional $121 million to increase the per student rate and meet the needs of a growing student body;
- Increasing charter school facilities by 2.2% to $3,193/student for non-residential charter programs and $8,580/student for residential charter schools;
- Improving technology to help parents navigate and engage in public education;

- Increasing University of the District of Columbia (UDC) and the Community College of the District of Columbia funds for the staff and programs by $7.2 million;
- $19.5 million of enhancements in the Office of the State Superintendent of Education budget for early childcare. Three sites in District-owned buildings will be leased to private childcare providers helping us expand the available slots for kids. 300 DC residents will gain certification as educators for infants and toddlers over the next three years. This will enable them to enter the childcare profession immediately and begin on a pathway to advanced credentials - and it will help ensure staffing is available to support the expanded number of childcare seats; and
- Investing $1.3 billion for school modernization over 6 years to ensure that schools in line for modernization under established, defined criteria are budgeted for necessary improvements.

Safer, Stronger DC

The District is committed to ensuring that those in all neighborhoods feel— and are—safe, providing an environment in which residents and businesses can thrive. To that end, the FY 2018 budget includes the following investments:

- $8.9 million in enhancements focused on recruiting and retaining MPD officers, as well as ensuring that as many officers as can be are returned to patrol-related duties. This will be accomplished through: a new public relations campaign; expansion of the police cadet program; expanded housing assistance and student loan forgiveness for officers; and further civilianization of administrative positions;
- $2.3 million for the creation of a Returning Citizens Portal to be managed by the Department of Corrections. This will be a physical office offering services from various agencies to help returning citizens successfully transition back into the community. Vital post-release services include: housing, employment, education, health care, job training and placement, and substance use/mental health;
- $1 million for the establishment of a nurse triage collaborative pilot program between Fire and Emergency Medical Services (FEMS) and the Office of Unified Communications (OUC) with a goal to improve access to medical services for callers into 911 by offering nurses who can speak to non-emergency callers and help them make an appointment at a same-day clinic;
- $20 million for essential upgrades to 311/911 hardware and software, including major upgrades to our secondary facility on McMillan Drive NW;
- $39.7 million for the purchase of new MPD fleet vehicles; and
- $83.7 million for the purchase of new FEMS fleet vehicles, and $45 million for the construction of a new fleet maintenance facility.

Affordable Housing

My Administration is committed to producing, preserving and protecting affordable housing in the District of Columbia. This is demonstrated in this budget through the commitment of another $100 million contribution to the Housing Production Trust Fund. This investment will continue our shared goal to support grants and loans, thus yielding more affordable housing for DC families.

Additionally, this budget provides funds for affordable housing in these projects:

- $16 million for the redevelopment of Walter Reed;
- $103 million for the redevelopment of St. Elizabeths; and
- $85 million for the New Communities Initiative.

Pathways to the Middle Class

Maintaining a strong, diverse, and resilient District of Columbia requires that every resident has a fair shot, and a pathway to the middle class. We accomplish this by supporting our most vulnerable families and residents; providing job training that leads to real employment opportunities; and by nurturing our small businesses to ensure their growth and success. Some ways the FY 2018 Budget provides Pathways to the Middle Class are:

- Continuing the District's investment in our youth through the Mayor Marion Barry Summer Youth Employment Program by budgeting almost $20 million;
- Serving as a regional leader by again fully funding the District's share of the WMATA budget, adding a new express bus line on 14th Street NW in Wards 1 and 4, and expanding capacity of existing bus service in Wards 7 and 8;
- Ensuring that the Department of Small and Local Business Development's Certified Business Enterprise system continues to help our local businesses grow and obtain government contracts, and work on government funded projects by fully funding the program with $0.2 million;
- Funding $16.8 million towards the Washington D.C. Infrastructure Academy at Saint Elizabeths East Campus. This new facility will focus on occupational skills training and work-based learning initiatives related to the infrastructure industry, including utility, energy efficiency, transportation, and logistics sectors. At the Academy, industry partners, training providers such as UDC, labor unions and trade associations, will offer a diverse skills training allowing District residents the tools to begin and sustain careers in the infrastructure industry; and
- Advancing DDOT's Vision Zero goals through $2.8 million for (20) new Traffic Control Operators along with (26) new School Crossing Guards.

Health and Human Services

Investing in the health and well-being of District residents remains a priority of my Administration. Ensuring residents are able to provide for their families, and connecting these families with valuable care and supportive programs when they need it most, ensures they have a fair shot at success in the future. The FY 2018 budget includes:

- Funding the next phase of the Homeward DC plan with $15.2 million;
- Funding $10.2 million for a new Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) policy that will help the District's neediest families;

- Supplementing the Department of Health's budget with $0.9 million to reduce the number of active opioid users in the District, reduce overdoses and overdose fatalities, and improve health and economic outcomes for District residents with a history of substance use;
- Funding the Alternatives to Court Experience (ACE) and Parent and Adolescent Support Services (PASS) programs with $3.3 million; and
- Providing $1 million for the Joyful Foods initiative.

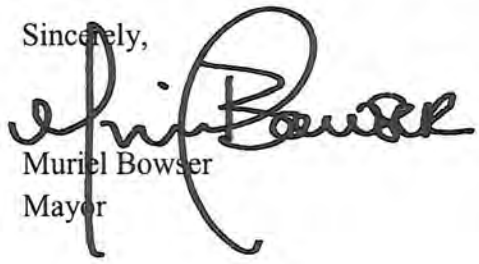
Government Operations

Building a government that works for the residents of the District Columbia streamlines processes and improves efficiency. The FY 2018 budget supports these improvements by:

- Ensuring that the District's share of WMATA's operating and capital subsidies is fully funded;
- Right-sizing the District's snow budget with a $3.8 million budget increase; and
- Expanding the Department of Public Works' grounds maintenance and leaf collection efforts by $1.5 million.

In a city as prosperous as ours, we can and should make all of these critical investments to ensure that residents in all 8 wards can benefit from our inclusive prosperity.

Sincerely,



Muriel Bowser
Mayor

Dear Mr. Speaker:

D.C. Act 22-99, Fiscal Year 2018 Local Budget Act of 2017, is transmitted in accordance with section 602(c)(1) of the District of Columbia Self-Government and Governmental Reorganization Act, P.L. 93-198, as amended. The committee report for the act is also enclosed. The authority for this transmittal rests with the Local Budget Autonomy Amendment Act of 2012 (D.C. Law 19-321), upheld in Council of the District of Columbia, et al. v. Jeffrey S. DeWitt (Case No. 2014 CA 2371 B, DC Superior Court; March 18, 2016).

Our enactment maintains critical investments that make our communities safer and stronger and the District an attractive location for residents, businesses, and visitors. Our record of sound financial management is strong and reflects in the continued revenue growth supporting the attached budget. In many respects our financial health is unparalled among jurisdictions across the United States.

To begin the count of the 30-day review by Congress, please acknowledge your receipt of these documents on the copy attached.

Sincerely,

Phil Mendelson
Chairman of the Council

How to Read the FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan

How to Read the FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan

The District of Columbia's FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan is a communication tool that presents and explains policy priorities, agency operations, including programmatic/ organizational structures, and performance measures in the context of the Financial Plan, which shows the District's sources of revenue and planned expenditures. The Budget and Financial Plan includes forecasts of economic and financial conditions, current and planned long-term debt financing, policy decisions, and other important financial information for the District's government, all of which are essential elements for accurate financial reporting and sound management of public resources.

This chapter, How to Read the Budget and Financial Plan, is a guide for understanding the sections of this budget volume that define the budget priorities for the District. These sections are consistent with the National Advisory Council on State and Local Budgeting's recommended budget practices, which call for a presentation of information to provide readers with a guide to government programs and organizational structure. Additionally, these sections are consistent with the standards of the Government Finance Officers Association for the Distinguished Budget Presentation Award.

The FY 2018 Budget and Financial Plan is presented in six volumes summarized as follows:

Executive Summary (Volume 1) – provides a high-level summary of the budget and financial information, including sections describing new initiatives within the District's proposed budget, the transmittal letters from the Mayor and the Chairman of the Council of the District of Columbia, the District's five-year financial plan, detailed information on the District's projected revenues and expenditures, and summary information about the Capital Improvements Plan. In addition, this volume includes information about the District's budgetary and financial management policies, a glossary of budget terms, budget summary tables by agency and fund type, and the Budget Act legislation that serves as the basis for the District's federal appropriations act.

Agency Budget Chapters (Volumes 2, 3, and 4) – describe, by appropriation title, the operating budgets for each of the District's agencies. Appropriation titles categorize the general areas of services provided by the District on behalf of its citizens and are listed in the table of contents. Examples are Economic Development and Regulation, Public Safety and Justice, and Human Support Services.

Capital Improvements Plan (Including Highway Trust Fund) (Volume 5) – describes the District's proposed six-year Capital Improvements Plan for all of the District's agencies. The Highway Trust Fund describes the District's proposed FY 2018 to FY 2023 planned transportation projects including federal highway grants.

Operating Appendices (Volume 6) – includes detailed supporting tables displaying the proposed expenditures and full-time equivalents in the operating budgets that are described in Volumes 2, 3, and 4. Please note: This volume is available exclusively on the Government of the District of Columbia website at http://cfo.dc.gov/.

Detailed information on the chapter contents of each volume include:

Volume 1: Executive Summary

Includes the following sections:

Introduction: FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan

This chapter is a narrative and graphic summary of the proposed budget and financial plan. It describes the overall proposed budget, including the sources and uses of public funds, and compares the prior year's approved budget to the current one. The chapter also explains the budget development process and budget formulation calendar for FY 2018.

Financial Plan

The Financial Plan summarizes planned revenues and expenditures from FY 2016 through FY 2021. This chapter includes financing sources, uses, and the assumptions used to derive the District's short-term and long-term economic outlook.

Revenue

This chapter shows current revenue projections for each revenue type as certified by the Office of the Chief Financial Officer. It also details the District's revenue sources, provides an overview of the District's and regional economy and economic trends, and describes the revenue outlook for FY 2018 through FY 2021.

Operating Expenditures

This chapter describes the District's recent Local funds expenditures. It includes analysis of expenditures between FY 2013 and FY 2016, both by agency and by expense category, e.g., personnel, supplies, and fixed costs.

Capital Improvements Plan (CIP)

This chapter describes the overall CIP, including the sources and uses of Capital funds.

Appendices

The last section of the Executive Summary includes explanations of items specific to the District's budget:

- The D.C. Comprehensive Financial Management Policy provides a framework for fiscal decision-making by the District to ensure that financial resources are available to meet the present and future needs of District citizens;
- The Basis of Budgeting and Accounting section describes the basis of budgeting and accounting, enabling the readers to understand the presentation methods of the District's finances;

- The Fund Structure and relationship to the Budget Structure section relates the District's fund structure to its budget presentation;
- The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) Development section describes how the CSFL was developed for the Local funds budget;
- The Agency Performance Plans section describes how the Office of the City Administrator evaluates government agencies, services, and operations; contains details on major plan revisions or changes in the assessment process; and directs readers to the agency plans, including performance measures, on the District's website;
- The Summary Tables detail the District's proposed operating budget by agency and fund type for both budgeted dollars and positions;
- The Glossary of Budget Terms section describes unique budgeting, accounting, and District terms that may not be known by the general reader;
- The Local Budget Act is the legislation that the District uses to enact the District's budget via local law, and is transmitted to Congress in accordance with procedures for all District legislation; and
- The Federal Portion Budget Request Act is the legislation that conveys the District's request for federal payments, to be enacted into law by the United States Congress and the President through the federal appropriations process.

Volumes 2, 3, and 4: Agency Budget Chapters - Part I, II, and III

These volumes include agency chapters that describe available resources, their uses, and the achieved and anticipated outcomes as a result of these expenditures. Chapters in these volumes are grouped by appropriation title and each chapter contains the following sections, as applicable:

Header Information:
- Agency name and budget code;
- Website address and telephone; and
- FY 2018 proposed operating budget table.

Introduction:
- Agency Mission; and
- Summary of Services.

Financial and Program Information:
- Proposed Funding and Full-Time Equivalents by Source table;
- Proposed Expenditure by Comptroller Source Group table;
- Division/Program descriptions;
- Proposed Expenditure by Division/Program table;
- FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes; and
- FY 2017 Approved Budget to FY 2018 Proposed Budget reconciliation table.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes section within each agency chapter provides a comprehensive explanation of the FY 2017 Approved Budget to FY 2018 Proposed Budget, by Revenue Type table that appears in nearly every chapter. Please see the Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) Development appendix in this volume for more information about the CSFL methodology, which is only applied to agencies with Local funds. This section includes major changes within the agency budget by program, fund, and full-time equivalents, from the initial request through the policy decisions made by the Mayor. The FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes section uses the following terms to describe budgetary or programmatic changes:

Actions with an impact on services:

- Enhance: More funding to improve the quality or quantity of an existing service (e.g., Funding to support the new DMV service center in Georgetown).
- Create: New funding for new programs that previously didn't exist (e.g., Establish Permanent Supportive Housing program to transition vulnerable individuals from homeless to stable housing).
- Reduce: Reduction, but not elimination of an existing service (e.g. Close a service center and provide services at other locations; Realign staffing in the Fleet Management division).
- Eliminate: Total elimination of an existing service, with no anticipation of the service being provided by another entity (e.g. Eliminate unfunded vacant FTEs for staffing realignment).

Actions with no service impact:

- Increase: Additional funds necessary to continue service at current levels (e.g., Fund recurring operating cost of Automated Traffic Enforcement).
- Decrease: Reduction in cost without a service impact (e.g., Align energy budget with revised DGS estimate).
- Transfer-In: Shift of an existing program, operation, or personnel from another District agency (e.g., Transfer the Central Cell Block Security activity from MPD to DOC).
- Transfer-Out: Shift of an existing program, operation, or personnel to another District agency (e.g., Transfer APRA division from DOH to establish DBH).
- Shift: Shift an existing program or operation from one Fund type to another (e.g., Shift from Special Purpose Revenue to Local funds to support telecommunications for the D.C. Lottery).
- Technical Adjustment: An increase or decrease to the budget that is required because of a legislative mandate or to correct an error or omission.
- No Change: The agency has no changes in funding and/or budget structures from the FY 2017 approved budget to the FY 2018 proposed budget.

An example of an agency narrative is at the end of this chapter to help the reader navigate the Agency Budget Chapter volume. The example shows an agency with a performance plan. Call-out boxes highlight the features discussed above.

Agency Performance Plans

The Office of the City Administrator (OCA) is building a robust performance management program across the District. This process includes making several updates to the format and submission process for annual agency performance plans.

Under the new process, agencies had the opportunity to update major components of their performance plan for FY 2018 including: objectives, key performance indicators and workload measures. Ultimately, the revised performance plans will be able to communicate more effectively the important work each agency plans to do over the coming year and how each agency will work to improve its performance. First drafts of the high level components of each agency's performance plan (objectives, key performance indicators, and operations) are published with the budget volumes and other budget materials at www.cfo.dc.gov.

Volume 5: Capital Improvements Plan (Including Highway Trust Fund)

This volume covers the District's FY 2018 - FY 2023 Capital Improvements Plan (CIP) and the Highway Trust Fund. The capital volume includes:

- An Introduction chapter that describes the overall CIP, including the sources and uses of capital funds, the District's policies and procedures for its capital budget and debt, and the FY 2018 planning process;
- Project Description Forms that comprise the major portion of the capital volume. The project description forms provide details on capital projects funded by general obligation bonds, Pay-As-You-Go (Paygo) capital, federal grants, and the Local Street Maintenance Fund. Each page shows one project's planned allotments for FY 2018 through FY 2023, including a description, its annual operating impact, milestone data, and its location; and
- Appendices that provide supporting tables and a glossary about the District's capital budget, including:
  - The FY 2018 Appropriated Budget Authority Request table that summarizes proposed new projects and changes (increase or decrease) for ongoing projects by agency, project, and funding source;
  - The FY 2018 - FY 2023 Planned Expenditures from New Allotments table that summarizes the new allotments planned for FY 2018 - FY 2023 expenditures by agency and project;
  - The FY 2018 - FY 2023 Planned Funding table that summarizes the FY 2018 and six-year funding sources for all new allotments by agency, project, and funding source;
  - The Capital Budget Authority and Allotment Balances table that summarizes the lifetime budget authority and allotment, life-to-date expenditures, total commitments, and balance of budget authority and allotment for all ongoing capital projects by agency, project, and the amount of the authority request;
  - The Capital Project Cost Estimate Variances table displays changes of 5 percent or greater to project costs compared to the FY 2017 approved budget;
  - FY 2017 year-to-date budget actions; and
  - Rescissions, Redirections, and Reprogrammings that occurred between June 15, 2016 (the cut-off date for last year's budget book) and September 30, 2016 (the end of FY 2016).

Highway Trust Fund

This appendix covers the District's FY 2018 through FY 2023 proposed Highway Trust Fund expenditures, including:

- An Introduction chapter, which describes the Highway Trust Fund program, including the sources and uses of the funds, the District's policies and procedures for the trust fund, and the FY 2018 planning process;
- The Project Description Forms, which show planned allotments, for FY 2018 through FY 2023 and descriptions for Highway Trust Fund master projects;
- Appendices that provide supporting tables for the District's Highway Trust Fund program; and
- An overview of the District of Columbia's Water and Sewer Authority's FY 2017 - FY 2026 Capital Improvements Plan.

Volume 6: Operating Appendices

This volume provides supporting tables to each agency's proposed operating budget. The tables generally include FY 2016 actual expenditures, the FY 2017 approved budget, the FY 2018 proposed budget, and the change from FY 2017 to FY 2018 (unless noted).

The following tables are provided:

Schedule 30-PBB - dollars summarized by program, activity, and governmental fund (governmental fund breakout is for FY 2017 only and includes general fund detail);

Schedule 40-PBB - dollars summarized by program, comptroller source group, and governmental fund;

Schedule 40G-PBB - dollars summarized by program, comptroller source group, and appropriated fund within the General Fund;

Schedule 41 - dollars and FTEs summarized by comptroller source group and governmental fund;

Schedule 41G - dollars and FTEs summarized by comptroller source group and appropriated fund within the General Fund; and

Schedule 80 - dollars and FTEs summarized by appropriated fund, with specific revenue source (for the FY 2018 Proposed Budget only).

(Change is calculated by whole numbers and numbers may not add up due to rounding)

The FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes section provides a comprehensive explanation of Table 5; it includes major internal changes within the budget including CSFL changes, changes to the initial adjusted budget, and policy initiatives.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department's (FEMS) proposed FY 2018 gross budget i $254,177,502, which represents a less than 1.0 percent decrease from its FY 2017 approved gross budge of $254,287,508. The budget is comprised of $249,288,047 in Local funds, $3,053,770 in Federal Gran funds, and $1,835,684 in Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost o operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from th FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agenc to continue its current programs and operations into adjustments to the FY 2017 Local fu budget are des Please see the CSFL Development section within Volu regarding the methodology used and components that co

FEMS' FY 2018 CSFL budget is $234,906,923, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budge

CSFL assumptions are presented separately within the budget. For more detail on the CSFL, please see the appendix in this volume.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for FEMS included adjustment entries that are not described in detail o table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $202,254 in personal services to account for Fring Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $326,881 in nonpersona services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for FEMS includes a reduction of $15,285,864 to account for the removal of one-time funding appropriated in FY 2017 as follows: $12,000,000 for a third-party Emergency Medical Services provider contract for ambulance services; $1,952,712 to purchase Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), which includes 1,285 sets of gear; $1,009,152 to address core deficiencies such as assistance with the dispatching of units and the transporting of patients, support for preventive maintenance costs for a training pilot program for UDC, and the purchase of automated external defibrillators (AEDs) for schools; and $324,000 to improve WI-FI in fire stations and for signal boosters in locations where signals are weak. Additionally, an increase of $227,796 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor reflects estimates for Fleet services.

Agency Budget Submission

For FY 2018, the Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department (FEMS) has implemented a performance-based budgeting strategy to better reflect the agency's programmatic activities. As part of this initiative, FEMS changed 6 program names as follows: "Fire Prevention and Education" changed to "Chief of Fire and Emergency Medical Services"; "Field Operations" changed to "Operations Bureau"; "Employee Preparedness" changed to "Emergency Medical Services Operations Bureau"; "Operations Support" changed to "Emergency Medical Services Medical Director"; "Policy and Planning" changed to "Support Services Bureau"; and "State Safety [illegible]es Bureau." Additionally, the agency realigned its personne[illegible]l operational needs.

This section describes the changes made to an agency during the overall budget formulation process by fund and by program (or division).

Increase: In Local funds, FEMS' proposed bu[illegible] nonpersonal services, which includes an increase of $2,[illegible]decreases of $1,608,342 in Other Services and Charges and $207,591 in Equipment costs. An increase of $45,938 in Fixed Costs supports projected increases in the telecommunications estimates across multiple programs. Additionally, the proposed budget reflects an increase of 2.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) positions to support the agency's personnel needs.

In Federal Grant funds, the proposed budget reflects a net increase of $31,626 in the Operations Bureau program, which is funded by the Staffing for Adequate Fire and Emergency Response (SAFER) grant. The increase supports projected salary and Fringe Benefits costs.

Special Purpose Revenue (SPR) funds increased by $983,000, to support the Affordable Emergency Transportation and Pre-Hospital Medical Services Amendment Act of 2017, Bill 22-183; and $324,684 to support 1.0 additional FTE, Fringe Benefits, and Overtime pay in the Operations Bureau.

Decrease: In Local funds, to align budget with the agency's spending priorities and goals across multiple programs, a proposed reduction of $185,071 was made to the contractual services costs related to a contract for information technology services. Additionally, a net decrease of $4,870,908 was made to support adjustments made to Fringe Benefits and Overtime across multiple programs.

In SPR funds, the proposed budget decreased by $497,000 in nonpersonal services for adjustments made to supplies, Other Services and Charges, and Equipment across multiple programs as a result of decline in revenue estimates and to offset the increase in personal services.

In Intra-District funds, the proposed budget reflects a decrease of $400,000 in Contractual Services in the Emergency Medical Services Operations Bureau. The contract supports Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) instruction for the Department of Employment Services' employees and clients.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: In Local funds, the Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department (FEMS) proposes increases of: $11,017,000 (one-time funding) to support the contract with American Medical Response (AMR) for its third-party ambulance initiative to improve unit availability, reduce FEMS response times, improve the condition of the fleet, and allow providers more training hours; $4,915,439 to hire an additional 48.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTEs) dual-role firefighters to achieve the maximum staffing level, which will consequently enable the agency to avoid covering positions that are vacant due to leave and

Agency Performance Plan

Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Embrace a supportive work environment focused on creating a safe, competent, and professional workforce team.
2. Ensure that our facilities, vehicles, equipment, a…porting service delivery requirements.

5. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparen… **

The Agency Performance Plans describes specific agency Strategic Objectives, Activities and key performance indicators.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Embrace a supportive work environment focused on creating a safe, competent, and professional workforce team. (7 Activities)

How to Read the Agency Chapters

The agency chapters describe available resources for an agency, how the agency will spend them, and the achieved and anticipated outcomes as a result of these expenditures. For a detailed explanation of the fiscal tables and narrative sections, please see the "How to Read the Budget and Financial Plan" chapter in Volume 1: Executive Summary.

Each chapter contains the following, if applicable:

The first page of each agency chapter displays the agency name and budget code, website address, and telephone number. The page also shows a table that contains the agency's gross funds, or total operating, budget. The table shows the Fiscal Year (FY) 2016 actual expenditures and Full-time Equivalents (FTEs); the FY 2017 Approved budget and FTEs; the FY 2018 Proposed budget and FTEs; and the percent change from the previous year for the budget and FTEs. Lastly, this page typically contains the agency mission statement and a summary of its services.

Subsequent pages reflect agency fiscal and programmatic levels and changes. The information varies by agency but typically contains the following financial tables and narrative sections:

- Proposed Funding by Source and Full-Time Equivalents table displays the agency FY 2016 actuals, the FY 2017 Approved, and the FY 2018 Proposed dollars by fund type.

- Proposed Expenditure by Comptroller Source Group (CSG) table identifies the gross fund changes by CSG, which is a type of budgetary classification that identifies category spending within personal services (personnel costs, such as salaries and fringe benefits) and nonpersonal services (operational costs, such as contracts, supplies, and subsidy payments).

- Proposed Operating Budget and FTEs, by Division/Program and Activity table shows the gross fund changes by dollars and FTEs. The Division/Program descriptions section that follows this table explains the purpose of the divisions/programs and activities funded in the FY 2018 Proposed budget.

- FY 2017 Approved Budget to FY 2018 Proposed Budget reconciliation table shows the FY 2018 Proposed budget and FTE changes, by division or program, from the FY 2017 Approved budget. This table also includes a brief description of the change. A detailed narrative of the changes is found in the FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes section that precedes this table.

- Agency Performance Plan Strategic Objectives and the accompanying Agency Performance Measures table show the agency-level plan that contains the agency's mission, summary of services, objectives, initiatives, and performance measures for a set period of time. For some agencies, the initiatives and performance measures are grouped by division/program.

Program Description

The Council of the District of Columbia operates through the following 4 programs:

Council Administration – provides administrative support and technical expertise to the Council of the District of Columbia through the Council Fixed Costs Account, which provides funding for all Council-wide Fixed Costs.

Council Central Offices – provides administrative support and technical expertise to the Council of the District of Columbia.

This program contains the following 4 activities:

- Secretary to the Council – serves as the Chief Administrative Officer; provides records of Council actions including the filing of bills and proposed resolutions, amendments to bills and resolutions, and requests for hearings, committee reports, and other records and reports assigned by the Rules, the Council, or the Chairman; and administers the fiscal year budget of the Council;
- General Counsel – provides advice to the Council on matters of parliamentary procedure, identifies legislative problems, provides members with alternatives in terms of policy options to solve those problems, represents the Council in any legal action to which it is a party, supervises the publication of the District of Columbia Official Code, prepares technical amendments and enactment bills, makes legislative drafting assistance available to all members, engrosses and enrolls measures, makes determinations about the legal sufficiency of legislation, serves as the Ethics Counselor, and makes necessary technical and conforming changes in measures during enrollment;

- Office of the Budget Director – provides advice to Councilmembers on matters related to the budget including the development of annual and multi-year budgets and financial plans, reviews contracts and reprogramming actions, analyzes the fiscal impact of legislation, coordinates the submission of budget reports and the annual Budget Support Act, and provides the support needed for an efficient Council budget process; and
- Office of Information Technology – provides planning, acquisition, and maintenance support of information technology hardware and software for Council staff.

Councilmembers – provides for the budgets of the 13 elected Councilmembers of the District of Columbia. Eight of the elected Councilmembers represent identified Wards in the District, and the remaining five members, including the Chairman of the Council, are elected at-large.

This program contains the following 13 activities:

- The Chairman is the presiding and chief executive officer of the Council; and
- Each of the other 12 elected officials is under an activity defining the Ward represented or their position as an at-large representative.

Council Committees – includes the 11 committees of the Council of the District of Columbia. Much of the work of the Council of the District of Columbia is conducted by 10 standing committees and the Committee of the Whole, which is chaired by the Chairman of the Council. Committees consider proposed legislation, analyze its fiscal impact, hold public hearings, and vote on legislative measures for action by the Council. Standing committees also conduct oversight hearings on the performance of agencies, government initiatives operation, and policy implementation.

This program contains the following 11 activities:

- Committee of the Whole, which includes all Councilmembers;
- Committee on Business and Economic Development;
- Committee on Education;
- Committee on Finance and Revenue;
- Committee on Government Operations;
- Committee on Health;
- Committee on Housing and Neighborhood Revitalization;
- Committee on Human Services;
- Committee on Judiciary and Public Safety;
- Committee on Labor and Workforce Development; and
- Committee on Transportation and the Environment.

Program Structure Change

The Council of the District of Columbia has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Council of the District of Columbia's (Council) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $25,373,058, which represents a 5.6 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $24,032,435. The budget is comprised of $25,338,058 in Local funds and $35,000 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

Council's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $24,035,802, which represents a $33,367, or less than 1.0 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $24,002,435.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for Council included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $22,177 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $58,097 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index Factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for Council includes a decrease of $2,552 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor, to account for fixed costs estimates for fleet services.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: The Council's proposed Local funds budget is increased by $77,823 across multiple programs, primarily to cover the costs associated with professional service fees. In personal services, the proposed budget includes a net increase of $22,177 to align the budget with projected salaries and Fringe Benefits costs.

In Intra-District funds, the agency proposes an increase of $5,000 in the General Counsel's office within the Council Central Offices program to support the cost of additional office supplies.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Council of the District of Columbia's budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The Council of the District of Columbia's budget proposal reflects an increase of $730,000 across the agency to cover anticipated salary costs for Council staff. The proposed budget also contains an increase totaling $512,256 in the Council Administration program to support the implementation of a 3.0 percent matching contribution for Council employees who participate in the 457(b) retirement program.

Reduce: The proposed budget reflects a shift of $40,000 from nonpersonal services to personal services to reflect savings in contractual services and offset an increase in anticipated salary costs for Council staff.

Program Description

The Office of the District of Columbia Auditor operates through the following 2 programs:

Audit, Financial Oversight, and Investigations – the Office of the District of Columbia Auditor is organized to include three audit teams and one program evaluation team, plus an operations division that includes administrative and information technology staff as well as staff tasked with legal, communications, and budget oversight. The Office undertakes audits, program evaluations, and other reviews, and contracts for additional audits and evaluations, publishing the results in hard copy and electronically and provided to the Council, Executive Branch agencies and others, and to the public. The agency's annual work plan includes reviews undertaken based on statutory mandates, requests from individual members of the Council of the District of Columbia, based on an annual agency risk assessment, and at the discretion of the D.C. Auditor.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Performance Audits and Program Evaluations – conducts audits and program evaluations of the operations, and programs of the District of Columbia on a rotating basis, provides financial oversight and assistance to ANCs and certifies revenue estimates in support of municipal bond issuances; and
- Management of Contract Audits and Evaluations – provides management and oversight of audits and evaluations performed on contract by other organizations with relevant issue expertise.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of the District of Columbia Auditor has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of the District of Columbia Auditor's (ODCA) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $5,860,412, which represents an increase of 12.7 percent over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $5,201,985. The budget is comprised entirely of Local funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

ODCA's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $5,227,316, which represents a $25,331, or less than 1.0 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $5,201,985.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for ODCA included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $5,535 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $16,304 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for ODCA includes an increase of $14,563 to reflect fixed costs estimates for Telecommunications, and a forecast of Department of General Services' commodities based on historical expenditure trends.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: ODCA's FY 2018 operating budget proposal reinforces the agency's commitment to support the Council of the District of Columbia by providing timely recommendations for improving the economy, efficiency, and accountability of the District government. The proposed budget includes a net increase of $17,544 across multiple programs to align the budget with projected costs for salaries, fringe benefits, and other personal services adjustments.

Decrease: ODCA proposes a net decrease of $779 in nonpersonal services to reflect cost savings for Rent and align the budget for Telecommunication services. Additionally, a net decrease of $16,765, primarily in Contractual Services, is proposed to partially offset the adjustments to personal services.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Office of the District of Columbia Auditor's budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: ODCA's proposed budget includes a one-time increase of $550,000 in the Audit, Financial Oversight, and Investigations program to support an auditor study of school enrollment trends. Additionally, the proposal includes a one-time increase of $92,175 in the Audit, Financial Oversight, and Investigations program to support software purchases, website improvements, and network upgrades. Lastly, the agency proposes a net increase of $71,816 across multiple divisions, which includes an increase of $86,915 to support the 3.0 percent contribution match adjustment for the new employee retirement plan, partially offset by a reduction of $15,099 in fringe benefits associated with transfer of 1.0 FTE to the Office of Advisory Neighborhood Commissions (OANC).

Transfer-Out: ODCA's budget proposal reflects a transfer of $80,895 to the OANC in accordance with the implementation of the Advisory Neighborhood Commissions Omnibus Amendment Act of 2016 (D.C. Law 21-269).

Program Description

The Advisory Neighborhood Commissions operates through the following 2 programs:

Advisory Neighborhood Commissions – consists of 40 independent commissions that provide advice and recommendations to the Council, the Mayor, and various agencies, boards, and commissions of government so that each neighborhood's needs and concerns receive full consideration in the formulation and implementation of governmental decision-making and in the delivery of public services.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Advisory Neighborhood Commissions has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Advisory Neighborhood Commissions' (ANC) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $1,026,907, which represents a 7.1 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $958,661. The budget is comprised entirely of Local funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

ANC's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $933,555, which represents a $25,106, or 2.6 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $958,661.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for ANC included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $258 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $152 in nonpersonal services based on Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. CSFL funding for ANC includes a reduction of $25,000 to account for the removal of one-time funding appropriated in FY 2017 for Sign Language Interpreters.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: The proposed budget include an increase of $2,571 in the Agency Management program to support projected salary step increases and Fringe Benefits costs.

Decrease: ANC's budget proposal reflects a decrease of $2,571 in professional services fees to offset the increase in personal services.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Advisory Neighborhood Commissions' budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

Transfer-In/Enhance: In Local funds, ANC's proposed budget reflects a total increase of $93,352, including $5,277 to support the implementation of a 3.0 percent matching contribution for ANC employees who participate in the 457(b) retirement program. The remaining increase includes a transfer of $80,475 and 1.0 Full-Time Equivalent and $7,600 in operational costs from the Office of the District of Columbia Auditor to implement provisions of the Advisory Neighborhood Commissions Omnibus Amendment Act of 2016 (D.C. Law 21-269).

Program Description

The Executive Office of the Mayor operates through the following 5 programs:

Office of the Mayor – provides staff support to the Mayor in leading the government and community.

This program contains the following 7 activities:

- Office of the Mayor – provides leadership, strategic direction, and policy guidance to EOM, Deputy Mayors, and agencies;
- Scheduling Unit – processes scheduling requests and correspondence for the Mayor and provides oversight of the Mayor's public engagements;
- Office of Communications – provides strategic communication directions, media relations, public information dissemination, agency communications review and coordination, government-wide communication standards, and guidance to and training opportunities for agency public information officers;
- Office of Support Services – provides operational support to the EOM, Deputy Mayors, the Office of the City Administrator, Criminal Justice Coordinating Council, Office on Latino Affairs, Office of Veterans' Affairs, Office on Asian and Pacific Islander Affairs, Office of the Senior Advisor, and Office of Risk Management;
- Mayor's Correspondence Unit – responds to written correspondence sent to the Mayor in a timely, thoughtful, and helpful manner;
- Office of the General Counsel – advises the Mayor and other activities of the EOM, without legal counsel, on legal matters; and

- Emancipation Day – promotes, advocates, and supports Emancipation Day activities for the District of Columbia.

Mayor's Office of Talent and Appointments (MOTA) – provides assistance to the Mayor by making recommendations for outstanding community leaders to serve as appointed leadership staff or members to boards and commissions. The MOTA team recruits energetic, committed, and forward-thinking individuals committed to helping the District of Columbia make a fresh start.

Office of Community Affairs – provides coordinated leadership and administrative support.

This program contains the following 9 activities:

- Office of Community Relations and Services – provides constituent support through accessibility and coordination by resolving neighborhood obstacles and complaints, improving delivery of scheduled services, distributing educational materials, and attending community meetings;
- Office of Partnerships and Grant Services – enhances the capacity of the District government and non-profit organizations to obtain and manage diverse resources through effective management and oversight of the government's donation solicitation, grant development, and grant-making process;
- Office of African Affairs – provides constituent services and information to the African communities through programmatic activities and outreach material; serves as a liaison between the Mayor, African communities, and District government agencies; and briefs the Mayor and District government agencies about needs and interests of the African residents of the District of Columbia;
- Commission on Women – provides constituent services and information to women through programmatic activities and outreach materials; serves as a liaison between the Mayor, women, and District government agencies; and briefs the Mayor and District government agencies about the needs and interests of the women of the District of Columbia;
- Office of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Affairs (LGBT) – provides constituent services and information to the LGBT communities through programmatic activities and outreach materials; serves as a liaison between the Mayor, LGBT communities, and District government agencies; and briefs the Mayor and District government agencies about the needs and interests of the LGBT residents of the District of Columbia;
- Office on Returning Citizen Affairs – serves as a liaison between the Mayor, the returning citizen community, and District government agencies; and briefs the Mayor and District government agencies on the needs and interests of returning citizens of the District of Columbia. This program also provides constituent services and information to the returning citizen community through programmatic activities and outreach materials;
- Office of Religious Affairs – provides constituent services and information to the religious communities through programmatic activities and outreach materials; serves as a liaison between the Mayor, the religious communities, and District government agencies; and briefs the Mayor and District government agencies about the needs and interests of the religious communities of the District of Columbia;
- Commission on Caribbean Affairs – provides constituent services and information to the District's Caribbean community through programmatic activities and outreach materials; serves as a liaison between the Mayor, the Caribbean community, and District government agencies; and briefs the Mayor and District government agencies about the needs and concerns of the Caribbean population of the District of Columbia; and
- Office of Community Affairs – coordinates community engagement efforts in all eight wards in the District of Columbia, including engagement event logistics, language access translation services, and interpretation services.

Serve DC – The Mayor's Office on Volunteerism – serves as the District of Columbia's Commission on National and Community Service. The mission of the organization is to strengthen and promote the spirit of service through partnerships, national service, and volunteerism by coordinating regular and episodic volunteer opportunities, as well as serving as the nexus for all volunteer partnerships and related councils, coalitions, and commissions.

This program contains the following 3 activities:

- Administration – provides support for staff and initiatives of State Service Commissions to fulfill the agency's mission and goals to expand volunteerism service in the District, which includes, but is not limited to, management of federal Corporation for National and Community Service grants;
- AmeriCorps – provides AmeriCorps programs to the District of Columbia and facilitates collaboration among all national service programs including AmeriCorps and National Civilian Community Corps; and
- Training – leads the training components of the D.C. Citizen Corps initiative, which provides citizens the opportunity to volunteer to make their communities safer, stronger, and better equipped to address threats of terrorism, crime, and disasters.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Executive Office of the Mayor's (EOM) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $14,506,384, which represents an 8.6 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $13,361,703. The budget is comprised of $10,471,605 in Local funds, $3,545,884 in Federal Grant funds, and $488,894 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

EOM's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $9,176,147, which represents a $31,972, or less than 1.0 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $9,144,175.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for EOM included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include an increase of $20,070 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. Additionally, an increase of $11,902 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor accounts for adjustments to the fleet services estimates.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: EOM's proposed Local funds budget increased by $40,397 in personal services to reflect salary and Fringe Benefit adjustments across multiple programs.

In Federal Grant funds, the agency's budget proposal reflects an increase of $42,119 in the Serve DC program to align the proposed budget with anticipated grant awards.

EOM's proposed Intra-District funds budget includes an increase of $48,923 in the Serve DC program, mainly to reflect the reallocation of a 0.6 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) from Local and Federal Grant funds. The reallocation of the FTE and its associated funding aligns EOM's proposed budget with anticipated spending and supports the agency's promotion of volunteerism throughout the District.

Decrease: In Local funds, EOM's proposed budget reflects a net decrease of $8,745 in nonpersonal services, primarily to recognize savings in contractual services in the Office of the Mayor program. The proposed Local funds budget is also decreased by $31,652 and 0.3 FTE because of the reallocation of resources to Intra-District funds.

The agency's proposed Federal Grant funds budget includes a decrease of $31,652 in the Serve DC program due to the reallocation of a 0.3 FTE to Intra-District funds.

In Intra-District funds, EOM's budget proposal was reduced by $242,139 in the Serve DC program to realize savings in nonpersonal services, specifically in professional services and fees, supplies, travel, and contracts, for a Memorandum of Understanding with the Homeland Security and Emergency Management Agency.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: In Local funds, EOM's budget proposal reflects an increase of $516,965 and 6.0 FTEs for the Office of Community Affairs program to aid with administrative duties to support ward-based outreach specialists and coordinate community engagement efforts in the District's eight wards. The proposed budget also increased by $209,793 in nonpersonal services in the Office of Community Affairs program for the coordination of community engagement efforts, including engagement event logistics, language access translation services, and interpretation services. Furthermore, the proposed budget increased by $168,700 in the Office of the Mayor program to support two graphic designer positions to better promote the District government's programs and services.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: In Local funds, the budget proposal for the Mayor's Office of Community Affairs reflects an increase of $273,980 and 3.0 FTEs to support a Grants Management Specialist position in the Office of African Affairs and two Case Manager positions in the Office on Returning Citizen Affairs. The Case Manager positions were added for the purpose of conducting holistic assessments, creating transition plans, and following-up on referrals made on behalf of returning citizens. Additionally, the proposed budget increased by $100,000 in one-time funding to support the next phases of a strategic plan being developed in partnership with the Council for Court Excellence, which is a nonprofit, nonpartisan civic organization working towards a justice system that equitably serves the District and its people. The proposed budget for the Mayor's Office of Community Affairs also increased by $25,000 in one-time funding to support an African Community Grant Program for hepatitis outreach efforts for African-led organizations. Furthermore, an increase of $1,020 in nonpersonal services covers office supply purchases for case management in the Mayor's Office of Community Affairs.

The mission of the Mayor's Office of Legal Counsel (MOLC) is to provide legal counsel to the Mayor and the Offices of the Deputy Mayors and District of Columbia executive agencies, with particular attention to coordination of legal support with the agency General Counsel and their staffs.

Summary of Services

MOLC acts as the primary legal counsel to the Mayor, all Deputy Mayors, and District government agencies. Under the governing legislation, the functions of MOLC are:

- Coordinating the hiring, compensation, training, and resolution of significant personnel-related issues for subordinate agency counsel in conjunction with agency directors;
- Providing legal and policy advice to the Mayor and the Executive Branch;
- Resolving interagency legal issues for the Mayor;
- Overseeing the representation of agencies in investigative matters before the Executive Branch of the federal government, Congress, or the Council of the District of Columbia; and
- Supervising outside counsel in matters where the Office of the Attorney General is recused from a matter or otherwise not available.

In addition, MOLC generally advises the Mayor and the Deputy Mayors in connection with the implementation of the major policy initiatives and responsibilities.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Division Description

The Mayor's Office of Legal Counsel operates through the following division:

Legal Services – is headed by a Director who is appointed by the Mayor and serves at the Mayor's pleasure. The Director is a seasoned attorney. The Deputy Director serves as the Director's support and stand-in. The team, made up of Chief of Staff, Staff Attorney, and Special Assistant, serves as the Mayor's Legal Counsel and advises the Mayor on issues related to the law. There are five Associate Directors who oversee the five main clusters. These five individuals are the principal points of contact for the Health and Human Services, Education, Government Operations, Public Safety and Justice, and Planning and Economic Development clusters. The agency management team, along with these five associate directors, also advises on the full range of issues that may arise before the Executive Office of the Mayor and citywide agencies. These issues may include, but are not limited to, drafting bills for introduction and preparation of amendments for consideration, legislation monitoring, training in the areas of administrative and regulatory law and procedure, legal sufficiency certification services, labor, Freedom of Information Act, real estate, rulemaking, and other significant financial transactions.

Division Structure Change

The Mayor's Office of Legal Counsel has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Mayor's Office of Legal Counsel's (MOLC) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $1,634,468, which represents a less than 1.0 percent decrease from its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $1,641,664. The budget is comprised entirely of Local funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple divisions, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

MOLC's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $1,634,468, which represents a $7,196, or less than 1.0 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $1,641,664.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for MOLC included an adjustment entry that is not described in detail on table 5. This adjustment includes a decrease of $7,196 in personal services to account for reduction in the Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: MOLC's proposed budget includes an increase of $10,000 to support the procurement and update of office equipment such as a copier and laptops. The proposed budget also increased by $5,979 in nonpersonal services, primarily for additional office supplies, professional service fees, and office support for Lexis-Nexis payments.

Decrease: The proposed budget includes a net reduction of $15,979 to align funding with projected personal services expenditures. This adjustment offsets the proposed increase in nonpersonal services costs.

Mayor’s Proposed Budget

No Change: The Mayor’s Office of Legal Counsel’s budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor’s proposed budget.

District’s Proposed Budget

No Change: The Mayor's Office of Legal Counsel's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor’s proposed budget to the District’s proposed budget.

Agency Performance Plan*

Mayor's Office of Legal Counsel (MOLC) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Provide advice, assistance, and counsel to the Mayor and District agency attorneys on personnel-related matters, contracts, drafting of statues and regulations, real estate transactions, and compliance with Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).
2. Hire and retain a highly qualified workforce of attorney and legal support staff.
3. Identify and foster relationships with other governmental agencies to promote opportunities to solve intergovernmental issues to the city's advantage.
4. Adjudicate FOIA appeals brought against District agencies.
5. Advise agency staff on FOIA compliance, including facilitating FOIA training, scheduling FOIAxpress training, and resolving other public records issues.
6. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Provide advice, assistance, and counsel to the Mayor and District agency attorneys on personnel-related matters, contracts, drafting of statues and regulations, real estate transactions, and compliance with Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Advises Mayor, Deputy Mayors, and Agency Directors	MOLC provides quality legal advice to the Mayor and executive agencies regarding a wide variety of matters.	Daily Service

2. Hire and retain a highly qualified workforce of attorney and legal support staff. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Review Hiring for all Agency Attorneys	MOLC coordinates the hiring, compensation, training, and resolution of significant personnel-related issues for subordinate agency counsel in conjunction with agency directors.	Daily Service
Monthly Legal Training	MOLC organizes a number of legal training sessions for subordinate agency attorneys each year as a way to assist agency attorneys in meeting their regulatory training requirements and keeping their skills and knowledge up to date.	Daily Service

3. Identify and foster relationships with other governmental agencies to promote opportunities to solve intergovernmental issues to the city's advantage. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Advice and Assistance	MOLC interacts with virtually every agency in the government to facilitate the resolution of legal concerns.	Daily Service

4. Adjudicate FOIA appeals brought against District agencies. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
FOIA Adjudication	MOLC has primary responsibility for reviewing FOIA appeals submitted to the Mayor.	Daily Service

5. Advise agency staff on FOIA compliance, including facilitating FOIA training, scheduling FOIAxpress training, and resolving other public records issues. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
FOIA Compliance	MOLC offers at least one FOIA training session each year to answer agency attorneys' and FOIA officers' questions about the appeals process and decisions.	Daily Service

6. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Performance Management	Agency Management.	Daily Service

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Provide advice, assistance, and counsel to the Mayor and District agency attorneys on personnel-related matters, contracts, drafting of statues and regulations, real estate transactions, and compliance with Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). (1 Measure)

Program Description

The Office of the Senior Advisor operates through the following 3 programs:

Office of Policy and Legislative Affairs – coordinates the policy decision-making process by offering policy analysis and advice to inform the implementation of the Mayor's legislative and policy agenda. Responsibilities include Council relations, policy development, and legislative support.

Office of Federal and Regional Affairs – coordinates with federal and regional partners by offering policy analysis and advice in federal and regional affairs to pursue the Mayor's goals on federal and regional issues. Responsibilities include federal relations, regional relations, and legislative support.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of the Senior Advisor has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of the Senior Advisor's (OSA) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $3,149,003, which represents a 43.1 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $2,199,908. The budget is comprised entirely of Local funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OSA's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $2,197,003, which represents a $2,905, or less than 1.0 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $2,199,908.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for OSA included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $4,780 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $1,875 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: OSA's budget proposal in Local funds includes an increase of $34,745 in nonpersonal services for office supplies, travel expenses, and professional services fees. The proposed budget also increased by $6,000 to support the procurement and maintenance of office equipment.

Decrease: The proposed budget reflects a decrease of $40,745 to reflect savings associated with realignment of job descriptions for certain positions within the agency. This adjustment offsets the increase in nonpersonal services.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The Office of the Senior Advisor's budget proposal reflects a one-time funding increase of $952,000 in the Agency Management program to support the Statehood Campaign initiative, which aims to increase awareness and education of District of Columbia local democracy and statehood issues by executing a bi-partisan and sustainable national education and awareness campaign. This adjustment is comprised of $856,000 in nonpersonal services costs, and $96,000 in personal services costs to support an additional 1.0 FTE that will function in the capacity of Associate Advocacy Director.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Office of the Senior Advisor's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

Agency Performance Plan*

Office of the Senior Advisor (OSA) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Serve as the conduit for the evolution of relationship building and policy development between the City Legislature and the Executive.
2. Serve as the District's liaison to Congress, the White House, federal agencies, and neighboring jurisdictions.
3. Engage with District Agencies to provide assistance establishing and maintaining relationships with Federal counterparts and directing federal initiatives.
4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Serve as the conduit for the evolution of relationship building and policy development between the City Legislature and the Executive. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Legislative Agenda	Engage with members of the legislative branch to pass legislation proposed by the executive.	Daily Service
Special or Emergency Legislation	Work with the Council to pass legislation that arises out of priority and the needs of constituents.	Key Project
Mayoral Appointees	Engage with Council members in every to rally support for Mayoral nominees for vacant cabinet and board an commission positions.	Key Project

2. Serve as the District's liaison to Congress, the White House, federal agencies, and neighboring jurisdictions. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Engage with Membership Organizations	Work with organizations such as United States Conference Mayors (USCM), African-American Mayors Associated (AAMA), National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL) and National Association of Counties (NACO) to advance the Mayor's priorities sharing successes and best practices.	Daily Service
Coordinate with Regional Partners	Engage with neighboring jurisdictions on key issues that affect our constituents regionally.	Key Project

3. Engage with District Agencies to provide assistance establishing and maintaining relationships with Federal counterparts and directing federal initiatives. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Engage with Federal Agencies	Engage with members of Congress and Federal Agencies to maintain current funding while identifying and pursing new funding opportunities.	Daily Service
Secure and Maintain Federal Grants	Engage with district and Federal Agencies regarding grant activity between the Agencies and the District.	Daily Service

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

Program Description

The Office of the Secretary operates through the following 7 programs:

International Relations and Protocol – provides liaison and outreach services to the diplomatic and international communities on behalf of the Mayor and local residents. This program is responsible for all international visitors to the District government, Sister City relationships, and relations between embassies.

Ceremonial Services – provides ceremonial document services to individuals, businesses, organizations, and government agencies so that they can have their activities and events recognized by the Mayor. Proclamations, greeting letters, and condolence letters are among the most requested documents.

Office of Documents and Administrative Issuances – provides technical, professional, and other legal services to the Mayor, District agencies, and the general public so that they can give and/or have official notice of all proposed and adopted legal mandates.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- D.C. Register – provides review and technical assistance services to District executive and independent agencies so that they can comply with editorial standards and legal requirements of the District of Columbia's Administrative Procedures Act, implementing regulations, and District of Columbia Documents Act of 1978; and
- Administrative Issuances – provides professional and technical assistance services to the Mayor and executive agencies so that they can implement major policies and programs and make appointments in a timely manner to foster the activities of government.

Notary Commission and Authentications – provides commissions for all notaries public in the District of Columbia and authenticates documents signed by District notaries public for domestic and foreign use.

Office of Public Records – provides archives and records management services to District government agencies and the public so that they can gain access to official government documents.

This program contains the following 3 activities:

- Records Management – provides temporary records management services to District government agencies and the public so that they can have access to public records stored in the District of Columbia Records Center;
- Archival Administration – provides historical records management services to District government agencies and the public so that they can have access to historical public records stored in the District of Columbia Archives; and
- Library of Government Information – provides publication management services to District government agencies and the public so that they can have access to publications created by District government agencies.

Executive Management – manages the work of several commissions, provides official signatory services for the Mayor of the District of Columbia, takes on special projects at the request of the Mayor, and provides support for D.C. Democracy and related activities including support of District of Columbia Self Determination, Voting Rights, and Statehood.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of the Secretary has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

GROSS FOR BA0 - OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY		4,058	26.0

(Change is calculated by whole numbers and numbers may not add up due to rounding)

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of the Secretary's (OS) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $4,058,186, which represents an 8.2 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $3,749,426. The budget is comprised of $2,958,186 in Local funds and $1,100,000 in Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OS' FY 2018 CSFL budget is $2,654,870, which represents a $5,444, or less than 1.0 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $2,649,426.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for OS included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments were made for a decrease of $664 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $8,391 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. Additionally, a decrease of $2,283 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor accounts for estimates for fleet services.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: OS' proposed Local funds budget submission will increase by $49,877 in personal services to reflect salary and Fringe Benefit adjustments across multiple programs. These adjustments also include the conversion of 2.0 Full-Time Equivalents (FTEs) from Temporary Full-Time status to Continuing Full-Time status. These decisions were made based on job description updates for certain positions in the agency.

Decrease: In Local funds, OS' proposed budget submission reflects a net decrease of $49,877 in nonpersonal services, primarily to recognize savings for office supplies, professional services fees, and contractual services in the Agency Management and Office of Public Records programs. This adjustment offsets the projected increases in personal services costs.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: In Local funds, OS' budget proposal reflects an increase of $284,316 to support the Archival Record Digitization. In addition, an increase of $19,000 in Local funds will support Special Police Officer services.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Office of the Secretary's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

Agency Performance Plan*

Office of the Secretary(OS) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Promote the District of Columbia and its rich history to local, national, and international communities through events and initiatives while supporting the quest for DC democracy.
2. Provides customer friendly and efficient processing of notary commissions and the authentication of documents signed by District notaries for domestic and foreign use.
3. Provide support and outreach services to the diplomatic and international communities.
4. Provides meaningful access to records of the District government to members of the public and District employees through prompt customer service, accurate arrangement and description of collections, and appropriate retention and preservation of historic documents.
5. Provide timely technical, professional, and other legal services to the Mayor, District of Columbia agencies, and general public in order to give and/or have official notice of all proposed and adopted legal mandates.
6. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Promote the District of Columbia and its rich history to local, national, and international communities through events and initiatives while supporting the quest for DC democracy. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
DC Democratic Grant	The Office of the Secretary has limited authority to issue competitive grants to non-profit organizations to promote District of Columbia self-determination, voting rights, and/or Statehood.	Key Project

The mission of the Office of the City Administrator (OCA) is to facilitate the effective and efficient implementation of the Mayor's vision and priorities by providing leadership, support, and oversight of District government agencies.

Summary of Services
The Office of the City Administrator supports the day-to-day operations of the District government by:

- Managing the Performance Management program (including CapStat) to track progress toward goals, reduce costs, improve government services, and increase government accountability;
- Improving government services and responsiveness by creating efficiencies and advancing innovative solutions to public challenges;
- Increasing public-private partnerships to expedite vital capital projects;
- Providing direct leadership and support to the Government Operations Cluster, which reports directly to the OCA, in addition to the operations of each Deputy Mayor's office;
- Developing fiscally responsible performance-based budgets and continuously monitoring agency spending to ensure government services are delivered on time and on budget; and
- Fostering fair and open negotiations with the District government's labor union workforce.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Note: For more detailed information regarding the proposed funding for the activities within this agency's programs, please see Schedule 30-PBB Program Summary by Activity in the FY 2018 Operating Appendices located on the Office of the Chief Financial Officer's website. "No Activity Assigned" indicates budget or actuals that are recorded at the division/program level.

Division Description

The Office of the City Administrator operates through the following 3 divisions.

City Administrator – provides support to the City Administrator and District agencies in the areas of budget, management, and policy; organizes accountability sessions with the Mayor and City Administrator; and manages the District's Performance Management activity.

This division contains the following 5 activities:

- Office of Performance Management – provides support to the City Administrator and District agencies to manage the city's Performance Management program;
- Office of Agency Operations – provides support to the City Administrator and District agencies in the areas of management and policy;
- Office of Public-Private Partnerships – provides support to the City Administrator and District agencies to facilitate the procurement and administration of public-private partnerships in the District of Columbia (established by D.C. Law 20-228);
- Office of Budget and Finance – advises the Mayor on financial and budgetary operations of the District government, assists the Mayor in the formulation of the annual operating and capital budgets for the District government, and monitors agency budget performance during the fiscal year; and
- Public Works and Government Operations – provides direct leadership and support to Public Works and Government Operations Cluster agencies, which report directly to the Office of the City Administrator.

Labor Relations and Collective Bargaining – represents the District of Columbia as the principal management advocate during labor negotiations and in administering the District's Labor Relations activity.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Division Structure Change

The Office of the City Administrator has no division structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

(Change is calculated by whole numbers and numbers may not add up due to rounding)

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of the City Administrator's (OCA) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $8,920,220, which represents a 20.6 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $7,399,326. The budget is comprised of $7,657,319 in Local funds, $982,901 in Private Grant funds, and $280,000 in Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple division, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OCA's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $7,089,216, which represents a $19,890, or less than 1.0 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $7,069,326.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for OCA included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $2,896 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $23,495 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. CSFL funding for OCA includes a reduction of $709 to account for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor, to reflect fixed costs estimates for Fleet services.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: In Local funds, the proposed budget includes a net increase of $577,554 and 2.5 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) positions across multiple divisions to support salary and Fringe Benefit adjustments. The proposed budget also reflects adjustments made primarily within the City Administrator division to account for the conversion of certain positions from part-time to full-time status. Additionally, the proposed budget includes a net increase of $28,117 to align projected Contractual Services costs with the agency's spending needs.

In Private Grant funds, the proposed budget includes a net increase of $982,901 and 6.0 FTEs to reflect funding from the Laura and John Arnold Foundation to establish a policy laboratory to conduct evidence reviews, data analyses, and experiments to improve policies affecting all District agencies.

In Special Purpose Revenue funds, the proposed budget is increased by $250,000 in the City Administrator division as a result of the implementation of the Public-Private Partnership Act of 2014, which enables the OCA to collect administrative fees from private entities.

Decrease: In Local funds, the proposed budget reflects a net decrease of $605,671 in professional services fees, primarily in the City Administrator division.

In Special Purpose Revenue funds, the proposed budget includes a net decrease of $300,000 and 2.5 FTEs due to a decrease in projected revenue from the agreements with the Not-for-Profit Hospital Corporation (NFPHC) and the University of the District of Columbia (UDC). This revenue covers the OCA's costs for representing the NFPHC and UDC in collective bargaining negotiations.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The Office of the City Administrator's proposed Local budget includes a net increase of $911,426 and 4.0 FTEs. Of this amount, an increase of $352,253 in the City Administrator division supports program operations; a one-time increase of $300,000 supports the Office of Public-Private Partnerships; and an increase of $259,173 and 4.0 FTEs, allocated across multiple divisions, supports the salary and Fringe Benefits costs for a Project Manager in the Office of the Public-Private Partnerships, a Capital City Fellow, and two Program Analysts - one in the Office of Public Works and Government Operations, and one in the Office of Agency Operations.

Reduce: OCA's proposed Local budget reflects a decrease of $93,323 in the Labor Relations and Collective Bargaining division to reflect projected operational savings.

District's Proposed Budget

Reduce: The proposed Local funds budget includes a reduction of $250,000 in the City Administrator division for contractual services in the Office of Public-Private Partnerships.

Agency Performance Plan

The Office of the City Administrator (OCA) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Coordinate multi-agency projects, implement District-wide initiatives, and provide agencies with guidance and support to achieve progress on the Mayor's priorities.
2. Continuously improve DC government programs and services by developing and utilizing rich data, robust performance management, and innovation.
3. Develop and utilize a priority driven-budget process that focuses on efficient and effective use of limited resources.
4. Expand and enhance the use of public-private partnerships to revitalize and expand the District's infrastructure.
5. Foster strong labor relations through good faith engagement with duly elected and authorized employee labor representatives.
6. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Coordinate multi-agency projects, implement District-wide initiatives, and provide agencies with guidance and support to achieve progress on the Mayor's priorities. (4 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Resilient Cities	Help to stand up the 100 Resilient Cities (100 RC) effort in DC. The District was selected as one of the final 37 cities to be inducted into Rockefeller Foundation's 100 RC – a prestigious global network. Membership in the network establishes the District as a leader in the movement toward urban resilience, which challenges government to find new ways to learn and adapt, girding the city against likely shocks, and lessening its susceptibility to chronic stresses.	Key Project

2. Continuously improve DC government programs and services by developing and utilizing rich data, robust performance management, and innovation. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
CapSTAT	CapSTAT takes a deep-dive into important issues facing DC, and works with all stakeholders to develop recommendations to improve programs and services.	Daily Service

The mission of the Office of the Deputy Mayor for Greater Economic Opportunity (DMGEO) is to facilitate investment, job creation, workforce development, and entrepreneurship in underserved communities in the District of Columbia.

Summary of Services

While many neighborhoods across the city have experienced population and economic growth, other neighborhoods, especially those east of the Anacostia River, have experienced the opposite: population decrease, disinvestment, and lower median income than even ten years ago.

DMGEO will help the Mayor prioritize, tailor, and coordinate District economic development tools along with various components of government, to spur growth and expand opportunity in District neighborhoods.

In addition to managing and coordinating a cluster of agencies and functions, DMGEO will work across agencies and operational clusters to:

- Develop and advocate for policies and programs to improve the economic opportunities of overlooked communities;
- Engage residents, businesses, anchor institutions, and other community stakeholders in target communities to improve understanding of needs and opportunities;
- Engage and develop anchor institutions and other local assets that will serve as local epicenters of job growth, neighborhood amenities, and investment;
- Develop partnerships and initiatives that strengthen the District's workforce development system;
- Develop and coordinate interagency initiatives; and
- Identify opportunities for streamlining and aligning programs for the benefit of target communities.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Program Description

The Office of the Deputy Mayor for Greater Economic Opportunity operates through the following 2 programs:

Deputy Mayor for Greater Economic Opportunity – provides strategic oversight and direction to a set of District government agencies and leverages District resources to address chronic inequality challenges affecting residents in overlooked and underserved communities through workforce development, small business development, and community revitalization efforts.

This program contains the following 3 activities:

- Deputy Mayor for Greater Economic Opportunity – coordinates District government entities and leverages District resources to address chronic inequality challenges affecting residents;

- Office of African-American Affairs – provides constituent services and information to the African-American communities in the District of Columbia through programmatic activities and outreach material; serves as a liaison between the Mayor, African-American communities, and District government agencies; and briefs the Mayor and District government agencies about needs and interests of the African-American residents of the District of Columbia; and
- Commission on Fathers, Men, and Boys – provides constituent services and information to the District's fathers, men, and boys community through programmatic activities and outreach materials; serves as a liaison between the Mayor, fathers, men, and boys; and briefs the Mayor and District government agencies about the needs and concerns of the fathers, men, and boys population of the District of Columbia.

Workforce Investment Council – supports functions and responsibilities associated with the Workforce Investment Council.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Workforce Investment – provides workforce education, training, and counseling services to promote job readiness; and
- Workforce Investment Council Board – provides administrative support to the Workforce Investment Council Board, which oversees implementation of the District of Columbia's Strategic Five-Year Plan for Provision of Services under the Workforce Investment Act and provides advice on the development, implementation, and continuous improvement of an integrated and effective workforce investment system.

Program Structure Change

The Office of the Deputy Mayor for Greater Economic Opportunity has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of the Deputy Mayor for Greater Economic Opportunity's (DMGEO) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $3,713,801, which represents an 11.1 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $3,341,304. The budget is comprised of $3,247,030 in Local funds and $466,771 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

DMGEO's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $2,946,655, which represents a $223, or less than 1.0 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved recurring Local funds budget of $2,946,433.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for DMGEO included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $2,635 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $2,857 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: In Local funds, the budget reflects a net increase of $19,822 across multiple programs in personal services to support adjustments to salary and Fringe Benefits.

In Intra-District funds, DMGEO's proposed budget includes a net personal services increase of $71,900 across multiple programs to support salary and Fringe Benefits adjustments within the agency.

Decrease: DMGEO's proposed Local funds budget reflects a net reduction of $19,822 to align the nonpersonal services budget with operational spending goals. This adjustment includes a reduction in supply costs of $37,695 in the Workforce Investment program, partially offset by an increase of $17,873 in the Deputy Mayor for Greater Economic Opportunity program. This net adjustment offsets the increase in personal services costs.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: In Local funds, the agency proposes an increase of $1,300,686 and 8.0 FTEs, which includes: $949,999 and 5.0 FTEs to extend support for the Local Business Utilization (LBU) pilot program that began in 2017; and $350,686 and 3.0 FTEs to provide critical support to the agency's programs and initiatives. Additionally, an increase of $119,340 and 1.0 FTE supports contract and grant management services for the Workforce Investment Council program.

District's Proposed Budget

Reduce: DMGEO's proposed Local funds budget is decreased by $388,664 in the Workforce Investment program to reflect programmatic cost savings for the capacity study for the Local Business Utilization (LBU) pilot program. In addition, the proposed Local funds budget reflects a net personal services reduction of $730,989 and 7.0 FTEs. This adjustment represents the elimination of the LBU pilot program and savings from the reduction of FTEs.

Agency Performance Plan*

Deputy Mayor for Greater Economic Opportunity (DMGEO) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Provide strategic direction and oversight to Department of Employment Services (DOES), Women, Infants, and Children (WIC), Department of Small and Local Business Development (DSLBD), Outdoor Advertising Association of America (OAAA), and Commission on Fathers, Men, and Boys (CFMB) in an effort to strengthen the District's workforce system, support small and local businesses and facilitate community development in overlooked and undeserved communities in Ward 7 and 8. Overlooked and undeserved communities are those communities that have higher unemployment rates, lower educational outcomes, and have higher poverty characteristics than the rest of the city.
2. Actively participate in community revitalization efforts that promote interim usage of vacant and blighted properties in overlooked and underserved communities.
3. Train, retain, and grow small businesses in overlooked and underserved communities in Wards 7 and 8. Small Business are those businesses determined to be small by the Small Business Administration (SBA) and DSLBD.
4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, “What does the agency need to measure to determine success?”

1. Provide strategic direction and oversight to Department of Employment Services (DOES), Women, Infants, and Children (WIC), Department of Small and Local Business Development (DSLBD), Outdoor Advertising Association of America (OAAA), and Commission on Fathers, Men, and Boys (CFMB) in an effort to strengthen the District's workforce system, support small and local businesses and facilitate community development in overlooked and undeserved communities in Ward 7 and 8. The mission of the Office of Risk Management (ORM) is to reduce the probability, occurrence, and cost of risk to the District of Columbia government through the provision of risk identification and insurance analysis and support to District agencies, and by efficiently and fairly administering the District's public sector Workers' Compensation, Tort Liability, and Insurance programs.

Summary of Services

ORM implements its mission through four programs: Risk Prevention and Safety (RPS) formerly known as Risk Identification, Assessment and Control (RIAC); Public Sector Workers' Compensation; Tort Liability; and the Insurance program. An individual summary of services is provided by program in each section.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Program Description

The Office of Risk Management operates through the following 5 programs:

Risk Prevention and Safety (RPS) formerly known as Risk Identification, Assessment, and Control (RIAC) – coordinates the work of Agency Risk Management Representatives (ARMRs) who systematically identify, measure, analyze, and document the District government's exposure to risk. The program also reviews and guides the activities of agency Risk Assessment Control Committees (RACC) relative to risk management plans. The purpose of the RACC is to maintain, in cooperation with ORM, a proactive and comprehensive program of risk assessment and control for agencies that minimizes the frequency, severity, and probability of losses to which agencies are exposed. It also provides training to increase District employees' knowledge of risk prevention, including the creation of Emergency Response Plans (ERPs). ERPs include agency evacuation plans and responses to various hazards, including the threat of terrorism (for example, intentional releases of hazardous materials, use of explosive devices, or acts of arson).

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Risk Inspections and Coordination of ARMRs – pursuant to subchapter XX of the Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act, ORM has inspectors who conduct risk assessment and safety inspections of District government buildings. The inspections are based on federal Occupational Safety and Health Act guidelines and are intended to ensure a safe and healthful work environment for employees and users of District government facilities. ORM also coordinates a Risk Management Council that is made up of ARMRs. The Risk Management Council is intended to coordinate the work of ARMRs to reduce District government risk exposure and to cultivate a culture of risk awareness and management in the government; and
- Risk Analysis – is tasked with using the information and data from ORM's various programs, as well as from members of the Risk Management Council and other sources, to conduct analyses for the purpose of reducing the District's overall exposure to risk.

Insurance – administers the Captive Insurance Agency, which provides medical malpractice insurance to non-profit community health clinics in the District, as well as property insurance for risks to District government real property assets for various hazards. In addition, it works closely with the Office of Contracting and Procurement (OCP) to ensure that contracts have the appropriate insurance requirements. The Insurance program also serves as a general resource to all District agencies wishing to obtain policy and other guidance on protecting the District through insurance and other contractual risk management techniques.

This program contains the following activity:

- Insurance Analysis – administers the three primary goals of the Insurance program, including the Captive Insurance Agency, the review of OCP contracts, and the provision of guidance to District government agencies on risk management techniques.

Public Sector Workers' Compensation – responds to workplace injuries with the best, most appropriate medical care at a reasonable cost, and to return employees back to work as soon as medically possible. Workers' Compensation is a system of benefits provided by law for workers who have job-related injuries or illnesses. The Office of Risk Management oversees the management of the Public Sector Workers' Compensation program through a third-party administrator. Benefits include medical services, vocational rehabilitation, and compensation for permanent loss of use of a body part or function, and death benefits for beneficiaries. Employees are eligible for benefits when an injury or illness arises out of and in the course and scope of his or her employment. The program also oversees a Return-to-Work initiative, which helps employees get back to work as soon as possible after a job-related injury or illness. Return-to-Work is successful when there is communication between the injured worker and his or her agency, a key factor in his or her recovery.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Claims Examination and Management – oversees the processing of claims for public sector workers' compensation benefits that are filed by District government employees; and
- Return-to-Work – coordinates workers' compensation claimants' return to work after they have recovered from their injuries. Claimants are placed into jobs within the District government that are consistent with any modified duty restrictions they may have, or they are connected with job training and vocational rehabilitation services.

Tort Liability – investigates and resolves tort liability claims filed against the District of Columbia. Effective January 20, 2004, the Mayor delegated to the Office of Risk Management the authority to accept notice of claim letters under D.C. Official Code § 12-309. As such, individuals can file claims against the District of Columbia for loss, damage, or injury. An action may not be maintained against the District of Columbia for unliquidated damages to person or property unless, within six months after the injury or damage was sustained, the claimant, his agent, or attorney has given notice in writing to the Mayor of the District of Columbia of the approximate time, place, cause, and circumstances of the injury or damage. Under certain circumstances, reports of the Metropolitan Police Department may also satisfy the notice requirement provided that they contain all of the information required by the statute. The Tort Liability program also pursues subrogation claims against third parties whose acts of negligence have resulted in damage to District government property.

This program contains the following activity:

- Claims Examination – investigates and resolves tort liability claims filed against the District of Columbia under D.C. Official Code § 12-309, and pursues subrogation claims against third parties.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of Risk Management has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The D.C. Office of Risk Management's (ORM) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $3,964,691, which represents a less than 1.0 percent decrease from its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $3,973,395. The budget is comprised entirely of Local funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

ORM's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $3,964,691, which represents an $8,704, or less than 1.0 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $3,973,395.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for ORM included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $11,672 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $2,968 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: The budget proposal for personal services reflects a net increase of $49,542 to support 1.0 Full-Time Equivalent for a Program Support Assistant in the Insurance program to provide tracking and support functions.

Decrease: In nonpersonal services, ORM's proposed budget includes a net reduction of $49,542, primarily in the Agency Management program, based on projected reductions for professional services fees and contracts. This adjustment offsets the projected increases in personal services.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: Office of Risk Management's budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The D.C. Office of Risk Management's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

Agency Performance Plan*

D. C. Office of Risk Management (ORM) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Identify, measure, analyze and mitigate the District government's exposure to risk and liability.
2. Administer the Public Sector Workers' Compensation Program to provide benefits for disability or death of a District Government employee resulting from personal injury sustained while in the performance of his or her duty.
3. Receives and investigates claims against the District government with the goal of negotiating and preparing claims for fair and timely disposition.
4. Collect monies owed to the District as a result of a Third Party tortfeasors whose negligence or intentional acts result in damages and losses to the District.
5. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Identify, measure, analyze and mitigate the District government's exposure to risk and liability. (7 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Risk Analysis and Mitigation	Collaborating with all Agency Risk Management Representatives (ARMRs) on emergency response to determine the areas where the District has the greatest exposure to risk and make recommendations to minimize its occurrence.	Daily Service
Site Safety Inspections	ORM's Occupational Safety and Health inspectors conduct inspections of District owned and operated buildings to ensure that building inspections and follow-up inspections are (a) conducted using Occupational Safety and Health Administration's (OSHA) guidelines and (b) communicated to the Directors and Agency Risk Management Representatives (ARMR's) to ensure that the buildings are safe, healthy, and comply with OSHA standards and regulations.	Daily Service
Review Driving Records	ORM, in partnership with other District government agencies, aims to prevent driver negligence of employees who use a District vehicle for business purposes by obtaining and reviewing driving records. Agencies with high risk drivers are alerted and advised to revoke the employees' driving privileges.	Daily Service

1. Identify, measure, analyze and mitigate the District government's exposure to risk and liability. (7 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Administrator Self-Insurance Program	The Government of the District of Columbia operates as a self-insured entity. When a District agency requires proof of insurance (evidence of self-insurance), the ORM will review and consider all requests for such proof. If the request is approved, a self insurance letter will be issued to the petitioner.	Daily Service
Risk and Insurance Policies	Agencies frequently seek advice from ORM on how to protect the District from risks and liabilities as they carry out agency initiatives, contracts and coordinating special events. A training platform has been developed to review the minimum insurance requirements for contractors and vendors. The following areas were addressed – ORM's purpose, the need for insurance, self insurance programs, the Captive, risk / exposure identification, contract insurance requirements, multiple lines of business and their application, additional insureds, subrogation, Anti-Deficiency Act, indemnification clause, certificates of insurance, contract review, timeline and process for review by ORM.	Daily Service
Real Estate Property Insurance Coverage	ORM, through the Captive Insurance Agency, hired a third-party commercial property insurance broker and purchased commercial property insurance, including terrorism coverage for District-owned property for the purpose of building a stronger District property risk management program through a combination of self-insurance and private insurance.	Daily Service
Mitigate Exposure to Risk And Liability	ORM will be integrating functionality within the ERMS to manage daily operations for each agency.	Key Project

2. Administer the Public Sector Workers' Compensation Program to provide benefits for disability or death of a District Government employee resulting from personal injury sustained while in the performance of his or her duty. (4 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Manage Claims	The primary goal of the Public Sector Workers' Compensation Program is to respond to workplace injuries with the best, most appropriate medical care at a reasonable cost, and to return employees back to work as soon as medically possible. ORM will work with agency partners to analyze and insure injuries are work related through an integrated, active process.	Daily Service
Ongoing Management Of Accepted Claims	Once a claim is accepted, ORM continuously reviews and analyzes medical and loss wage payments for compensability.	Daily Service
Return Injured Employee Back To Work	Return to work simply means helping an employee get back to work as soon as possible after a job-related injury or illness. Through additional concretive efforts ORM will create alternative methods of support in order to return more employees back to work.	Daily Service

2. Administer the Public Sector Workers' Compensation Program to provide benefits for disability or death of a District Government employee resulting from personal injury sustained while in the performance of his or her duty. (4 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Orientations, Trainings And Job Fairs	Returns to work orientations are conducted monthly. The purpose is to educate injured workers on the Return to Work process. Trainings consist of resume writing, basic computer skills, and interview skills. Job fairs are held quarterly, consisting of DC Government agencies and outside organizations who conduct on-the-spot interviews for permanent placement.	Daily Service

3. Receives and investigates claims against the District government with the goal of negotiating and preparing claims for fair and timely disposition. (4 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Administer the Settlement and Judgement Fund	ORM authorizes pre-litigation settlements through its operation of the tort liability program. ORM continues to improve its analysis and review of payments from the settlement and judgement fund.	Daily Service
Claims For Disposition	The claims adjuster will: 1) contact the claimant and the parties involved 2) contact the District agency involved for internal reports and investigative information 3)gather and inspect all relevant information regarding a claim including photos, quotes, estimates, witness statements, etc. 4) enter additional information/investigation details into claims management system 5) determination to accept or reject a claim.	Daily Service
Assess Liability	Coordination with responsible District agencies to determine whether to accept a claim and enter into a pre-litigation settlement or reject the claim. ORM will reach out the involved agency for supporting documentation in order to assess liability. Upon determination of liability, ORM will reach out the claimant directly.	Daily Service
§12-309 Notices	The Tort Liability Division investigates and resolves claims filed against the District of Columbia pursuant to D.C. Code § 12-309. Individuals can file a tort claim against the District for unliquidated losses (property damage or personal injury) arising out of the actions or inactions of the District and/or its employees. Once a claim has been received and logged into the claims database, it is assigned to an adjuster for investigation and handling.	Daily Service

4. Collect monies owed to the District as a result of a Third Party tortfeasors whose negligence or intentional acts result in damages and losses to the District. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Assess Liability	Review District agency incident reports and determine if damages and losses to the District is as a result of negligence or intentional act of a third party. ORM assesses liability pursuant to supporting documentation requested and received from agencies.	Daily Service

The mission of the D.C. Department of Human Resources (DCHR) is to strengthen individual and organizational performance and enable the District government to attract, develop, and retain a highly qualified, diverse workforce.

Summary of Services

DCHR offers executive management to District government officials and agencies by providing personnel-related services to help each agency meet daily mission mandates. Specific services provided include position classification and recruitment services, the interpretation of personnel-related policy, as well as oversight control (such as the adherence to regulatory requirements) for effective recruitment and staffing, strategic and financial restructuring through realignment assistance, and resource management. In addition, the agency provides District government employees with a variety of services, including employee benefits and compensation guidance, performance management, compliance, audit assessments, legal guidance on personnel matters, and learning and development.

Division Description

The D.C. Department of Human Resources operates through the following 7 divisions:

General Counsel (GC) – provides legal support and advice to DCHR management and its various administrations on a wide variety of legal issues to accomplish DCHR's mission. GC also provides legal services and advises District agencies on an assortment of personnel matters arising under the Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act, District Personnel Manual, and other federal and District personnel and employment laws. This division provides legal advice and guidance to both subordinate and independent agencies within the District government regarding matters involving personnel and employment law, and provides litigation support to the Office of the Attorney General and the Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board within DCHR in a variety of pending legal matters. GC conducts legal sufficiency reviews on both internal DCHR documents and external documents to ensure that everything DCHR produces complies with all governing District laws, federal laws, regulations, and Mayor's Orders. Common legal sufficiency reviews include rules and regulations, Bulletins, Instructions, Administrative Issuances, Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs), disciplinary actions, Fitness for Duty requests, employee suitability determinations, wills, guardianship orders, power of attorney, and Qualified Domestic Relations Orders. GC drafts formal responses to Office of Inspector General complaints, drafts initial answers for Office of Employee Appeals matters, drafts position statements in response to complaints filed at the Office of Human Rights, investigates pay claims and overpayment appeals, and provides legal opinions on behalf of DCHR.

Benefits and Retirement Administration (BRA) – is responsible for the service delivery of the District's benefits program and policies for 32,000 benefit-eligible employees and retirees (pre- and post-October 1, 1987). This includes the plan management, contracting, and communication for all health, voluntary, and retirement programs. In addition, BRA oversees the Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board, which makes determinations and decisions on all retirement and survivor benefit claims and cases.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Benefits Operation Unit – provides benefits services that strengthen individuals and organizational performance and assists in enabling the District government to attract, develop, and retain a well-qualified, diverse workforce through the service delivery of the District's benefits programs to all eligible employees and retirees; and
- Police and Fire Retirement Relief Board – provides oversight and support for the Police and Firefighters Retirement Relief Board (PFRRB). The PFRRB hears and rules on optional, disability and survivor cases pertaining to sworn personnel of the Metropolitan Police Department, Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department, U.S. Park Police, and U.S. Secret Service.

HR Solutions (HRS) – provides recruitment, position management, and classification assistance to the District of Columbia government. HRS establishes official classification descriptions, designs and develops classifications, and develops recruitment management policies, procedures, and regulations. HRS delivers expert advice to District government agencies in the areas of classification and classification policies, Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), and recruitment and retention issues. HRS provides assistance to HR Advisors and provides staffing and recruitment support to subordinate agencies delegated recruitment and selection authority, as well as other subordinate and independent agencies, and conducts recruitment.

This division contains the following 4 activities:

- Recruitment and Staffing – provides recruitment, selection, and placement services to client agencies and oversight controls for effective recruitment and staffing, and provides auditing of subordinate agencies delegated recruitment;
- Classification – provides position management and classification support services to District government agencies; provides management and guidance of realignments, reorganizations, and reductions in force; establishes official classifications and descriptions; and develops classification policies, procedures, and regulations;
- Information Technology – provides information technology support for both HR applications and infrastructure, provides help desk support for the HR information system, and troubleshoots and resolves errors; and
- Analytics – provides data to support recruitment and classification strategies for the District, and evaluates reports and data to assist with data-driven decisions for HR solutions.

Learning and Development – provides training, workforce planning, and organizational development programs and activities that increase the knowledge, skills, and competencies of District government employees, to enable them to provide the highest quality and most cost-effective services to the District of Columbia.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Training and Development – provides training and a professional forum for implementing consortiums and programs that increase knowledge, skills, and competencies of District government employees;

- Capital City Fellows - provides central oversight for this two-year training program for recent graduates of master's degree programs in public administration, public policy, urban planning, and related fields while working for the District government; and
- Special Programs – designed to increase the capacity of District employees and the residents DCHR serves. Programs include Executive Leadership program; Certified Public Management program; Thriving in the Workplace program; District Leadership program; L.E.A.P. program; and Residents Services Program.

Strategic Human Capital – provides oversight and full lifecycle management of the strategic human capital planning process. This includes developing organizational strategies, translating strategy into effective and actionable initiatives, analyzing results and workforce data, reporting on achievements, and providing solutions based on results. The division's activities include benchmarking, researching best practices, and completing business process improvement initiatives. Evaluation processes will monitor for targeted success and ongoing results. Reports and recommendations will be developed to enhance processes and ensure achievement of targeted human capital goals in support of District priorities.

Policy and Compliance Administration (PCA) – designs, implements and oversees unified personnel standards to support a safe, effective and best-in-class work environment. The Administration carries out its mission by collaborating with District agencies to develop modern and useful personnel practices, assisting agencies and employees to achieve success through amicable conflict resolution, and auditing and monitoring personnel standards and practices to achieve strategic personnel goals.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Compliance – audits and monitors employee suitability and agency adherence to federal and District laws, regulations and policies to support the District's strategic staffing objections. This includes, among others, ensuring compliance with criminal and drug screening requirements, residency requirements, and professional licensing verification;
- Policy – implements the provisions of the Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act by developing modern and usable personnel tools to ensure a work environment to support superior public service; and
- Compensation – provides expert advice to District government management in the areas of compensation, administration of pay schedules, merit pay, compensation policies, and FLSA.

GROSS FOR BE0 - D.C. DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES		16,029	167.3

(Change is calculated by whole numbers and numbers may not add up due to rounding)

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The D.C. Department of Human Resources' (DCHR) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $16,028,852, which represents an 8.6 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $14,764,934. The budget is comprised of $8,866,053 in Local funds, $415,501 in Special Purpose Revenue funds, and $6,747,299 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple divisions, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

DCHR's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $8,438,418, which represents a $10,633, or less than 1.0 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $8,427,785.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for DCHR included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include an increase of $9,841 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $83 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for DCHR also includes an increase of $708 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor to account for Fixed Costs estimates for fleet services.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: In Intra-District funds, DCHR proposes an increase of $879,731 and 33.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) positions across multiple divisions to support Letter of Intent agreements with multiple agencies to provide criminal background checks, drug and alcohol testing, and other DCHR-related services. The proposed budget also reflects an increase of $9,549, including $5,673 in the Learning and Development division for Supplies and $3,876 in the Policy and Compliance division.

Decrease: In Local funds, the proposed budget includes a net reduction of $253,153 and 5.0 FTEs across multiple divisions for Capital City Fellow positions that were scheduled to end in FY 2017.

The proposed budget for Special Purpose Revenue funds contains a decrease of $13,756 across multiple programs for supplies, and $49,873 in personal services and 1.0 FTE to align the budget with projected revenue.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: In Local funds, DCHR proposes an increase of $251,000 and 1.0 FTE in the Learning and Development program to support the Career Pathing (Building a Stellar Career) initiative. This includes $150,122 to acquire a Talent Management System necessary to build and house an electronic career pathing methodology and $100,878 to fund one new Learning Development Specialist. The proposed budget also increased by $219,268 and 2.0 FTEs in the Policy and Compliance division. The positions are needed to address increased volume in investigation requests to implement compensation and residency auditing, and to decrease processing time of administrative actions in the Drug and Alcohol Screening program. Additionally, the agency proposed a one-time increase of $210,520 and 3.0 FTEs for Capital City Fellow positions, limited to a one-year term, in the Learning and Development program.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The D.C. Department of Human Resources' budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

Agency Performance Plan*

D.C. Department of Human Resources (DCHR) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. DCHR engages District employees to ensure that each person is in the right job and is provided with the right resources to leverage their knowledge, skills, and behaviors to meet District goals and sustain organizational success.
2. DCHR enhances the pathways, programs, and processes to increase opportunities to continuously develop District employees and residents through assignments and activities aimed at advancing their career trajectory.
3. DCHR increases the pool of highly talented individuals with the acumen, aptitude, and attitude to thrive in District government.
4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. DCHR engages District employees to ensure that each person is in the right job and is provided with the right resources to leverage their knowledge, skills, and behaviors to meet District goals and sustain organizational success. (39 Activities)

The mission of the Office of Disability Rights (ODR) is to ensure that every program, service, benefit, and activity operated or funded by the District of Columbia is fully accessible to, and usable by, qualified people with disabilities, with or without reasonable accommodations or modifications.

Summary of Services

ODR is responsible for oversight of the District's obligations under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), as well as other federal and local disability rights laws. ODR provides technical assistance, training, informal dispute resolution, policy guidance, and expertise on disability rights issues to District agencies and the disability community. ODR coordinates the ADA compliance efforts of all District agencies and works with agency ADA coordinators to ensure that the District is responsive to the needs of the disability community and employees with disabilities.

Program Description

The Office of Disability Rights operates through the following 2 programs:

Disability Rights – promotes the accessibility of District of Columbia government programs and services for individuals with disabilities by coordinating and overseeing a District-wide compliance program.

This program contains the following 6 activities:

- Operations – provides overall direction, leadership, and coordination of, and guidance on, activities related to the centralized administrative support system; establishes procedures and protocols for unified operations within the agency; and assists in facilities management;
- Training and Technical Assistance – provides ongoing training and technical assistance to the agency's ADA coordinators and personnel;

- Public Information and Outreach – provides information through published literature, and provides assistance and referrals to individuals who have questions about disability rights or are experiencing obstacles to receiving services;
- Evaluation and Compliance – evaluates the District's compliance with the ADA, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and the disability rights provisions of the Human Rights Act; reports deficiencies to the Office of Human Rights; makes recommendations for addressing deficiencies to the Mayor; and coordinates, facilitates, and supports the Mayor's Committee on Persons with Disabilities;
- Investigations – provides informal dispute resolution into actions or inactions of agencies in alleged violation of the ADA, the District of Columbia Disability Rights Protection Act, and other disability-related civil rights legislation; and
- State Developmental Disabilities Council (DDC) – houses the District of Columbia Developmental Disabilities Council (DDC) and D.C. Commission on Persons with Disabilities (DCCPD). The DDC is a Mayoral appointed body established in accordance with the mandates of the D.C. Developmental Disabilities Basic State Grant Program. It is an independent, community-based advisory committee funded by the Administration on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. It is charged with identifying and addressing the most pressing needs of people with developmental disabilities in the District. The DCCPD advocates on behalf of persons with disabilities and their families to promote inclusive communities and service delivery systems and to provide opportunities for public input, outreach, and education. The DCCPD also facilitates ODR's collaboration with the Office of Human Rights, the Department on Disability Services, and all other agencies, boards, and commissions of the District of Columbia that affect the lives of residents with disabilities to comprehensively implement ADA compliance and training programs.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of Disability Rights has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of Disability Rights' (ODR) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $2,025,623, which represents a 14.5 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $1,769,855. The budget is comprised of $1,105,023 in Local funds, $627,967 in Federal Grant funds, and $292,633 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

ODR's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $1,106,023, which represents a $2,865, or less than 1.0 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $1,103,158.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for ODR included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $170 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $3,723 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. Additionally, a decrease of $687 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor accounts for fleet services estimates.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: ODR's proposed Local funds budget reflects an increase of $37,873 and 1.0 FTE, primarily in the Agency Management program, which will allow the agency to hire a Front Desk Clerk. Additionally, the proposed budget for the Disability Rights program increased by $8,028 to cover projected Telecommunication Fixed Costs.

ODR's FY 2018 proposed Federal Grant funds budget reflects an increase of $105,794 to support projected grant awards from the Developmental Disabilities Council.

In Intra-District funds, the nonpersonal services budget increased by $148,109 to align funding with the revised estimates for ODR's Sign Language Interpretation Memoranda of Understanding with multiple District agencies.

Decrease: The proposed Local funds nonpersonal services budget decreased by $45,901, primarily in the Disability Rights program.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Office of Disability Rights' budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

Reduce: The Office of Disability Rights' budget proposal reflects a reduction of $1,000 in nonpersonal services to account for projected savings in conference fees in the Disability Rights program.

Agency Performance Plan*

Department of Disability Rights (ODR) has the following objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Be a model city of structural, programmatic, and social accessibility for people with disabilities.
2. Improve the responsiveness of government systems and employees to the needs of people with disabilities.
3. Increase employment of people with disabilities in DC government.
4. Expand opportunities for people with disabilities to live in integrated community settings.
5. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Be a model city of structural, programmatic, and social accessibility for people with disabilities. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Effective Communication Program	Coordinate city-wide Sign Language Interpretation services, Braille printing, or other reasonable accommodations for the purpose of communicating with constituents.	Daily Service
Assess District-Owned Buildings	Survey and evaluate District-owned building for accessibility to persons with disabilities and the aging population.	Daily Service
Complaints, Information, Technical Assistance	Provide information and technical assistance to residents, employees, and visitors of the District, as related to Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) laws.	Daily Service

2. Improve the responsiveness of government systems and employees to the needs of people with disabilities. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Agency Database Compliance	ODR requests that all agency ADA Coordinators input all requests for reasonable accommodations and allegations of disability discrimination into Quickbase for ODR review and recommendations.	Daily Service

3. Increase employment of people with disabilities in DC government. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
ADA Training	Provide trainings focused on the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and other law related to the District's disability population.	Daily Service

3. Increase employment of people with disabilities in DC government. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Reasonable Accommodations Oversight	Provide technical assistance and oversight to District government agencies providing reasonable accommodations to its employee.	Daily Service

4. Expand opportunities for people with disabilities to live in integrated community settings. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Olmstead Initiative	Manage the implementation of the city-wide Olmstead Initiative (oversight of reporting and outreach).	Key Project
Outreach and Wellness Events	Provide outreach, education, and information to constituents related to disability issues.	Daily Service

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Be a model city of structural, programmatic, and social accessibility for people with disabilities. (4 Measures)

The mission of the Captive Insurance Agency (“the Captive”) is to provide medical malpractice insurance for local non-profit health centers, as well as property insurance for District government real property assets. The Captive was created by statute in 2008 and is administered by the Chief Risk Officer, Office of Risk Management (ORM). ORM incorporated the Captive and began writing medical malpractice insurance policies in FY 2008. In FY 2014, the scope of the Captive was expanded to include property insurance. The liability of the agency is limited to the funds available to the Captive's participants.

The agency’s FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Program Description

The Captive Insurance Agency operates through the following 2 programs:

Captive Operations – funds the management and insurance policies of the Captive Insurance Agency. The Office of Risk Management underwrites and administers medical malpractice insurance policies to non-profit community health centers and offers gap insurance to Federally Qualified Heath Centers for claims that are not covered by the Federal Tort Claims Act. It also provides property insurance for risks to District government real property assets for various hazards.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Oversight – the Chief Risk Officer, with the advice of the Captive Advisory Council, administers the Captive by hiring a Captive manager and other staff, including legal staff; and
- Growth and Income Strategy and Management – distributes payments and collects premium and interest income on behalf of the Captive for the establishment, operation, and administration of the agency.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The proposed program structure changes are provided in the Agency Realignment appendix to the proposed budget, which is located at www.cfo.dc.gov on the Annual Operating Budget and Capital Plan page.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Captive Insurance Agency's proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $2,320,321, which represents a less than 1.0 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $2,308,123. The budget is comprised of $2,122,921 in Local funds and $197,400 in Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

The Captive Insurance Agency's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $2,122,921, which represents $51,388, or 2.5 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $ 2,071,533.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for the Captive Insurance Agency included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. This adjustment include an increase of $51,388 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: The FY 2018 proposed Local funds budget reflects an increase of $102,969 and 1.0 Full-Time Equivalent to align the budget with projected personal services costs, including support for a new Program Analyst position.

Decrease: The FY 2018 proposed Local funds budget includes a net decrease in nonpersonal services of $102,969 across multiple programs, which offsets the increase in personal services. This amount includes a reduction of $104,040 from the Captive Operations program, offset by an increase of $1,071 to the Agency Management program.

The proposed Special Purpose Revenue funds budget reflects a net decrease of $39,190 in the Captive Operations program, primarily in nonpersonal services, to align the budget with projected revenues.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Captive Insurance Agency's budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Captive Insurance Agency's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

Program Description

The Office of Finance and Resource Management operates through the following 3 programs:

Financial Management – provides financial management services to enable agencies to accomplish programmatic goals and ensure financial health and positive recognition of the agency and the District of Columbia government.

This program contains the following 3 activities:

- Accounting – provides accounts payable and accounts receivable services to cluster agencies; processes all vendor invoice payments ensuring that the provisions of the District's Quick Payment Act are adhered to; reconciles all agency-controlled cash accounts; processes all check payments and cash receipts within 24 hours; processes accounting journal entries for cluster agencies and records all financial events in the accounting system within the required timeframes; manages and directs the monthly, interim, and annual closings; and completes cash drawdowns for agencies with federal grant programs;
- Budget Formulation and Planning – provides and develops the annual budgets in conjunction with the cluster agencies; provides budget execution, financial analysis, forecasting, and reporting functions on behalf of the agencies in the cluster; and approves and tracks all agency obligations and commitments; and
- Fixed Costs – provides timely and accurate fixed costs payments to District vendors and ensures that expenditures are accurately billed to the applicable cluster agency.

Resource Management – performs due diligence analysis to identify financial waste and abuse and accounts for the use of all dollars expended from budgets of client agencies that are related to fixed costs.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of Finance and Resource Management has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of Finance and Resource Management's (OFRM) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $37,533,928, which represents a 2.8 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $36,524,190. The budget is comprised of $24,264,179 in Local funds, $442,218 in Special Purpose Revenue funds, and $12,827,531 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OFRM's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $25,396,673, which represents a $2,017,014, or 8.6 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $23,379,659.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2017 CSFL calculated for OFRM included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $13,388 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analysis, and an increase of $1,486 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for OFRM includes an increase of $120,000 to reflect the cost of the annualization of positions. Additionally, an increase of $1,908,916 for the Fixed Cost Inflation Factor accounts for fixed cost estimates for Telecommunications and Fleet services.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: The proposed budget for Local funds includes an increase of $106,728 across multiple programs to support the costs associated with professional service fees. In the Agency Management program, OFRM proposes an increase of $60,000, which includes $30,000 each for additional Supplies and Equipment.

In Special Purpose Revenue funds, the budget proposal includes an increase of $34,778 in Fixed Costs for telecommunications in the Financial Management program.

In Intra-District funds, OFRM proposes an increase of $235,499 and 1.8 Full-Time Equivalent (FTEs) positions in the Financial Management program to align the budget with projected costs in salaries and Fringe Benefits.

Decrease: OFRM's proposed Local funds budget includes a reduction of $59,451 to reflect projected costs of Fringe Benefits and $104,966 and 0.8 FTE to reflect savings in employee salaries. Additionally, the budget reflects a reduction of $1,134,775 across multiple programs due to projected savings in Telecommunications Fixed Cost estimates that are centrally managed by the agency.

In Intra-District funds the proposed budget reflects a decrease of $145,059 in the Financial Management program based on Fixed Cost estimates for Telecommunication services.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Office of Finance and Resource Management's budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Office of Finance and Resource Development's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

The Office of Contracting and Procurement's (OCP) mission is to procure quality goods and services through a streamlined procurement process that is transparent and responsive to the needs of government agencies and the public, and ensures all purchases are conducted fairly and impartially.

Summary of Services

OCP manages the purchase of $5.2 billion in goods, services and construction annually, on behalf of over 76 District agencies. In its authority under the Procurement Practices Reform Act of 2010 (PPRA), OCP is responsible for both establishing procurement processing standards that conform to regulations and monitoring the effectiveness of procurement service delivery. Procurement processing and management is enhanced by OCP specialists who are assigned to agency worksites to directly collaborate with program staff throughout the entire procurement process. OCP core services include the DC Supply Schedule, Purchase card (P-Card) program, and the surplus property disposition and re-utilization program. And OCP's learning and certification programs support ongoing development of staff proficiency and procurement service quality.

Division Description

The Office of Contracting and Procurement operates through the following 5 divisions:

Procurement – procures goods and services on behalf of the agencies and programs under OCP's authority according to District laws and regulations.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Procurement Management and Support – The procurement staff is divided into 10 units.

  (1) Government Operations
  (2) Public Safety
  (3) Health Services
  (4) Human Services
  (5) Homeless/Youth Human Services
  (6) Transportation Infrastructure
  (7) Information Technology
  (8) Public Works and Fleet Services
  (9) Simplified/DC Supply Schedules/P-Card
  (10) Procurement Operations

- Purchase Card – provides overall oversight and administration of the District's Purchase Cards used in customer agencies. The Purchase Card provides an alternative delegated procurement vehicle that reduces the processing cost and delivery time for purchases within the non-competitive threshold.

Training – facilitates general procurement education for procurement professionals and program agency staff through the Procurement Training Institute. The Institute develops and delivers the curriculum for the District Procurement Certification Program (DPCP) as required by the Procurement Practices Reform Act of 2010 (PPRA).

Operations – provides a range of oversight, administrative, and customer service support for the Office of Contracting and Procurement and customer agencies.

This division contains the following 6 activities:

- Procurement Integrity and Compliance – conducts internal audits and reports its internal audit findings to key stakeholders within the agency; serves as the primary lead for OCP in support of the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) and Single Audit, and performs operational assessments of procurement processes and functions for agencies and teams under the authority of the District's Chief Procurement Officer;
- Operations Management and Support – develops policies and procedures to help employees and other stakeholders work toward common goals, establish intended outcomes/ results, and adjust the organization's priorities in response to a changing environment;
- Customer Service and Communications – engages with OCP's key stakeholders including customer agencies, industry, Council, and District residents;
- Technology Support – provides consultative and technical support to agencies, vendors, and OCP procurement professionals, including user training and report generation; works closely with senior management and the Office of the Chief Technology Officer (OCTO) to implement the latest technologies to promote transparency and accountability to achieve the best results. The OCP IT team also administers the Procurement Automated Support System (PASS);
- Human Resource Management – provides human resource management services that position the Office of Contracting and Procurement to attract, develop and retain a well-qualified and diverse work force. OHR works to advance the agency's mission, vision and strategic priorities through its most valuable resource - its people; and
- Acquisition Management – provides a range of procurement support including data mining, reporting and analysis, project management, and coordination with program agencies for major agency initiatives.

Business Resources and Support Services – provides a wide range of mission-critical services to OCP divisions and the agency's customers. This division executes agency acquisitions, maintains facilities including risk management, and administers the OCP fleet management program. Further, this division manages the District's property disposal program, and in collaboration with OCP's Procurement Division, coordinates acquisition efforts during declared emergencies.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Surplus Property – provides surplus property management, re-utilization, and disposal services to District agencies; and
- Support Services – provides agency acquisition services and facilities management; coordinates acquisition efforts during declared emergencies; manages transportation assets designated for District surplus activities; and administers OCP's record management program.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Division Structure Change

The Office of Contracting and Procurement has no division structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

(Change is calculated by whole numbers and numbers may not add up due to rounding)

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of Contracting and Procurement's (OCP) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $27,144,672, which represents a 47.0 percent decrease from its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $51,201,027. The budget is comprised of $22,839,682 in Local funds, $1,275,966 in Special Purpose Revenue funds, and $3,029,024 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple divisions, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OCP's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $23,426,770, which represents an $18,880, or less than 1.0 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $23,445,649.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for OCP included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $32,365 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $11,717 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. Additionally, an increase of $1,769 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor accounts for fleet services estimates.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: In Local funds, the proposed nonpersonal services budget includes a net increase of $36,574, primarily in the Agency Management division to support IT Hardware acquisitions, contracts, and professional services fees. The agency's Special Purpose Revenue (SPR) budget proposal reflects an increase of $900,966 in Business Resources and Support Service programs to support an additional 7.0 Full-Time Equivalents (FTEs) that were reclassified from Local funds. These personnel will support the online auction of surplus property. The budget proposal in Intra-District funds increased by $648,647 to support personal services costs of an additional 5.0 FTEs, as well as salary step increases and projected Fringe Benefits costs. This adjustment is based on OCP's compliance with the District's Delegated Procurement Authority initiative. Other agencies participating in collaboration with OCP in this initiative include the Department of Health Care Finance, the Department of Employment Services, the Department on Disability Services, the Department of Health, and the Department of Transportation.

Decrease: OCP's proposed Local funds budget reflects a net reduction of $739,377 primarily in the Business Resources and Support Services division due to reclassification of 7.0 FTEs to SPR funds to support online auction of surplus property.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Office of Contracting and Procurement's budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: In Local funds, OCP's proposed personal services budget reflects an increase of $115,716 and 1.0 FTE to support projected salary and fringe benefit costs for an Ombudsman, created pursuant to D.C. Law 21-158, the Procurement Integrity, Transparency, and Accountability Act of 2016.

Transfer-Out: The proposed budget reflects a $25,000,000 transfer of Intra-District funds to the newly created Purchase Card Transaction agency, which was created to better track all purchase card transactions.

Agency Performance Plan*

The Office of Contracting and Procurement (OCP) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Improve procurement service delivery to gain quality and cost efficiency of procured goods and services.
2. Improve planning and forecasting to support strategic business decisions in procurement.
3. Improve procurement training to sustain a highly competent workforce.
4. Improve transparency in contracting decisions and actions to provide reliable information to all stakeholders.
5. Expand industry engagement to ensure that the procurement process is understood and transparent to the vendor community.
6. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Improve procurement service delivery to gain quality and cost efficiency of procured goods and services. (14 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Service Request Resolution	Prompt resolution of IT related issues to ensure consistent productivity.	Daily Service
Vendor Record Maintenance Service	Maintaining a system to track set-up and changes to vendor accounts.	Daily Service
Re-Utilization Cost Avoidance	Repurposing and redistributing acquisition costs, to gain cost savings and cost avoidance.	Daily Service
Tracking Large and Mission-Critical Procurements	Monitoring the acquisition process during the procurement life cycle to identify constraints and implement appropriate technical assistance to keep activities on track.	Key Project
Contracting Officer Scorecard	Identifying the compliance rating for each contracting officer to comply with audit objectives.	Daily Service
Purchase Order Processing	Evaluating the number and value of the workload of purchase orders for procurement personnel.	Daily Service
Property Revenue Generation	The OCP Surplus Property Program is a rigorous e-commerce campaign extended to industry outreach. It is building increased capacity for engaging additional auction bidding, which generates revenue.	Daily Service

1. Improve procurement service delivery to gain quality and cost efficiency of procured goods and services. (14 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
DC Supply Schedule	The DC Supply Schedule (DCSS) is the city's multiple-award schedule for providing commercial products and services to District government agencies. Competitive contracts are awarded to hundreds of suppliers who can provide thousands of products and services to meet recurring needs of these government agencies. Government acquisition personnel (from DC and other jurisdictions in the region) may place task or delivery orders against the schedule following DCSS procedures.	Daily Service
Risk -Based Internal Auditing	The Office of Procurement Integrity and Compliance conducts internal audits and reports its internal audit findings to key stakeholders within the agency; serves as the primary lead for OCP in support of the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) and Single Audit, and performs operational assessments of procurement processes and functions for agencies and teams under the authority of the District's Chief Procurement Officer.	Daily Service
Technology Support	The Procurement Technology Team develops and maintains server applications and multiple SQL databases, updates both Internet and Intranet sites, and improves IT functionality.	Key Project
Management Training	OCP's Resource Management division oversees required management training for managers, in cooperation with the Department of Human Resources (DCHR) Center for Learning.	Key Project
P-Card Utilization	The District of Columbia leverages the P-Card Program as a fast and effective way for agencies to procure goods and services under $5,000 for single purchases. The P-Card Program serves as an alternative method of procurement that reduces the processing cost and delivery time for small purchases. Over 75 agencies within the District use the P-Card Program as a vehicle for small purchases.	Daily Service
Small Business Enterprise (SBE)/Certified Business Enterprise (CBE) Subcontracting Compliance	For contracting parity, any contract executed on the behalf of the District that involves District funds, with exceptions, is legally bound to the 35 percent requirement. Federally funded, General Services Administration (GSA), District of Columbia Supply Schedule (DCSS), Cooperative Agreements, and CBE prime contractors are excluded.	Daily Service
Audit Deficiency Remediation	Single and CAFR audits are conducted for District agencies. Based on findings from external auditors, OCP notifies agencies under the authority of the Chief Procurement Officer (CPO) and their contracting officers of any deficiencies. OCP devises and monitors corrective action plans.	Key Project

2. Improve planning and forecasting to support strategic business decisions in procurement. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Milestone Planning	Contracting Officers use milestone planning to define key tasks and processing requirements, inter-agency coordination and deliverables, and timelines for performing functions through project completion.	Daily Service
Acquisition Planning Improvement	All agencies under the authority of the CPO are required to submit planned procurements annually prior to the start of each fiscal year. This helps OCP anticipate types of purchases, cycle times and resource allocation requirements.	Key Project

3. Improve procurement training to sustain a highly competent workforce. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Procurement Certification Workshop Delivery	Multi-tier workshop series enhance procurement proficiency through competency-based learning for contracting officers and contract specialists.	Key Project
Procurement Foundations Course Delivery	Core training on District procurement rules, regulations, policies, and procedures is required for all procurement staff operating under authority of the CPO.	Key Project

4. Improve transparency in contracting decisions and actions to provide reliable information to all stakeholders. (9 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Published Contracts	Tracking the newly awarded and active contracts in excess of $100,000, which are published on the OCP web site for public access.	Daily Service
Workload Management System	A planned comprehensive information management tool providing timely details on workload, resource allocation and productivity.	Key Project
Update Policies	OCP General Counsel provides oversight for policies and procedures.	Daily Service
Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Requests	Requests for information are received through several means and generally require contracting personnel to gather documents for the FOIA specialist to package. The business process has been improved to tie performance to compliance and legislation therefore minimizing paperwork, reducing response time, and increasing transparency.	Daily Service
Audit Committee	To align management decisions with audit functions.	Key Project
Standardized Human Resources Policies	The Office of Human Resources (OHR) provides human resource management services to attract, develop and retain a well-qualified and diverse workforce. Establishing and maintaining OHR policies and procedures helps maintain the integrity of OCP operations.	Daily Service
Performance Dashboard	The Dashboard will provide a more efficient mechanism for data analysis.	Key Project
Records Management	Maintaining an ongoing monitoring, oversight and records management training for all umbrella agencies.	Daily Service
Transparent Awards	OCP publishes/posts newly awarded and active contracts, in excess of $100,000, on the OCP web site for public access.	Key Project

5. Expand industry engagement to ensure that the procurement process is understood and transparent to the vendor community. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Vendor Engagement and Outreach	OCP will continue its series, OCP in the Wards, which represents business outreach and engagement designed to demystify District procurement practices. DC Buys, a reverse vendor trade fair, monthly vendor workshops and other outreach events will occur.	Key Project

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Improve procurement service delivery to gain quality and cost efficiency of procured goods and services. (8 Measures)

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

Purchase Card Transactions' proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $25,000,000. The budget is comprised entirely of Intra-District funds.

District's Proposed Budget

Purchase Card Transactions was constituted in June 2017, to begin operations in FY 2018, to serve as the agency in which all funds allocated to the Purchase Card program will reside. Prior to FY 2018, these funds were administered through the Office of Contracting and Procurement (OCP) in its Agency Management program.

Transfer-In: The FY 2018 proposed Intra-District funds budget was increased by $25,000,000 due to the transfer of the resources related to the Purchase Card program from OCP.

Note: For more detailed information regarding the proposed funding for the activities within this agency's programs, please see Schedule 30-PBB Program Summary by Activity in the FY 2018 Operating Appendices located on the Office of the Chief Financial Officer's website. "No Activity Assigned" indicates budget or actuals that are recorded at the division/program level.

Division Description

The Office of the Chief Technology Officer operates through the following 7 divisions:

Application Solutions – provides innovative, efficient, and cost-effective application development for the District government and District residents. This division applies standard application development practices to guarantee on-time and on-budget delivery of both custom-built and some selected standard, off-the-shelf software packages. Three activities (Geographic Information Systems, Data Transparency and Accountability, and Interagency Data Integration Services) report directly to the Chief Data Officer and align with the District's call for a smarter government through the use of data. The mission is to improve the quality and lower the cost of District services, through an effective application of data and systems and by making data publicly available to the fullest extent possible in consideration of safety, privacy, and security.

This division contains the following 10 activities:

- Application Services and Operations – consists of multiple management and program management type functions, including agency relationship management and business services, project management, and enterprise contracts. The project management function provides review and approval of IT projects as part of the Project Initiation Phase and during the project life cycle to improve the quality, consistency, and performance of IT projects. The enterprise contract function reviews District-wide technology contracts for cost avoidance opportunities;
- Web Maintenance – establishes, maintains, and implements standards, guidelines, policies, and procedures for maintaining the DC.Gov web portal, which has over 100 District agency websites and is visited over 25 million times a year by District residents, businesses, and visitors. The team creates new websites every year for District agencies and provides centralized content management and fee-for-service webmaster support for District agencies;
- Electronic Document Management – centralizes IT infrastructure support for the various electronic and paper records throughout the District. It provides system administration, maintenance, and application support for agencies using on-premise and cloud-based document management solutions. It is an enterprise solution for the creation, capture, indexing, storage, retrieval, and disposition of records and information assets of the District;

- Applications Quality Assurance – implements industry best practices for independent software and system testing for District government agencies. Provides a wide range of testing services including functional, automation, integration, load and performance testing and User Acceptance Testing for Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) systems, DC.gov websites, Middleware, Service Oriented Architecture (SOA), and applications including mobile applications and dashboards. Testing is critical to ensure any new deployment, upgrades and enhancements meet the requirements, quality and effective performance standards of the products to ensure application software and systems conform to the required specifications and business requirements for high-quality functionality and performance;
- Mission Focused Application Solutions – provides system development, maintenance, and new functional enhancements for the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV). DMV's specific focus will include vehicle registration, driver's license/identification cards, dealer tags, residential parking permits, insurance verification, adjudication, law enforcement services with on-site and back-office services, the DMV web portal, and mobile application development;
- D.C. Geographic Information System (GIS) – provides a geospatial enterprise system comprising data, tools, and a cloud publishing platform, to bring map-based analytics and visualization to District operations, policy-making, and decision-making. The team occupies a mission-critical role in public safety, economic development, education, transportation, city planning, and other operational areas. Additionally, the team maintains detailed geographic data sets, including property records, plan metric maps, and the District's Master Address Repository. The team also provides tools and training that help agencies map and analyze geographic data. Importantly, the data is provided as services that can easily be consumed by agency applications and, when appropriate, by the public via opendata.dc.gov.;
- Enterprise Procurement Application Services – supports the Office of Contracting and Procurement by maintaining and enhancing the Procurement Automated Support System (PASS), which enables purchasing, receiving of goods, and contract compliance for all District agencies (including the District of Columbia Public Schools); and delivers a centralized workflow for the procurement function of the District government;
- Enterprise Human Resource Application Services – operates the Human Capital Management technology used by all District employees and the D.C. Department of Human Resources (DCHR). Maintains and upgrades the system and delivers new functionality as needed to expand and enhance the human resources management and payroll system that serves all District employees;
- Data Transparency and Accountability – this team specializes in the management of tabular datasets including the design and storage of data to optimize the searching, analyzing, and sharing of those datasets across District agencies. The team provides enterprise data warehousing and extract-transform-load (ETL) services to create a centralized hub for the exchange of citywide tabular data. The team also manages the District's collective investment in Business Intelligence (BI) tools and provides training and technical support to agencies seeking to visualize and analyze data via dashboards and reports. Finally, the team provides platforms whereby agencies can share those dashboards and reports with decision makers and the public; and
- Interagency Data Integration Services– OCTO has long operated integration services that facilitate the exchange of data between systems. These include "service oriented architecture suites,""enterprise services buses," and "API gateways." By pulling these services into one standalone program, OCTO will reduce redundancy and capture economies of scale. It is through these existing tool sets and protocols that the geographic data and tabular data curated and managed by the programs above can be most safely and reliably shared across the District government and with our partners.

Enterprise Customer Experience – centralizes the coordination of agency and enterprise-wide customer facing IT functions into one customer experience business unit. The division contains all of OCTO's customer care functions in the same business unit for more effective control, coordination, collaboration, transparency, and accountability.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Strategic Investment Services – provides budget and operational finance coordination and oversight while identifying and monitoring the agency's ongoing priorities and critical new capital investments. The division collaborates with stakeholders outside the agency to comply with District financial policy and procedures. The program is responsible for managing enterprise IT procurement, citywide contract management, and the agency's resource allocation through reliable cost metrics, performance analysis, and benchmarking and profitability models. The program supports strategic decision-making and mission performance through value-added initiatives that transform data into strategic business goals; and
- Digital Inclusion Initiative (DII) – leads OCTO's efforts to foster technology inclusion through outreach and coordination by developing specialized services, public events, and engagement campaigns to empower District residents and small businesses to embrace an expanding digital landscape.

Infrastructure and Communications Technology – provides the technology infrastructure foundation for the entire District government's enterprise technology, including a vast high speed digital network, wireless networking services, telecommunications services, database management, messaging and collaboration services, Cloud services and hosted applications, Citywide IT security services, desktop support and management, mainframe and financial system hosted environments, Network Operations Center, a Security Operation Center, disaster readiness services, inter-government cooperative services, data center-based mainframe services, and state-of-the-art IT systems.

This division contains the following 7 activities:

- Integrated Platform Services – provides "mainframe-based" application hosting, and server-based cross-platform workload automation to several District agencies. For those agencies' mission-critical applications, Mainframe Services provides reliable, secure, and efficient computing environments with sufficient resource capacity to meet their information processing requirements. Mainframe-based application hosting services include virtual environments, operating systems, network connectivity, online transaction processing, databases, security administration, 24x7 monitoring, application diagnostic support, performance and tuning, capacity planning, and disaster recovery;
- Data Center Facilities – maintains the premises for OCTO's data center sites, including facilities operations and upgrade, resource allocation and access control, power management, and site security, with consideration for environmentally-friendly solutions;
- Government Cloud Services – delivers a cost-effective, highly available and scalable cloud computing platform capable of meeting the District's current and future demands. Government Cloud Services currently hosts a myriad of mission-critical web and application systems (approximately 2 petabytes of data, 3,000 virtual servers, and 500 shared databases) that are critical to the business operations of over 80 District agencies. Government Cloud Services' core technology focus areas include designing and implementing enterprise-class cloud computing platforms, shared/centralized database services, enterprise storage, and backup systems;
- Telecommunications Governance – manages a portfolio of approved vendors and contract vehicles to purchase telecommunications products and services, complying with procurement guidelines, and works with all District agencies to monitor and certify telecommunications inventories (e.g. landlines, cellular devices, pagers, and data circuits) to best manage overall telecommunications operations;
- Citywide IT Operations Monitoring – provides around-the-clock monitoring of critical data, wireless, and voice network components, along with server and web applications, for the District government; also provides after-hours and weekend call center services that support multiple agencies;

- DC-Net – supplies a fiber-optic telecommunications platform serving as the core foundation and primary backbone conduit of all technology and telecommunications services used by over 35,000 District employees and manages secure voice, video, and data services throughout the District, supporting District agencies including public schools, public libraries, community centers, health clinics, public safety agencies, administrative offices, and District government public Wi-Fi networks; and
- Citywide Messaging – provides collaborative email services engineering, operations management, and modernization for the entire District government; manages mobile messaging systems engineering and operations; delivers over one million email messages daily to 39,000 electronic mailboxes throughout the District government; completes more than 450 Freedom of Information Act searches per year; implements and manages Citywide Active Directory and Identity Management systems for all user logins; manages centralized LDAP systems for specialized application authentication; and creates specialized mobility solutions.

Security Governance and Operations – responsible for the citywide information security platform and policies as well as credentialing operations and policies for District citizens and employees.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Citywide IT Security Services – manages and maintains an information security architecture that mitigates security vulnerabilities within the District government's technology infrastructure; provides a secure application and network environment for all District government agency systems; ensures compliance with health information security regulations; and provides an array of information security services for all District government agencies and public partners who conduct daily business activities with the District of Columbia government; and
- Identity Management Platform Services – manages the District's identity and access management systems used in support of employees and District residents, and provides PIV-I (Personal Identity Verification Interoperability) solutions for District government agencies seeking to issue and use highly secure (identity assurance Level 4) PIV-I credentials.

Technology Support Services – provides information technology support services to District agencies for agency and District-wide systems. Technology support includes 24-hour helpdesk functions and on-site technician support as requested. OCTOHelps resource allows OCTO, through service-level agreements, to provide around-the-clock support for applications, hardware, and desktop products and services for District agencies with certified technicians who apply industry best practices with industry-level software tools to provide solutions for all end-user computer needs.

Agency Management – provides administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Agency Financial Operations – provides comprehensive and efficient financial management services to, and on behalf of, District agencies so that the financial integrity of the District of Columbia is maintained. This division is standard for all agencies using division-based budgeting.

Division Structure Change

The Office of the Chief Technology Officer has no division structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

GROSS FOR TO0 - OFFICE OF THE CHIEF TECHNOLOGY OFFICER		113,198	375.0

(Change is calculated by whole numbers and numbers may not add up due to rounding)

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of the Chief Technology Officer's (OCTO) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $113,198,132, which represents a 2.9 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $110,000,985. The budget is comprised of $68,875,988 in Local funds, $32,000 in Federal Grant funds, $8,403,693 in Special Purpose Revenue funds, and $35,886,451 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple divisions, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OCTO's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $69,747,972, which represents a $4,144,481, or 6.3 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $65,603,491.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for OCTO included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $39,479 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $940,775 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for OCTO also includes a reduction of $750,000 for the removal of one-time funding to provide assistance for the Department of Small and Local Business Development (DSLBD) to finish building its new enterprise system. Additional adjustments include increases of $1,389,401 to reflect the FY 2018 Operating Impact of Capital costs for Credentialing, Procurement, Enterprise, and DC.GOV web transfer systems, and $2,603,785 to account for Fixed Costs estimates for information technology assessment and fleet services.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: The Local funds budget proposal includes a net increase of $2,468,949 to convert contractors to 35.8 Full-Time Equivalent positions across multiple divisions. OCTO also proposes a net increase of $577,124 across multiple divisions, which includes $673,921 for hardware and software maintenance for IT Security and Infrastructure hardware and software systems, partially offset by $96,797 in cost savings for Supplies.

In Special Purpose Revenue (SPR) funds, the agency proposed a net increase of $152,924 and 2.0 FTEs in the Infrastructure and Communications Technology (ICT) division to align the budget with projected DCNet revenues. Additionally, an increase of $15,741 in the ICT division aligns the Telecommunication fixed costs from the Office of Finance and Resource Management.

In Intra-District funds, an increase of $4,974,032 and 48.2 FTEs across multiple divisions is primarily due to contractual conversions to full-time employees within the divisions. OCTO proposes an increase of $1,352,431 to align the Telecommunications fixed cost budget with projected revenues. The agency's proposed budget also reflects a net increase of $156,346 in Contractual Services to support the demand for information technology-related centralized services and $90,800 for office supplies.

Decrease: The proposed budget in Local funds reflects a decrease of $4,766,110 in Contractual Services across multiple divisions primarily to reflect the conversion of contractual staff to Full-Time Equivalent positions.

OCTO proposes a net decrease of $16,200 in Federal Grant funds for Contractual Services associated with the State and Local Implementation Grant. Funding for the grant expires in FY 2018, and the requested amount reflects the carryover balance from FY 2017.

In SPR funds, a decrease of $1,099,537 across multiple divisions for Other Services and Charges and Equipment and a reduction of $2,818,688 for Contractual Services are based on projected demand for DCNet services in FY 2018.

In Intra-District funds, OCTO proposes a reduction of $2,883,200 across multiple divisions to reflect cost savings for hardware and software maintenance, and for information technology services supported by a Memorandum of Understanding with the District of Columbia Public Schools.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: To support the Disaster Task Force and the Oracle Identity and Access Management (OIAS) platform, the agency proposes an increase of $1,224,078 and 8.0 FTEs in the Security Governance and Operations division. The increase consists of $921,000 and 6.0 FTEs for the taskforce and $303,077 and 2.0 FTEs for OIAS. OCTO proposes a net increase of $693,510 across multiple divisions, which includes: $579,000 to support the Disaster Recovery Taskforce, which is responsible for evaluating District-wide critical applications to prepare and test Disaster Recovery plans for each District application/system; and $332,800 to support the Network Access Control (NAC) program, which allows only compliant and trusted endpoint devices such as Government issued or authorized computers, servers, and Personal Digital Assistants (PDAs) onto the network and restricts access for non-compliant devices to limit the potential danger from emerging security threats and risks; partially offset by cost savings of $218,290 for information technology consulting services. Lastly, the proposed budget contains an increase of $2,922 to cover information technology software maintenance for the OIAS platform in the Security Governance and Operations division.

District's Proposed Budget

Reduce: The proposed Local funds budget includes a net reduction of $1,072,457. This reflects reductions of $125,000 for cost savings recognized in contractual services primarily for citywide monitoring and messaging, $253,366 across multiple divisions for various IT services and applications, and $694,091 and 5.0 FTEs primarily in the Security Governance and Operations division.

Agency Performance Plan*

The Office of the Chief Technology Officer (OCTO) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Enhance the quality, availability, and delivery of information and services to residents, employees, businesses, and government - Better enable agency customers, stakeholders and the public to scrutinize and engage on key Information Technology (IT) decisions and performance.
2. Enable and improve the availability and integration of information - Provide integrated information services across the District and promote the adoption of data, process, and vocabulary standards.
3. Provide a secure and trusted IT environment - Secure critical data and infrastructure using methods consistent with best practices of leading and public and private organizations. Enhance confidentiality, integrity, and availability of IT resources through: Protecting IT assets and resources from unauthorized access or misuse. Enhancing security awareness District-wide. Ensuring that IT security is incorporated into the lifecycle of every IT investment.
4. Implement an enterprise approach to information technology infrastructure and common administrative systems that will foster innovation and collaboration. Establish a basis for consolidated infrastructure to achieve interoperability and communication among operating divisions. Improve the performance of district Information Technology personnel and enable the unification and simplification of similar IT business processes and services within and across operating divisions and maximize the value of technology investments through enterprise-wide procurement and licensing.
5. Achieve excellence in IT management practices - Strengthen District-wide, enterprise-wide processes for collaborative IT strategic planning, capital planning, and investment control. Develop an IT human capital plan to guide the recruitment, retention, and skill development of staff. Establish and maintain IT policies and Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) to ensure compliance with federal regulations and District legislation. Guide citywide IT investments to yield the maximum benefits at the lowest possible costs.
6. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Enhance the quality, availability, and delivery of information and services to residents, employees, businesses, and government - Better enable agency customers, stakeholders and the public to scrutinize and engage on key Information Technology (IT) decisions and performance. (3 Activities)

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, “What does the agency need to measure to determine success?”

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual	FY 2016 Target	FY 2017 Target	FY 2018 Target
Percent of abandon rate for IT Helpdesk calls	No	7%	6.5%	5%	5%	5%
Percent of calls answered in 30 seconds	No	83.8%	76.3%	Not Available	80%	80%
Percent of calls resolved in call center on first call	No	Not Available	85%	70%	70%	75%

The goal of the Department of General Services (DGS) is to ensure the delivery of new or modernized, well-equipped, well-maintained, safe and secure buildings and facilities for the benefit of District residents and employees. Further, the agency's mission is to promote the efficient and effective management of the District's real estate investments and interests through strategic portfolio management, construction, and facilities management. To this end, DGS will incorporate best management practices from both the public and private sectors where useful.

Summary of Services

DGS carries out a broad range of real estate management functions. In addition to managing capital improvement and construction programs for a variety of District government agencies, DGS also executes real property acquisitions by purchase or lease; disposes of property through sale, lease or other authorized method; manages space in buildings and adjacent areas; and provides building management services for facilities owned or operated by the District. Among the services provided are engineering, custodial, security, energy conservation, utility management, general maintenance, inspection, planning, and capital repairs and improvement. In all of its endeavors, DGS is dedicated to the following:

- Achieving Efficiency in Operations;
- Achieving Quality in Design and Execution;
- Achieving Excellence in Service and Maintenance;
- Delivering Secure and Safe Places of Work for District Employees; and
- Delivering Aggressive and Attentive Management of the District's Resources.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Division Description

The Department of General Services operates through the following 8 divisions:

Asset Management – plans and manages the District's real estate to achieve its highest and best use. This division engages in activities such as lease administration, allocation of owned and leased properties to District agencies, property acquisition and disposition, fixed cost forecasting for District facilities, and rent collection from entities leasing District-owned property.

This division contains the following 4 activities:

- Lease Management (DGS Realty) – provides space location and management services for District agencies in both owned and leased buildings;
- Swing Space – provides support for services associated with moving agencies from one space to another;
- Eastern Market – provides for the operations and management of Eastern Market through the revenue-generating Eastern Market Enterprise Fund; and
- Public Education Realty – provides asset management services to public and private entities, allowing access and utilization of school building and grounds by entering into use agreements, licenses, and lease agreements.

Facility Operations – is responsible for the day-to-day operation of many District-owned properties, vacant lots, and homeless shelters. Also acts as a liaison for operating purposes between agencies and landlords in leased buildings by maintaining building assets and equipment; performing various repairs and nonstructural improvements; and providing janitorial, trash and recycling pickup, postal, and engineering services.

This division contains the following 7 activities:

- Postal Services – provides certain postal services to various District agencies in owned property;
- Facilities/Occupancy – includes costs associated with operating DGS-managed District buildings. Specifically, Facilities/Occupancy is responsible for elevator and fire alarm maintenance, landscape, air quality, pest control, HVAC and electrical repairs and maintenance, water treatment, salaries for these services, and other related building services contracts;
- Parking – provides parking space allocation services and parking revenue monitoring services to the District;
- RFK/Armory – provides facilities and security services for Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium and the District of Columbia Armory (non-military portion) based on a Memorandum of Agreement with the District of Columbia Washington Convention and Sports Authority;
- Janitorial Services – includes costs associated with operating DGS-managed District buildings;
- Facilities - Public Education – includes facility maintenance and repair costs for the District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS); and
- Facilities - Parks and Recreation – includes facility maintenance and repair costs for parks and recreation centers under the Department of Parks and Recreation (DPR).

Protective Services – includes the budget for the Protective Service Department (PSD). PSD provides 24-hour security and law enforcement services to government operations by protecting employees, resources, and facilities at District-owned and leased properties. Security includes patrol operations, contract security guard management, and electronic access control and security systems. PSD also assists District and federal agencies during special events and criminal investigations.

Construction Services – implements and manages the public building needs through the Capital Improvements Plan (CIP) for most District government agencies. The CIP outlines agencies' capital needs, including the rehabilitation of existing properties and construction of new facilities. This division ensures the timely and cost-effective delivery of superior quality engineering, design, and construction, as well as a variety of other technical services on all relevant capital development projects in the CIP.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Construction Services – houses the operating budget costs of the division including non-capital eligible positions and administrative costs;
- Office of Planning – works closely with the District's Office of Planning on conducting analysis on the feasibility of construction projects; and
- Public Education Construction Services – houses the operating budget costs of the Public Education activity including non-capital eligible positions and administrative costs.

Contracting and Procurement – provides service and support to DGS (and other agencies as needed) in procuring goods and services that fall into the following categories: construction, architecture, and engineering; facilities maintenance and operation; real estate asset management (including leasing and auditing); utility contracts; and security. Additionally, Contracting and Procurement is responsible for vertical construction procurements for any District agency without independent contracting authority.

Energy – Centrally Managed – contains the forecasted expenditures for utility and energy commodities purchased by DGS: fuel, natural gas, electricity, steam, and water.

This division contains the following 7 activities:

- Auto Fuel – includes forecasting for auto fuel expenditures. The District purchases four types of fuel – Oil, Unleaded Gasoline, E85 Ethanol, and Diesel Oil – that are used to fuel vehicles;
- Heating Fuel – includes forecasting expenditures for fuel used to heat facilities and to fuel generators;
- Natural Gas – includes forecasted natural gas expenditures;
- Electricity – includes forecasted electricity expenditures;
- Steam – includes forecasted steam expenditures;
- Water – includes forecasted water and sewer expenditures; and
- Sustainability D.C. – includes efficiency measures that both (a) reduce demand on resources and support a healthy, productive life for employees and citizens and (b) improve building performance and avoid excess energy consumption. Specific measures that reduce the demand on resources involve enhanced waste diversion from landfills (e.g., recycling and composting), improved storm water management and water reuse, localized urban agriculture, and upgrades to the pedestrian-transit built environment. Specific measures that improve building performance involve capturing and managing highly granular data on building usage by zone, equipment schedules, and specific equipment performance data to guide preventative maintenance and system retrofits. In addition, waste management (including recycling) has been shifted from the facility division to the sustainability activity within the Energy division.

Rent: In-Lease – includes the budget for in-leasing space, which is the cost of leasing non-District government-owned buildings. Rent is comprised of four individual components: base rent, operating expenses, real estate tax, and parking. Each one of these four charges is unique to the terms and conditions of the lease agreement with each landlord.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Division Structure Change

The Department of General Services has no division structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

GROSS FOR AM0 - DEPARTMENT OF GENERAL SERVICES		432,884	671.9

(Change is calculated by whole numbers and numbers may not add up due to rounding)

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Department of General Services' (DGS) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $432,884,392, which represents a 7.0 percent decrease from its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $465,706,956. The budget is comprised of $281,482,831 in Local funds, $8,242,303 in Special Purpose Revenue funds, and $143,159,258 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple divisions, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

DGS' FY 2018 CSFL budget is $300,193,901, which represents a $13,962,123, or 4.4 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $314,156,024.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for DGS included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $58,628 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $564,274 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. Additionally, a decrease of $14,467,770 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor accounts for adjustments to reflect estimates for Fleet services, Telecommunication, and a forecast of DGS' commodities based on historical expenditure trends.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: The Local funds budget proposal for DGS reflects an increase of $850,297 with a net reduction of 0.9 Full-Time Equivalents (FTEs) across multiple divisions to cover projected salary step increases and Fringe Benefits costs. Also, the proposed budget in Local funds includes a net increase of $66,631 primarily to account for projected costs for Rent for District agencies moving to new offices and for renewal of expired rental and lease agreements.

In Special Purpose Revenue funds, the proposed budget includes an increase of $681,160 across multiple divisions. This adjustment primarily aligns funding with projected revenues forecasted for the Eastern Market Enterprise, the Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium maintenance, and the Utility Payment for non-District agencies' funds. Also, this adjustment includes a reduction of 1.0 FTE to align personnel resources with the operational goals of the agency.

In Intra-District funds, the proposed budget includes an increase of $4,148,854. This adjustment is primarily based on revised agreements with certain District agencies' for Fixed Costs charges. DGS maintains Memoranda of Understanding with agencies that have the authority to budget for certain Fixed Costs commodities. DGS makes payments on behalf of these agencies and charges them for this service.

Decrease: The proposed Local funds budget reflects a decrease of $9,922,744 across agency divisions, due to savings primarily in professional services fees, contractual costs, office supplies, and equipment procurement costs.

Technical Adjustment: The budget proposal in Local funds includes an increase of $852,427 in one-time funding to account for the funding of the Soccer Stadium's workforce programs.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The Local funds budget proposal reflects an increase of $1,438,086 in the Protective Services division to cover funding for new training requirements for special police officers.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: In Local funds, DGS' budget proposal includes an increase of $276,000 in the Facility Operations division to support renovations for the Department of Correction's Portal of Entry facility. The proposed budget in Local funds also increased by $10,000 in one-time funding in the Facility Operations division to support the purchase of additional metal detectors for Wilson High School. Additionally, an increase of $8,000 in contractual services, of which $5,000 is one-time funding, supports the surplus disposition notification tool.

Reduce: The proposed Local funds budget reflects reductions of $112,760 in the Facility Operations division due to the elimination of 2.0 vacant FTEs, and $605,776 across multiple divisions to realize cost savings in nonpersonal services. The Local funds budget proposal also decreased by $1,121,230 in the Construction Services division to reflect revised spending projections for contractual services. Furthermore, DGS' proposed Local funds budget was reduced by $10,450,000 in the Rent: In-Lease and Energy – Centrally Managed divisions to account for revised projections in District-wide Fixed Costs estimates.

In Intra-District funds, DGS' budget proposal reflects a reduction of $4,979,385 across multiple divisions to align the budget with projected revenues based on revised District-wide Fixed Costs estimates.

Agency Performance Plan*

Department of General Services (DGS) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Increase efficient and effective management of planning, modernization, new construction, and renovation projects for the District.
2. Improve the cleanliness, safety, and operations of the work environment for District agencies through effective and efficient facility management and maintenance.
3. Increase the safety of employees, residents, and visitors at District owned and leased properties by providing effective management of security and law enforcement.
4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Increase efficient and effective management of planning, modernization, new construction, and renovation projects for the District. (4 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Perform Existing Conditions Assessments	Assessment of mechanical, electrical and structural condition of all District owned facilities conducted on a recurring cycle.	Daily Service
Project Closures	Project close-out procedures and required documents and documentation, to include warranties, Operations and Maintenance manuals, commissioning documentation, Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) certifications, certificate of occupancy, final inspections and final release of liens.	Daily Service
Project Management Services	The Construction Services division manages the planning, modernization and new construction of all capital construction projects (public safety facilities, municipal, education and recreation).	Daily Service
School Modernization, Renovations, And Improvements	The division manages the renovation and new construction of education facilities.	Key Project

2. Improve the cleanliness, safety, and operations of the work environment for District agencies through effective and efficient facility management and maintenance. (7 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Indoor Air Quality	Work request comes through customer service, an inspector is assigned to assess indoor air quality and identify the work need to be performed. Once the work is complete, the unit closes the work order.	Daily Service

2. Improve the cleanliness, safety, and operations of the work environment for District agencies through effective and efficient facility management and maintenance. (7 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Receive, Issue and Complete Work Orders	Customer Response Centers and Building Managers Receive work orders via salesforce, review and assign to appropriate units for processing and action. Once work is complete, the unit closes the work order.	Daily Service
Snow Removal	Provide pretreatment, snow melt application, shoveling. Hauling and cleaning walk ways and sidewalks, drive ways schools, recreation centers and some municipal facilities.	Daily Service
Provide Parking Space Allocation Services	Provide parking management services to District owned parking lots, assign parking and collect revenue.	Daily Service
Maintenance and Repair Services	Provide maintenance repair services for schools, parks, recreation centers and District buildings that are managed by the DGS.	Daily Service
Postal Services	Receives and delivers mail for Executive Office of Mayor (EOM)/Office of the City Administrator (OCA) and other agencies upon request. Implements inter office deliveries and on demand pickup.	Daily Service
Provide Janitorial Services	Provide cleaning services for recreation centers and a few municipal buildings.	Daily Service

3. Increase the safety of employees, residents, and visitors at District owned and leased properties by providing effective management of security and law enforcement. (10 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Inform and Enhance Security Operations	Inform and enhance security operations through engagement with stakeholders and the interagency community. In FY17 DGS will conduct the following tasks:Advise the FSC or working groups on facility security matters. Perform scheduled Assessments and brief tenants on results. Presenting the FSL assessment to the FSC. Evaluate the facility to determine whether the baseline LOP is adequate, or whether a customized LOP is necessary. Provide District employees with security awareness training.	Key Project
Ensure Sustainment of Contract Security Operations	Ensure sustainment of Contract Security operations through an active complianceand monitoring program. In FY17, DGS will continue this effort at the nearly 70 DC Government- owned, leased and managed facilities.	Key Project
Protect District Facilities, Assets, And Visitors	Protect district facilities, assets, and visitors while facilitating the conduct of government business. In FY17, the agency will conduct risk assessments, at least, every five years for Facility Security Level (FSL) I and II facilities and at least every three years for Level III, IV, and V facilities as per the current federal guidelines and best practices.	Key Project
Security	PSD's Patrol Operations provides assigned building security and mobile security support for all District properties and shelters. The Central Communications Center (CCC) provides 24/7 alarm and Closed Circuit Television (CCTV)	Daily Service

3. Increase the safety of employees, residents, and visitors at District owned and leased properties by providing effective management of security and law enforcement. (10 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
	monitoring and overall communications support for all sections of PSD. Threat Management Section (TMS) provides and supports the Enterprise Security Network of CCTV surveillance systems and Personal Identification Card Activity (PICA), along with all resources and equipment for access control activities (X-Ray machines, scanners, and magnetometers) and all requests from outside agencies for security recordings
Post Orders Compliance Review	PSD's Threat Management Section and Patrol Operations conducts contract compliance and quality control inspections for all DGS facilities to ensure contract and personnel compliance with existing building rules and regulations and post orders. Post orders are reviewed and updated.	Daily Service
Security Guard Contracting	The PSD-assigned COTR for each security guard contract responds to District facilities to ensure compliance and conducts security meetings (at least once a month) to interact with security agencies concerning all relevant issues (compliance, invoicing, liquidations, etc.)	Daily Service
Monitoring Security Systems	PSD's CCC and the Security Services Center (SSC), located at John Wilson Building (JWB) provide 24/7 alarm and CCTV monitoring. PSD's Threat Management Section continuously monitors all aspects of the Enterprise Wide Security System.	Daily Service
Execute Direct Staffing at Critical Locations	PSD's uniformed officers are directly assigned to secure critical high-profile DC Government facilities such as the JWB, Consolidated Forensic Lab (CFL), and the Office of Unified Communications (OUC).	Daily Service
Managing Security Guard Contract	PSD's Administrative Support and Patrol Operations Sections, working with the PSD Training Specialist and Strategic Development Specialist, are primarily responsible for managing all matters regarding security guard contract implementation, to include: Statements of Work (SOW), assisting with the preparation of Request For Proposals (RFPs), Special Events (monitoring and preparing MOUs), contract compliance, mediating and monitoring contract liquidations, and moderating regularly scheduled (weekly and monthly) security agency awareness meetings, and invoicing (submission and reconciliation).	Daily Service
Conduct Required Training For All Eligible Officers	PSD's Training Specialist, Administrative Support and Patrol Operations leadership and Strategic Development Specialist collaboratively ensure all aspects of mandated and optional training for all PSD officers, to include: preparing training plans, tracking all training and certifications, In-Service training mandates (by DCMR 6A), Firearm and Weapons training and requalification (performed by PSD's Firearm Instructors), D.C. Code and legal issues.	Daily Service

4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government. (18 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Performance Management	The agency works in close collaboration with OCA to develop performance plan and report key results on the quarterly, semi and/or annual basis. The agency also works with Divisions to increase efficiency through a structured bi-weekly performance review meetings.	Key Project
Resource Allocation	In FY17, DGS will identify unit costs and measure agency outputs across all business functions by continuously evaluating its current business practices to provide the most effective and efficient services and support the facilitation of wise top-level resource allocation decision and implementation strategies. Additionally, DGS will use 95 percent of its resources to execute the agency's mission.	Key Project
Reduce Government Leasing Costs	In FY17, DGS will continue to vigorously monitor upcoming lease expirations with significant impact on the portfolio. DGS will continuously focus on reforming its leasing program.	Key Project
Owned and Leased Properties	Portfolio Division provides a quality workplace environment that supports program operations, preserves the value of real property assets, meets the needs of the occupant agencies, and provides amenities and physical fitness facilities in the workplace when adequately justified in owned or leased spaces. Portfolio Division must promote maximum utilization of District owned workspace, consistent with mission requirements, to maximize its value to the District or alternately turned to leased space to meet the client agencies mission critical work requirements, while reducing leased space costs and optimize physical space.	Daily Service
Collect Rent	Portfolio Division's is responsible for the revenue generation and collection of real property that has been identified as excess to operational requirements. In addition, it is Portfolio's responsibility to assist in identifying properties that may be surplus to their needs. Currently, Portfolio internal controls over the collection and recording of rental income need improvement.	Daily Service
Generate Revenue	Portfolio Division objective is to improve the district utilization of space and therefore increase revenue generations. By introducing innovative Total Workspace initiative, aimed at creating a 21st century workspace throughout the District Government, could generate additional revenue opportunities for the District and reduce costs for other client agencies.	Daily Service
Acquisition Planning and Execution Activities	The department has worked closely with our internal divisions and client agencies to create a detailed and meaningful acquisition plan which aligns anticipated procurements with budgetary resources and strategic plans. The annual acquisition plan will allow the department to forecast the procurement needs of the internal divisions and meet both planned and unplanned procurement needs with greater efficiency.	Daily Service

4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government. (18 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Maintain Files	The Acquisition Services branch within the Contracts and Procurement Division assists management with monitoring and oversight over the file room and contract files. This includes periodically assessing the integrity of file room operational procedures as well as ascertaining whether the file room specialist is implementing efficient and effective records management practices.	Daily Service
Vendor Dispute Resolution	Prospective contractors have the right to protest decisions made by the Contracting Officer. All protests and disputes by the contractor against the District shall be first submitted in writing to the Contracting Officer for a decision. The Contracting Officer will make every attempt to resolve protests and disputes via alternative dispute resolution and informal methods. Any dispute that cannot be resolved by this method may be treated as a formal claim.	Daily Service
Direct Vouchers	Procurement personnel assist in the preparation of release documentation for Direct Vouchers and review contractor invoices and recommend approval by the Contracting Officer.	Daily Service
Purchase Contract Files	Procurement personnel are required to reference a contract file checklist to ensure the completeness of contract files and to validate that key compliance documents are properly documented.	Daily Service
Procurement Actions	Operational reviews and assessments are performed to ascertain whether the District's procurement professionals are complying with the applicable procurement laws, regulations, and policies. In addition, these reviews are purposed to identify high risk procurement issues and areas, provide key monitoring and oversight activities on behalf of management, and identify other issues and/or opportunities for operational and process efficiency.	Daily Service
Produce the Contract Action Report (CAR)	Maintain and update the CAR to track all contract actions processed by Contracts and Procurement Division (C&P's) contract specialists. The data represents all contracts and small purchases touched by contract specialists, whether or not the action is related to a specific contract action (such as de-obligations, funding attribute changes, funding increases to projects after Council approval or new fiscal year monies are available).	Daily Service
Contract Management	Sustainability and Energy Division's (S&E) manages many contracts for various services, including temporary contractors, green and cool roofs, solar and wind power purchase agreements, and on-call service contracts.	Daily Service
Bill Management	S&E receives and processes invoices for all commodities, including electricity, natural gas, water, steam, stormwater, waste, recycling, organics and fuel.	Daily Service

4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government. (18 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Training Workforce On In-House It Applications	Impacted employees will be trained to obtain the knowledge and skills necessary to use the Integrated Workspace Management System (IWMS) of record (ARCHIBUS) and Easy Pay (aka OnBase) to manage data previously managed through other systems, applications, spreadsheets, document, etc. The systematic, hands-on trainings will be tailored to employees based on their role within the agency. They will be trained on ways to enter/key-in, import, view, track, export information/data, and generate reports based on divisional requirements via handouts and training manuals. Contracting Officer's Technical Representative (COTRs) will also learn how to more efficiently process invoices within the mandated time period to properly track vendor payments. The IWMS users will be afforded the opportunity to practice the functions of the system on a test database to gain confidence by the end of the specified user acceptance testing (UAT) period. The mission of the Contract Appeals Board (CAB) is to provide an impartial, expeditious, inexpensive, and knowledgeable forum for the hearing and resolving of contractual disputes, protests, debarments, and suspensions involving the District and its contracting communities.

Summary of Services

The Contract Appeals Board reviews and determines protests of District contract solicitations and/or awards; appeals by contractors of the District Contracting Officer's final decisions; claims by the District against a contractor; appeals by contractors of suspensions and/or debarments; and contractor appeals of interest payment claims under the Quick Payment Act.

Program Description

The Contract Appeals Board operates through the following 2 programs:

Contract Appeals Board (Agency Management) – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Adjudication – adjudicates protests of District contract solicitations and awards, appeals by contractors of District contracting officer's final decisions, claims by the District against contractors, appeals by contractors of suspensions and debarments, and contractor appeals of interest payment claims under the Quick Payment Act.

Program Structure Change

The Contract Appeals Board has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

(Change is calculated by whole numbers and numbers may not add up due to rounding)

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Contract Appeals Board's (CAB) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $1,490,422, which represents a less than 1.0 percent decrease from its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $1,492,391. The budget is comprised entirely of Local funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs/divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

CAB's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $1,490,422, which represents a $1,969 or less than 1.0 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $1,492,391.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for CAB included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $3,306 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $1,250 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. Additionally, an increase of $87 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor accounts for fleet services estimates.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: The proposal in CAB's FY 2018 budget includes an increase of $4,272 in nonpersonal services for office supplies, professional services fees, OCTO IT assessments, and contractual services. The proposed budget also increased by $2,000 to support the procurement and update of office equipment in the Adjudication program.

Decrease: The proposed budget reflects a net decrease of $6,272 to align funding with projected personal services expenditures. This adjustment offsets the proposed increase in nonpersonal services costs.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Contract Appeals Board's budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Contract Appeal Board's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

Agency Performance Plan*

Contract Appeals Board (CAB) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Increase public confidence in the DC procurement process through the efficient, effective, and fair disposition of public contracting disputes.
2. Increase use of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) in resolving cases without the need for traditional litigation models, resulting in faster, more efficient dispositions of cases, and greater party satisfaction.
3. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government through the digital archiving and electronic filing of all Board cases permitting web-based retrieval and full-text searching by the parties with pending cases and the public.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Increase public confidence in the DC procurement process through the efficient, effective, and fair disposition of public contracting disputes. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Open Appeal Cases	Working goal to reduce the number of cases that are three years or older to less than 5% through docket review and strategic resource allocation.	Daily Service

2. Increase use of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) in resolving cases without the need for traditional litigation models, resulting in faster, more efficient dispositions of cases, and greater party satisfaction. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Dispute Resolution	Increase use of ADR in resolving disputes before CAB through researching, developing and applying best practices in mediation and other alternative dispute resolution models. At the inception of each case, CAB encourages mediation/settlement through Scheduling Orders. Further, the Presiding Judge in each case encourages mediation/settlement during the pretrial conference. CAB will continue to build upon its capacity to offer meaningful settlement/mediation opportunities to litigants.	Daily Service

3. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government through the digital archiving and electronic filing of all Board cases permitting web-based retrieval and full-text searching by the parties with pending cases and the public. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Digital Archiving and Electronic Filing	Increase digital archiving and electronic filing of new cases to provide full-text searching and, therefore, greater transparency for litigants, the contracting community and the public. Completion of digital archiving and loading into the database of historical appeal and protest cases permitting web-based retrieval and full-text searching capability by the parties with pending cases and the public, while promoting electronic filing and uploading of documents in all newly filed cases.	Key Project

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Increase public confidence in the DC procurement process through the efficient, effective, and fair disposition of public contracting disputes. (4 Measures)

WORKLOAD MEASURES

Workload Measures, also called inputs or outputs, quantify an activity, effort or process that is necessary to make progress towards the Strategic Objectives. They help answer the question; "How much are we doing?"

1. Increase digital archiving and electronic filing of new cases to provide full-text searching and, therefore, greater transparency for litigants, the contracting community, and the public.

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2014 Actual	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual
Number of archived protest and appeals cases digitized and uploaded to the public website	No	79	26	48
Number of documents filed in new cases	No	1,361	1,346	1,783
Number of new cases filed and processed electronically	No	36	26	33

2. Increase use of ADR in resolving disputes before CAB through researching, developing, and applying best practices in mediation and other alternative dispute resolution models.

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2014 Actual	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual
Number of cases resolved through settlement/voluntary withdrawal	No	43	8	35
Number of Scheduling Orders issued encouraging settlement	No	36	26	33

3. Reduce the number of open appeal cases that are three years or older through docket review and strategic resource allocation.

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2014 Actual	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual
Number of cases resolved	No	79	26	48
Number of new cases filed	No	36	26	33

The Board of Elections, a chartered independent agency, is comprised of a three-member Board along with a small, dedicated staff that carries out the agency's mission. The mission of the Board is to enfranchise eligible residents, conduct elections, and assure the integrity of the electoral process as mandated by both federal and local laws.

Summary of Services

The Board of Elections (BOE) achieves its mission through the execution of the following services and programs: voter registration services; voting system technologies; voter information services including public and media outreach and candidate services; information technology and information services systems that support voting, ballot tabulation, and electronic mapping of election district boundaries; planning and implementation of District of Columbia elections; and through the aid of legal counsel, rule making and adjudication functions.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Note: For more detailed information regarding the proposed funding for the activities within this agency's programs, please see Schedule 30-PBB Program Summary by Activity in the FY 2018 Operating Appendices located on the Office of the Chief Financial Officer's website. "No Activity Assigned" indicates budget or actuals that are recorded at the division/program level.

Program Description

The Board of Elections operates through the following 3 programs:

Board of Supervisors – provides assistance to the BOE in carrying out their duties. This policy-making board manages all activities relating to the BOE, including meetings. The Board members meet a minimum of once a month with the Office of the General Counsel, the Office of the Executive Director, and the Office of Campaign Finance to discuss any situation or concern that the BOE may have.

Election Operations – provides the administrative functions for the agency's overall operations. This program directs election-related program operations and support activities; conducts elections; provides voter registration services; and provides voter roll maintenance, technology and information, and administration and support.

This program contains the following 3 activities:

- Voter Registration – operates the voter registration system; conducts the absentee voter program, including in person, by mail, overseas citizen services, and absentee registration and voting; maintains voter history data; disseminates and provides access to voter registry data products; determines registration status for special ballots and petition signatures; assists in automated ballot tabulation and recount operations; conducts the biennial voter canvass; and executes the statutorily mandated requirements for the management and maintenance of the District's voter registry, including data processing systems support for on-line voter registration;
- Voter Services – provides centralized voter assistance, public reception, and information services; provides candidates with the information and documentation necessary for them to qualify for office, including petitions and declarations of candidacy; administers ballot access procedures for candidates and initiative, referendum, and recall measures; ensures petition sufficiency, voter qualification and eligibility, absentee registration and voting, and documentation for certification of election results; conducts ballot position lotteries and assists in automated ballot tabulation and recount operations; and conducts the in-person absentee voting program; and
- Election Operations – provides central planning, administrative, and logistical support for all agency operations, including those directly associated with the conduct of elections and their subsequent clean-up. This activity is responsible for resource planning and financial management, including budgeting, accounting, procurement activity, and intra-District charges for services; contractual support for elections; and maintenance of agency facilities, specialized equipment, and other material. This activity also coordinates special elections and recall; develops election ballot layouts and design; effects procurement, monitors production, and ensures proper distribution of ballots for each voting precinct; performs comprehensive planning and support to election operations; and ensures that elections are carried out in an open and accessible manner for voters of the District of Columbia.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Board of Elections has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Board of Elections' (BOE) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $8,907,003, which represents a 16.8 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $7,623,411. The budget is comprised of $7,907,003 in Local funds and $1,000,000 in Federal Grant funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

BOE's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $7,580,363, which represents a $43,048, or less than 1.0 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $7,623,411.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for BOE included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $12,176 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $52,648 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for BOE also includes a reduction of $85,000 to account for the removal of one-time funding appropriated for FY 2017 to support ballot access initiatives. Additionally, an increase of $1,480 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor accounts for estimates for Fleet services.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: BOE's proposed Local funds budget reflects a net increase of $444,317 primarily in the Election Operations program to support the planning, administrative, and logistical costs required for agency operations.

In Federal Grant funds, BOE's proposed budget includes a net increase of $1,000,000 in the Election Operations program to align the budget with anticipated funding for the Help America Vote Act (HAVA) grant. This adjustment includes $925,000 to support funding for equipment purchases and maintenance, and $75,000 to support the costs associated with contractual services.

Decrease: BOE's Local funds budget proposal includes a net personal services reduction of $444,317 and 6.0 Full-Time Equivalent positions (FTEs), primarily in the Election Operations program, to offset the increase in nonpersonal services. This reduction is comprised of $327,466 and 6.0 FTEs to reflect savings in employee salaries, and $116,852 to reflect projected Fringe Benefits costs.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The proposed Local funds budget reflects an increase of $215,000 in nonpersonal services across multiple programs. This one-time adjustment is to support the cost of voting equipment and other services needed to ensure the successful conduct of the District's 2018 Mayoral Primary and General Election. Specifically, this funding provides: $25,000 for United States Postal Service (USPS) Intelligent Mail Barcode Solutions; $50,000 to support Ward Coordinators for Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Language Assistance services; $75,000 for rental costs for 50 DS 200 precinct scanners, tabulators and wireless modems; and $65,000 for the rental of 50 Express Votes voting systems and kiosks.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: BOE's proposed Local funds budget includes an increase of $111,640 to support two Voter Registration Specialists in the Election Operations program in accordance with the Automatic Registration Amendment Act of 2016 (D.C. Law 21-0208).

Agency Performance Plan*

Board of Elections (BOE) has the following the strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Increase the percentage of District of Columbia residents registered to vote.
2. Maintain an accurate and up-to-date voter registry.
3. Increase accessibility, public awareness, and knowledge of the electoral process.
4. Leverage technology to improve the efficiency of Board operations.
5. Recruit and train poll workers adequately to fulfill duties and provide excellent customer service to voters.
6. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Maintain an accurate and up-to-date voter registry. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Processing Voter Registration Information Received	Updating voter registry based upon information from voters and other sources.	Daily Service

2. Increase accessibility, public awareness, and knowledge of the electoral process. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Deploy New, Accessible Website	Deploy new, accessible website.	Key Project

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Increase the percentage of District of Columbia residents registered to vote. (1 Measure)

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual	FY 2016 Target	FY 2017 Target	FY 2018 Target

The mission of the Office of Campaign Finance (OCF) is to regulate and provide public disclosure of the conduct, activities, and financial operations of candidates, political committees, political action committees, independent expenditure committees, and constituent service and statehood fund programs to ensure public trust in the integrity of the election process and government service.

Summary of Services

The Office of Campaign Finance processes and facilitates the public disclosure of financial reports, which are required by law to be filed with the OCF; performs desk reviews and develops statistical reports and summaries of the financial reports; encourages voluntary compliance by providing information and guidance on the application of the District of Columbia Campaign Finance Act of 2011 (the Act), as amended, through educational seminars, interpretative opinions, and the OCF website; and enforces the Act through the conduct of audits, investigations, and the informal hearing process.

Program Description

The Office of Campaign Finance operates through the following 2 programs:

Oversight Support Services – provides desk analysis reviews, investigations, hearings, field audits, statistical reports, recommendations, and summaries of all financial reports submitted by candidates, political committees, political action committees, independent expenditure committees, and constituent service and statehood fund programs that focus efforts on ensuring accurate reporting and full disclosure, pursuant to the Campaign Finance Laws, so that the public is well informed and confident in the integrity of the electoral process and government services. The program also provides public information and educational seminars.

This program contains the following 3 activities:

- Public Information and Record Management – provides public information and educational seminars, registers candidates and committees, receives electronically-submitted financial reports, enters financial reports received by hard copy, and compiles summary contribution and expenditure information for publication at the OCF website, so that the public is well informed and confident in the integrity of the electoral process and government service;
- Report Analysis and Audit Division – provides desk analysis reviews, field audits, statistical reports, and summaries of all financial reports submitted by candidates, committees, and constituent service and statehood fund programs that focus efforts on ensuring accurate reporting and full disclosure, pursuant to the Campaign Finance Laws; and
- Office of the General Counsel – provides enforcement by conducting investigations and hearings, and issuing recommendations for decisions on charges of violations of the Campaign Finance Act. The Office of the General Counsel drafts regulations and interpretive opinions that focus efforts on promoting voluntary compliance with the Campaign Finance Act.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of Campaign Finance has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

(Change is calculated by whole numbers and numbers may not add up due to rounding)

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of Campaign Finance's (OCF) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $2,908,335, which represents a 2.6 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $2,833,463. The budget is comprised entirely of Local funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OCF's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $2,803,907, which represents an $29,556, or a 1.0 percent decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $2,833,463.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for OCF included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $2,068 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $1,402 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for OCF include a reduction of $41,358 to account for the removal of one-time funding appropriated in FY 2017 for Information Technology to support various technology updates. Additionally, an increase of $12,468 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor, to account for fixed costs estimates for Fleet services.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: OCF's proposed budget includes an increase of $48,048 to personal services across multiple programs to support projected salary steps and Fringe Benefit costs. This adjustment includes increases of $34,292 in the Oversight Support Services program and $13,756 in the Agency Management program.

Decrease: OCF's budget proposal reflects a net reduction of $48,048 in nonpersonal services, primarily in Other Services and Charges, across multiple programs, to offset the increase in personal services.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The Office of Campaign Finance proposes an increase of $104,428, to support the Office of the Chief Technology Officer (OCTO) and the District of Columbia Department of Human Resources (DCHR) assessments, Data Net, Court reporting, and employee training.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Office of Campaign Finance's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

Agency Performance Plan

Office of Campaign Finance (OCF) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Provide fair, effective, and timely enforcement programs and activities to increase and support the full, accurate, and complete disclosure of documents and actions relevant to the Campaign Finance Act.
2. Provide high quality educational outreach services (entrance conferences, training seminars, publications, and online tutorials) to increase full disclosure and voluntary compliance with the Campaign Finance Act.
3. Provide fair, effective, and efficient audit programs and activities to increase and support the full, accurate, and complete disclosure of documents and actions relevant to the Campaign Finance Act.
4. Provide a high quality web-internet based public disclosure system to receive the online submission of financial reports, and to ensure the availability of campaign finance data and information in a manner that is easy to navigate, search, sort, and retrieve at the OCF Website.
5. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Provide fair, effective, and timely enforcement programs and activities to increase and support the full, accurate, and complete disclosure of documents and actions relevant to the Campaign Finance Act. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Enforcement Program	The Office of the General Counsel provides legal advice and enforcement through the conduct of investigations and informal hearings, and the recommendation of decisions on charges of violations of the Campaign Finance Act; the issuance of interpretative opinions and expedited legal advice; the drafting of regulations and the review of OCF Forms for changes; the conduct of training seminars to promote voluntary compliance; and the coordination of site visits to the election precincts and early vote centers operated by the Board of Elections, and to campaign offices.	Daily Service

2. Provide high quality educational outreach services (entrance conferences, training seminars, publications, and online tutorials) to increase full disclosure and voluntary compliance with the Campaign Finance Act. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Educational Outreach Services	The OCF Educational Outreach Program assists with the coordination of the mandatory training conferences for new registrants, the onsite training seminars, the development of online brochures, interactive tutorials, and online tutorials, and the employee training program. The OCF Training Program also manages and utilizes the OCF Facebook Page as a training tool to disseminate information to the public. The Training Program distributes and evaluates surveys to training participants to assess the content and performance of the trainer.	Daily Service

3. Provide fair, effective, and efficient audit programs and activities to increase and support the full, accurate, and complete disclosure of documents and actions relevant to the Campaign Finance Act. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Audit Programs	The Reports Analysis and Audit Division conducts audit analysis and reviews of all financial reports and statements received in the Agency; issues requests for additional information to filers where deficiencies are noted during the desk review process; conducts full field audits of the campaign operations of newly elected public officials, investigative audits of financial operations based on the receipt of complaints or based upon desk reviews; conducts periodic random audits of the reports filed by the constituent service programs, committees active during an election cycle, and continuing committees; and recommends the issuance of final audit reports based on the findings of full field and random periodic audits. Participates in site visits to election precincts, early voting centers, and to the offices of principal campaign committees.	Daily Service

4. Provide a high quality web-internet based public disclosure system to receive the online submission of financial reports, and to ensure the availability of campaign finance data and information in a manner that is easy to navigate, search, sort, and retrieve at the OCF Website. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Public Information Collection	The Public Information and Records Management Division publishes campaign finance data and information online at the OCF Website, and makes information available in the OCF Offices; compiles listings and reports of contribution and expenditure information published at the website and in the Biennial Report; manages the electronic filing and data entry of financial reports; oversees the registration of new candidates and committees, and coordinates the mandatory training of the new registrants; oversees the OCF e-mail.	Daily Service

4. Provide a high quality web-internet based public disclosure system to receive the online submission of financial reports, and to ensure the availability of campaign finance data and information in a manner that is easy to navigate, search, sort, and retrieve at the OCF Website. (1 Activity)

Program Description

The Public Employee Relations Board operates through the following 2 programs:

Adjudication – provides assistance in resolving labor-management disputes between the District government and labor organizations representing employees of various District agencies.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Legal Support – provides assistance in resolving labor-management disputes between the District government and labor organizations representing employees of various District agencies; and
- Court Appeals – defends appeals filed by an aggrieved party. Also, if the Board's order is reversed by the District of Columbia Superior Court, the Board may file an appeal with the District of Columbia Court of Appeals. Seeks enforcement of the Board's orders.
- Public Employee Relations Board– through Board meetings, provides final resolution of labor-management disputes between the District government and labor organizations representing employees of various District agencies.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Public Employee Relations Board has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Public Employee Relations Board's (PERB) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $1,439,951, which represents a 9.3 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $1,317,934. The budget is comprised entirely of Local funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

PERB's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $1,324,665, which represents a $6,731, or less than 1.0 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $1,317,934.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for PERB included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a increase of $2,135 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $4,303 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for PERB also includes an increase of $293 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor to account for fixed costs estimates for telecommunications services.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: PERB's FY 2018 proposed budget reflects a net increase of $37,997 and 1.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) position to align funding with projected salaries and Fringe Benefits costs.

Decrease: The proposed budget includes a net decrease of $37,997 in nonpersonal services, primarily in the Adjudication program, to offset the projected increase in personal services.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The Public Employee Relations Board proposes an increase of $26,069 in nonpersonal services, to support the Office of the Chief Technology Officer assessment of costs associated with the agency's case management system, and support other agency contracted services.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: PERB's proposed budget includes a one-time increase of $36,959 in Contractual Services to support the agency's website upgrades. The proposal also includes $36,658 to support the agency's website maintenance and "Second Tuesdays" training program, and a net increase of $34,378 in professional services, which includes: a reallocation of $18,778 from personal services to support the agency's use of external counsel and $15,600 to support the Board members' annual stipend increase.

Reduce: PERB's proposed budget includes the reallocation of $18,778 from personal services to nonpersonal services to support the cost of external counsel.

Agency Performance Plan

Public Employee Relations Board (PERB) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Resolve cases efficiently to provide stable labor relations in District agencies.
2. Offer labor relations training and resources to managers and union representatives for a better understanding of their roles and responsibilities.
3. Assist parties to reach mutually agreed resolutions of labor disputes to promote harmony between unions and District agencies.
4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Resolve cases efficiently to provide stable labor relations in District agencies. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Decisions and Orders	Drafting opinions for Board approval.	Daily Service
Conduct Hearings	A hearing before a Hearing Examiner to gather facts for determining whether an Unfair Labor Practice has been committed.	Daily Service
Conduct Elections	Allow employees to choose union representation.	Daily Service

2. Offer labor relations training and resources to managers and union representatives for a better understanding of their roles and responsibilities. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
PERB Labor Relations Institute	The format to facilitate teaching labor relations to DC government managers labor relations specialists and union representative of DC government employees.	Key Project

3. Assist parties to reach mutually agreed resolutions of labor disputes to promote harmony between unions and District agencies. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Mediation	Dispute resolution that may reduce time and cost traditionally associated with these disputes and identify mutually agreeable solutions.	Daily Service

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Resolve cases efficiently to provide stable labor relations in District agencies. (2 Measures)

The mission of the Office of Employee Appeals (OEA) is to render impartial, legally sufficient, and timely decisions on appeals filed by District of Columbia government employees. OEA has jurisdiction over appeals in which an employee has been removed as a result of an adverse action for cause, placed on enforced leave for 10 days or more, suspended for 10 days or more, reduced in grade, or been subjected to a reduction in force.

Summary of Services

OEA offers District government agencies and employees the following three-part appeal process: mediation, adjudication, and petitions for review. The mediation process allows the employee and the agency an opportunity to resolve their disputes without going through the lengthy and costly adjudication process. The adjudication process results in disputes being resolved by an administrative judge who issues an initial decision and finds in favor of either the agency or employee. The petition for review process provides an impartial review of initial decisions by OEA's Board.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Program Description

The Office of Employee Appeals operates through the following 2 programs:

Adjudication – provides mediation sessions, impartial hearings, and adjudication appeals for District government employees who challenge an agency's final decision on personnel matters.

This program contains the following 3 activities:

- Adjudication Process – provides impartial, fair decisions to employees for timely resolution of their appeal;
- Appeals – provides an impartial review by the Office of Employee Appeals Board of the decisions filed; and
- Mediation – provides both parties an opportunity to resolve or settle disputes without going through the lengthy and costly adjudication process.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of Employee Appeals has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of Employee Appeals' (OEA) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $2,129,035, which represents a 17.3 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $1,815,293. The budget is comprised entirely of Local funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OEA's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $1,780,435, which represents a $34,858, or 1.9 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $1,815,293.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for OEA included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $888 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $2,031 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for OEA includes a reduction of $36,000 to account for the removal of one-time funding appropriated in FY 2017 for website upgrades.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: OEA's proposed budget reflects a net increase of $62,013 in personal services across multiple programs to support projected costs related to salary, step increases, and Fringe Benefits.

Decrease: In nonpersonal services, OEA's budget proposal includes a net reduction of $62,013 in the Adjudication program to offset the projected increase in personal services. This adjustment is comprised of: $31,966 in Other Services and Charges, $31,292 in Contractual Services, $1,555 in Supplies, partially-offset by an increase of $2,800 in Equipment costs.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: OEA's proposed budget reflects a net increase of $62,000 in the Adjudication program to partially offset salary adjustments and step increases as a result of the Legal Service compensation legislation. This includes $35,000 in Contractual Services, $25,400 in Other Services and Charges, and $1,600 in Supplies.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: OEA's proposed budget reflects an overall increase of $286,600 in the Adjudication program. This adjustment includes: a one-time increase of $244,000 for website upgrades; $27,000 to support the continued maintenance of the agency's website; and $15,600 to support the costs associated with board member stipends.

Agency Performance Plan

Office of Employee Appeals performance plan has the following objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Render impartial, legally sound decisions in a timely manner.
2. Streamline the adjudication process.
3. Maintain a system to allow the public to have access to all decisions rendered by OEA.
4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Render impartial, legally sound decisions in a timely manner. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Petitions for Appeal	Intake Coordinator reviews Petition for Appeal, determines the type of appeal, and assigns to Administrative Judge.	Daily Service
Petitions for Review	Office of the General Counsel reviews Petitions for Review, drafts the Opinion and Order, and meets with the Board to present the appeal and issue the decision.	Daily Service
Initial Decisions	Administrative Judges process Petitions for Appeal which culminate in the issuance of an Initial Decision.	Daily Service

2. Streamline the adjudication process. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Track Mediation of Attorney Fee Appeals	Develop a system to track mediation of attorney fee appeals to include how many attorney fee cases went through mediation, how long was the mediation process, and what was the outcome.	Key Project

3. Maintain a system to allow the public to have access to all decisions rendered by OEA. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Website	Decisions are uploaded to the agency's website so that the public is able to view the decisions and research the decisions.	Daily Service

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Render impartial, legally sound decisions in a timely manner. (6 Measures)

"Region Forward" is the vision and commitment by the Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments (MWCOG) and its member governments, who together seek to create a more accessible, sustainable, prosperous, and livable National Capital Region. MWCOG's overarching mission is to make "Region Forward" a reality by being a discussion forum, expert resource, issue advocate, and catalyst for action.

In the District's budget, the MWCOG agency represents the District's annual payment to MWCOG.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Program Description

The District's payment to the Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments is reflected as one program in the District's financial system. However, MWCOG operates through the following 9 programs:

Transportation Planning – provides transportation planning for the metropolitan Washington area through the Transportation Planning Board, in cooperation with the area's local governments and federal, state, and regional agencies responsible for funding and implementing highway, bridge, transit, and other projects. Transportation planning is a key part of the Region Forward initiative.

Commuter Connections – coordinates programs aimed at alleviating road congestion and reducing vehicle emissions through ride-matching services, employer outreach, telecommuting programs, integrated ride-share information kiosks, and mass marketing campaigns, to encourage alternatives to driving alone.

Metropolitan Planning and Economic Development – assists local governments in developing the planning databases and analytic tools needed to analyze regional economic and demographic change. The program provides MWCOG member jurisdictions with analysis of current and projected growth trends and provides data to the Transportation Planning Board as it develops transportation plans for the region. This work is also related to the efforts of the Region Forward Coalition, an advisory body whose membership includes area government officials and stakeholder groups representing businesses, nonprofits, and community-based organizations.

Housing Opportunities and Community Management – covers an array of issues that are important to the policy developments of area local governments and their housing authorities. The program provides data on the region's housing stock, Section 8 housing, homelessness, and housing affordability. Both the Region Forward Coalition and the Human Services and Public Safety Policy Committee help direct this work.

Child Welfare – facilitates regional foster care and adoption initiatives to help area children lead happy, healthy, and productive lives.

Public Safety, Health, and Homeland Security – coordinates regional programs and policies on a broad range of issues, including law enforcement, fire safety, public health, and emergency preparedness. The program helps to keep the region safe and healthy by supporting innovative regional policies and programs, developing regional mutual aid agreements, providing technical assistance and training to public safety and health officials, and developing public education and prevention measures. The National Capital Region Emergency Preparedness Council, an advisory body at MWCOG, is responsible for oversight of regional homeland security programs in partnership with Maryland, Virginia, and the federal government. The National Capital Region Homeland Security Program Management Office (PMO) at MWCOG engages regional leaders, emergency planners and first responders, and other subject matter experts in the identification of regional goals and objectives, and the capabilities and projects necessary to achieve them.

Water Resources Planning and Management – facilitates efforts to clean the region's waterways including the Chesapeake Bay, the Anacostia River watershed, and the Potomac River. The program includes water quality management policy, technical analysis, storm water management, water health issues, drought coordination, and water-related homeland security planning. The Chesapeake Bay and Water Resources Policy Committee and the Anacostia Watershed Restoration Partnership also help guide this work program.

Environmental Resources – provides support to local government programs in the region that address solid waste management, recycling, energy, airport noise, pollution, and alternative fuels. The Climate, Energy and Environment Policy Committee guides this work program.

Air Quality Planning – supports the Metropolitan Washington Air Quality Committee, which is certified to prepare federally mandated plans to clean the region's air. This program also tracks pollution levels on a daily basis through the Air Quality Index, provides seasonal forecasts, and organizes public education campaigns.

Program Structure Change

The Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments' (MWCOG) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $519,566, which represents a 5.0 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $494,825. The budget is comprised entirely of Local funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

MWCOG's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $494,825, which reflects no change from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $494,825.

Agency Budget Submission

Technical Adjustment: MWCOG's proposed budget reflects an increase of $24,741 to account for the MWCOG membership assessment rate.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments' budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments' budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

The mission of the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is to enforce the laws of the District of Columbia, provide legal services to the District government, and independently and objectively pursue the public interest.

Summary of Services

The Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is charged with conducting the District's legal business. OAG represents the District in virtually all civil and commercial litigation, prosecutes certain criminal offenses, has sole jurisdiction over juvenile prosecutions, and represents the District in a variety of administrative hearings and other proceedings. In addition, OAG is responsible for advising the Executive Office of the Mayor, the Council of the District of Columbia, and various Boards and Commissions, and for determining the legal sufficiency of proposed legislation, regulations, and commercial transactions. All told, the Attorney General supervises the legal work of about 280 attorneys and an additional 314 administrative/professional staff. As an independent agency with an elected Attorney General, OAG also pursues the public interest.

On November 2, 2010, 76 percent of District voters, acting by referendum, approved a Council-enacted amendment to the District of Columbia Home Rule Act to make, for the first time, the Attorney General of the District of Columbia an elected office. The Council also enacted amendments to local District law designed to establish OAG as an independent agency. Previously, the Attorney General had been appointed by, and operated under the direction of, the Mayor. The overall purpose of the Attorney General Act and the attendant changes to the Home Rule Act was to elevate and strengthen the position of Attorney General, ensure the position's independence, and significantly enhance the Attorney General's ability to serve the interests of the District of Columbia in an objective and independent fashion.

The 2014 election was the culmination of a grassroots referendum that demanded an Attorney General who would be directly accountable to residents and bound to pursue the public interest. As an independent office no longer subordinate to the Mayor, OAG was elevated, strengthened, and empowered to serve the interests of the District of Columbia in an objective and independent fashion.

In FY 2018, with appropriate funding, OAG can expand the depth and breadth of the work it performs in three crucial priority areas:

(1) Providing for the Safety and Security of the District and it's Residents;
(2) Pursuing Affirmative Litigation to Promote the Public Interest; and
(3) Ensuring OAG is a First-In-Class Public Law Firm.

OAG continues to focus on the dual goals of ensuring that it continues to provide high-quality legal representation to the District of Columbia and District agencies while simultaneously serving the public interest by creating programs to address the needs of District residents in new and creative ways.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Note: For more detailed information regarding the proposed funding for the activities within this agency's programs, please see Schedule 30-PBB Program Summary by Activity in the FY 2018 Operating Appendices located on the Office of the Chief Financial Officer's website. "No Activity Assigned" indicates budget or actuals that are recorded at the division/program level.

Division Description

The Office of the Attorney General operates through the following 15 divisions:

Personnel, Labor, and Employment – defends agencies in personnel-related matters such as suspensions, terminations for employee misconduct, and reductions-in-force; provides training and professional development for all OAG employees in order to more effectively fulfill its mission; hires and maintains excellent and diverse staff through on-campus interviews, interviews at job fairs, and traditional acceptance of applications; ensures fairness and diversity in the workplace; processes all grievances related to discipline; and serves as OAG's chief negotiator on collective bargaining issues for the attorney union.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Personnel and Labor Litigation – provides litigation representation and advice services to District government agencies so that they can manage and reduce liability exposure with respect to personnel decisions and minimize fiscal and programmatic impact; and
- Office of the Division Deputy – provides supervision of, and support to, divisional activities, and processes all grievances and unfair labor practice charges brought by the attorneys' union.

Commercial – provides legal services and advice for numerous core governmental functions, from the procurement of essential goods and services and acquisition of real estate through support of economic development efforts and government property management, to the financing of government operations through bonds and collection of taxes.

This division contains the following 5 activities:

- Land Use – provides legal assistance to District agencies with respect to land use planning, zoning, historic preservation, transportation, motor vehicle regulation, and the use of public space;
- Procurement – provides legal services, including legal review and advice to the District government and its contracting officials, so that it can enter into legally defensible contracts;
- Tax and Finance – provides tax litigation and bond preparation legal services to the District government so that it can obtain better financial documents and can recover funds owed from taxes;
- Land Acquisition and Bankruptcy – provides land acquisition and bankruptcy legal services to the District government so that it can recover funds owed from bankruptcy proceedings; and
- Office of the Division Deputy – provides supervision of, and support to, divisional activities.

Legal Counsel – provides legal research and advice to the Executive Office of the Mayor (EOM), the Attorney General, department and agency heads, and occasionally the Council of the District of Columbia; and drafts statutes and regulations for the EOM and the agencies.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Legal Advice – provides legal guidance, counseling, legal sufficiency certification services, legislation monitoring, management and training in the areas of administrative and regulatory law and procedures to the District government and its employees so that they can legally and efficiently accomplish the District government's mission while minimizing risk of adverse legal consequences; and
- Office of the Division Deputy - provides supervision of, and support to, divisional activities.

Child Support Services – authorized under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, this division provides child support services to citizens of the District to enhance the lives of all District children by establishing support orders, enforcing them when necessary, and collecting and distributing the amounts collected to the custodial parents and the children.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Child Support Enforcement Division (CSED) Establishment – provides intake interview and investigatory services to custodial parents so that they can establish paternity, child support, and medical support orders;
- CSED Enforcement – provides support order enforcement services to custodial parents and other legal payees so that they can receive support due under child support orders; and
- Administration/Customer Service – provides support and supervision services to the Child Support Services division to enable it to meet its goals.

Civil Litigation – provides representation for the District of Columbia, its agencies, and employees in civil lawsuits, both jury and non-jury, filed in federal and local courts. Its cases range from simple slip-and-fall and auto accident claims to extremely serious lawsuits, such as medical malpractice resulting in quadriplegia and brain damage. This division handles constitutional challenges to government actions; civil rights actions under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 arising from alleged police misconduct, as well as related common law claims of false arrest and excessive force; and civil rights cases brought by employees and others under Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act (as amended), the Americans with Disabilities Act, and other federal and local anti-discrimination laws.

This division contains the following 5 activities:

- Office of the Division Deputy – provides supervision of, and support to, divisional activities; and

- Civil Litigation Sections I, II, III, and IV – these sections provide litigation, representation, and advice services to the District government, its agencies, and employees so that liability can be minimized and risk mitigated in the numerous civil actions filed against the District and its employees every year.

Public Interest – provides representation for the District of Columbia, its agencies, and employees in complex civil lawsuits including those seeking injunctive relief, those requiring enforcement of agency orders, and contract matters.

This division contains the following 4 activities:

- Equity – defends the District government in complex equity actions seeking temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive relief that may impact the operations of an agency's program;
- Civil Enforcement Section – provides enforcement, protection, representation, and advisory services to the District government and residents so that they can enjoy reduced risk of harm, protection of rights, and monetary recovery;
- Office of the Division Deputy – provides supervision of the Public Integrity Unit and support to divisional activities. The Public Integrity Unit is responsible for civil enforcement of the District's False Claims Act and Nonprofit Corporation Act, federal and District antitrust laws, and other laws that protect the District government, nonprofit organizations, and the marketplace from fraudulent, abusive, and anti-competitive practices; and
- Government Contracts Section – defends the District government in contract matters filed at the District of Columbia Contract Appeals Board and the District of Columbia Superior Court. The contractor disputes include, but are not limited to, challenges to terminations for default, equitable adjustment, and construction delay claims, as well as general breach of contract disputes.

Office of Consumer Protection – receives and mediates consumer complaints, investigates and takes enforcement actions under the Consumer Protection Procedures Act and other District and federal consumer laws, performs public outreach and education, and provides legislative support on issues that affect consumers.

Public Advocacy – focuses on affirmative, public interest civil litigation on behalf of residents of the District, including litigating cases essential to preserving affordable housing and protecting residents from other abuses; and litigating in an array of public integrity arenas, including false claims, Medicaid fraud, antitrust, nonprofit organization abuses, and tuition fraud.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Housing and Community Justice– engages with District residents in order to determine existing community legal needs; addresses nuisance properties using authority under the Drug, Firearm, or Prostitution-Related Nuisance Abatement Act; litigates to preserve affordable housing; develops legal strategies to address other community abuses, potentially to include wage theft;
- Public Integrity - enforces the District's False Claims Act and Nonprofit Corporation Act, federal and District antitrust laws, and other laws that protect the District Government, nonprofit organizations, and the marketplace from fraudulent, abusive, and anticompetitive practices; and
- Office of the Division Deputy – provides supervision of, and support to, divisional activities.

Public Safety – protects vulnerable populations, assists crime victims, initiates legal action to rehabilitate, and when necessary, prosecute juveniles charged with law violations, prosecutes adult misdemeanor criminal offenses within the jurisdiction of the Office of the Attorney General, and protects neighborhoods by prosecuting nuisance property offenses to make District communities safer.

This division contains the following 6 activities:

- Criminal – provides prosecution services, consultation, and other legal representation services to the District government to enhance the safety of the residents of the District of Columbia through the appropriate resolution of cases;
- Juvenile – provides prosecution services of juvenile matters, consultation, and other legal representation services to the District government to enhance the safety of the residents of the District of Columbia through the appropriate resolution of cases;
- Neighborhood and Victims' Services – serves two distinct functions. The prosecutors in the Nuisance Abatement Unit combine civil and criminal remedies to address the quality of life in communities throughout the District of Columbia. The Victim Witness Assistance Unit is comprised of social services professionals dedicated to assisting and supporting individuals who are victims of and witnesses to serious and violet crimes by juvenile and adult offenders;
- Office of the Division Deputy – provides supervision of the Juvenile Specialty Courts Unit, the Special Projects and Litigation Support Unit, the Victim Witness Assistance Unit and support to divisional activities. The Juvenile Specialty Courts Unit handles truancy and juvenile behavioral diversion program cases. The Special Projects and Litigation Support Unit enhances the Division's ability to compile and analyze data, to research and support special initiatives, to coordinate the presentation of the office in many criminal justice and criminal justice-related areas, and to support the litigation of all sections and units in the Division. The Victim Witness Assistance Unit is comprised of social service professionals dedicated to assisting and supporting individuals who are victims and witnesses to serious and violent crimes by juvenile and adult offenders;
- Domestic Violence – provides services to domestic violence victims in the District of Columbia to reduce their risk of harm and protect their rights, thereby enhancing their quality of life; and
- Mental Health – provides representation to the Department of Behavioral Health (DBH) and the Department on Disability Services (DDS) by litigating cases in Family Court. Attorneys in the Mental Health Section represent DBH in all phases of the civil commitment process and represent DDS at admission hearings, commission hearings, annual reviews, and guardianship hearings.

Solicitor General – manages the District's civil and criminal appellate litigation and practices most frequently before the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, and the Supreme Court of the United States. The docket includes appeals in a wide variety of civil, family, criminal, juvenile, tax, and administrative cases from trial courts and petitions for review from District agencies.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Civil and Administrative Appeals – provides appellate representation in a wide variety of civil and administrative cases;
- Criminal and Juvenile Appeals – provides appellate representation in criminal and juvenile cases; and
- Office of the Division Deputy – provides supervision of, and support to, divisional activities.

Family Services – protects the District's most vulnerable citizens -- abused and neglected children -- by representing their interests in Family Court proceedings.

This division contains the following 5 activities:

- Office of the Division Deputy – provides supervision of, and support to, divisional activities; and
- Child Protection Sections I, II, III, and IV – Child protection activities are carried out by four sections. To reduce the risk of harm to vulnerable and at-risk children, these sections protect the rights of children in Family Court proceedings to prevent abuse and neglect by their caretakers.

Support Services – provides for administrative support in the agency, including investigative services.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Support Services and Operations – provides administrative and operational support to the entire office, not otherwise included in the Agency Management program, including procurement and customer service; and
- Investigations – provides investigative support to the litigating divisions of the office.

Immediate Office of the Attorney General – provides overall supervision and guidance to all divisions within the office, pursues the public interest, and objectively and independently serves District residents through its communications and outreach programs.

Agency Management– provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Agency Financial Operations– provides comprehensive and efficient financial management services to, and on behalf of, District agencies to maintain the financial integrity of the District of Columbia. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Division Structure Change

The proposed division structure changes are provided in the Agency Realignment appendix to the proposed budget, which is located at www.cfo.dc.gov on the Annual Operating Budget and Capital Plan page.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of the Attorney General's (OAG) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $101,484,098, which represents a 10.6 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $91,746,877. The budget is comprised of $63,616,335 in Local funds, $23,039,546 in Federal Grant funds, $539,030 in Private Donations, $10,503,720 in Special Purpose Revenue funds, and $3,785,467 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple divisions, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OAG's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $61,384,082, which represents a $75,178, or less than 1.0 percent, decrease from its FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $61,459,260.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for OAG included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $25,781 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $133,715 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for OAG includes a reduction of $183,112 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor, primarily in the following areas: Energy, Telecommunications, Security, Occupancy, and Fleet costs.

Agency Budget Submission

Create: The FY 2018 budget proposal includes increases of $2,080,046 and 15.0 Full-Time Equivalents (FTEs) in Local funds; $10,000 in Special Purpose Revenue (SPR) funds; and $133,795 and 1.0 FTE in Intra-District (ID) funds to reflect funding for the newly established Public Advocacy division. This division will investigate law violations and litigate civil cases on behalf of residents of the District of Columbia.

Increase: The proposed Local funds budget includes an increase of $300,219 to cover increased agency-managed Fixed Costs projections for Energy and Occupancy across multiple divisions.

In Federal Grant funds, the proposed budget reflects an increase of $360,147 and 0.7 FTE to align the budget with projected personal services costs. The Child Support Services (CSS) division's nonpersonal services budget increased by $85,504 due to increased projections for contracts costs associated with the acknowledgement of paternity, vital records, and state disbursement operations; and fixed costs estimates increased by $23,446 to reflect higher projections for Energy and Occupancy.

The proposed Private Donations funds budget includes an increase of $82,798 and 1.0 FTE to align personal services budget with projected costs in the Office of the Attorney General division.

The proposed budget submission in SPR funds includes an increase of $4,249,541 to support infrastructure upgrades for the CSS. These upgrades will include the District of Columbia Child Support Enforcement System (DCCSES), an electronic database that manages all child support case information. This system currently requires significant upgrades to keep pace with changes in federally mandated child support legal requirements. Additional SPR adjustments to the Office of the Attorney General's division include an increase of $1,500,000 to reflect additional funding for the Litigation Support fund. This fund supports costs associated with prosecuting and defending cases on behalf of the District of Columbia. An adjustment was also made to reflect an increase of $545,438 and 7.0 FTEs in personal services to the CSS division, which aligns the budget with projected costs.

The FY 2018 proposed Intra-District funds budget reflects an increase of $586,826 and 1.6 FTEs to align the budget with projected personal services costs across multiple programs. The Public Safety division increased by $17,908 to support revised Memoranda of Understanding (MOU) agreements with the Department of Health and the Office of Tax and Revenue to support litigation matters. The Commercial division also proposed an increase of $3,195 to the ID budget, which will be used primarily to support revised MOU agreements with the Department of Transportation.

Decrease: The proposed Local funds budget reflects decreases across multiple divisions. These adjustments reflect decreases of $44,639 to properly align the Contractual Services budget with actual costs and $122,610 for equipment purchases. A proposed decrease of $2,213,016 and 0.5 FTE aligns the budget with projected personal service costs.

In Special Purpose Revenue funds, a reduction of $10,000 in the Public Safety division enables the agency to redirect the funds to support the newly created Public Advocacy division. The proposed Intra-District funds budget reflects a decrease of $8,450 in the Public Interest division due to a reduction in MOU agreements with the Department of Employment Services and the Department of Health Care Finance.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The Office of the Attorney General's budget proposal reflects an increase of $529,204 and 5.0 FTEs in Local funds across multiple divisions. Among other things, these positions will focus on the litigation of criminal and behavioral health cases on behalf of the District, the filing of appeals to protect vulnerable children in neglect proceedings, and the rehabilitation of juvenile offenders.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The Office of the Attorney General's budget proposal reflects an increase of $1,703,049 and 15.0 FTEs in Local funds. This includes $350,378 and 3.0 FTEs for the voluntary victim-offender mediation program, $278,248 and 2.0 FTEs attorneys to monitor wage theft actions, $163,144 and 1.0 FTE attorney to monitor environmental complaints, and $911,279 and 9.0 FTEs for litigation support and services throughout the agency.

The Board of Ethics and Government Accountability (BEGA) is responsible for overseeing the Office of Government Ethics and the Office of Open Government. The Office of Government Ethics administers and enforces the District of Columbia Code of Conduct. The Office of Open Government enforces government-wide compliance with the D.C. Freedom of Information Act and the Open Meetings Act.

Summary of Services

Specifically, BEGA is responsible for:

- Investigating alleged violations of the Code of Conduct, holding adversarial hearings and, where appropriate, levying sanctions;
- Issuing Advisory Opinions, providing "safe-harbor" for good-faith reliance on these opinions;
- Issuing Advisory Opinions on its own initiative;
- Conducting mandatory ethics training for District government employees;
- Updating and maintaining the District Ethics Manual;
- Receiving and reviewing public financial disclosure statements from public officials and certification statements from Advisory Neighborhood Commissioners;
- Overseeing compliance of certain government employees who must file confidential financial disclosure statements with their agency heads;
- Receiving and auditing lobbyist registration forms and lobbyist activity reports;
- Issuing binding opinions on compliance with the Open Meetings Act;
- Monitoring and providing advice on District agency compliance with the Freedom of Information Act; and
- Assisting government agencies in the implementation of open government policies and practices.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The D.C. Board of Ethics and Government Accountability's (BEGA) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $2,328,719, which represents a 13.1 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $2,059,619. The budget is comprised of $2,178,719 in Local funds and $150,000 in Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

BEGA's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $1,912,202, which represents a $2,583, or less than 1.0 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $1,909,619.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for BEGA includes adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $2,647 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $5,304 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

Additionally, a decrease of $73 for Fixed Costs Inflation Factor accounts for adjustments to fleet services estimates.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: BEGA proposes to increase its Local funds personal services budget by $108,656, which consists of $98,763 for projected salary steps and $9,893 for Fringe Benefits. This increase enables the agency to properly align the personal services budget to include converting 2.0 Full-Time Equivalents from Temporary Full-Time to Continuing Full-Time positions. The budget in Local funds also includes an increase of $5,000 to procure additional supplies for operational needs within the Board of Ethics program.

Decrease: The proposed Local funds budget reflects a decrease of $113,656, which is primarily the result of lower professional services fees. This adjustment offsets projected personal services cost increases.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The D.C. Board of Ethics and Government Accountability's budget proposal reflects an increase of $33,000 to support the agency's operational requirements.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The Local funds budget proposal reflects an increase of $125,517 and 1.5 FTEs. This increase enables the agency to hire a full-time Administrative Assistant to support the E-filing system and a part-time Administrative Assistant for the implementation of the Council's Financial Disclosure Amendment Act of 2016. Other adjustments in Local funds include increases of $58,000 in the Office of the Open Government program to procure additional office supplies and materials necessary for operational requirements, and $50,000 in one-time funding to the Board of Ethics program for upgrades to the E-filing system.

Agency Performance Plan*

D.C. Board of Ethics and Government Accountability (BEGA) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Issue Ethics advice in an expeditious and consistent fashion.
2. Conduct timely and appropriate investigations and enforcement actions.
3. Conduct mandatory training on the Code of Conduct and produce ethics training materials.
4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Issue Ethics advice in an expeditious and consistent fashion. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Render Timely Advice	Work with staff to ensure that ethics guidance is provided to government employees who seek ethics guidance in a substantive and useful manner.	Daily Service

2. Conduct timely and appropriate investigations and enforcement actions. (1 Activity)

The mission of Statehood Initiatives (SI) is to inform the Congress and individual members of Congress that the District meets the standards traditionally required by Congress for the admission as a state of the United States; to monitor the progress of the petition for admission of the District of Columbia to statehood pending before the Congress and report on the progress to the District residents; and to advise the District on matters of public policy that bear on the achievement of statehood.

The agency may employ staff and expend funds donated by private sources for public purposes related to the achievement of statehood and may carry out any other powers or duties as may be provided by law. The Statehood Initiatives Agency reflects the Mayor's submission for the New Columbia Statehood Fund, prepared by the Commission, pursuant to the D.C. Code, § 1-129.32 (f), Establishment of the New Columbia Statehood Fund.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

Statehood Initiatives' (SI) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $233,912, which represents a less than 1.0 percent decrease from its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $234,298. The budget is comprised entirely of Local funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

SI's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $233,913, which represents a $385, or less than 1.0 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $234,298.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for SI included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $1,514 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $1,128 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. Because the net total of the changes is less than $500, the dollar value on Table 5 appears as $0.

Agency Budget Submission

No Change: The Statehood Initiatives Agency has no change from the FY 2017 approved budget to the FY 2018 proposed budget.

Mayor’s Proposed Budget

No Change: The Statehood Initiatives’ budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor’s proposed budget.

District’s Proposed Budget

No Change: The Statehood Initiative Agency's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor’s proposed budget to the District’s proposed budget.

The mission of the Office of the Inspector General (OIG) is to independently audit, inspect, and investigate matters pertaining to the District of Columbia government in order to: prevent and detect corruption, mismanagement, waste, fraud, and abuse; promote economy, efficiency, effectiveness, and accountability; inform stakeholders about issues relating to District programs and operations; and recommend and track the implementation of corrective actions.

Summary of Services

OIG initiates and conducts independent financial and performance audits, inspections, and investigations of District government operations; conducts other special audits, assignments, and investigations; audits procurement and contract administration continually; forwards to the authorities evidence of criminal wrongdoing discovered as the result of audits, inspections, or investigations conducted by the Office; contracts with an outside audit firm to perform the annual audit of the District government's financial operations with the results published in the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) and chairs the CAFR oversight committee; and serves as the principal liaison between the District government and the U.S. Government Accountability Office.

Program Description

The Office of the Inspector General (OIG) operates through these 5 programs:

Operations – includes all external functions of the OIG including these units: Audit, and Inspections and Evaluations. These units comprise these activities:

- Audit – conducts audits, reviews, and analysis of financial, operational, and programmatic functions; and
- Inspections and Evaluations – inspects and evaluates District agencies under defined performance criteria, evaluates management and programs, and makes recommendations relating to improving overall efficiency and effectiveness.

Executive – oversees all agency level divisions including: Office of the General Counsel, Operations, Business Management, Investigations, and Medicaid Fraud Control.

- Executive - oversees all agency level divisions;
- Investigations– investigates fraud and other misconduct by District government employees and contractors doing business with the District Government;
- Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) 25% Match– represents the Local match associated with the MFCU federal grant; and
- Medicaid Fraud Control Unit – investigates and prosecutes cases of Medicaid provider fraud and patient abuse and neglect in Medicaid-funded facilities.

Risk Assessments and Future Planning – aggregates, analyzes, and synthesizes information to identify and prioritize risks facing the District, and synergizes the OIG's work to maximize the value it provides to the District.

Quality Management (QM) – supports the integrity of OIG operations through effective quality review processes.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of the Inspector General has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of the Inspector General's (OIG) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $18,368,064, which represents a 1.9 percent decrease from its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $18,722,457. The budget is comprised of $15,520,513 in Local funds and $2,847,551 in Federal Grant funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OIG's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $15,220,513, which represents a $933,336, or 5.8 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $16,153,879.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for OIG includes a reduction of $1,200,000 to account for the removal of one-time funding appropriated in FY 2017. This reduction is comprised of $200,000 for the conversion of attorneys from Excepted Service to Legal Service and $1,000,000 for one-time support of operational costs of the agency.

CSFL funding for OIG includes adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $8,126 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $78,994 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. Additionally, the CSFL includes an increase of $200,000 for a Recurring Budget Item to support personal services costs, and a reduction of $4,234 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor to account for Fixed Costs estimates for fleet services.

Agency's Proposed Budget Request

The Office of the Inspector General's (OIG) proposed FY 2018 gross budget request is $19,094,564, which represents a 2.0 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $18,722,457. The budget request is comprised of $16,247,013 in local funds and $2,847,551 in Federal Grant funds.

To continue providing quality investigative services for the District, OIG proposed the following FY 2018 budget changes.

Increase: In Local Funds, the proposed budget includes a net increase of $239,889 primarily to reflect projected costs of information technology hardware and software maintenance. Additionally, the OIG's proposed budget includes an increase of $55,990 in personal services across multiple programs to support proposed salary, steps, and associated Fringe Benefits adjustments.

OIG's Federal Grants proposed budget reflects an increase of $376,717 in the Executive program to support indirect cost charges that were not budgeted in the previous fiscal year. The agency budget proposal also includes increases of $58,246 in the Executive program to support personal services for step increases and Fringe Benefits costs and $19,037 to support agency-managed Fixed Costs primarily for Telecommunications.

Decrease: OIG's proposed Local Funds budget reflects a reduction of $60,597 in the Executive program in Fixed Costs, which includes decreases of $56,945 for Rent, $3,280 for agency-managed Telecommunications, and $372 for Occupancy. Additionally, a decrease of $235,280 is made across multiple programs in supply costs.

In Federal Grant funds, the proposed budget decreased by $175,027 in the Executive program for nonpersonal services.

OIG's proposed budget request includes three distinct enhancement requests. These requests are being made to improve OIG's capability to ensure that it meets its legislative mandate to promote economy, efficiency, and effectiveness and to prevent and detect corruption, mismanagement, waste, fraud, and abuse in District government programs and operations. OIG's budget enhancement requests are as follows:

- $340,000 to provide NPS increases to augment its Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) positions with consultants to support its operational units and objectives (Audit, Investigations, Inspections and Evaluations and the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit). Consultants will supplement staff to perform audit activities and inspections and evaluations work and address areas of special skills needed in investigations. Consultants will include, but are not limited to, forensic auditors, forensic computer technology experts, and subject experts in auditing, investigations and evaluations;

- $486,500 to provide an additional 5 FTEs: 2.0 FTEs to the Audit Unit to meet legislative mandates and special projects; 2.0 FTEs to the Investigations Unit to expand workload capacity related to administrative and criminal investigations; and 1.0 FTE to the Office of General Counsel for an attorney to focus on contracts and procurement; and

- $200,000 to reinstate the OIG's FY 2017 enhancement to adjusted salaries for 22 staff. In FY 2017, OIG was granted an $800,000 enhancement that it chose to receive as $200,000 each year over four fiscal years from 2017 to 2020, but the $200,000 was not included in the FY 2018 Maximum Allowable Request Ceiling.

Mayor’s Proposed Budget Recommendation

Enhance: In Local funds, OIG's budget increased by $200,000 to account for salary adjustments to 22.0 existing positions across multiple programs, and by $100,000 for consultants to augment existing staff that conduct audit activities, inspections, and evaluations.

District’s Proposed Budget Recommendation

No Change: The Office of the Inspector General's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor’s proposed budget recommendation to the District’s proposed budget recommendation.

Agency Performance Plan*

Office of Inspector General (AIG) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Proactively identify and reduce vulnerabilities that could lead to corruption, fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement.
2. Integrate plans, processes, and resources to support organizational accountability.
3. Deliver actionable, relevant, and timely products and services to customers and stakeholders that promote economic, efficient, and effective government.
4. Implement an information and knowledge management system that supports the OIG mission.
5. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Proactively identify and reduce vulnerabilities that could lead to corruption, fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Oversight Work	Conduct audits, investigations, and inspections based on proactively identified leads and indicators	Daily Service
Hotline Program	Operate a hotline program to aid in identifying and evaluating allegations of corruption, fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement	Daily Service
Reduce Misconduct	Forward to the appropriate authority any report, as a result of any audit, inspection or investigation conducted by the office, in order to reduce misconduct or unethical behavior	Daily Service

2. Integrate plans, processes, and resources to support organizational accountability. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Spending Plans	Develop spending plans to ensure appropriated resources are used efficiently and effectively to support organizational accountability and are in compliance with District regulations	Daily Service
OIG Policies and Procedures	Integrate internal OIG policies and procedures to ensure the OIG executes its mission in compliance with applicable standards to support organizational accountability	Key Project
Performance Excellence	Implement a performance assessment/excellence framework within the OIG to ensure continuous improvement	Key Project

3. Deliver actionable, relevant, and timely products and services to customers and stakeholders that promote economic, efficient, and effective government. (4 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Conduct Independent Audits	Initiate and conduct independent financial and performance audits, inspections, and investigations of District government operations	Daily Service
Annual District Audit	Contract with an outside audit firm to perform the annual audit of the District government's financial operations with the results published in the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) and chair the CAFR oversight committee	Key Project
US Government Accountability Office (GAO) Liaison	Serve as the principal liaison between the District government and the GAO	Key Project
Reporting Evidence of Wrongdoing	Forward to the Mayor, within a reasonable time for reporting evidence of criminal wrongdoing to the Office of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia, or other law enforcement office, any report regarding the evidence, if appropriate	Daily Service

4. Implement an information and knowledge management system that supports the OIG mission. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Information Management System	Collect, process, and communicate information to enable the agency's leadership team to make more effective and efficient decisions	Key Project
Knowledge Management System	Manage agency knowledge to improve performance and achieve the OIG mission	Key Project
Information Security	Establish and maintain digital and physical security controls to protect critical information and knowledge assets from unauthorized access	Key Project

5. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Staffing Assessments	Assess current staffing to ensure it meets the OIG's mission and vision	Key Project

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Proactively identify and reduce vulnerabilities that could lead to corruption, fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement. (3 Measures)

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual	FY 2016 Target	FY 2017 Target	FY 2018 Target
Percent of contacts evaluated and appropriate course or action determined within 10 business days of receipt by RAFP hotline program	No	Not Available	87%	Not Available	95%	95%

The mission of the Office of the Chief Financial Officer (OCFO) is to provide financial management services to the government and the people of the District of Columbia to sustain the District's long-term fiscal and economic viability.

Summary of Services

The Office of the Chief Financial Officer provides enhanced fiscal and financial stability, accountability, and integrity for the Government of the District of Columbia. The OCFO ensures that District spending levels remain within approved budgets and available revenues for each fiscal year, so that spending deficits do not occur; maintains adequate cash balances; minimizes receivables balances; manages the District's debt and finances in a manner that provides optimal opportunities to maximize bond ratings and minimize the cost of borrowed capital; ensures that the ratio of total debt service to General Fund expenditures remains within a maximum of 12 percent; improves tax payment compliance by increasing collections from the accounts receivable balance and the non-filer population, as measured by percentage change in delinquent collections; develops and supports financial management systems that provide accurate and timely information; and produces the District's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) on time with an unqualified (clean) opinion.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Note: For more detailed information regarding the proposed funding for the activities within this agency's programs, please see Schedule 30-PBB Program Summary by Activity in the FY 2018 Operating Appendices located on the Office of the Chief Financial Officer's website. "No Activity Assigned" indicates budget or actuals that are recorded at the division/program level.

Program Description

The Office of the Chief Financial Officer operates through the following 9 programs:

Financial Operations and Systems – carries out the District's accounting operations, including critical functions such as District-wide General Ledger accounting, financial reporting, and pay and retirement services. The program produces the CAFR, which shows the District's financial position at the end of each fiscal year. The program also develops accounting policies and procedures; policies that support the System of Accounting and Reporting (SOAR), the District's formal book of record; and policies and procedures for other areas of financial management throughout the OCFO.

This program contains the following 6 activities:

- Operations and Administration – provides leadership, general program management, personnel, procurement, automated accounting system access security, fixed asset accountability, and other logistical support services to Office of Financial Operations and Systems staff for general accounting services, specialized accounting systems management, payroll, financial reporting, accounting policies and procedures, and benefits administration for employees, agencies, and District leaders for their use in decision-making. Additionally, this activity provides citizens with financial information so that they can keep abreast of the District's financial position;
- Accounting Operations – provides District-wide General Ledger accounting in order to maintain the official automated book of record on which the financial position of the District is ascertained for the District's elected and appointed leaders, Congress, District agencies (directors, financial managers, and employees), public and private financial communities, and the general public. This activity ensures timely and accurate information on the District's financial position and facilities to decision-makers;
- Financial Policies and Procedures – provides recorded references for standard government accounting practices (policies and theories) and guidelines for operation (procedures and process flows) of the District's daily accounting functions and the supporting automated system of record to ensure that accounting and financial managers and their staff follow the District's financial policy and procedures;
- Financial Control and Reporting – provides statements of financial position for the Mayor, Council of the District of Columbia, Congress, District managers, national bond-rating agencies, and the general public to enable informed decisions based on timely and accurate financial information;

- Federal Annuitant Benefits Administration – provides accurate and timely annuity payments and related benefits to former and retired federal law enforcement officers; and
- Payroll Disbursements and Wage Reporting – provides a record of compensation and related payments to District employees with accurate and timely paychecks.

Budget and Planning (Budget Development and Execution) – prepares, monitors, analyzes, and executes the District government's budget, including operating, capital, and enterprise funds, in a manner that facilitates fiscal integrity and maximizes services to taxpayers. This program also provides advice to policy-makers on the District government's budget and has the primary responsibility for ensuring that the budget is balanced at the time of budget formulation, and maintaining that balance throughout the year as the budget is executed.

This program contains the following 4 activities:

- Executive Direction and Support – provides general program management, leadership, technical assistance, and support services to Office of Budget and Planning staff and other District government personnel facilitating financial planning, budgetary performance, and cost analysis to enable them to make effective decisions and achieve strategic goals. This activity also provides citizens with information on District finances;
- Financial Planning and Analysis – monitors and analyzes the District's budget and expenditures; provides technical support for the District's Anti-Deficiency Board; provides technical support of system applications to District staff; and coordinates and monitors the District's Financial Review Process (FRP) by ensuring the timely submission of agencies' FRP reports, which include expenditure forecasts. This activity also develops and reports on budget revisions, intra-District modifications, and monthly operating budget expenditures; analyzes and forecasts compensation costs; provides historical information for bond issuance statements; provides supporting budget documentation to auditors; and prepares the District's five-year Financial Plan for the budget books;
- Operating Budget Formulation and Development – provides the framework for formulation of the District's annual operating budget; publishes the operating budget on behalf of the Mayor and the District; executes the operating budget during the fiscal year; monitors agency spending, including analysis of spending pressures; reviews and approves federal and private grant budget authority requests from District agency heads; and provides other financial and budgetary services to the Mayor, Council, and other stakeholders on a timely and accurate basis enabling District officials to make informed decisions on allocations of District operating resources among policy priorities; and
- Capital Budget Formulation and Development – provides the framework for formulation of the District's 6-year capital budget; publishes the capital budget on behalf of the Mayor and the District; executes the capital budget during the fiscal year; provides detailed reviews of available capital financing and aligns such financing with the District's annual capital funds budget authority within the debt cap; and provides other financial and budgetary services to the Mayor and Council on a timely and accurate basis to enable them to make informed decisions on District capital resources.

Revenue Analysis (Research and Analysis) – provides revenue estimates, revenue policy analysis, and analysis supporting economic development. The program area is divided into two offices, both of which report directly to the CFO: the Office of Revenue Analysis (ORA) and Economic Development Finance (EDF). ORA services include the preparation of (i) analyses of revenue sources and development of quarterly revenue estimates that set the hard budget constraint for the District of Columbia budget; (ii) fiscal impact statements, which provide estimates of direct costs to the four-year Financial Plan; (iii) periodic reports on economic and revenue trends and the monthly Economic Indicators for the District of Columbia; (iv) the chapter on revenue in each annual Budget and Financial Plan that is prepared by the District of Columbia; and (v) special studies, including on metropolitan and nationwide household tax burden comparisons, a bi-annual Tax Expenditure Study detail on statutory provisions of District taxes, a running historical update of major changes in District revenue laws, an Annual Revenue Data Book, and the monthly Cash Report of District tax collections.

EDF provides sophisticated analyses of fiscal, economic, financial, and administrative impacts of proposed projects; analyzes the financial feasibility of economic development projects in the District; and advises the CFO and Mayor on proposed economic development debt issuances. EDF oversees all Tax Increment Financing (TIF) and Payment-in-Lieu-of-Taxes (PILOT) projects into which the District enters; provides guidance on changes in development policy options and long-term financial expectations; reviews legislative proposals that include tax abatements or exemptions and provides an advisory tax abatement financial analysis (TAFA) for submission to Council; coordinates with ORA to provide fiscal impact analyses on proposed tax-supported financings, land transfers, and economic development projects; and represents the OCFO on the boards of Events DC (formerly the Washington Convention and Sports Authority) and Destination D.C.

This program contains the following 5 activities:

- Executive Direction and Support – provides general program management, leadership, technical assistance, and support services to staff including research and analytical services on revenue and economic data and analysis of fiscal and administrative impacts to decision-makers;
- Revenue Estimation – provides economic and revenue data and analysis and District tax structure data and analysis to the Mayor, Council, and Congress so that they can have timely and quality information for policy formulation and decision-making;
- Economic Development – provides analysis of the fiscal, economic, financial, and administrative impact on real estate projects to the Chief Financial Officer, the Mayor, the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development, and the Council so that they can effectively assess economic development initiatives and ensure maximum economic benefit to the city;
- Legislative and Fiscal Analysis – provides legislative fiscal impact analysis for the Mayor, the Council, and Congress so that they can have timely and quality information for policy formulation and decision-making; and
- Economic Affairs – develops and presents documents detailing the economic and revenue affairs of the District of Columbia to components of the OCFO, the Mayor, the Council, and Congress so that they can have timely and quality information for policy formulation and decision-making.

Tax and Revenue (Tax Administration) – provides fair, efficient, and effective administration of the District's business, income, excise, and real property tax laws.

This program contains the following 7 activities:

- Executive Direction and Support – provides general program management, leadership, and support services to the Tax Administration program so that it can coordinate comprehensive tax services for District taxpayers and ensure that the District is collecting the accurate amount of tax revenue;
- External Customer Service, Information, and Education – provides customer service through walk-in and telephone customer service centers, which assist approximately 300,000 taxpayers annually. This activity also consists of developing and distributing public tax forms; supporting various electronic tax filing and payment options, including electronic self-service and account management functions; initiating and responding to mail correspondence with taxpayers; and tax registration and certification services;
- Recorder of Deeds – provides support for the transfer and titling of real property in the District and responds to requests for title documents from individuals and real estate title industries;
- Real Property Tax Administration – provides for the assessment and billing of real property taxes and first-level assessment appeals;
- Tax Audits and Investigations – enforces tax compliance by identifying potential non-filers and performing other tax compliance checks to ensure that the District is collecting the correct amount of tax payments due from all taxpayers. This activity also identifies and investigates cases of tax fraud;

Revenue Accounting – provides for the proper accounting of and reporting on revenue collections and supports issuance of tax refunds; and

- Receipts and Delinquent Collections – provides for the processing of more than one million tax returns annually and the recording and prompt deposit of billions of dollars in tax payments. This activity includes collections of delinquent tax payments.

Information Technology – provides for the development and maintenance of state-of-the-art financial information systems to support the District of Columbia's payroll, pension, accounting, tax, budget, treasury, and web-based financial reporting systems. The principal objectives of the program are to maintain accurate systems, modify systems in response to the changing needs of the District, and maintain compliance with federal, state, and local regulations.

Finance and Treasury – provides management of the financial assets and liabilities of the Government of the District of Columbia. This includes investing, collecting, safekeeping, disbursing, recording, and acquiring District financial resources.

This program contains the following 7 activities:

- Executive Direction and Support – provides leadership, strategic direction, and administrative support services to department managers and employees so that they can achieve organizational and individual performance results;
- Debt and Grants Management – provides for the issuance of bonds, notes, and other financing vehicles for the District so that it can finance capital infrastructure projects and help ensure seasonal cash needs, and manages the cash and accounting of District agencies' federal grant drawdowns;
- Cash Management and Investments – provides for the management of the cash resources of the District so that the District can meet its cash obligations and maximize its return on investments;
- Disbursement Management – provides check-printing and disbursement services for District agencies so that they can fulfill their payment obligations;
- Cash Receipts and Accounting – provides revenue collection services, including cashiering at various District sites, and provides for the management of banking services for all District agencies;
- Asset Management for Special Programs – provides for the management of the District-run pension plans, college savings plan, and unclaimed property; and
- Central Collection Unit – consolidates several District agency collection programs into the OCFO to pursue the collection of outstanding debts owed to the District.

Integrity and Oversight – maintains the accountability, integrity, and efficiency of the District of Columbia's financial management and tax administration systems. Through its audit and investigative activities, this program provides the Chief Financial Officer with independent reviews and appraisals of OCFO operations and maintains the highest standards of integrity and security of OCFO employees.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Audit Services – provides audit and review services to assist the District's financial managers to ensure the integrity, efficiency, and effectiveness of District programs; manages the review and response to external audit reports; and coordinates District single audits and management letter comments for District agencies so that they can improve operations; and
- Security Integrity Oversight – provides security and integrity oversight for the OCFO by administering the OCFO's emergency response program and conducting integrity probes and integrity awareness presentations aimed at detecting and preventing fraud and other misconduct in OCFO programs; and maintains public confidence in the integrity of the OCFO by investigating alleged misconduct by OCFO employees, as well as by conducting background investigations to determine suitability for employment. This investigative service provides reports to OCFO management so that they can take administrative action as appropriate.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Agency Financial Operations – provides comprehensive and efficient financial management services to, and on behalf of, District agencies so that the financial integrity of the District of Columbia is maintained. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of the Chief Financial Officer has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of the Chief Financial Officer's (OCFO) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $179,608,342, which represents a 1.1 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $177,644,492. The budget is comprised of $126,627,016 in Local funds, $450,000 in Federal Grant funds, $44,042,407 in Special Purpose Revenue funds, and $8,488,919 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OCFO's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $126,040,861, which represents a $1,054,595, or 0.8 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $124,986,266.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for OCFO included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments were made for decreases of $166,949 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $627,535 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. CSFL funding for the OCFO also includes a decrease of $5,991 for the Fixed Costs Inflation factor to account for adjustments in certain contract-related items and an increase of $600,000 for Operating Impact of Capital to account for costs related to the CFOSolve Financial Application.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: In Local funds, the OCFO's proposed budget increased by a net amount of $307,811 to support agency-wide salary, Fringe Benefits adjustments, and the movement of certain positions from full-time to part-time status.

In Special Purpose Revenue (SPR) funds, the proposed budget increased by $1,011,040 and 10.0 Full-Time Equivalents (FTEs) for adjustments to salaries, Fringe Benefits costs, and other personal services adjustments within the agency. Specifically, funding supports additional staff primarily to the Finance and Treasury program's Unclaimed Property and Central Collections units. Also in the Finance and Treasury program, the proposed budget increased by $538,463 to cover certain banking fees and other contractual costs.

In Intra-District funds, the proposed budget increased by $173,643 and 2.4 FTEs to cover additional staff and projected salary and Fringe Benefits costs throughout the agency.

Decrease: The proposed Local funds budget decreased by $307,811 as a result of contractual services savings throughout the agency. In Federal Grant funds, the proposed budget decreased by $75,000 in the Finance and Treasury program to align the budget with projects associated with Electronic Benefit Transaction funding.

The proposed SPR funds budget decreased by $923,360 across multiple programs to align the budget with projected resources and program objectives. In Intra-District funds, the proposed net decrease of $325,000 is primarily in the Integrity and Oversight program, and reflects projected savings from the District's Single Audit contract.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: A proposed increase of $917,123 and 10.5 FTEs in Local funds supports two revenue-generating initiatives in the Office of Tax and Revenue (OTR) along with other programs within the Office of the Chief Financial Officer. The first OTR initiative aims to recover District property taxes through expanding the accountability of the District's Homestead program through the use of a national database of homestead deductions claimed. This will result in revoking the Homestead exemption on District properties for which the exemption cannot be substantiated. The other OTR initiative involves partnering with local banks to increase the effectiveness of the levy process to secure payments from delinquent taxpayers. In addition, other programs supported include OTR's Revenue Accounting Administration, the Office of Finance and Treasury's (OFT) Debt Management Unit, and OFT's Banking Services Division. In these units, local fund resources are either reallocated or added to maintain staff support from positions formerly funded with nonlocal resources. In the Cash Management Unit, one manager's position is being split into two lower graded positions to better suit the unit's operational needs.

Reduce: The OCFO's budget proposal reflects a reduction of $132,453 in the Local funds budget for Contractual Services to allow the agency to convert a contractor to a full-time position.

Shift: The proposed budget reflects a reduction of $76,687 and 1.0 FTE from SPR funds, which will shift to Local funds. The FTE will continue to support the activities required in the OTR Revenue Accounting Administration.

District's Proposed Budget

Reduce: The Local funds budget proposal for the Office of the Chief Financial Officer reflects a decrease of $275,201 due to the elimination of a vacant position and alignment of the personal services budget with projected costs.

The Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development (DMPED) supports the Mayor in developing and executing the District's economic development vision.

Summary of Services

DMPED assists the Mayor in the coordination, planning, supervision, and execution of programs, policies, proposals, and functions related to economic development in the District of Columbia. DMPED sets development priorities and policies, coordinates how the District markets itself to job creators, and leads District development, attraction, and retention efforts. DMPED also works to achieve its mission by focusing on outreach to the business community and neighborhood stakeholders and by forging partnerships between government, business, institutions and communities to foster economic growth for residents of the District of Columbia.

Program Description

The Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development operates through the following 6 programs:

Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development – provides specialized and strategic economic development assistance. This includes community outreach and engagement efforts, program and policy development, and inter-agency coordination of services between businesses, developers, and community stakeholders to enable them to pursue ventures that revitalize neighborhoods, create jobs, expand and diversify the local economy, and provide pathways to the middle class for District residents. This also includes support for the highly-lauded our RFP process that engages residents and stakeholders prior to the issuance of a real estate RFP.

Business and Workforce Development – creates and retains jobs for District residents by growing and supporting businesses currently in the District, attracting new businesses, and ensuring that District residents have the training necessary to compete for jobs.

This program contains the following 3 activities:

- Business Development – promotes local business opportunities and strengthens the business climate to attract and retain businesses and expand entrepreneurship;
- Corporate Assistance – supports attraction and retention of large-scale commercial tenants and employers; and
- Innovation Initiatives – supports efforts recommended in the Economic Strategy and Pathways to Inclusion Report to catalyze inclusive innovation in the District.

Project Investment – provides gap financing and other economic assistance services to businesses and organizations to leverage private sector investment in neighborhood retail, commercial, employment, and housing opportunities for District residents.

This program contains the following 4 activities:

- Industrial Revenue Bond – provides access to tax-exempt Industrial Revenue Bond and tax increment financing to help businesses and non-profit organizations renovate and build new construction, make tenant improvements, and purchase capital;
- Great Streets Initiative – issues small business capital improvement grants and makes catalytic investments within retail priority areas;
- Grants – makes other project investments; and
- Washington D.C. Economic Partnership – supports the activities of the non-profit, public-private organization, the Washington DC Economic Partnership (WDCEP). WDCEP promotes economic development in the District, including business attraction and retention, entrepreneurship, technology, and real estate development.

Real Estate Development – implements real estate development projects and coordinates the implementation of the Anacostia Waterfront Initiative, which supports the District's goals of promoting environmentally and socially responsible redevelopment along the Anacostia River and increasing public access to the river and riverfront parks.

This program contains the following 4 activities:

- Development and Disposition – manages a portfolio of real estate development projects;
- New Communities Initiative – manages projects envisioned to revitalize severely distressed subsidized housing and redevelop neighborhoods into vibrant mixed-income communities;
- St. Elizabeths – manages a project designed to create well-planned, multi-use, mixed-income, walkable, livable community on the St. Elizabeths East Campus; and
- Walter Reed – provides administrative support to the Walter Reed Army Medical Center Local Redevelopment Authority and manages implementation of the reuse plan.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Agency Financial Operations – provides comprehensive and efficient financial management services to, and on behalf of, District agencies so that the financial integrity of the District of Columbia is maintained. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development's (DMPED) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $46,345,932, which represents a 26.9 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $36,532,392. The budget is comprised of $13,000,026 in Local funds, $1,249,638 in Federal Grant funds, and $32,096,268 in Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

DMPED's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $12,227,616, which represents a $1,573,348, or 11.4 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $13,800,964.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for DMPED included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include an increase of $91,017 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for DMPED also includes a reduction of $1,660,000 to account for the removal of one-time funding appropriated in FY 2017, which consists of $1,060,000 to support the D.C. Economic Partnership and $600,000 to support the Georgia Avenue NW Great Streets Initiative. Additionally, a decrease of $4,365 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor accounts for adjustments to the fleet services estimates.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: In Local funds, the proposed budget includes a net increase of $510,382 in personal services across multiple programs. This increase primarily supports the realignment of Full-Time Equivalents (FTEs) from Temporary Full-Time to Continuing Full-Time, the addition of one FTE to support Agency Financial Operations, and related salary, step, and Fringe Benefit increases. Additionally in Local funds, the proposed budget includes a net increase of $81,239 in the Agency Management and Real Estate Development programs, primarily to support equipment needs at the St. Elizabeths campus.

In Federal Grant funds, the proposed budget includes an increase of $750,399 in the Real Estate Development program, primarily in Contractual Services - Other and Other Services and Charges, due to an increase in anticipated grant funding for the Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

The proposed Special Purpose Revenue (SPR) funds budget includes an increase of $7,665,505 in the Real Estate Development and Business and Workforce Development programs, primarily for contractual services, to align the budget with anticipated revenues for the development of the Walter Reed Army Medical Center, the New Communities Initiative, Development and Disposition Agreements, and the establishment of the new Innovation Initiatives activity. Additionally in Special Purpose Revenue funds, the proposed budget includes a net increase of $159,223 in the Project Investment program to support the realignment of FTEs from Temporary Full-Time to Continuing Full Time and the addition of 4.0 FTEs to support the agency's new initiatives.

Decrease: DMPED's Local funds budget proposal includes a net decrease of $591,621 in Contractual Services across multiple programs. This is the net result of re-allocation of funds from the DC China Center and other contracts in Business Development to the International Business activity; changes to Community Outreach programs; and reductions to the Washington DC Economic Partnership contract.

In Federal Grant funds, the proposed budget includes an overall reduction of $1,257,251 and 1.5 FTEs in the Real Estate Development program, due to the elimination of the Community Development Block Grant program.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The proposed SPR funds budget increased by $3,296,602 and 2.0 FTEs to support corporate attraction and retention initiatives, which include assisting firms with understanding Qualified High Tech Companies (QHTCs) and Corporate Assistance for Creative and Open Spaces (COSM) opportunities.

Reduce: The proposed Local funds budget includes a decrease of $110,834 in the Business and Workforce Development program to recognize cost savings in contracts for the Chamber of Commerce, Cherry Blossom Festival, and Destination DC.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: DMPED's proposed Local funds budget reflects a net increase of $1,950,000, which includes $1,500,000 in the Project Investment program to support the Washington DC Economic Partnership contracts, $250,000 in one-time funding in the Business and Workforce Development program to support a family unit study, and $200,000 in one-time funding in the Real Estate Development program to support a study in partnership with the Coalition for Non-Profit Housing and Economic Development.

Reduce: DMPED's Local funds budget proposal reflects a reduction of $1,066,756 in Contractual Services across multiple programs to realize cost savings with various contracts.

Agency Performance Plan

Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development's (DMPED) performance plan has the following objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Deliver high-quality economic development and affordable housing opportunities that meet the needs of District residents and the business community across all 8 Wards.
2. Increase job creation in the District by attracting and retaining businesses, thereby growing tax revenue, particularly in Wards 7 and 8.
3. Improve public engagement by creating more opportunities for community participation and feedback and by highlighting the economic climate and development of the District.
4. Utilize tech innovation and open data to drive positive change and good government for District residents.
5. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Deliver high-quality economic development and affordable housing opportunities that meet the needs of District residents and the business community across all 8 Wards. (5 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity

The mission of the Office of Planning (OP) is to guide development of the District of Columbia, including the preservation and revitalization of our distinctive neighborhoods, by informing decisions, advancing strategic goals, encouraging the highest quality development outcomes, and engaging all communities.

Summary of Services

OP performs planning for neighborhoods, corridors, districts, historic preservation, public facilities, parks and open spaces, and individual sites. In addition, OP engages in urban design, land use, and historic preservation reviews. OP also conducts historic resources research and community visioning, and it manages, analyzes, maps, and disseminates spatial and U.S. Census data.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Division Description

The Office of Planning operates through the following 4 divisions:

Development Review and Historic Preservation – conducts analysis of and negotiates development projects for conformance with land use law and the District Comprehensive Plan, and prepares and recommends amendments to the zoning regulations and map consistent with the Comprehensive Plan and small area plans. This division also promotes stewardship of the District's historic and cultural resources through planning, protection, and public education; administers the District's local preservation program under the District's Historic Landmark and Historic District Protection Act; and acts as the certified state historic preservation program under the National Historic Preservation Act.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Development and Zoning Review – provides the Board of Zoning Adjustment and the Zoning Commission with professional analysis of large and/or complex zoning cases that may involve variances, special exceptions, campus plans, or planned unit development proposals. The staff also assesses the zoning applied to various areas to make sure that it is consistent with the Comprehensive Plan and recommends changes if necessary; and
- Historic Preservation – provides individual technical assistance to any person applying for a District building permit that affects a historic property under the city's preservation law. The staff provides support to the Historic Preservation Review Board, which determines the appropriateness of changes to historic landmarks and historic districts.

Revitalization/Design and Neighborhood Planning – provides a broad range of plan development, implementation, and project coordination services for District neighborhoods, central Washington, and the waterfront areas.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Neighborhood Planning – provides a team of neighborhood planners, including one assigned to each ward, to craft and oversee the implementation of small-area plans, which guide growth and development in neighborhoods in accordance with agreed-upon goals and objectives. Neighborhood planners work in collaboration with Advisory Neighborhood Commissions, citizen associations, residents, businesses, and District agencies to develop and implement the plans; and
- Revitalization and Design – develops comprehensive strategies for large-area development that emphasize progressive planning, high-quality urban design, and community engagement, through its expertise in urban design, real estate development, land use planning, architecture, environmental substantiality, and community engagement.

Citywide Planning – develops and monitors the District Elements of the Comprehensive Plan, and works with regional and other District agencies to create strategies for critical planning sectors including housing, transportation, economic development, public facilities, and sustainability. The division provides data analysis, information, and long-range planning services to OP staff, neighborhood stakeholders, citizens, businesses, other District and federal agencies, and other decision-makers so that they can have the information needed to plan, develop, and preserve the District.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Citywide Planning – develops and monitors the District Elements of the Comprehensive Plan, the District's 20-year blueprint for the city, and works with regional and other city agencies to create strategies for emerging employment sectors, meeting retail needs, and coordinating land use and transportation;
- Geographic Information Systems and Information Technology – provides mapping, spatial information, and analysis to District agencies, citizens, and a variety of other stakeholders. These services complement the automated tools available on www.dc.gov; and
- State Data Center – serves as the clearinghouse for all Federal Census data. It provides a variety of demographic, social, economic, and housing data for the District by ward, census tract, block-group, and block to District agencies, residents, and other stakeholders.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Division Structure Change

The Office of Planning has no division structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

GROSS FOR BD0 - OFFICE OF PLANNING		10,402	72.0

(Change is calculated by whole numbers and numbers may not add up due to rounding)

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of Planning's (OP) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $10,402,347, which represents a 1.6 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $10,234,248. The budget is comprised of $9,657,347 in Local funds, $525,000 in Federal Grant funds, $20,000 in Private Grant funds, and $200,000 in Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple divisions, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OP's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $9,151,499, which represents a $307,749, or 3.3 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $9,459,248.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for OP included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $5,959 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $16,839 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for OP includes a reduction of $310,000 to account for the removal of one-time funding appropriated in FY 2017, which was allocated as follows: $200,000 to support a local food study and $110,000 to support a Cultural Plan. Additionally, a decrease of $8,629 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor accounts for adjustments for fleet estimates.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: The proposed Federal Grant funds budget increased by $821 in the Development Review and Historic Preservation (DRHP) division to reflect increased nonpersonal services costs in the Historic Preservation grant. The budget proposal in Private Grant funds increased by $10,000 in the Revitalization/Design and Neighborhood Planning division as OP will continue to provide services that support the ArtPlace and Kresge grant programs. In Special Purpose Revenue funds, the proposed budget increased by $100,000 in the DRHP division to further support historic preservation activities.

Decrease: The proposed budget in Local funds includes reductions of $3,250 to the Agency Management division to reflect lower vehicle maintenance estimates; $13,242 to the Contractual Services budget to align the budget with the District of Columbia's Comprehensive Plan; and $37,673 and 0.5 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) to align the budget with projected salary and Fringe Benefit costs.

The proposed Federal Grant funds budget was reduced by $821 in the DRHP division based on OP's projected grants-supported personal services costs. In Intra-District funds, the proposed budget submission includes a net reduction of $140,000 from the DRHP division, which includes $120,362 and 1.0 FTE in personal services costs and $19,638 in nonpersonal services. This decrease is due to a plan to shift conducting of the mandated historic preservation review of District projects to a District Department of Transportation's (DDOT) Memorandum of Understanding funded by DDOT's Capital Improvement Program in FY 2018.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The Office of Planning's budget proposal reflects an increase of $183,774 and 1.0 FTE in Local funds to the Agency Management division. This position will manage the agency's legal affairs and prevent the need to seek legal advice outside of the office. Areas of focus will include real estate, land use, historic preservation law, drafting contracts, grants, legislation, regulations, policies, providing legal advice to the agency director and senior staff, providing testimony before legislative and political entities, handling and resolving pre-litigation claims filed against the District of Columbia, responding to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests, and drafting affidavits, motions, and other legal documents.

Additionally in Local funds, the Revitalization/Design and Neighborhood Planning division increased by $80,000 and 1.0 FTE to support the Food Policy Director. The Office of Planning supports the efforts of the District's Sustainable DC Plan to research and plan land use policy around food systems and urban agriculture issues.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The Office of Planning's budget proposal reflects a one-time increase of $200,000 to Local funds in the Revitalization/Design and Neighborhood Planning division to support a competitive grant award to a nonprofit organization that will focus on improving federally owned park land in the District.

Additionally, the Development Review and Historic Preservation division increased by $96,240 and 1.0 FTE to support a Historic Preservation Office Inspector position whose responsibilities will include increased property inspections and enforcement activities to ensure compliance with building permits, building codes, and the standards established by the D.C. Historic Preservation Review Board.

Agency Performance Plan

The Office of Planning's (OP) performance plan has the following objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Provide data and analysis to support sound and integrated policy decisions that strengthen the District's fiscal stability, sustainability, and quality of life.
2. Catalyze improvements in the urban design, economic vitality, and livability of District neighborhoods by creating excellent, context-sensitive plans.
3. Increase the transparency and predictability of the planning process to better engage stakeholders and to enrich the dialogue around key planning tools and topics.
4. Enhance the District's built environment by promoting high quality development through clarified regulations, mandatory and discretionary zoning reviews, historic preservation review processes, and technical assistance in planning and design.
5. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Provide data and analysis to support sound and integrated policy decisions that strengthen the District's fiscal stability, sustainability, and quality of life. (8 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Mapping Services	Provide mapping services to District agencies and the public.	Daily Service

Division Description

The Department of Small and Local Business Development operates through the following 4 divisions:

Certification – processes applicants into the Certified Business Enterprise (CBE) program and monitors, tracks, and reports the activities of District agencies and non-government project partners to ensure compliance with purchasing, participation, and utilization goals with CBEs pursuant to District Law 16-33, the Small, Local, and Disadvantaged Business Enterprise Development and Assistance Act of 2005, as amended.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Certification – processes and issues certifications designating a District-based business as a CBE, conducts inspections to ensure businesses are compliant with certification regulations, and responds to complaints regarding non-compliant certified companies; and
- Compliance – provides oversight of District government agencies and non-government projects to ensure compliance with District regulations regarding CBE utilization and participation pursuant to District Law 16-33.

Business Opportunities and Access to Capital – provides District-based businesses with the knowledge and capacity-building tools necessary to form, develop, grow, and expand by offering classes, training, technical assistance, and advocacy to promote greater participation in local, federal, and private-sector opportunities.

This division contains the following 6 activities:

- Capital Acquisition – expands business opportunities for CBEs by increasing the availability of start-up, working equity, and development capital bonding; partners with lending institutions to provide financial tools; and provides targeted technical assistance that will allow for greater preparedness for the lending process;
- Procurement Technical Assistance Program – provides District-based small businesses with support to prepare for and gain access to federal government procurement opportunities through the Procurement Technical Assistance Program;

- Access to Capital – expands business opportunities for small businesses by increasing the availability of start-up, working equity, and development capital and bonding; partners with lending institutions to provide financial tools; and provides targeted technical assistance that will allow for greater preparedness for the lending process;
- Business Development – provides support, resources, and technical assistance to current or prospective business owners by providing one-on-one counseling, monthly training courses, and workshops to address a broad variety of start-up and development issues from establishing a business to building business credit and finding loans; promotes and advocates for small and local businesses headquartered in the District of Columbia; and is responsible for increasing opportunities for small business participation in the procurement process within the public and private sectors and communicating industry-specific business opportunities;
- Trade and Export – provides training, targeted services, trade mission support, and business opportunity identification in order to increase the number of District small businesses that export; grows the dollar value of exports from District businesses; and coordinates trade missions for qualified District-based businesses; and
- Technology and Innovation – provides support and assistance for technology companies pursuing opportunities in the development of Small Business Innovation and Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) program applications; develops and delivers training and technical assistance sessions, as well as unique multi-sector events, designed to assist District technology entrepreneurs launch and grow their businesses; and leverages expertise in federal and private commercialization practices to generate competitive grant applications for District-based small businesses.

Commercial Revitalization – provides technical and funding assistance that supports, promotes, and fosters economic development in commercial districts as well as the retention, recruitment, and enhancement of small businesses throughout the city.

This division contains the following 4 activities:

- Capacity Building – provides oversight, funding, and support for the growth and development of neighborhood businesses and manages grants to community-based organizations;
- Main Streets – fosters retail investment in the District by providing services and funding to help communities retain and recruit businesses, improve commercial properties and streetscapes, and attract consumers;

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Department of Small and Local Business Development's (DSLBD) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $15,089,358, which represents a 28.6 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $11,735,519. The budget is comprised of $14,631,912 in Local funds and $457,446 in Federal Grant funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple divisions, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

DSLBD's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $10,476,501, which represents a $680,356, or 6.1 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $11,156,857.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for DSLBD included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include an increase of $853 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $17,358 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for DSLBD include a reduction of $700,000 to account for the removal of one-time funding appropriated in FY 2017, which is comprised of $400,000 to account for the Great Streets initiative, which provides support for Small Business Capital Improvement Grants, and $300,000 to assist emerging businesses to succeed in the District. Additionally, an increase of $1,432 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor, accounts for fleet estimates.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: The DSLBD proposed Local funds budget reflects an increase of $201,146 in personal services to support an additional 0.7 FTE as well as projected salary and Fringe Benefit costs.

Decrease: The budget proposed in Local funds for nonpersonal services reflects reductions of $8,566 based on projections for Telecommunication Fixed Costs, and $62,556, primarily in the Business Opportunities and Access to Capital division, for contractual services. Additionally, the budget proposal in Local funds decreased by $130,023 across multiple divisions based on adjustments to contractual service needs.

In Federal Grant funds, the proposed budget decreased by $121,215 and 0.7 FTE to account for the expiration of the Federal and State Technology Partnership Program (DCFAST) grant in FY 2017.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: DSLBD's budget proposal in Local funds increased by $1,200,000 in one-time funding in the Commercial Revitalization division. This enhancement is comprised of $800,000 to support Main Streets programs, which will help communities retain and recruit businesses, improve commercial properties and streetscapes, and attract customers; and $400,000 for Commercial Clean Teams, which will provide cleaner streets, sidewalks, and store fronts in neighborhood business districts to attract more customers to those areas and make them more viable locations for small businesses. The proposed Local funds budget also reflects a one-time increase of $900,000 to support the creation of a new Certified Business Enterprise (CBE) system which will allow more users access to DSLBD's systems and is vital for the full integration and performance of the agency's certification and compliance functions. Further adjustments to the Local funds budget include a one-time increase of $700,000, of which $500,000 will support additional assistance to the District's microloan program and $200,000 will support the "Made in DC" initiative, which aims to support and promote businesses that design, make, produce, and/or assemble products in the District of Columbia. Lastly, $300,000 in one-time funding will provide additional support to emerging businesses in the District.

Reduce: DSLBD's proposed Local funds budget is reduced by $24,453 in personal services identified savings.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: DSLBD's Local funds proposed budget reflects a one-time funding increase of $650,000 in the Business Opportunity and Access to Capital division. This amount is comprised of $250,000 to support an equitable food business incubator in Ward 8, $300,000 to create a grant program for aspiring and struggling entrepreneurs in Wards 7 and 8, and $100,000 to support a study to evaluate the circumstances under which insufficient market capacity of CBEs results in a waiver of subcontracting requirements.

In the Business Opportunity and Access to Capital division, the budget proposal in the Local funds budget includes an increase of $400,000 to award competitive grants to support the development of alternative grocery store models in Ward 8. A Local funds one-time funding increase of $400,000 to the Commercial Revitalization division is comprised of $200,000 to create a new Georgetown/Wisconsin Avenue Main Street and $200,000 for one additional Main Streets program.

The proposed Local funds budget for personal services reflects an increase of $309,864 to support an additional 4.0 FTEs. This is comprised of 3.0 FTEs to support the CBE Compliance program in the Business Opportunity and Access to Capital division and 1.0 FTE for a Clean Team grant manager in the Commercial Revitalization division.

Finally, the proposed Local funds budget reflects an increase of $220,000 in the Commercial Revitalization division to support Commercial Clean Teams. This increase is comprised of $100,000 for a Ward 4 Clean Team for Upper 14th Street, $60,000 for the expansion of the Ward 1 Clean Team, and $60,000 for adding a member to the current Ward 8 team and the Ward 5 team for New York Avenue.

Reduce: The budget proposal in DSLBD's Local funds reflects a decrease of $900,000 in the Agency Management program because funding for a new Certified Business Enterprise system is provided in the capital budget.

Agency Performance Plan*

Department of Small and Local Business Development's (DSLBD) performance plan has the following objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Develop and maintain a streamlined, efficient certification process for businesses wanting to certify with the DC Government.
2. Assist agencies in complying with legal requirements in accordance with DC Code 2-218.01 et seq.
3. Assist small businesses with accessing capital.
4. Connect the small business community with procurement opportunities within the local, federal, and private sector.
5. Connect small and local businesses to opportunities in the global marketplace.
6. Extend economic development to District neighborhoods through commercial revitalization initiatives and programs.
7. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government. **

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Develop and maintain a streamlined, efficient certification process for businesses wanting to certify with the DC Government. (2 Measures)

The mission of the Office of Cable Television, Film, Music, and Entertainment (OCTFME) is to produce and broadcast programming for the District of Columbia's public, educational, and government access (PEG) cable channels; regulate the District of Columbia's cable television service providers; provide customer service for cable subscribers; and support a sustainable creative economy and labor market in the District of Columbia.

Summary of Services

OCTFME is responsible for regulating cable television in the District and managing the District's government access channels: the District Council Channel (DCC), the District of Columbia Network (DCN), and the District Knowledge Network (DKN). OCTFME creates content that informs, educates, and entertains viewers via the District of Columbia's public, educational, and government (PEG) channels and other forms of content outlets. The award-winning content provides resourceful information on government activity, education, current events, history, and arts and entertainment.

OCTFME provides 24-hour informative, open government, public interest programming on the District Council Channel (DCC), District of Columbia Network (DCN), and the District Knowledge Network (DKN). Programming includes coverage of the activities of Executive Offices of the Mayor and the executive branch; the District of Columbia City Council, the Office of the Attorney General, and the State Board of Education. OCTFME provides transparent public access to the governmental process and insights into life in the District. OCTFME is dedicated to providing quality, diverse programming and services that educate, enlighten, and empower the residents of the District of Columbia.

OCTFME offers a number of support services to local and out-of-state film, television, video, entertainment, interactive, multimedia, and digital media content creators, including media production permitting, location scouting, production support, production and infrastructure incentives, job placement assistance, and workforce development programs. OCTFME also administrates a media production incentive program, the DC Film, Television and Entertainment Rebate fund.

OCTFME engages the community to create a greater understanding of the creative economy as a whole, the media production process, and access to training opportunities required to become marketable creative economy industry professionals.

Note: For more detailed information regarding the proposed funding for the activities within this agency's programs, please see Schedule 30-PBB Program Summary by Activity in the FY 2018 Operating Appendices located on the Office of the Chief Financial Officer's website. "No Activity Assigned" indicates budget or actuals that are recorded at the division/program level.

Division Description

The Office of Cable Television, Film, Music, and Entertainment operates through the following 3 divisions:

OCTFME Television Division – provides 24-hour informative programming on DCC, DCN, and DKN. Programs include gavel-to-gavel coverage of Council hearings, Mayoral press conferences and meetings and activities of government agencies, and live and recorded coverage of the activities of the Mayor, the public, and the Office of the State Superintendent of Education. Programming also includes educational resources to support students, parents, teachers, and community members. The division also provides customer service and franchise oversight services for District cable subscribers and for the District government to ensure they receive reliable services that comply with District and federal laws and regulations. This division performs the regulatory functions of the agency, which include enforcing (and, when appropriate, proposing amendments to) the provisions of the District Cable Act; negotiating new cable television franchise agreements; renewing cable franchise agreements with local cable providers; providing general legal counsel to the agency; managing and resolving regulatory and other disputes between cable operators and the District government and/or its residents; and enforcing the provisions of District cable franchise agreements and other applicable laws.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Originated Programming – provides original television production and programming services for District cable viewers, enabling them to have access to information about citywide events as well as gain information about the operation and management of the District;
- Fee for Service Programming – provides contracted television production and programming services to District government agencies by offering professionally produced programs at competitive prices; and
- Franchise Regulation – provides cable company oversight services for District cable subscribers, allowing them to receive cable television services that are in compliance with District and federal laws and regulations.

OCTFME Film Division – Film, Music and Entertainment – promotes the District in the United States and abroad as a venue for production activity, and a place to establish and maintain a media production, broadcast, or distribution enterprise. OCTFME's outreach efforts generate revenue and promote job creation for the District. This division also promotes the use of local film and video resources and provides pre-production, production, and post-production assistance to producers filming in the District. This division also promotes and administrates programming and initiatives in support of the District of Columbia creative economy that includes, but is not limited to, the music and entertainment industries.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Marketing and Promotions – administers the D.C. Film, Television and Entertainment Rebate Fund program and provides the industry with information on the District's film and media industry, studio and production facilities, and first-rate technicians and creative talent; and
- Production Support – provides filmmakers with a range of services designed to save them time, money, and effort so that they will perceive the District as a "film-friendly" environment.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Division Structure Change

The Office of Cable Television, Film, Music, and Entertainment has no division structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of Cable Television, Film, Music, and Entertainment's (OCTFME) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $12,756,771, which represents a 6.6 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $11,964,082. The budget is comprised of $1,661,771 in Local funds and $11,095,000 in Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple divisions, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OCTFME's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $1,790,877, which represents a $166,291, or 10.2 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $1,624,586.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for OCTFME included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include increases of $2,292 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and $2,982 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. Additionally, an increase of $161,017 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor accounts for adjustments to the fleet services estimates.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: In Local funds, OCTFME's proposed personal services budget includes an increase of $133,049 and 1.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE), primarily to support a General Counsel position in the Agency Management division. The proposed Local funds budget is also increased by $88,171 in personal services to reflect projected salary and Fringe Benefit costs throughout the agency.

OCTFME's proposed Special Purpose Revenue (SPR) funds budget includes an increase of $541,845 in the OCTFME Television division in contractual services for professional staffing, closed captioning, equipment installation, and legal services. The proposed SPR budget also increased by a net $260,425 across multiple divisions to reflect projected revenues for FY 2018. The adjustment includes increases of $1,197,418 in Subsidies and Transfers for the DC Film Incentive Fund, $139,205 in personal services to cover projected Fringe Benefit and overtime costs, and $38,980 for supplies; partially offset by decreases of $816,245 in Equipment and Equipment Rentals due to the reallocation of SPR funds to the Pay-As-You-Go Capital fund for the agency's office build-out, and $298,933 in Other Services and Charges, mainly to recognize savings in professional services fees. Additionally, the proposed SPR budget reflects a net increase of $14,502 in the Agency Management division to support adjustments to centralized Fixed Costs. Specifically, the adjustments include increases of $145,046 for occupancy costs and $20,222 for security services, partially offset by decreases of $118,348 and $32,418 for telecommunication and energy costs, respectively.

Decrease: The proposed Local funds budget decreased by $350,327 in the OCTFME Film division to recognize savings in nonpersonal services, mainly for costs associated with sponsorship, travel, equipment, and office supplies.

In SPR funds, the proposed budget includes a net decrease of $61,268 in personal services to realize savings from a reduction of 0.6 FTE across multiple divisions.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Office of Cable Television, Film, Music, and Entertainment's budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Office of Cable Television, Film, Music, and Entertainment's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

Agency Performance Plan*

Office of Cable Television, Film, Music, and Entertainment (OCTFME) has the following objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Provide District residents informative, educational, government programming via the District Council Channel (DCC), the District of Columbia Network (DCN), and the District Knowledge Network (DKN).
2. Regulate the District of Columbia's cable service providers and enforce federal and District government cable television laws and regulations.
3. Implement, administer, and support programs, education and employment initiatives that advance the District of Columbia's film, television, music, and entertainment industries.
4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Provide District residents informative, educational, government programming via the District Council Channel (DCC), the District of Columbia Network (DCN), and the District Knowledge Network (DKN). (5 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Management of Government Broadcast Channels	Management of the daily content production and broadcast of government, public affairs and educational programming.	Daily Service
OCTFME Broadcast Facility Management	Manage the broadcast operations and maintenance of the OCTFME broadcast facility, 441 Judiciary Square, and the John A. Wilson Building.	Daily Service
DKN Channel Production, Programming and Broadcast	Management and operations of the DKN, a government channel that offers educational, informative programming to District residents.	Daily Service
DCN Channel Production, Programming, and Broadcast	The management and broadcast operations of the District of Columbia Network (DCN), a government channel that provides transparent, informative, open government programming to District residents.	Daily Service
DCC Channel Production, Programming, and Broadcast	The management and broadcast operations of the District City Council Channel (DCC), a government channel that provides transparent, informative, open government programming to District residents.	Daily Service

2. Regulate the District of Columbia's cable service providers and enforce federal and District government cable television laws and regulations. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Support for District Resident Cable Customers	Provide customer service for District resident customers of cable television services. Respond to customer questions, complaints, and service quality concerns.	Daily Service
District Cable Franchise Agreements	Negotiate and regulate cable franchise agreements between cable service providers and the District of Columbia. Ensure compliance with the negotiated franchise agreements, and maintain an economic and regulatory environment that promotes competition and consumer protection within the District's cable television industry.	Daily Service

3. Implement, administer, and support programs, education and employment initiatives that advance the District of Columbia’s film, television, music, and entertainment industries. (5 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Permitting and Production Support Services	Provide permitting, production support services, and location assistance for media production within the District of Columbia. Promote the District as a location for media production.	Daily Service
Film, Television, and Entertainment Rebate Fund	Manage and administrate the District of Columbia Film, Television and Entertainment Rebate Fund (formerly the Film DC Economic Incentive Fund). Strategically leverage the District's media production and infrastructure incentive program to support the growth of a sustainable creative economy and promote employment within the media industry.	Key Project
Special Events	Support creative economy festivals, special events, and support the programing and initiatives of media professional organizations, schools, youth organizations, and non-profits.	Daily Service
Special Event Logistics and Production Support	Provide logistics, production, and broadcasting support for local creative economy, cultural, and public service events and festivals.	Key Project
Creative Economy Media Education	Manage, implement, support media education, creative economy workforce development, internships, and training programs for youth and adults in the District of Columbia.	Key Project

4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Government Public Service Programming	Provide programming that informs District residents about the operations, services, programs and initiatives managed, maintained, and administrated by the District of Columbia government, government agencies, and the District of Columbia City Council.	Daily Service
Agency Website and Social Media Strategy	Maintain a dynamic, transparent website (and social media strategy) that provides District residents relevant and useful information related to the agency's operations, administration, and services. Produce and distribute a monthly agency newsletter.	Daily Service

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Provide District residents informative, educational, government programming via the District Council Channel (DCC), the District of Columbia Network (DCN), and the District Knowledge Network (DKN). (3 Measures)

The mission of the District of Columbia Office of Zoning (DCOZ) is to provide administrative, professional, and technical assistance to the Zoning Commission (ZC) and the Board of Zoning Adjustment (BZA) in support of their oversight and adjudication of zoning matters in the District of Columbia.

Summary of Services

DCOZ administers the zoning application processes for the ZC and BZA. The agency reviews and accepts applications, schedules hearings to determine whether cases meet specified zoning criteria, schedules meetings to make determinations with respect to pending applications, and issues legal orders. Technology plays a critical role in support of this process by enhancing effectiveness and transparency. DCOZ also spearheads outreach to citizens of the District of Columbia to ensure a robust understanding of the zoning application process.

Program Description

The Office of Zoning operates through the following 2 programs:

Zoning Services – provides assistance, information and services to the ZC, BZA, other government agencies, applicants, businesses, and the general public regarding the District's zoning processes.

This program contains the following 3 activities:

- Zoning Services – provides administrative, professional, and technical assistance to the ZC and BZA in support of their oversight and adjudication of zoning matters in the District, and provides public outreach to ensure that the District's zoning processes are easily understandable and accessible to the public;

- Information Management – provides new systems to automate zoning information and facilitates delivery of zoning services to the public and other District agencies; and
- Zoning Certifications – provides authentication of zoning classification of property to the public, including developers, architects, lawyers, realtors, tax assessors, land owners, and others in the land use business, and provides certified copies of ZC and BZA case files so that courts can have full case documents required for decision-making.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of Zoning has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The District of Columbia Office of Zoning's (DCOZ) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $3,093,279, which represents a 5.2 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $2,939,088. The budget is comprised of $3,069,279 in Local funds and $24,000 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

DCOZ's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $2,925,701, which represents a $10,613, or less than 1.0 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $2,915,088.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for DCOZ included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $5,674 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $16,287 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: DCOZ's proposed local budget includes a net increase of $11,971, primarily in the Zoning Services program, to account for projected personal services costs.

Decrease: The agency's proposed Local funds budget includes a net decrease of $22,584, primarily in Contractual Services in the Zoning Services program, to reflect a reduction in funding for maintenance of the Interactive Zoning Information Systems (IZIS).

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The District of Columbia Office of Zoning's budget proposal reflects an increase of $154,191 in the Agency Management program to support a Memorandum of Understanding with the Office of the Attorney General for legal services, which includes providing a dedicated attorney to support the Zoning Commission.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The District of Columbia Office of Zoning's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

Agency Performance Plan*

Office of Zoning (OZ) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Leverage new and existing technologies to further ensure that the District of Columbia's zoning processes are easily understandable and accessible to the public.
2. Streamline zoning regulations to enhance efficiency and transparency of zoning processes.
3. Create a convenient, easy to use, and understandable zoning process through website development, expansive outreach and educational programs for District residents and businesses.
4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Leverage new and existing technologies to further ensure that the District of Columbia's zoning processes are easily understandable and accessible to the public. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
The Official Zoning Map	OZ is responsible for updating and maintaining the official Zoning Map of the District of Columbia.	Key Project
Interactive Zoning Information System (IZIS)	OZ reviews and accepts applications, schedules public hearings and meetings, and issues legal orders that document the decisions of both the Zoning Commission (ZC) and the Board of Zoning Adjustment (BZA). This process is managed through the IZIS system.	Key Project

2. Streamline zoning regulations to enhance efficiency and transparency of zoning processes. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Zoning Applications and Petitions	OZ reviews and accepts applications, schedules public hearings and meetings, and issues legal orders that document the decisions of both the Zoning Commission and the BZA	Daily Service
Zoning Regulations of 2016	OZ is responsible for updating and maintaining the official Zoning Regulations of the District of Columbia.	Key Project

3. Create a convenient, easy to use, and understandable zoning process through website development, expansive outreach and educational programs for District residents and businesses. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Website Development	OZ is responsible for making zoning information easily accessible to the public. This is achieved by making a wealth of information, including, documents, video and regulations available on its website 24/7.	Daily Service
Outreach and Education	OZ believes an informed public is better able to navigate the zoning process in the District of Columbia; therefore it conducts expansive outreach to educate the public about the process before the ZC and BZA.	Daily Service

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Leverage new and existing technologies to further ensure that the District of Columbia's zoning processes are easily understandable and accessible to the public. (2 Measures)

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual	FY 2016 Target	FY 2017 Target	FY 2018 Target
Percent of updates to the official zoning map completed within five days of the issuance of a zoning order	Yes	Not Available	New Measure	Not Available	New Measure	New Measure
Percent of webstreamed video of ZC and BZA hearings and meetings that are posted to OZ's website with 48 hours of recording	Yes	Not Available	New Measure	Not Available	New Measure	New Measure

2. Streamline zoning regulations to enhance efficiency and transparency of zoning processes. (3 Measures)

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual	FY 2016 Target	FY 2017 Target	FY 2018 Target

The mission of the Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) is to create and preserve opportunities for affordable housing and economic development, and to revitalize underserved communities in the District of Columbia.

Summary of Services

DHCD's fundamental activities consist of financial operations, program delivery, administration of regulations, and support of the independent Rental Housing Commission. The specific strategic objectives that DHCD focuses on to stimulate economic development and spur the dream of home ownership in underserved communities are (1) preserve and increase the supply of quality affordable housing throughout the District, (2) increase homeownership opportunities to residents of low and moderate income households, and (3) revitalize District neighborhoods by promoting community development that embraces economic opportunities for local businesses. DHCD creates and preserves affordable housing by providing low-cost gap financing and subsidies for single-family residential rehabilitation and multi-family construction projects to garner affordable rental and homeownership opportunities throughout the city. DHCD also leverages its appropriated local and federal funding to help finance community facilities, acquire property, and administer disposition activities for vacant and abandoned properties to help stabilize District neighborhoods and provide new local opportunities. DHCD partners with community-based organizations citywide to implement residential and community services that include homeownership assistance programs, housing counseling services, storefront facades improvement initiatives, and small business technical assistance services. In addition, DHCD administers the rental housing regulations that govern condominium and cooperative conversions, rent control, inclusionary zoning, and affordable dwelling unit programs. The Affordable Housing Locator is also a service of DHCD and is available online at dchousingsearch.org. All of these programs and services can be accessed through DHCD's Housing Resource Center located in the historic Anacostia neighborhood in Ward 8.

Division Description

The Department of Housing and Community Development operates through the following 9 divisions:

Development Finance Division (DFD) – provides funding for the development of rental, homeownership, and community facility developments that serve District of Columbia neighborhoods. As both the creation and preservation of affordable housing units are important to DHCD, DFD plays a prominent role in helping the agency achieve its annual multifamily housing production goals.

This division contains the following 4 activities:

- Affordable Housing Project Financing – provides funding through a competitive Request for Proposal (RFP) funding process that targets communities and types of development needed to revitalize neighborhoods. The bulk of the funds come from Intra-District funding from the Housing Production Trust Fund. This activity also provides development financing and regulatory oversight to nonprofit and for-profit developers so that they can develop properties as affordable ownership and rental units. This activity includes the preparation of Notice of Funding Availability and RFP documents, management of the application and selection process, project management meetings, construction overviews, underwriting, architectural reviews, monitoring reports, funding request presentations, loan closings, and project monitoring services;
- Community Facilities Project Financing – provides funding through a competitive RFP funding process for development financing and regulatory oversight to nonprofit and for-profit developers so that they can develop properties as neighborhood community/commercial facilities. This activity includes the preparation of Notice of Funding Availability and RFP documents, management of the application and selection process, project management meetings, construction overviews, underwriting, architectural reviews, monitoring reports, funding request presentations, loan closings, and project monitoring services;
- Tenant Opportunity To Purchase Assistance (TOPA) – requires current landlords to provide their tenants the opportunity to first purchase properties before a landlord is permitted to sell; DHCD also provides free, specialized organizational and development services for tenant groups who are pursuing the purchase of their apartment buildings with the intention to convert them to cooperatives or condominiums. Services can include assistance with structuring the tenant association, preparation of legal documents, and help with loan applications; and
- Preservation Project Financing – allocates funds toward preserving affordable housing units for residents with low-to-moderate income across the District. These units were previously subsidized through federal housing programs, and as the subsidies expire, homeowners will be able to maintain affordability in their communities.

Residential and Community Services Division (RCSD) – provides funding for programs focused on household-level housing needs and neighborhood revitalization. RCSD works through neighborhood-based organizations providing comprehensive housing counseling, small business technical assistance, and facade improvement opportunities. RCSD administers the agency's Affordable Housing Initiative through its Community and Residential Services activities, including the District's Home Purchase Assistance Program and Employer Assisted Housing Program, which provide financial assistance for low and moderate-income households and District government employees for the purpose of first-time home purchase. The division also provides rehabilitation resources, including grants for lead hazard remediation to eligible units and loans as well as grants to income-qualified owner-occupant District residences in order to preserve homeownership in the District.

This division contains the following 7 activities:

- Community Services - Housing Counseling (Neighborhood Based Activities) – provides funding for counseling services to tenants, potential homeowners, and current homeowners;
- Community Services - Small Business Technical Assistance – provides technical assistance to small businesses in support of various DHCD programs;
- Community Services - Commercial Revitalization – provides grants to neighborhood-based organizations for storefront facade improvements in commercial corridors;
- Residential Services - Home Purchase Assistance Program (HPAP) – provides down payment and closing cost assistance to low and moderate income District residents so that they can become first-time home-buyers in the District of Columbia;
- Residential Services - Employer Assisted Housing Program (EAHP) – provides down payment and closing cost assistance to qualified District of Columbia government employees;

- Residential Services - Lead Safe Washington – provides funding to reduce lead-based paint hazards in eligible single- and multi-family dwellings; and
- Residential Services - Single Family Rehabilitation – helps households finance up to $75,000 in loans for home repairs that will address District housing code violations, such as repairing walls and floors, replacing windows, and repairing plumbing, electrical, and heating systems.

Property Acquisition and Disposition Division (PADD) – stabilizes neighborhoods by decreasing the number of vacant and abandoned residential properties in the District and transforming vacant, blighted and/or abandoned residential properties into homeownership opportunities for District of Columbia residents at all income levels. PADD has three main functions: (1) encourage property owners to rehabilitate and/or occupy their vacant and abandoned residential property; (2) acquire vacant, blighted, abandoned and deteriorated properties through negotiated friendly sale, eminent domain, donation, or tax sale foreclosure; and (3) dispose of properties in the PADD inventory by selling the properties to individuals or developers to be rehabilitated into high quality affordable and market-rate single-family and/or multifamily for-sale housing in District neighborhoods.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Property Acquisition – acquires vacant, abandoned, and deteriorated properties through negotiated friendly sale, eminent domain, donation, or tax sale foreclosure when owners are unwilling or unable to maintain their properties;
- Property Disposition – disposes of properties in the PADD inventory by selling the properties to individuals or developers to be rehabilitated into high quality affordable and market-rate single-family and/or multifamily for-sale housing in District neighborhoods; and
- Vacant and Blighted – acquires vacant, blighted, abandoned, and deteriorated properties through negotiated friendly sale, eminent domain, donation, or tax sale foreclosure when owners are unwilling or unable to maintain their properties.

Portfolio and Asset Management Division (PAMD) – provides portfolio management and oversight of outstanding loans to DHCD and manages the allocation of Low Income Housing Tax Credits (LIHTC). Established in FY 2008, the division monitors the status of existing loans to ensure compliance with loan covenants and collections of loans that are due and conducts the reviews of the risks and relationships of potential borrowers to protect the department's assets.

Program Monitoring Division (PMD) – conducts oversight and reviews of DHCD projects and funding recipients. Its core functions include the following types of oversight: (1) contract compliance – completing various federally required compliance reviews as part of the underwriting and project development process; (2) quality assurance – monitoring the compliance of DHCD funded sub-recipients with federal HOME Investments Partnership Program (HOME) and Community Development Block Grant Program (CDBG) funding requirements; and (3) compliance monitoring – ensuring projects developed by DHCD through the Housing Production Trust Fund (HPTF), CDBG, HOME and Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) programs remain in compliance with federal and local program requirements throughout the duration of the project's period of affordability.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Contract Compliance – provides oversight and monitoring services of DHCD projects to ensure that the department's use of project funds fully complies with the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and District regulations; and

- Quality Assurance – provides program review and performance evaluation to DHCD and contractors so that they can operate in full compliance with regulations in the most effective and efficient manner possible.

Housing Regulation Administration (HRA) – administers residential housing regulations relating to condominium and cooperative conversions, rent adjustment procedures, licensing, and other related matters. It includes the Rental Accommodation Division and the Rental Conversion and Sales Division and manages the DHCD Housing Resource Center.

This division contains the following 4 activities:

- Rental Conversion and Sales Division (CASD) – administers the District's tenant opportunity to purchase program, regulates the conversion of property to condominiums and cooperatives, registers condominium and cooperative projects, and administers the structural defect warranty claim program;
- Housing Resource Center (HRC) – provides rental housing services to landlords and tenants as well as information to the public on all of the department's services for first-time home-buyers, developers of affordable housing projects, and low-income homeowners. The Housing Resource Center also includes access to the Affordable Housing Locator and an office of University Legal Services for on-site housing counseling;
- Inclusionary Zoning/Affordable Dwelling Units (IZ/ADU) – provides subject matter focus in the administration of the District's new Inclusionary Zoning and Affordable Dwelling Unit programs; and
- Rental Accommodations Division (RAD) – administers the District's rent stabilization program, including registering and licensing rental housing, administering rent adjustment procedures, processing landlord and tenant petitions, providing conciliation services, and acting as a repository for notices to vacate and all rental property records.

Rental Housing Commission (RHC) – enforces the Rental Housing Act of 1985, as amended. The commission has three statutory functions in order to preserve and increase the supply of quality affordable housing in the District: (1) to issue, amend, and rescind regulations that are promulgated for enforcement of the Act; (2) to certify and publish the annual adjustment of general applicability to rents and/or rent ceilings, which adjustment is based upon annual changes (if any) in the Consumer Price Index for the applicable region in which the District of Columbia is located; and (3) to decide appeals brought to the commission from the Rent Administrator and the Office of Administrative Hearings. Although the commission is an independent quasi-judicial body, it has direct reporting responsibility to DHCD on administrative, management, and budgetary matters.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Agency Financial Operations – provides comprehensive and efficient financial management services to, and on behalf of, District agencies so that the financial integrity of the District of Columbia is maintained. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Division Structure Change

The Department of Housing and Community Development has no division structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Department of Housing and Community Development's (DHCD) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $181,392,581, which represents a 6.1 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $170,898,477. The budget is comprised of $23,104,295 in Local funds, $54,586,726 in Federal Grant funds, $4,546,000 in Special Purpose Revenue funds, and $99,155,560 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple divisions, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

DHCD's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $10,104,295, which represents a $19,863, or less than 1.0 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $10,084,432.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for DHCD included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $8,962 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $26,929 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. Additionally, an increase of $1,896 for the Fixed Cost Inflation Factor account for adjustments to fleet services estimates.

Agency Budget Submission

In accordance with the Administration's commitment to producing, preserving, and protecting affordable housing across the District, and the goal to end homelessness in the District, DHCD has commenced work to revitalize the District through the Small Business Assistance program. Additionally, the agency has implemented a performance-based budgeting strategy to better reflect its programmatic activities and to keep up with the growth of economic development in the District. As part of this initiative, DHCD realigned its budget as follows:

Increase: The proposed Local funds budget includes increases of $1,660,039 and 12.5 Full-Time Equivalents (FTEs), of which 8.4 positions were previously funded by Federal Grant funds. This adjustment aligns the budget with projected salary and Fringe Benefit costs across multiple divisions. An increase of $1,754 in Local funds is being proposed and will be used to purchase a new software application that will provide the management team with tracking, compliance, and reporting solutions for affordable housing programs across multiple divisions.

The proposed Federal Grant funds budget reflects an increase of $5,625,319 in the Residential and Community Service division to support new subgrantees that will provide housing and counseling services to assist potential residents with eligibility issues associated with housing opportunities. Contractual Services increased by $1,118,142 across multiple divisions to support the acquisition and renovation of properties that will provide affordable housing and community development opportunities throughout the District. Additionally, in Federal Grant funds, the Agency Management division increased by $6,709 primarily to support new Information Technology equipment purchase.

The proposed budget submission for Special Purpose Revenue (SPR) funds includes a net increase of $8,033 in Subsidies and Transfers to reflect additional funding for the Home Purchase Assistance Program (HPAP).

In Intra-District (ID) funds, DHCD proposes increases of $2,334,775 in the Agency Management division for the agency-managed Fixed Costs, primarily to support higher estimates for rental expenses; and $729,859 across multiple divisions in Subsidies and Transfers to support the costs associated with the Lead Safe Washington program.

Decrease: The DHCD budget proposal for Local funds includes reductions of $10,448 to the Contractual Services budget to reflect a reduction in services associated with the University of the District of Columbia Architectural Research Institute Project; and $101,118 in the Agency Management division as a result of the agency's decision to reduce the costs associated with the use of temporary staffing services. Furthermore, a Fixed Costs decrease of $374,099 in the Agency Management division reflects lower estimates for Rent and Security costs. The Residential and Community Service division is reduced by $1,176,129 in Local funds as a result of lower expenditure projections as well as the reclassification of costs associated with the Greater Washington Urban League HPAP grant to SPR funds.

The proposed Federal Grant funds budget in personal services decreased by $1,067,927 primarily due to the reclassification of 8.4 FTEs to Local funds. Fixed Costs decreased by $1,525,584 in the Agency Management division due to lower estimates across all commodities. Additionally, in Federal Grant funds, the Development Finance division was reduced by $3,323,800 to leverage the use of Housing Production Trust Fund (HPTF) resources for project development.

In SPR funds, a proposed decrease of $53,265 and 0.5 FTE aligns the budget with projected salary and Fringe Benefit costs in the Development Finance division. Additionally, the Agency Management division decreased by $100,000 to reflect a net change of a decrease of $120,000 to equipment purchases due the completion of office space renovation, partially offset by an increase of $20,000 in supplies for administrative purposes. Fixed Costs reductions of $141,261 were made to reflect lower estimates across all commodities except Occupancy. Furthermore, in SPR funds, a proposed decrease of $339,917 is the result of reduced costs associated with travel and training; and a decrease of $709,837 to the Contractual Services budget aligns the budget with projected expenditures.

The budget proposal in ID funds includes a net reduction of $93,455, which reflects a reduction of $118,455 to Other Services and Charges due to reduced administrative expenses, partially offset by an increase of $25,000 to Supplies and Materials. The personal services budget is reduced by $412,067 and

2.0 FTEs in order to align the budget with projected salary and Fringe Benefit costs, and a net decrease of $3,737,040 in the Contractual Services budget reflects the realignment of existing contracts associated with project delivery that provide support for new construction and renovation projects.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The proposed Local funds budget includes a one-time increase of $10,000,000 to support the Housing Preservation Strike Force. Additionally, Local funds increased by $2,000,000 and 8.0 FTEs to continue to support preservation and development activities for affordable housing throughout the District. Lastly, a one-time increase of $1,000,000 will support the Employer Assisted Housing Program.

District's Proposed Budget

Reduce: The Department of Housing and Community Development's budget proposal reflects a reduction of $844,440 in Intra-District funds in the Development Finance division to capture the impact of the "First-Time Homebuyer Recordation Tax Benefit Amendment Act of 2017" on the deed recordation tax's projected revenues. This investment will help reduce home purchase closing costs for low and moderate-income first-time District homebuyers purchasing a home in the District valued at no more than $625,000.

Agency Performance Plan

The Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Increase New Affordable Housing Opportunities.
2. Preserve Existing Affordable Housing Stock.
3. Promote community development activities.
4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Increase New Affordable Housing Opportunities. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Inclusionary Zoning	Inclusionary Zoning requires that a certain percentage of units in a new development or a substantial rehabilitation that expands an existing building set aside affordable units in exchange for a bonus density. The Housing Regulation Administration Division at DHCD administers the Inclusionary Zoning program, including developer compliance, holding lotteries for District residents to occupy units, and general program policy development.	Daily Service
Down Payment Assistance	The Home Purchase Assistance (HPAP) program, Employer Assisted Housing Program (EAHP) and the Negotiated Employer Assisted Housing Program (NEAHP) provide interest-free loans and closing cost assistance to qualified applicants to purchase single family houses, condominiums, or cooperative units. The loan amount is based on a combination of factors, including: income, household size, and the amount of assets that each applicant must commit towards a property's purchase.	Daily Service
Affordable Housing Project Financing	DHCD's Development Finance Division (DFD) provides funding for the development of rental, homeownership and community facility projects that serve DC neighborhoods. As both the creation and preservation of affordable housing units are important to DHCD, DFD plays a prominent role in helping the agency achieve its annual affordable housing production and preservation goals.	Daily Service

2. Preserve Existing Affordable Housing Stock. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Home Rehab Assistance	Single Family Residential Rehabilitation (SFRRP) administers loans and/or grants for home repairs to alleviate DC building code violations and assists homeowners in repairing physical threats to health and safety, and modify and/or eliminate barriers to accessibility for persons with mobility or other physical impairments. SFRRP helps households finance minor home repairs that will address building code violations; repair roofs, remove threats to health and safety, and modify and/or eliminate barriers to accessibility for persons with mobility or other physical impairments. The Lead Safe Washington (LSW) Program provides grant funds for the identification and control of lead-based paint hazards. Deteriorated lead-based paint and lead-contaminated dust present significant health hazards to individuals of all ages and children younger than six-years-old in particular. LSW provides funds to reduce lead-based paint hazards in eligible single and multi-family properties.	Daily Service
Rental Conversion and Sales	The Rental Conversion and Sale Division at DHCD administers the Rental Housing Conversion and Sale Act of 1980 and the Condominium Act of 1976. Through the Conversion Act, District tenants have the opportunity to purchase rights, tenant first rights of refusal, receipt of offer of sale notices, notices of transfer and the conversion of property to cooperatives or condominiums. The Condominium Act regulates condominium formation and registration of condominium units before a developer may offer units to interested buyers, including administration of the Structure Defect Warranty Claim Program.	Daily Service

3. Promote community development activities. (4 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Foster Small Business Development	Grantee organizations provide technical assistance, support and training to small and retail businesses focusing on neglected commercial corridors in low and moderate income areas in the District of Columbia. The program does not provide grants, loans, or direct subsidies to businesses. The neighborhood areas where grantees currently operate include, but are not limited to: Anacostia, Congress Heights, Columbia Heights, Adams Morgan, Mount Pleasant, Georgia Avenue, Petworth, Rhode Island Avenue NE, and Deanwood/Marshall Heights. Grantee organizations are also involved in business attraction and retention. Assistance provided includes micro-loan packaging, business planning, entrepreneurial training, one-on-one business technical assistance, tax preparation assistance, accounting assistance, or legal assistance. Grantee organizations also provide collective business support activities,	Daily Service such as the formation of business alliances, business corridor promotion, mass marketing, volume discount efforts, and collective space management. Through these organizations, DHCD is also heavily involved in neighborhood revitalization efforts in these areas, including major commercial project planning and interagency business development coordination.

Housing Resource Center	The DHCD Housing Resource Center is open Monday – Friday from 8:30 am – 3:30 pm for residents to obtain information about affordable housing options, attend events, and use computers to access DCHousingSearch.org, a free listing service that provides easy access to information about housing opportunities within the District of Columbia.	Daily Service
Housing Counseling	Residential and Community Services works through Community Based Organizations (CBO) to provide comprehensive housing counseling services and other community economic development activities.	Daily Service
Maintain DHCD's Property Portfolio	The Property Acquisition and Disposition Division (PADD) stabilizes neighborhoods by decreasing the number of vacant and abandoned residential properties in the District and transforming vacant and/or abandoned properties into productive use. PADD acquires vacant, abandoned and deteriorated properties through negotiated friendly sale, eminent domain, donation or tax sale foreclosure when owners are unwilling or unable to maintain their properties; and it disposes of properties in the PADD inventory by selling the properties to individuals or developers to be rehabilitated into high quality affordable and market-rate single-family and/ or multifamily for-sale housing in District neighborhoods. 4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Portfolio and Asset Management	The Portfolio and Asset Management Division (PMD) manages the allocation of Low Income Housing Tax Credits (LIHTC) and provides portfolio management oversight to outstanding loans in the division. The division monitors the status of existing loans to ensure compliance with loan covenants and collections of loans that are due and conducts the reviews of the risks and relationships of potential borrowers to protect the Department’s assets. The Department of Employment Services (DOES) puts people to work. DOES achieves its mission by providing the necessary tools for the District of Columbia workforce to become more competitive using tailored approaches to ensure that workers and employers are successfully paired. DOES also fosters and promotes the welfare of job seekers and wage earners by ensuring safe working conditions, advancing opportunities for employment, helping employers find qualified workers, and tracking labor market information and other national economic measurements impacting the District of Columbia.

Summary of Services

DOES, the District of Columbia's lead labor and workforce development agency, provides customers with a comprehensive menu of workforce development services funded through a combination of federal grants and Local appropriations. DOES delivers basic income support services to unemployed or underemployed persons who lost their jobs through no fault of their own through the Unemployment Insurance division. The Labor Standards division ensures a safe and healthy work environment for workers in the District, administers a program to provide benefits to qualified individuals with employment-related injuries or illnesses, administers the District's wage-and-hour laws, and provides hearing and adjudication services to settle workers' compensation disputes. DOES' Workforce Development division provides job seekers with workforce development and training programs and services to ensure employers have access to qualified job candidates. Finally, DOES provides District youth with job training, academic enrichment, leadership, and employment opportunities through its Year-Round employment program, the Mayor Marion S. Barry Summer Youth Employment Program, and the Mayor Marion S. Barry Youth Leadership Institute.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Division Description

The Department of Employment Services operates through the following 6 divisions:

Unemployment Insurance (UI) – provides basic income replacement insurance to workers unemployed through no fault of their own, thereby contributing to the economic stability of the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area.

This division contains the following 4 activities:

- Tax Collections – collects quarterly taxes from for-profit local employers and reimbursement payments from local non-profit employers, which finance the payment of weekly benefits to workers unemployed without fault;
- Benefits – provides cash payments to customers who are unemployed through no fault of their own and are able, available, and actively seeking work;
- Benefit Payment Control Unit (BPC) – promotes and maintains integrity of the UI division through prevention, detection, investigation, prosecution, and recovery of UI overpayments made to claimants. BPC is also responsible for the investigation and determination of fraudulent and/or erroneous payment cases; and
- Compliance and Independent Monitoring – collects and analyzes necessary data to assess the validity of UI benefit payment activities, assesses the underlying causes of error in the UI benefit payment and collection of UI taxes, and recommends corrective action to the problems identified.

Labor Standards – provides worker protection and dispute resolution services for the workers and employers of the District so that disputes are resolved fairly and the safety of the workplace is ensured.

This division contains the following 5 activities:

- Office of Wage Hour – enforces the District's wage-hour laws through compliance audits for the benefit of private-sector employees so that they can be paid at least the minimum wage, required overtime, all earned and promised wages, living wage, required sick leave, and amounts required by other labor laws;

- Office of Occupational Safety and Health – provides on-site consultation services, investigations, training, and program assistance to private-sector employers so that they can identify and correct workplace hazards;
- Office of Workers' Compensation – processes claims and provides informal dispute resolution, insurance-coverage compliance monitoring, and related services to private-sector injured workers, employers, insurance carriers, and other stakeholders;
- Administrative Hearings Division – provides formal administrative hearings to employees, employers, and the District government so that rights and responsibilities are determined fairly, promptly, and in accordance with the workers' compensation acts; and
- Compensation Review Board – provides administrative review of case decisions (compensation orders) issued by the Administrative Hearings Division and/or the Office of Workers' Compensation.

Workforce Development – provides employment-related services for unemployed or underemployed persons so that they can achieve economic security and compete in the global economy.

This division contains the following 13 activities:

- Senior Services – provides subsidized employment placements to District residents who are both 55 years old or older and economically underprivileged so that they can develop or enhance their job skills and be placed in unsubsidized employment;
- Program Performance Monitoring – provides compliance, oversight, and technical assistance to training vendors, procurement staff, and departmental administrators;
- Local Adult Training – provides training programs that teach job skills that will facilitate the expansion of employment opportunities for District adult residents;
- Office of Apprenticeship Information and Training – provides apprenticeship promotional services and assistance to District residents and apprenticeship sponsors and administers the pre-apprenticeship program;
- Employer Services – provides technical assistance, recruitment, referral, placement, planning, and oversight services to area employers/businesses so that they can hire qualified individuals;
- First Source – establishes hiring requirement of District residents for jobs associated with government-assisted projects in order to combat the under-employment of District residents;
- Veteran Affairs – administers the two federal grants, Local Veteran's Employment Representative (LVER) and Disability Veterans Outreach Program (DVOP), which the agency receives from the Department of Labor (DOL). All services provided through these programs are directly for veterans;
- One-Stop Operations – provides comprehensive employment support, unemployment compensation, training services, and supportive services through a network of easily accessible locations;
- Labor Market Information – administers four Bureau of Labor Statistics programs and an Employment and Training Administration program under a Federal/State cooperative agreement;
- Year-Round Youth Program – provides year-round services to eligible youth, including subsidized employment, academic enrichment activities, and vocational training to prepare participants for the workforce;
- Marion Barry Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP) – provides temporary, subsidized summer employment and academic/workforce enrichment activities to eligible District youth;
- Marion Barry Youth Leadership Institute – administers a four-level youth leadership training and development program emphasizing citizenship and leadership skills; and
- State-Wide Activities – includes Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act statewide funding that is reserved for statewide activities including incentive grants, technical assistance, management information systems, evaluation, and "One-Stop" system building. In addition, permissible statewide activities include incumbent worker projects, authorized youth and adult activities, and additional system building. For additional information, please refer to the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, Public Law 113-128, which was signed into law August 22, 2014.

Division of State Initiatives (DSI) - is comprised of locally funded signature programs highlighted by Project Empowerment, as well as DOES' suite of branded programming. DSI programs are aimed to provide comprehensive employment services to underserved adults that face multiple barriers to employment. Participants are empowered through relevant training, substantive work experiences, and a wide-range of supportive services. Through extensive collaboration with District agencies and the local business community, DSI seeks to generate positive, long-term employment outcomes through opportunity created by transitional employment.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Transitional Employment "Project Empowerment" - is a transitional employment program that provides job readiness training, work experience, and job search assistance to District residents who face multiple barriers to employment. Participants attend an intensive, three-week training course and upon completion have the opportunity to be placed in subsidized employment for up to six months. In addition to job readiness training, and job search assistance, Project Empowerment provides supportive services such as adult basic education, job coaching, and occupational skills training. The goal of Project Empowerment is for participants to secure permanent, unsubsidized employment;
- DC Career Connections - is a work readiness program designed to provide more than 400 out-of-school and unemployed young adults with opportunities to gain valuable work experience, skills training, and individualized coaching and support to obtain employment. An integral component of Mayor Muriel Bowser's Safe, Stronger DC Initiative, DC Career Connections actively seeks to engage District youth in targeted Police Service Areas (PSAs) across the District; and
- Learn, Earn, Advance, Prosper (L.E.A.P.) - is a network of interconnected partners utilizing the "earn-and-learn" approach that will link the city's unemployed residents with employment, education and training opportunities. The earn-and-learn approach applies the apprenticeship model to skill development, allowing individuals to earn a wage while participating in an on-the-job training experience and concurrently participating in related technical instruction. This framework allows individuals to earn wages and accumulate work experience, thus bolstering their ability to advance along a career pathway and into the middle class.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Agency Financial Operations – provides comprehensive and efficient financial management services to, and on behalf of, District agencies so that the financial integrity of the District of Columbia is maintained. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Division Structure Change

The proposed division structure changes are provided in the Agency Realignment appendix to the proposed budget, which is located at www.cfo.dc.gov on the Annual Operating Budget and Capital Plan page.

GROSS FOR CF0 - DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT SERVICES		144,366	683.1

(Change is calculated by whole numbers and numbers may not add up due to rounding)

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Department of Employment Services' (DOES) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $144,366,123, which represents a less than 1.0 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $143,225,202. The budget is comprised of $62,379,641 in Local funds, $35,354,888 in Federal Grant funds, $260,001 in Private Grant funds, $44,704,618 in Special Purpose Revenue funds, and $1,666,975 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple divisions, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

DOES' FY 2018 CSFL budget is $64,877,473, which represents a $1,107,775, or 1.7 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $63,769,697.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for DOES included adjustments that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments were made for a net decrease of $22,441 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend comparative analysis, and an increase of $229,090 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. Additionally, an increase of $901,126 was made for the Fixed Cost Inflation Factor to reflect estimates based on historical expenditures of Department of General Services' commodities, Telecommunications, and fleet services.

Agency Budget Submission

Create: In its FY 2018 proposed operating budget, DOES established a new division in its organizational structure. The Division of State Initiatives (DSI) will be responsible for providing comprehensive employment services to underserved adults that face multiple barriers in attaining employment. To accomplish these goals, the division will be supported by $15,624,528 and 36.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) positions in Local funds. Of these FTEs, 13.0 are new and 23.0 were Local-funded and reallocated from existing divisions.

DOES' budget proposal includes allocations of $9,037 in Special Purpose Revenue (SPR) funds and the establishment of an Intra-District (ID) budget in the net amount of $1,028,607 and 16.0 FTEs to support the DSI division. The ID budget is supported by a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Department of Human Services to support services for participants in the Transitional Employment and the Marion Barry Summer Youth Employment Program (MBSYEP); and an MOU with the Department of Health to support the Project Empowerment Home Visits program.

Increase: In Federal Grant funds, the budget proposal includes a net increase of $1,578,756 and 22.5 FTEs due to a realignment of FTEs between Special Purpose Revenue and Federal Grant funds.

In FY 2018, DOES established a new Private Grant fund in the amount of $260,001 entitled "Cities for Financial Empowerment." Revenues from this fund will be allocated to the Workforce Development division to support the MBSYEP.

In SPR funds, the budget proposal includes a net increase of $1,145,705, primarily in the Unemployment Insurance division to align the budget with anticipated revenues collected under the Worker's Compensation Administrative fund, the Unemployment Insurance Interest and Penalties fund, and the Wage Theft Prevention fund. Additionally, the SPR budget proposal includes a net increase of $724,396 primarily in the Unemployment Insurance division. This adjustment aligns the budget with Fixed Costs projections based on estimates from the Department of General Services (DGS) and the Office of the Chief Technology Officer (OCTO) for Energy, Telecommunications, Security, and Occupancy.

In the proposed budget for Intra-District funds, the Workforce Development division reflects a net increase of $638,368 and 7.0 FTEs. These funds will be used to support services for participants in the MBSYEP and Year-Round programs.

Decrease: The proposed Local funds budget reflects a net decrease of $889,873 across multiple divisions. This adjustment is due to Fixed Costs estimates from DGS and OCTO and reflects a net projected decrease in usage among Energy, Telecommunications, Security, and Occupancy. In addition, the proposed Local funds budget reflects personal services adjustments across multiple divisions. These adjustments reflect a projected net decrease of $1,590,887 to align salary and Fringe Benefits costs, including the reallocation of 2.3 FTEs to the newly created DSI division. A net decrease of $13,278,299 in Local funds across multiple divisions will not adversely affect the level of service provided to District citizens. This action shifts funding to the State Initiatives division and other areas will now be supported by Intra-District funds.

The proposed net decrease of $191,157 across multiple divisions in Federal Grant funds was made to align the budget with Fixed Cost estimates from DGS and OCTO for Energy, Telecommunications, Rent, Security, and Occupancy; and a proposed net decrease of $1,382,217 across multiple divisions was made to support projected increases in personal services and align the budget with projected grant awards.

In Private Donations, the proposed budget reflects a decrease of $1,000 in the Workforce Development division to align the budget with anticipated donations.

In SPR funds, the proposal includes a net decrease of $1,279,519 to align the personal services budget with anticipated expenditures, which includes the reallocation of 14.2 FTEs to Federal Grant funds.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: In Local funds, DOES reflects a net increase of $363,052 and 2.0 FTEs in the Labor Standards division. This funding will be used by the Office of Wage-Hour to support the Wage laws and Wage Theft Prevention Act.

Transfer-In: The proposed Local funds budget includes a transfer of $34,000 to the Labor Standards division from the Department of Energy and Environment (DOEE). These funds will be used to support the enforcement of the transit benefit programs for District employers.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: DOES' proposed Local funds budget includes an increase of $440,022 across multiple divisions. This adjustment includes a technical adjustment of $375,022 allocated from the Non-Departmental Account to support 4.0 additional FTEs in accordance with the Building Service Employees Minimum Work Week Act of 2016, in the Labor Standards division, within the Office of Wage Hour activity; and $65,000 to support the Returning Citizens Portal of Entry program that provides workforce development assistance for returning citizens in the State Initiatives division, within the Transitional Employment activity. The Returning Citizens Portal of Entry will serve as a one-stop shop for returning citizens to get connected to holistic supports and resources like housing, employment, and health care.

Reduce: DOES' proposed Local funds budget is decreased by $3,200,374 across multiple divisions. The reduction is primarily within the Workforce Development division and includes reductions that reflect past lower levels of spending in several programs and activities, and a reduction to the Marion Barry Summer Youth Employment Program to reflect participation rates in last year's program.

Agency Performance Plan*

The Department of Employment Services (DOES) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Increase customer service and customer satisfaction by providing and delivering professional, helpful, high quality service and assistance before, during, and after the customer's requirements are met, including promptness, politeness, professionalism, and personalization.
2. Improve and increase the capabilities of DOES staff, enhancing professional development, through access to education and training opportunities in the workplace, through outside organizations and through watching others perform through best practices.
3. Increase and improve business engagement by: 1) discovering opportunities to create business value through capabilities, assets and investments; 2) launching and governing projects and programs that capitalize on those opportunities; and 3) ensuring that the potential business value from those opportunities is fully realized.
4. Create efficient service delivery by defining the content of our services, the roles and responsibilities of our customers and service providers, and setting service quality expectations, availability, and timeliness for our service delivery.
5. Improve unified and universal branding, creating, and sustaining a unique image for DOES services mainly through advertising campaigns with a consistent theme.
6. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into “daily services” (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term “key projects” that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Increase customer service and customer satisfaction by providing and delivering professional, helpful, high quality service and assistance before, during, and after the customer's requirements are met, including promptness, politeness, professionalism, and personalization. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Workforce Development Training Programs	Connecting residents 18 years of age or older to Workforce Development Training Programs.	Daily Service

2. Improve and increase the capabilities of DOES staff, enhancing professional development, through access to education and training opportunities in the workplace, through outside organizations and through watching others perform through best practices. (2 Activities)

WORKLOAD MEASURES

Workload Measures, also called inputs or outputs, quantify an activity, effort or process that is necessary to make progress towards the Strategic Objectives. They help answer the question; "How much are we doing?"

1. Workforce Development Training Programs: connecting residents 18 years of age or older to Workforce Development Training Programs.

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2014 Actual	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual
Number of trainees entering workforce development programs	Yes	Not Available	Not Available	New Measure

2. Job Centers: providing job seekers with a number of employment opportunities. Each center provides career counseling, resume assistance, job placement, vocational training, access to online services, information about local and national labor markets, and unemployment insurance.

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2014 Actual	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual
Number of customers visiting American Job Centers (AJCs)	No	20,234	26,900	28,875

3. Unemployment Benefits: providing temporary weekly benefits to workers who become unemployed due to no fault of their own.

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2014 Actual	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual
Average number of issues cleared and/or resolved by Benefits Claims Examiners	Yes	Not Available	Not Available	New Measure
Number of calls to the call center (Customer Navigation Center) regarding unemployment insurance benefits	No	Not Available	Not Available	Not Available

4. First Source Management, Monitoring, and Enforcement: managing and monitoring First Source Employment Agreements as well as handles all reporting regarding the agreements specified in the First Source Employment Agreement Act; e.g. the regular reports sent to the Council of the District of Columbia.

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2014 Actual	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual

Program Description

The Real Property Tax Appeals Commission operates through the following 3 programs:

Real Property Appeals Process – provides a second-level administrative remedy for property owners to adjudicate property assessments prior to formal litigation in the D.C. Superior Court.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Appeals Process – provides a second-level administrative remedy for property owners to adjudicate property assessments prior to formal litigation in the D.C. Superior Court. Under the Real Property Assessments Process program, the agency schedules all real property assessment appeals and coordinates the hearings process with board members to ensure that property assessments reflect 100 percent of fair market value; mails all decisions; performs inspections, as required, and renders solid decisions based on the actual condition of properties; and updates rules and regulations to include legislative revisions; and
- Commission Operations – supports direct Commission operations, including the development of Commission policies and procedures, direct office support, and Commission training and development.

Real Property Outreach Education – provides assessment appeal services and education to residents, communities, and businesses in the District of Columbia.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Outreach Education – provides assessment appeal services and education to residents, communities, and businesses in the District of Columbia; and
- Commission Outreach – supports outreach operations to residents, communities, and businesses in the District of Columbia provided directly by the commission.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Real Property Tax Appeals Commission has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

GROSS FOR DA0 - REAL PROPERTY TAX APPEALS COMMISSION		1,715	11.0

(Change is calculated by whole numbers and numbers may not add up due to rounding)

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Real Property Tax Appeals Commission's (RPTAC) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $1,714,620, which represents a less than 1.0 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $1,702,654. The budget is comprised entirely of Local funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

RPTAC's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $1,714,620, which represents an $11,966, or less than 1.0 percent, increase over the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $1,702,654.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for RPTAC included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include an increase of $1,361 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $10,604 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: RPTAC's proposed budget reflects a net personal services increase of $12,811 to support proposed salary, step increases, and Fringe Benefit costs across multiple programs. This adjustment also reflects the reclassification of 1.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) position from Temporary to Continuing Full-Time status in the Real Property Appeals Process program.

Decrease: RPTAC's budget proposal includes a net nonpersonal services reduction of $12,811 in the Real Property Appeals Process and Agency Management programs, to offset the projected increase in personal services. This adjustment is comprised of the following reductions: $9,948 in Contractual Services - Other, $2,863 in Other Services and Charges, and $2,500 in Telecommunication, and is partially offset by an increase of $2,500 in Supplies.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Real Property Tax Appeals Commission's budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Real Property Tax Appeals Commission's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

Agency Performance Plan

Real Property Tax Appeals Commission (RPTAC) has the following objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Process and render decisions within the statutory deadlines on all appeals heard by the Commission.
2. Enhance Commissioners' knowledge of various methods of real property valuation through use of market research and data gathering activities and required continued education and training.
3. Create and maintain a fair and transparent hearing process by providing detailed information on the agency website.
4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Process and render decisions within the statutory deadlines on all appeals heard by the Commission. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Appeals Process	The Commission has statutory mandates that govern the timeframes for issuing decisions on residential and commercial appeals.	Key Project

2. Enhance Commissioners' knowledge of various methods of real property valuation through use of market research and data gathering activities and required continued education and training. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Continuing Professional Education	Commissioners will be required to complete at least 12 hours of continued education to maintain and increase their knowledge, and competency in real estate valuation principles and practices.	Key Project
Market Research and Data Gathering	Commissioners will gather market data for the assessment neighborhoods in order to gain a full understanding of local trends and emerging market conditions. The Commissioners will benefit from innovative insights based on economic, demographic and real estate indicators that will assist in rendering well informed decisions.	Key Project

3. Create and maintain a fair and transparent hearing process by providing detailed information on the agency website. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Solicit Feedback	The Commission will distribute exit surveys after the hearings to give petitioners, property owners, and others an opportunity to provide input relative to the strengths and weaknesses in our current level of internal and external customer service provision. This information will be utilized by the Commission to help identify areas in customer service that may need to be improved.	Key Project
Informational Workshops	The Real Property Tax Appeals Commission will hold informational workshops to discuss items related to the assessment appeal process; including updates on changes that have happened as well as anticipated changes for the future.	Key Project

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

The Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs (DCRA) protects the health, safety, economic interests, and quality of life of residents, businesses, and visitors in the District of Columbia by ensuring code compliance and regulating business.

Summary of Services

DCRA is responsible for regulating construction and business activity in the District of Columbia. The agency operates a consolidated permit intake center and reviews all construction documents to ensure compliance with building codes and zoning regulations. To protect consumers, DCRA issues business licenses, professional licenses, and special events permits; registers corporations; and inspects weighing and measuring devices used for monetary profit. DCRA inspects construction activity, building systems, and rental housing establishments, and it abates building code violations if necessary.

Division Description

The Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs operates through the following 7 divisions:

Permitting – certifies compliance with current building codes, manages a consolidated permit application intake center hosting multiple agencies, issues permits for District construction projects, and maintains land records.

This division contains the following 6 activities:

- Plan Review – conducts technical building plan reviews for approval and issues building permits;
- Homeowner Center – functions as a dedicated resource center for homeowners conducting small interior and exterior renovations of their personal residences;
- Development Ambassador - The Development Ambassador program (DAP) assists developers with obtaining a building permit by facilitating the review process in an efficient and expeditious manner. DAP guides the applicant from the preliminary concept design phase to the issuance of the building permit. Ambassadors ensure that all plans and documents are complete, processed and routed to the appropriate agencies and disciplines for technical review and approval;

- Green Building - The Green Building Division is responsible for regulating construction in the District of Columbia that falls under the regulations of green codes including the Green Building Act, Green Construction Code, and Energy Conservation Code. The Division operates within the structure of DCRA's permitting and inspection divisions, with work including reviewing construction documents; conducting building inspections; and collaborating with sister agencies, the building industry, and the community to further the efforts to build a more sustainable DC;
- Permits – serves as the District's central intake and issuance center for building permits and certificates of occupancy; and
- Surveyor – produces and maintains the District's land records.

Enforcement – coordinates and monitors enforcement of violations cited by the agency's regulatory programs and works closely with the Office of the Attorney General to compel compliance through judicial orders. This division also registers vacant properties to encourage their return to productive use and abates nuisances on properties throughout the District.

This division contains the following 4 activities:

- Scheduling and Enforcement Unit – processes all civil infractions with the Office of Administrative Hearings, collects fines, and places property liens on unpaid fines;
- Vacant Property – registers vacant properties in the District of Columbia; processes requests for vacant property tax exemptions; and inspects and designates vacant and blighted properties;
- Regulatory Investigations - investigates complaints and verifies qualifications of businesses that must be licensed in the District of Columbia. The Unit conducts license compliance surveys and issues Notices of Infraction for violations; and
- Rehabilitation – abates numerous housing and building code violations, processes abatement contracts, and collects unpaid abatement costs.

Inspections – protects District residents and visitors and ensures habitable housing by performing residential inspections. This division also performs inspections at construction sites for code compliance and proper permits, manages the District's third-party inspection program, monitors elevators and boilers in District buildings, and maintains the District's building codes to ensure that the District's state-of-the-art and unique buildings are structurally sound.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Building Inspections – inspects commercial buildings, manages permit-related inspection requests, issues citations for violations of the District's Building Codes and District's Zoning Regulations to correct violations, and conducts building and structure assessments for emergency and disaster response in coordination with the Homeland Security and Emergency Management Agency;
- Residential Inspections – inspects residential properties and issues citations of housing code violations; and
- Construction Compliance – manages and coordinates revisions to the District's building and trade codes to meet current demands for adequate and safe construction and the maintenance of new and existing building structures as outlined by the International Code Council Family of Codes.

Zoning and Construction Compliance – interprets and enforces the District's zoning regulations; and provides zoning interpretation, inspections, and enforcement services to contractors, developers, and property owners so that they can be in compliance with the zoning ordinances of the District. Reviews building permit applications to determine compliance with the District's Zoning Regulations.

Licensing – serves as a central point of the agency's customer service intake and issuance responsibilities for business, corporate, and professional licenses. This division also ensures compliance with business regulations.

This division contains the following 7 activities:

- Regulatory Investigations – investigates unlicensed business activity;
- Business Service Center – provides a public-facing office where customers can inquire about, apply for, and receive business licenses and vending licenses and can register corporations;
- Consumer Protection – serves as the District of Columbia's central clearinghouse for consumer complaints, mediates disagreements between consumers and businesses, and investigates claims of illegal and unfair trade practices;
- Corporations – protects the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the District of Columbia and the community through maintenance services and timely registration, including trade name registration of corporations, limited liability companies, and partnerships conducting affairs within the District of Columbia;
- License and Registration Renewal – processes and conducts research for business license applications, renewals, and certifications for businesses seeking to conduct business in the District;
- Occupational and Professional Licensing – develops licensing standards, administers examinations, processes license applications, makes recommendations for board rulings, issues licenses and certificates, and provides technical support and administrative assistance to non-health occupational and professional licensing boards and commissions; and
- Weights and Measures – inspects all commercially used weighing and measuring devices in the District of Columbia.

Administrative Services (Agency Management) – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Agency Financial Operations – provides comprehensive and efficient financial management services to, and on behalf of, District agencies so that the financial integrity of the District of Columbia is maintained. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs' (DCRA) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $60,097,721, which represents an 8.3 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $55,506,179. The budget is comprised of $21,957,700 in Local funds and $38,140,020 in Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple divisions, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current divisions and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter.

Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

DCRA's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $19,827,691, which represents a $160,561, or less than 1.0 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $19,988,252.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for DCRA included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $26,151 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $108,600 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for DCRA includes a reduction of $243,010 to account for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor for an adjustment to reflect Fixed Costs estimates for Fleet services.

Agency Budget Submission

The Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs (DCRA) continues to realign its programs to attain a better framework for planning, programming, and budgeting. Additionally, the agency has implemented a performance-based budgeting strategy to better reflect the agency's programmatic activities and to keep up with the demand for services because of the growth and economic development that the District continues to realize. As part of this initiative, DCRA realigned its personnel between all divisions and contractual services related to Information Technology (IT).

Increase: In Local funds, the proposed budget reflects an increase of $565,384 and 2.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) positions in personal services across multiple divisions, which includes the realignment of personnel between divisions, primarily between the Enforcement and the Administrative Services divisions, from part-time to full-time status. The proposed budget also reflects a net increase of $327,897 across multiple divisions to align nonpersonal services with projected costs. Finally, the proposed Overtime pay budget reflects an increase of $50,000 across multiple divisions to reflect projected costs for the fiscal year.

In Special Purpose Revenue funds, DCRA's proposed budget reflects an increase across multiple divisions as a result of increases in projected revenues used to expand existing programs. An increase of $2,058,333 supports Contractual Services, and an increase of $727,857 supports an additional 6.0 FTEs across multiple programs, of which 3.0 FTEs will primarily support the Permitting division and its Green Building initiative and 3.0 FTEs will serve as program support to the Licensing division for the professional licensing unit.

Decrease: In Local funds, the proposed budget reflects a decrease of $943,282 in Contractual Services related to Information Technology in the Administrative Services division to align contractual services with projected costs and to offset the increase in personal services. The SPR funds budget is decreased by $20,000 in Overtime pay, and a reduction of $144,097 in nonpersonal services will align supplies and professional service fees with projected costs across multiple divisions.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The proposed Local funds budget includes an increase of $1,500,000 and 17.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) positions. The increase consists of $1,200,000 and 14.0 FTEs to facilitate the agency's ability to complete additional abatement activities throughout the District for vacant and blighted properties in the Enforcement/Abatement division, and $300,000 to hire 3 additional housing inspectors. The proposed budget also includes a one-time increase of $1,000,000 and 10.0 FTEs to support Information Technology infrastructures and services, and $1,000,000 in one-time funding to support business process analyses, as well as securing technical resources focused on data analysis and computer application development.

Reduce: The DCRA proposed Local funds budget includes reductions of $69,000 to align funding with the District Department of Human Resources Six Sigma training program and $218,835 to cover revised rent projections.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: DCRA's proposed Local funds budget includes the following adjustments: a net increase of $1,126,668 and 14.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) positions in the Inspection division to reflect a reallocation from the Enforcement division; an increase of $413,000 in the Licensing division, as a technical adjustment in funding allocation from the Non-Departmental Account to support the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs Community Partnership Amendment Act of 2016 (B21-862); an increase of $109,922 and 1.0 FTE in the Permitting division to align the budget with the agency's spending priorities for plan reviews; an increase of $109,922 and 1.0 FTE in the Zoning and Construction Compliance division to ensure compliance with the zoning codes; and a one-time increase of $10,000 in the Administrative Services division to update the agency's IT systems in accordance with a proposed fine increase.

Reduce: DCRA's proposed Local funds budget includes a reduction of $1,126,668 and 14.0 FTEs in the Enforcement division to reflect the reallocation of FTEs to the Inspection division; in addition, the Administrative Services division reflects a reduction of $1,725,000 from IT-related services that are instead funded through the capital improvements program.

Agency Performance Plan

Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs (DCRA) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Provide timely and efficient processes to promote and improve the progression and business development in the District of Columbia.
2. Provide accurate, thorough and efficient plan reviews, within the specified timeframes, to effectively issue permits to the residents and project developers of the District of Columbia.
3. Provide effective enforcement of vacant and blighted properties, thereby encouraging increased housing stock for productive use, including affordable housing.
4. Provide thorough and efficient property maintenance and construction inspections, within the specified timeframes, to improve safety and development in the District of Columbia.
5. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Provide timely and efficient processes to promote and improve the progression and business development in the District of Columbia. (6 Activities)

The mission of the Office of the Tenant Advocate (OTA) is to provide technical advice and other legal services to tenants regarding disputes with landlords; to educate and inform the tenant community about tenant rights and rental housing matters; to advocate for the rights and interests of District renters in the legislative, regulatory, and judicial contexts; and to provide financial assistance to displaced tenants for certain emergency housing and tenant relocation expenses.

Summary of Services

OTA provides a range of services to the tenant community to further each aspect of its mission. The agency:

- Advises tenants on resolving disputes with landlords, identifies legal issues and the rights and responsibilities of tenants and landlords, and provides legal and technical assistance for further action such as filing tenant petitions;
- Provides in-house representation for tenants in certain cases and refers other cases to pro bono or contracted legal service providers and attorneys;
- Works with other governmental and non-governmental officials and entities, including the District Council, the Mayor's office, executive agencies, the courts, tenant stakeholders, advocates, and others, to promote better tenant protection laws and policies in the District;
- Conducts educational seminars in a variety of contexts to inform tenants about their rights and other rental housing concerns; and
- Provides financial assistance for certain emergency housing and relocation expenses to tenants displaced by fires, floods, and governmental property closures.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Program Description

The Office of the Tenant Advocate operates through the following 6 programs:

Legal Representation – implements the agency's statutory duty to represent tenants, at its discretion and as it determines to be in the public interest, in federal or District judicial or administrative proceedings.

This program contains the following 3 activities:

- In-House Legal Representation – provides agency clients with in-house legal representation in certain "high-impact" cases, and refers others to pro bono or contracted legal service providers and attorneys, or helps them find other representation;
- Legal Hotline – provides general advice regarding tenant rights in response to informal inquiries; provides a web-based "Ask the Director" forum and responds to Mayoral, Council, inter-agency, and community inquiries about tenant rights and rental housing law; engages the community in a regular "Live On-line Chat" through the agency website to discuss tenant rights and rental housing matters; and
- Legal Service Provider – provides funding to contracted non-profit legal service providers and attorneys, who qualify through the agency's RFQ process, to enhance their capacity to provide tenants with appropriate legal assistance.

Policy Advocacy – implements the agency's statutory duty to represent the interests of tenants and tenant organizations in legislative, executive, and judicial issues by advocating for changes in laws and rules. This division also tracks developments in rental housing legislation and regulations at both the local and federal levels, and keeps agency stakeholders apprised; develops legislative, rulemaking, and other policy recommendations, and coordinates policy discussions with governmental and community colleagues, including regular discussions with agency stakeholders; advises tenants, advocates, attorneys, governmental colleagues, and others regarding rental housing laws, and serves as the agency's in-house statutory and regulatory expert; and provides support to community-based programs that inform tenants regarding their legislative and regulatory legal protections.

OTA Educational Institute – implements the agency's statutory duty to provide education and outreach to tenants and the community about laws, rules, and other policy matters involving rental housing, including tenant rights under the petition process and formation of tenant organizations. This program also conducts informational presentations in various settings throughout the community; provides a formal series of educational and outreach forums; and develops educational material regarding rental housing laws, rules, and policies.

Emergency Housing – implements the agency's statutory duty to provide emergency housing assistance to qualified tenants in certain situations by:

- Providing financial assistance to temporarily house tenants displaced by fires, floods, and government closures, and in other appropriate circumstances;
- Providing assistance to tenants regarding the packing, moving, and storing of personal possessions;
- Providing first month's rent, and security deposits, utility deposits, and/or application fees, as applicable, for replacement rental housing; and
- Coordinating with other District agencies and community-based organizations to ensure that displaced tenants receive appropriate services.

Case Management Administration and Community Outreach – implements the agency's statutory duty to advise tenants and tenant organizations on filing complaints and petitions, including petitions in response to disputes with landlords.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Case Management Administration – provides legal and technical assistance to tenants regarding rental housing disputes with landlords, including identifying legal issues and the tenant's and the landlord's respective rights and responsibilities, and assisting with follow-up action items, such as completing and filing tenant petitions and monitoring rental housing case hearings; and
- Community Outreach – provides outreach and educational programs regarding tenant rights and rental housing matters and sends "rapid response" letters to tenants affected by certain administrative actions to apprise them of their rights and of OTA's availability to provide further assistance.

Administrative Services (Agency Management) – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of the Tenant Advocate has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of the Tenant Advocate's (OTA) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $4,008,227, which represents a 34.4 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $2,982,566. The budget is comprised of $3,537,633 in Local funds and $470,594 in Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

OTA's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $2,821,862, which represents a $160,704, or 5.4 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $2,982,566.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for OTA included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $6,693 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $21,988 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent.

CSFL funding for OTA includes a reduction of $176,000 to account for the removal of one-time funding appropriated in FY 2017 to support the Emergency Housing Assistance Program.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: The proposed budget submission includes a net increase in personal services in the amount of $45,103 to align the budget with anticipated salary and Fringe Benefits adjustments. OTA will also relocate 1.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) from the Case Management Administration and Community Outreach program to the Administrative Services program.

Decrease: OTA's proposed budget includes a net reduction of $45,103 in nonpersonal services across multiple programs to offset the proposed increases in personal services. This adjustment includes a reduction of $85,353 in Other Services and Charges, offset by an increase of $40,250 in Contractual Services.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: OTA's budget proposal reflects an increase of $340,771 and 1.0 FTE to support the Emergency Housing Assistance program that provides assistance to qualified District tenants who have been displaced by fires, floods, government closures, or other appropriate circumstances.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: OTA's budget proposal includes a one-time increase of $500,000 in Local funds for a Rent Control Housing Clearinghouse and an increase of $345,594 and 3.0 FTEs in Special Purpose Revenue funds to provide additional Attorney Advisors for tenants in Landlord Tenant Court, a Program Analyst that will analyze the housing market and enable the agency to make data-driven recommendation, and additional personal service funding to support the existing IT Specialist that will assist with education, outreach and management of the development of the rent control database. The Rent Control Housing Clearinghouse program, which was originally assigned to the Department of Housing and Community Development, is now being redirected to OTA to establish a user-friendly, internet-accessible, searchable database for the submission, management, and review of all documents and relevant data of all rental housing accommodations in the District of Columbia. The Rent Control program is one of the city's most significant policy tools for maintaining affordable housing.

Shift: To support its operational goals, OTA's budget proposal shifts $125,000 from Local funds to Special Purpose Revenue funds. The revised revenue projections will support the Rent Control Housing Clearinghouse program.

Agency Performance Plan*

The Office of the Tenant Advocate (OTA) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Develop education programs that improve and increase knowledge about the District's statutory tenant rights.
2. Advocate for beneficial changes in legislation and judicial rules in the interest of tenants/tenant organizations.
3. Provide effective legal guidance or representation to tenant clients.
4. Provide prompt emergency housing assistance to tenants displaced by natural disaster or administrative governmental action.
5. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Develop education programs that improve and increase knowledge about the District's statutory tenant rights. (4 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Educational Programs	The Educational Institute will develop programs that are targeted to the tenant population markets that have been identified i.e.., students, tenants, embassy staff, and governmental agencies whose focus is providing assistance and education to low/moderate income communities.	Daily Service
Tenant Rights and Responsibilities	The Office of the Tenant Advocate training course development will be focused and designed based upon tenant complaints and needs.	Key Project
Section 508 Compliance	Existing educational materials must now be brought into compliance with the federal law that affects the rights of the disability community.	Key Project
Continued Education Curricula Design	To provide continuous development of educational materials that will assist tenants in knowing their rights.	Key Project

2. Advocate for beneficial changes in legislation and judicial rules in the interest of tenants/tenant organizations. (4 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Legislative and Regulatory	The OTA will collaborate with external non-profit legal service providers, community-based organizations and create an intra-governmental advisory to develop recommendations regarding legislative and regulatory changes.	Key Project

2. Advocate for beneficial changes in legislation and judicial rules in the interest of tenants/tenant organizations. (4 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Regulatory Review and Update	Working in cooperation with the DC Rental Housing Commissions, the agency will provide fulsome and relevant recommendations for updates to the existing DC Code and DC Municipal Regulations (DCMR) Title XIV housing regulations. This has not occurred in the last 40 years.	Key Project
DC Municipal Regulations Title Iv	To continue intra-agency collaboration in the completion of the municipal regulations revisions.	Key Project
Policy Advocacy	The OTA will collaborate with non-profit and other tenant attorneys, community-based organizations, other advocates, and government colleagues to identify a key policy concern and develop a policy recommendation.	Daily Service

3. Provide effective legal guidance or representation to tenant clients. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Intake Administrative Requirements	Provide guidance to tenant clients who do not qualify for direct OTA representation.	Daily Service
Legal Representation	The legal division will revamp its legal referral program through the creation of a step-by-step operational procedure. This will allow the OTA to have better data on its referral program.	Key Project
Administrative Policy and Procedure Development	The agency's will ensure that the in-house legal operations are supported by written documentation through the creation of standard operating guidelines.	Key Project

4. Provide prompt emergency housing assistance to tenants displaced by natural disaster or administrative governmental action. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Emergency Housing	Provide prompt emergency housing assistance to tenants displaced by natural disaster or administrative governmental action.	Daily Service
Emergency Housing Analysis	To meet statutory requirements, the agency will compile emergency housing data on all cases handled.	Key Project

5. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Policy Advocacy Program	Coordinate with other government agencies in ensuring that the database portals are operational for the entry of data by housing providers, and for the general public to conduct searches of the information in the Rent Control Housing Clearinghouse database.	Key Project
Good Governance	To continue to meet the standards set by Agency and Executive policies ensuring that government remains responsive to the public	Daily Service

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Develop education programs that improve and increase knowledge about the District's statutory tenant rights. (1 Measure)

Program Description

The D.C. Commission on the Arts and Humanities operates through the following 5 programs:

Arts Building Communities – provides grants, performances, exhibitions, and other services to individual artists, arts organizations, and neighborhood and community groups so that they can express, experience, and access the rich cultural diversity of the District. A particular emphasis is placed on traditionally underserved populations, including first-time applicants, seniors, young emerging artists, experimental artists, folk and traditional artists, and artists in East of the River neighborhoods.

D.C. Creates Public Art – provides the placement of high-quality art installations and administrative support services for the public so that they can benefit from an enhanced visual and cultural environment, with a particular emphasis on geographically challenged areas of the city. This program places artwork within the Metro transit system and the numerous murals and sculptures in and around the city's neighborhoods. The goals are promoting economic development and building sustainable neighborhoods.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Neighborhood and Public Art – projects are identified through the culmination of intensive public realm planning processes in partnership with neighborhood advisory groups, Main Street programs, other District government agencies, and private developers. Large-scale works are permanently installed in prominent public locations throughout all eight wards of the District. The program is a citywide benefit because it produces tangible art installations for display in public spaces. The art is inventoried, maintained, and owned by the District. The program also provides partial financial support for artists and organizations to produce public art in public space that the artist or arts organization owns, manages, and maintains; and
- Lincoln Theatre – provides for the maintenance of the Lincoln Theatre and associated projects.

Arts Learning and Outreach – provides grants, educational activities, and outreach services for youth, young adults, and the general public so that they can gain a deeper appreciation for the arts, and to enhance the overall quality of their lives. Specific focus is on providing quality arts education and training experiences to District youth from those in pre-kindergarten through 21 years of age, as well as grants and cultural events to the general public, so that they can access and participate in educational opportunities in the arts.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Arts Learning for Youth – provides grants, program consulting, and advocacy services to school and community partners so that they can deliver quality and age-appropriate arts learning opportunities both in and out of school. The goal is to ensure a quality arts experience for District youth from pre-kindergarten through 21 years of age; and
- Lifelong Learning – provides grants and cultural events to the public so that they can access and participate in educational opportunities in the arts. The goal is long-term development of interest and education in the arts to the broader community.

Administration – provides technical assistance and legislative services to the Commission so that it can provide funding opportunities to District artists and arts organizations.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The D.C. Commission on Arts and Humanities has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

(Change is calculated by whole numbers and numbers may not add up due to rounding)

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The D.C. Commission on the Arts and Humanities' (DCCAH) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $29,856,638, which represents a 35.0 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $22,115,123. The budget is comprised of $28,835,438 in Local funds, $720,200 in Federal Grant funds, $133,000 in Special Purpose Revenue funds, and $168,000 in Intra-District funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

DCCAH's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $14,525,438, which represents a $6,529,785, or 31.0 percent, decrease from the FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $21,055,223.

CSFL Assumptions

The FY 2018 CSFL calculated for DCCAH included adjustment entries that are not described in detail on table 5. These adjustments include a decrease of $2,657 in personal services to account for Fringe Benefit costs based on trend and comparative analyses, and an increase of $53,531 in nonpersonal services based on the Consumer Price Index factor of 2.5 percent. CSFL funding for DCCAH also include a reduction of $6,580,687 to account for the removal of one-time funding appropriated in FY 2017 for training and employee development, increasing arts learning for youth, supporting legislative initiatives and grants management, and facility upgrades at a non-profit musical theatre in the downtown business area. Additionally, an increase of $28 for the Fixed Costs Inflation Factor accounts for an adjustment to reflect Fixed Costs estimates for Fleet services.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: DCCAH proposes to increase its Local funds nonpersonal services budget by $168,778, which consists of $164,732 in contractual services to support DCCAH's sponsorship and marketing activities and $4,046 to procure additional office supplies for operational needs. The budget in Local funds also increased by $11,316 in personal services due to the reclassification of 8.3 FTEs from Term Full-Time to Continuing Full-Time positions, as well as projected salary step increases.

In Federal Grant funds, an increase of $28,300 aligns the budget with projected grant awards from the Arts in Underserved Communities and Arts Education grants. This adjustment supports DCCAH's operations across multiple programs.

Decrease: The budget in Local funds is proposed for a decrease of $47,923, due to DCCAH's plan to move certain contracted professional services in-house, thereby eliminating the associated contractor service fees. The proposed Local funds budget also decreased by $182,171 across multiple programs.

In Special Purpose Revenue Funds, the proposed budget is reduced by $67,000 in the Arts Learning and Outreach program to align funding with projected revenue.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The D.C. Commission on the Arts and Humanities' budget proposal reflects a one-time increase of $4,000,000 in the Arts Building Communities program to support the program's ability to issue more arts grants to District Arts Organizations. In addition, the budget proposal increased by $1,000,000 in the Arts Learning and Outreach program to provide continued support of the arts field trips program for District students. The DC Creates Public Art program has a one-time proposed budget increase of $300,000 to support building a statue of former District Mayor Marion Barry.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: DCCAH's budget proposal in Local funds reflects a net increase of $9,060,000 in one-time funding. Pursuant to Section 7132 of the FY 2018 Budget Support Act of 2017, the increase, in the Arts Building Communities and Arts Learning and Outreach programs is comprised of $4,950,000 to support an existing multi-stage theater organization in the Uptown Arts – Mixed Use Overlay District, as defined in Section 120.1 of Title 11-W of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations (11-W DCMR § 120.1), seeking a matching grant to upgrade or renovate its existing facilities, including for the purpose of increasing public access to the facility; $1,900,000 to assist with capital improvements, such as replacing aging elevators and heating, ventilation, and air conditioning, at a theater in the Central Business District, as defined in Section 9901 of Title 18 of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations (18 DCMR § 9901), that offers Broadway-style musicals; $700,000 to support the establishment of a children's museum in the Central Business District, as defined in Section 9901 of Title 18 of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations (18 DCMR § 9901); $490,000 to support additional grants in the Arts Learning and Outreach program; $250,000 to provide support for infrastructure improvements, such as planting, planning, and outreach events, concerning the National Mall and its grounds, to a nonprofit organization dedicated to improving, preserving, and restoring the National Mall; $250,000 to provide a literary-enrichment program for District of Columbia Public Schools and District of Columbia public charter schools, which includes the provision of copies of literature and curricular materials and author visits for literary discussion with students; $200,000 to provide support to a nonprofit, tax-exempt organization dedicated to preserving burial grounds located in Georgetown, as well as the history of African-American cemeteries, for the purpose of markings and boundaries for such cemeteries and burial grounds and to make visible and definite the locations of graves and the identity of those buried in the graves; $200,000 to provide orchestral performances with supporting community engagement events, such as education events and symposia, in venues within the District, along with full-orchestra performances in the Kennedy Center; and $100,000 to support an existing theater and museum organization in the Central Business District, as defined in Section 9901 of Title 18 of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations (18 DCMR § 9901), that is operated through a public-private partnership and explores the American experience through the intersection of history, performance, and education. In addition, $20,000 was added to the Administration program to support the agency's oversight of the issuance of additional grants.

Agency Performance Plan*

Commission on Arts and Humanities (DCCAH) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. GRANTMAKING - Provide investments through grantmaking that strengthen the District's creative sector of nonprofits arts and humanities organizations and practitioners to stimulate a thriving creative economy, enhance the quality of life of DC residents and provides access to all.
2. ARTS EDUCATION - Promote systemic improvement in pre-K – 12 arts education both in- and out-of-school through arts integration, arts experience, and arts learning utilizing a collective impact approach, aligning the mutual efforts of the numerous stakeholders in the educational ecosystem.
3. POLICY LEADERSHIP - Establish policy and program initiatives that will further promote arts and cultural development of the District while acting as a convener within the arts and humanities community to leverage the myriad ways in which the District government intersects with the interests of the arts, cultural and creative sectors.
4. BUILDING COMMUNITY - Promote inclusiveness and a sense of belonging to neighborhoods while bringing diverse peoples together through the arts, utilizing creative placemaking to improve the vibrancy of place, by building community as a means of improving quality of life.
5. PUBLIC ART - Establish and maintain artworks that are bold and befitting of a world-class city, while remaining grounded in the tradition of supporting local artists and enriching District neighborhoods.
6. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into “daily services” (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term “key projects” that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. GRANTMAKING - Provide investments through grantmaking that strengthen the District's creative sector of nonprofits arts and humanities organizations and practitioners to stimulate a thriving creative economy, enhance the quality of life of DC residents and provides access to all. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Legislative and Grants Management	Supporting arts and humanities practitioners through professional development, technical assistance, site visits and grants.	Daily Service

Note: For more detailed information regarding the proposed funding for the activities within this agency's programs, please see Schedule 30-PBB Program Summary by Activity in the FY 2018 Operating Appendices located on the Office of the Chief Financial Officer's website. "No Activity Assigned" indicates budget or actuals that are recorded at the division/program level.

Program Description

The Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration (ABRA) operates through the following 4 programs:

Licensing – issues new and renewal licenses to liquor stores, grocery stores, restaurants, hotels, nightclubs, and other establishments that manufacture, distribute, sell, or serve alcoholic beverages in the District of Columbia, and works with Records Management to keep accurate and accessible paper and data records of all licensing program activities. This program provides customer services directly to the general public, the business community, ANCs, and community groups and associations.

Investigations – conducts regulatory and voluntary agreement compliance inspections, underage compliance checks, and joint investigations as needed with the Metropolitan Police Department, the Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department, the Office of Tax and Revenue, the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs, and others; and conducts various inspections associated with licensing and adjudicatory processes such as final, compliance, placard, special event, and financial audit investigations. All activities serve to strengthen the awareness of, and compliance with, the appropriate laws and regulations of the District of Columbia.

Records Management – provides files, documents, and database information to ABRA staff, the Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) Board, and the general public so that they can receive accurate information and files. The program also provides certification services, responds to and tracks Freedom of Information Act requests, and responds to subpoena requests.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration's (ABRA) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $8,655,315, which represents a 4.7 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $8,268,024. The budget is comprised of $1,170,000 in Dedicated Taxes and $7,485,315 in Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: In Special Purpose Revenue (SPR) funds, the budget proposal reflects a net increase of $235,630 across multiple programs to support projected personal services costs related to salary, step increases, and Fringe Benefits adjustments. Other adjustments include an increase of $196,755 to support annual IT licensing and improvement contracts.

Decrease: In SPR funds, the proposed budget includes a net reduction of $45,093 across multiple programs to align funding with projected nonpersonal services costs. This adjustment is comprised of: decreases of $35,575 in Other Services and Charges and $10,000 in Equipment costs, partially-offset by an increase of $482 in Telecommunications services based on estimates from the Office of the Chief Technology Officer.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration's budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

Agency Performance Plan

Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration (ABRA) has the following objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Educate licensees on the District's alcoholic beverage laws and regulations.
2. Ensure that licensed establishments are in compliance with the ABC laws and regulations.
3. Engage in community outreach regarding the licensing process.
4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Educate licensees on the District's alcoholic beverage laws and regulations. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Licenses and Permits	The daily issuance of licenses and permits is a key driver in all of ABRA's operations. The number of licenses and permits issued daily is in direct correlation to the amount of revenue the agency generates on a monthly basis.	Daily Service
Renewal of Licenses And Permits	This is a key driver in all of ABRA's operations. The number of licenses and permits renewed directly affects the amount of revenue the agency generates on a monthly basis.	Daily Service

2. Ensure that licensed establishments are in compliance with the ABC laws and regulations. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Regulatory Inspections	Thorough conduction of the regulatory inspections for all licensed establishments.	Daily Service

3. Engage in community outreach regarding the licensing process. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Community Outreach and Notifications	Ensuring the general public are well informed of the schedule of extension of hours for calendar 2018 and its exceptions.	Key Project

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Ensure that licensed establishments are in compliance with the ABC laws and regulations. (7 Measures)

WORKLOAD MEASURES

Workload Measures, also called inputs or outputs, quantify an activity, effort or process that is necessary to make progress towards the Strategic Objectives. They help answer the question; "How much are we doing?"

1. Daily Issuance of Licenses and Permits

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2014 Actual	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual
Number of one-day and substantial change permits issued within 15 days or less.	No	Not Available	Not Available	484

2. Renewal of Licenses and Permits

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2014 Actual	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual
Number of ABC licenses and permits renewed.	No	Not Available	Not Available	3,700

Performance Plan Endnotes

*For more information about the structure and components of FY 2018 draft performance plans, please see the FY 2018 Proposed Budget and Financial Plan, Volume 1, Appendix E.

"Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government" is a new Strategic Objective required for all agencies.

The mission of the Public Service Commission (PSC) is to serve the public interest by ensuring that financially healthy electric, natural gas, and telecommunications companies provide safe, reliable, and quality services at reasonable rates for District of Columbia residential, business, and government customers. This mission includes:

- Protecting consumers to ensure public safety, reliability, and quality utility services;
- Regulating monopoly utility services to ensure that their rates are just and reasonable;
- Fostering fair and open competition among utility service providers;
- Conserving natural resources and preserving environmental quality;
- Resolving disputes among consumers and utility service providers;
- Educating utility consumers and informing the public; and
- Motivating customer and results-oriented employees.

Summary of Services

The Public Service Commission (PSC) regulates public utilities operating in the District of Columbia by issuing orders in formal proceedings that may include written comments or testimony, hearings, studies, and investigations; ensuring fair and appropriate utility prices; fostering competition by licensing utility service providers and supervising the competitive bidding process; ensuring utility providers meet various environmental regulations and standards by operating in ways that conserve natural resources and preserve environmental quality; and resolving disputes among consumers and utility service providers.

In addition to its regulatory services, the Commission also conducts outreach via its website, public forums, and various literature in order to educate utility consumers and inform the public.

The agency's FY 2018 proposed budget is presented in the following tables:

Program Description

The Public Service Commission operates through the following 4 programs:

Pipeline Safety – conducts inspections of natural gas construction projects, investigates incidents, audits Washington Gas' records, and issues notices of probable violations to ensure compliance with federal and District standards.

Utility Regulation – regulates natural gas, electric, and local telecommunications services to ensure providers offer safe, reliable, and quality services at reasonable rates to District of Columbia residential, business, and government customers.

Agency Management – provides administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Agency Financial Operations – provides comprehensive and efficient financial management services to, and on behalf of, District agencies so that the financial integrity of the District of Columbia is maintained. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Public Service Commission has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Public Service Commission's (PSC) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $14,599,407, which represents a 5.1 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $13,889,207. The budget is comprised of $588,616 in Federal Grant funds, $22,000 in Private Donations, and $13,988,791 in Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: PSC's Federal Grant budget, awarded by the U.S. Department of Transportation, includes Pipeline Safety grants. These grants are awarded to the District to support pipeline inspections, protection, enforcement, and safety (PIPES). In Federal Grant funds, the budget proposal includes a net increase of $34,517 in the Pipeline Safety program to support projected personal services costs related to salary, step increases, and Fringe Benefits adjustments. Other adjustments include an increase of $17,800, which consists of $15,800 in Other Services and Charges for employee education/travel and $2,000 in Equipment costs for automotive rental expenses.

PSC's Special Purpose Revenue (SPR) funds are derived from assessing utility companies for services provided in the District. In SPR funds, the proposed budget reflects a net increase of $485,829 across multiple programs to support projected personal services cost related to salary, step increases, and Fringe Benefits adjustments. Other adjustments provide additional funding of $108,906 for various Fixed Cost commodities based on revised estimates from the Office of Finance and Resource Management (OFRM) and the Department of General Services (DGS). These commodities reflect increases of $83,250 for Rent, $24,924 in Occupancy, and $2,833 in Telecommunication, partially offset by a decrease of $2,101 in Energy costs. PSC's budget supports an increase of $78,338, which consists of $47,652 in Equipment for IT software purchases and $30,686 in professional services and IT assessment fees by the Office of the Chief Technology Officer.

Decrease: In Federal Grant funds, PSC proposes to reduce various Fixed Cost commodities by $15,190 according to estimates from OFRM and DGS. These reductions consist of $14,321 in Rent and $869 in Telecommunication costs.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Public Service Commission's budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Public Service Commission's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

Agency Performance Plan

Public Service Commission has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018.

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Ensure Safe, Reliable, and Quality Electric Gas and Local Telecommunications Services at Just and Reasonable Rates.
2. Foster Fair and Open Competition among Service Providers.
3. Educate Consumers and Inform the Public.
4. Motivate Customer and Results-Oriented Employees.
5. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Ensure Safe, Reliable, and Quality Electric Gas and Local Telecommunications Services at Just and Reasonable Rates. (8 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
US Department of Transportation (USDOT) Rating	Annual rating by USDOT of the overall effectiveness of our pipeline safety program.	Key Project
Monitor Construction Projects	Two major utility construction projects will continue in 2018: the undergrounding of electric power lines (DC PLUG) and the replacement of natural gas pipelines (PROJECTPipes). Oversight of these projects helps to assure that they will be constructed efficiently, with minimal disruption and with coordination with other projects and District agencies. Monitoring entails review of design drawings to assure prudence and consistency with industry standards, site inspections, participation in Consumer Education activities, and auditing of expenses.	Key Project
Monitor Compliance with Telecommunications Quality of Service (TQSS)	TQSS are the indices by which we judge whether telecommunications companies are providing safe, reliable and quality service.	Key Project
Modernizing the Energy Delivery System (MEDSIS)	FC 1130, MEDSIS for Improved Sustainability, is a docket intending to explore new technologies and concepts that will add more efficient use of the energy delivery system. In 2018, the Commission will implement new rules to modernize the energy delivery system.	Key Project
Pipeline Inspections	Our pipeline safety inspectors make daily visits to Washington Gas work sites to assure compliance with federal and D.C. safety standards.	Daily Service

1. Ensure Safe, Reliable, and Quality Electric Gas and Local Telecommunications Services at Just and Reasonable Rates. (8 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
One Call Inspections	Our one call inspector makes daily visits to construction sites to assure that contractors avoid utility lines when excavating.	Daily Service
Payphone Inspections	Coin operated payphones are inspected to assure that they are in good working order, available for public use, and not used for illegal activities.	Key Project
Adjudicate Rate Adjustments	The Commission conducts evidentiary or other hearings to determine whether proposed utility rate adjustments are just and reasonable.	Key Project

2. Foster Fair and Open Competition among Service Providers. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Universal Service Trust Fund (USTF)	The Commission oversees management of the USTF, including preparing the annual assessment rate, reviewing Verizon's surcharge calculation and collections, approving an annual budget, and disbursements.	Key Project
Renewable Portfolio Applications Granted	Increased use of renewable energy sources is the policy of the District of Columbia. The Commission approves applications from persons who generate electricity from solar, wind, biomass, and other sources.	Daily Service
Competitive Applications Processed	Energy and telecommunications competitors must be licensed by the Commission. The timely processing of these applications assures a robust competitive environment.	Daily Service

3. Educate Consumers and Inform the Public. (3 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Consumer Complaints and Inquiries	When consumers are unable to resolve an issue with a utility supplier, they may come to the Commission to file an informal or formal complaint. Our Consumer Specialists counsel the consumer, contact the utility, and mediate a resolution to the issue.	Daily Service
Outreach Events	Our Consumer Specialists attend events at venues throughout the District to inform consumers about their rights regarding utility regulation.	Daily Service
Community Hearings	In cases having significant impact on the public (e.g., applications for a rate increase), the Commission conducts Community Hearings at which it presents a summary of the case and invites members of the public to express their views.	Key Project

4. Motivate Customer and Results-Oriented Employees. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Cases Opened	The opening of new cases is a measure of the efficiency of the staff, requiring the establishment of a docket, notification, and establishment of a records management approach for each case.	Daily Service
Number of Orders Issued	The number of orders issued is a measure of the results-oriented efficiency of our staff.	Daily Service

5. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Percentage of Complaints Resolved	Percentage of complaints resolved at an informal level is a measure of agency efficiency.	Key Project
Complete Adjudications	Adjudications are often complex proceedings involving evidentiary and community hearings. Completion of adjudications within 90 days of the close of the record is a measure of the efficiency of the staff.	Key Project

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

The mission of the Office of the People's Counsel ("OPC" or "The Office") is to: advocate for the provision of safe and reliable quality utility service and equitable treatment at rates that are just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory; assist individual consumers in disputes with utility providers; provide technical assistance, education, and outreach to consumers and rate-payers, community groups, associations, and the Consumer Utility Board; and provide legislative analysis and information to the Council of the District of Columbia on matters relating to utilities. The Office's mission further includes consideration of the District's economy and promotion of the environmental sustainability of the District.

Specifically, OPC's mission includes:

- Advocating on behalf of District consumers in adjudicatory and regulatory proceedings before the D.C. Public Service Commission, federal agencies, and courts;
- Representing District consumers in individual disputes involving gas, electric, and telephone companies providing residential service in the District of Columbia;
- Educating consumers about ongoing and emerging utility issues; Collaborating and forming alliances with District agencies and other stakeholders involved in the utility regulatory process;
- Informing and advising District policy makers, including the Executive Office of the Mayor and the District Council, of emerging utility issues affecting their constituents;
- Advising the District Council on the need for legislative action to address consumer-based utility issues; Serving as a statutory member on the Sustainable Energy Utility Advisory Board to assist in the development of a city-wide sustainable energy policy; and
- Providing consultative services and technical assistance to utility consumers to facilitate their participation in utility proceedings and to ensure that their interests are adequately represented in these proceedings.

Summary of Services

OPC is a party to all utility-related proceedings before the D.C. Public Service Commission and represents the interests of District ratepayers before local and federal regulatory agencies and courts. The Office assists individual consumers in disputes with utility companies about billing or services, and provides consumer education and outreach to community groups and associations on emerging issues impacting the quality, reliability, and affordability of their utility services and associated environmental issues. The Office provides technical assistance to consumers, the Consumer Utility Board (CUB), as well as other District community groups. OPC also provides legislative analysis for, assistance to, and testimony before, the District Council on utility matters.

Program Description

The Office of the People's Counsel operates the following 3 programs:

Office of People's Counsel – provides consumer advocacy for utility consumers in the District so that they can receive quality utility service and equitable treatment at rates that are just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Consumer Advocacy and Representation – provides legal and technical analysis, and consumer advocacy services for District consumers to ensure safe, reliable services at rates that are just, reasonable, and consistent with new statutory mandates; and advocates for the conservation of the natural resources of the District, consideration of the economy, and the preservation of environmental quality; and
- Public Information Dissemination – provides consumer education, outreach, and technical assistance to District consumers so that they can understand their rights as ratepayers and make informed decisions about their utility services.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Agency Financial Operations – provides comprehensive and efficient financial management services to, and on behalf of, District agencies so that the financial integrity of the District of Columbia is maintained.This program is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Program Structure Change

The Office of the People's Counsel has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Office of the People's Counsel's (OPC) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $8,062,744, which represents a 7.5 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $7,497,285. The budget is comprised entirely of Special Purpose Revenue funds.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: OPC's FY 2018 proposed budget includes a net increase of $487,505 and 3.0 FTEs in personal services across multiple programs. These positions will provide the public with essential technical support and information to make informed decisions about their utility services. Additionally, the budget proposal reflects a net increase of $105,279 across multiple programs primarily to support projected equipment costs. Other adjustments include a net increase of $22,675 in the Agency Management program, to align the budget with Fixed Cost estimates from the Department of General Services (DGS) and the Office of Finance Resource Management (OFRM). This adjustment is comprised of increases of $23,150 in Occupancy costs, $21,058 in Rent, partially offset by decreases of $21,399 in Telecommunication, and $134 in Energy costs.

Decrease: OPC proposes a reduction of $50,000 in the Office of People's Counsel program to reflect a decrease in Contractual Services' costs.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Office of the People's Counsel's budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Office of the People's Counsel's budget proposal reflects no change from the Mayor's proposed budget to the District's proposed budget.

Agency Performance Plan

Office of the People' Counsel (OPC) has the following strategic objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Provide consumer education, outreach and technical assistance to District ratepayers and consumers on matters relating to natural gas, electric, and telephone utilities.
2. Ensure effective advocacy on behalf of consumers and ratepayers of natural gas, electric, and telephone services in the District.
3. Enhance agency operational efficiency to improve agency efficiency and productivity, service delivery, and cost reduction.
4. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent, and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into “daily services” (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term “key projects” that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Provide consumer education, outreach and technical assistance to District ratepayers and consumers on matters relating to natural gas, electric, and telephone utilities. (2 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Consumer Assistance	On a daily basis, OPC provides consumers with pertinent information for city services, not provided by OPC. The agency receives many misdirected calls, and strives to ensure that residents needing assistance are referred to the correct city agency for service.	Daily Service
Daily Consumer Education Activities	OPC's consumer services division provides daily consumer education and outreach activity by attending and conducting various community meetings on a weekly and monthly basis.	Daily Service

2. Ensure effective advocacy on behalf of consumers and ratepayers of natural gas, electric, and telephone services in the District. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
OPC Consumer Advocacy	This operation describes the mission critical work OPC conducts in advocating for consumer regulatory issues.	Daily Service

3. Enhance agency operational efficiency to improve agency efficiency and productivity, service delivery, and cost reduction. (1 Activity)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Enhancing Agency Operational Efficiency	OPC is working efficiently and effectively to assist District consumers with individual inquiries and complaints regarding their utility services and billing on both an informal and formal basis. OPC staff is continuing its comprehensive consumer education program, which includes outreach to non-English speaking and senior consumers. OPC has a robust seniors outreach and education program that is a vital component of its consumer education and outreach program. OPC has enhanced its partnerships with AARP, the Office on Aging, and Commission on Aging. OPC staff educates seniors through presentations at community and mini-commission on aging meetings and at senior centers throughout the District. OPC staff also regularly updates the "Seniors Resource Guide" about home energy efficiency tips and changes in the District's utility markets. OPC's seniors outreach and education program is designed to assist seniors in managing their utility services costs.	Daily Service

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Key Performance Indicators measure how well an agency is achieving its Strategic Objectives. They are outcome-oriented and should be used to answer the question, "What does the agency need to measure to determine success?"

1. Provide consumer education, outreach and technical assistance to District ratepayers and consumers on matters relating to natural gas, electric, and telephone utilities. (2 Measures)

Measure	New Measure/ Benchmark Year	FY 2015 Actual	FY 2016 Actual	FY 2016 Target	FY 2017 Target	FY 2018 Target

Division Description

The Department of Insurance, Securities, and Banking operates through the following 9 divisions:

Insurance – monitors the financial solvency of insurance companies and Health Maintenance Organizations (HMO) operating in the District of Columbia; issues licenses to insurance companies, insurance producers, and related entities; resolves consumer complaints; approves rates and policy forms of insurance products marketed in the District; and monitors underwriting, policy holder services, claims, marketing, producer licensing, and the complaint handling processes of licensed insurers to ensure a viable insurance market in the District.

This division contains the following 5 activities:

- Insurance Products – reviews all types of insurance policy forms and actuarial memoranda to determine whether they conform to District insurance laws and regulations; analyzes rating rules, rate manuals and rating schedules; conducts actuarial and statistical analysis of rate increase requests; and maintains a database for claims and investment experience;
- Financial Surveillance – provides solvency and compliance monitoring, rate approval, and technical assistance for the insurance industry, other regulators, and the public so that there is a viable insurance market in the District;
- Health Maintenance Organization (HMO) – provides solvency and compliance monitoring, rate approval, and technical assistance for the HMO industry, other regulators, and the public so that there is a viable managed care insurance market in the District;
- DC Market Operations Insurance – provides for administrative support and the required tools for the bureau to achieve operational and programmatic results; and
- Health Insurance Review – reviews health insurance rate filings submitted for products sold in the District to ensure compliance with District law and federal health care reform; conducts analysis on rate filing trends; and provides consumer information on health insurance rates.

Securities – oversees the regulatory activities of stock brokerage and investment firms in the District to proactively protect District residents against malpractice and fraud by securities professionals, and to ensure proper marketing and disclosure of securities products in compliance with the District Code.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Corporate Finance – reviews and analyzes securities offerings to investors to ensure full disclosure with the District's securities laws;
- Securities Licensing – reviews and approves, subject to District laws, investment advisors, investment advisor representatives, broker-dealers, and broker-dealer agents doing business in the District; and
- DC Market Operations Securities – provides for administrative support and the required tools for the bureau to achieve operational and programmatic results.

Enforcement – directs programs designed to detect and take actions against individuals and companies engaged in fraudulent financial operations and services, and investigates compliance complaints.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Enforcement – ensures observance of District laws by providing remedies to individuals, insurance, securities and banking entities and other jurisdictions in order to prevent, detect, and prosecute insurance, securities and banking fraudulent activities;
- Investigations – responds to inquiries and complaints from consumers, and investigates and establishes the underlying facts to ensure adherence with the District's financial services and relevant consumer protection laws; and

- DC Market Compliance Enforcement – provides technical and administrative support for the bureau to achieve operational and programmatic results.

Banking – regulates the activities of depository and non-depository financial institutions within the District to protect consumers from unfair practices by conducting timely financial examinations and providing a fair financial market that benefits District consumers and businesses.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Licensing – reviews and approves, subject to District laws, District chartered banks, mortgage lenders and brokers, loan originators, money transmitters, check cashers, money lenders, and consumer credit service organizations doing business in the District;
- Market Services – administers the foreclosure mediation, Certified Capital Company (CAPCO), and State Small Business Credit Initiative programs; and
- DC Market Operations Banking – provides for administrative support and the required tools for the bureau to achieve operational and programmatic results.

Risk Finance – reviews and approves licensing applications for the formation of captive insurance companies and maintains regulatory oversight of captive insurers and risk retention groups that operate or plan to do business in the District.

This division contains the following 4 activities:

- Compliance – provides solvency and compliance monitoring and technical assistance for the captive insurance industry and other regulators to maintain a viable alternative insurance market in the District;
- Financial Analysis – analyzes financial and actuarial reports to ensure captive insurance companies and risk retention groups maintain capital and surplus required under District law;
- Regulatory Review and Licensing – reviews and approves, subject to District laws, licensing applications of captive insurance companies and risk retention groups, and provides technical assistance to other regulators; and
- DC Market Operations Risk Finance – provides for administrative support and the required tools for the bureau to achieve operational and programmatic results.

Market Examinations – conducts on-site examinations of all domiciled insurance companies; inspects District-based investment advisers and broker-dealers, District-chartered banks, and non-depository financial services institutions doing business in the District; monitors solvency of financial firms doing business in the District of Columbia; and develops comprehensive analysis of financial services market to identify current and emerging systematic issues and coordinate regulatory actions.

This division contains the following 4 activities:

- Insurance Exams – provides solvency and compliance monitoring of insurance companies to ensure compliance with District laws;
- Securities Exams – performs examinations of financial condition and regulatory compliance of securities firms and their representatives;
- Banking Exams – provides chartering, examination and enforcement services pertaining to District chartered banks and District licensed non-depository institutions; and
- Risk Finance Exams – provides solvency and compliance monitoring and technical assistance for the captive insurance industry and other regulators.

Compliance Analysis – provides research and analysis of industry sectors to establish best practices, and coordinates information from the Market Examinations Bureau with other bureaus to identify and define key market factors that drive changes in each industry sector.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Consumer Services – reviews consumer complaints regarding financial institutions and firms operating in the District to determine compliance with District laws and regulations, and conducts analysis and investigates matters regarding consumer issues;
- Market Research Analysis – provides research and analysis of industry sectors to establish "best practices" standards and guidelines for design, delivery, and results monitoring of financial products and services; and
- DC Market Compliance Analysis – provides technical and administrative support for the bureau to achieve operational and programmatic results.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

Agency Financial Operations – provides comprehensive and efficient financial management services to, and on behalf of, District agencies so that the financial integrity of the District of Columbia is maintained. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Department of Insurance, Securities, and Banking's (DISB) proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $28,747,797, which represents an 8.9 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $26,404,148. The budget is comprised of $200,000 in Local funds, $457,172 in Federal Grant funds, $27,965,625 in Special Purpose Revenue funds, and $125,000 in Intra-District funds.

Agency Budget Submission

Increase: DISB's FY 2018 budget proposal in Federal Grant funds increased by $457,172 to include the Insurance Market Reform federal grant.

The Special Purpose Revenue funds proposed budget includes an increase of $828,300 in Contractual Services, primarily in the Banking, Insurance, and Agency Management divisions to support the enhancement of the Financially Fit DC Program, anticipated increases in foreclosure mediation costs, and increases in premium tax examination consultants. DISB's proposed budget also includes an increase of $646,702 in Special Purpose Revenue funds in the Agency Management Division, across multiple Comptroller Source Groups, to support an office building relocation for the agency. Additionally, the budget includes a net increase of $209,085 in nonpersonal services in Other Services and Charges and Equipment and Equipment Rental, primarily in the Securities, Insurance, and Enforcement divisions to support the purchase of platform equipment for the new STAR system, various technology and software upgrades, and anticipated increases in the Case Management System (CMS) maintenance. The budget proposal includes a net increase of $2,391 in personal services across multiple divisions to account for salary step increases and Fringe Benefit adjustments and the realignment of Full-Time Equivalents (FTEs) to support program initiatives.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

No Change: The Department of Insurance, Securities, and Banking's budget proposal reflects no change from the agency budget submission to the Mayor's proposed budget.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The budget proposal includes an increase of $200,000 in one-time funding in the Banking division for a feasibility study for the establishment of a public bank in the District of Columbia.

Agency Performance Plan

Department of Insurance, Securities, and Banking's (DISB) performance plan has the following objectives for FY 2018:

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Objectives describe what the agency will do, at a high level, to achieve its mission. These are action-based sentences that define what an agency does for its customers, whether the customers are residents or other District agencies, and how that improves the District.

Objectives

1. Provide high quality and efficient consumer protection services to District residents and businesses.
2. Provide high quality and cost effective regulation of financial services providers to ensure compliance with District laws.
3. Establish the District as a premier destination for financial services firms by coordinating with other agencies to increase the number of financial services industry jobs available for District residents, and to generate additional revenue for the District.
4. Provide high quality services to financially empower residents and create pathways to the middle class.
5. Provide valuable assistance and support to District based small businesses and entrepreneurs that will create or retain jobs.
6. Create and maintain a highly efficient, transparent and responsive District government.

ACTIVITIES

Activities include the work that happens on a daily basis to help achieve the Strategic Objectives. Activity names come from the budget line items. This is further divided into "daily services" (ex. sanitation disposal), and long-term "key projects" that are high profile, one-time and span several years, (ex. redevelopment of Walter Reed Army Medical Center). Many agencies will mostly have daily services, whereas some agencies that have more of their budget come from capital funding will have several key projects.

1. Provide high quality and efficient consumer protection services to District residents and businesses. (5 Activities)

Activity Title	Activity Description	Type of Activity
Outreach Campaigns	Conduct outreach campaigns to provide residents with information that will help them make informed choices about financial services offerings (e.g., DC Saves Week, Financial Literacy Month, DASH for the STASH and the Financial Fitness Challenge).	Key Project
Financial Education Events	Hold at least two in-person financial education events in every Ward by the end of the fiscal year.	Key Project
Consumer Alerts	Publish and distribute consumer alerts, guides, and articles to inform consumers about financial services issues and to help prevent them from becoming victims of scams and abuses.	Key Project
Complaint Activity	Review complaint activity to identify trends that are adverse to the interests of consumers.	Key Project
Trend Analysis	Utilize trend analysis from complaint activity to develop education and enforcement initiatives to address the trends and improve outcomes for consumers.	Key Project

Program Description

The Housing Authority Subsidy operates through the following 3 programs:

Rental Assistance Support – provides continued rental assistance to low-income District of Columbia households that are currently housed.

Local Rent Supplement – provides rental assistance for extremely low-income families and individuals through a housing program similar to the Federal Housing Choice Voucher program. The housing subsidy is provided through tenant-based, project-based, and sponsor-based assistance.

This program contains the following 2 activities:

- Tenant-Based Vouchers - are provided directly to families or individuals, who can use the voucher for any rental unit under the Fair Market Rent in the District. The voucher stays with the family, even if they decide to move to another rental unit in the District; and
- Project and Sponsor-Based Vouchers - Project-based vouchers are provided to for-profit or non-profit developers for specific units that they make available to low-income families. Unlike tenant-based vouchers, these vouchers are not portable and stay with the unit. The units must be made affordable over the life of the project. Although it is not required, many project-based vouchers are awarded to developments that also provide supportive services, such as counseling, to the low-income residents. Sponsor-based vouchers are awarded to a landlord or non-profit group for affordable units they make available to low-income families. Unlike project-based vouchers, these vouchers are portable and can be moved to another unit run by the non-profit or landlord. Sponsor-based vouchers are awarded only to groups that agree to provide supportive services to residents housed in the affordable units.

Public Safety – provides funding that supports DCHA's Public Safety force, which complements local law enforcement efforts by focusing on crime prevention and law enforcement in and around DCHA's public housing communities.

Program Structure Change

The Housing Authority Subsidy has no program structure changes in the FY 2018 proposed budget.

FY 2018 Proposed Budget Changes

The Housing Authority Subsidy's proposed FY 2018 gross budget is $85,980,465, which represents a 22.9 percent increase over its FY 2017 approved gross budget of $69,947,560. The budget is comprised entirely of Local funds.

Current Services Funding Level

The Current Services Funding Level (CSFL) is a Local funds ONLY representation of the true cost of operating District agencies, before consideration of policy decisions. The CSFL reflects changes from the FY 2017 approved budget across multiple programs, and it estimates how much it would cost an agency to continue its current programs and operations into the following fiscal year. The FY 2018 CSFL adjustments to the FY 2017 Local funds budget are described in table 5 of this agency's budget chapter. Please see the CSFL Development section within Volume 1: Executive Summary for more information regarding the methodology used and components that comprise the CSFL.

The Housing Authority Subsidy's FY 2018 CSFL budget is $69,947,560, which reflects no change from its FY 2017 approved Local funds budget of $69,947,560.

Agency Budget Submission

No Change: The Housing Authority Subsidy's budget proposal reflects no change from the CSFL to the agency budget submission.

Mayor's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The Housing Authority Subsidy's budget proposal reflects an increase of $6,364,690 to support the continued implementation of Homeward DC. The Department of Human Services (DHS), in conjunction with the Interagency Council on Homelessness (ICH) and other agency partners, have developed a five-year strategic plan. The objectives of the plan is to transform the Continuum of Care, from a shelter-focused system, to a model that uses resources in a manner that helps individuals and families access housing and other support needed to end homelessness.

District's Proposed Budget

Enhance: The Housing Authority Subsidy's budget proposal reflects an increase of $9,668,215 in Local funds. This amount includes $4,669,235 to provide housing support for individuals and families experiencing homelessness; $2,598,980 to support tenant-based rental subsidies for low-income residents; and $2,400,000 to support project and sponsor-based subsidies to make affordable housing units for low-income residents.

The subsidy account previously reflected the total Dedicated Taxes (General Fund) transfer to the Housing Production Trust Fund (HPTF) to fulfill its operational obligations during a budgetary year. It now reflects any Local funds transfer to the HPTF.

Summary of Services

The HPTF, which is administered by the District of Columbia's Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD), is a legally separate entity for which the elected officials of the District of Columbia are financially accountable. Details of the HPTF's operating budget are provided in the Enterprise and Other Funds section of the budget document.

In FY 2007, a subsidy account for this entity was created to show the annual transfer of dedicated deed recordation and deed transfer taxes from the District's General Fund to the HPTF. In total, 15 percent of these tax revenues are dedicated to the HPTF. This 15 percent share was budgeted in two agencies. First, the amount required for debt service on borrowing for New Communities projects was budgeted in the Repayment of Revenue Bonds agency, in the Financing and Other appropriation title. Second, the remaining amount of the 15 percent share was budgeted in the HPTF Subsidy agency, to be transferred to the HPTF. Beginning in FY 2013, these funds were deposited directly into the HPTF; thus, there is no transfer of Dedicated Taxes through the General Fund. There was a transfer of Local funds to the HPTF through this agency in FY 2013, FY 2014, and FY 2016, and a Local funds transfer is also budgeted in FY 2017.
